Teacher Salary Data Released

tion is provided for 20 and 25 years of teaching service with 70 percent of the service spent in Garrett County schools.

Based on negotiated beginning salaries for next year from all Maryland subdivisions, Garrett will maintain the lowest starting pay for public school teachers in the state. The maximum pay negotiated will also have this figure, according to Mr. Flinn.

Presently Garrett's starting pay of $7,500 ranks lowest in the state and is $655 less than the state average. Only Allegany, Caroline, Somerset, Washington, and Queen Anne's counties have lower than $8,000 starting pay figures.

Garrett's maximum pay this year with a Master's degree and 16 years' experience is $12,050, 23rd of 24 subdivisions in Maryland. Although Somerset county teachers reach $11,600, the lowest maximum pay, they reach it after only 13 years' teaching experience.

Mr. Shaffer announced that recent figures supplied by the state association and the state department of education indicate that the county's ability to support schools do not support such standings.

In a compilation of assessed value of real and personal property plus net taxable income per capita, Garrett's $7,217 per person ranks 16th of Maryland's 24 subdivision, Mr. Shaffer noted, which he said indicates a greater ability towards funding than is indicated in the county's teacher standing in Maryland.

Garrett's total disbursement for current expenses and instrucuctional salaries and wages within the county school system ranks 20th of 24 subdivisions. County's cost per pupil for current expenses is $732.31 excluding the state's share of teachers' retirement, social security, and transportation. It is the lowest of Maryland's school systems while cost per pupil for current expenses in administration is $23.27, or 17th in Maryland.

Revenue for current expenses during the 1973-74 school year came primarily from state sources, 57.6 percent; federal, 10.8 percent; local, 30.5 percent; non-revenue sources, 1.1 percent. Only two other subdivisions (Caroline and Somerset) receive less in percentage funding level into its total school budget from local sources than Garrett.

In basic state aid for current expenses in 1973-74, Garrett's wealth per pupil ranks 19th in Maryland with $23,311. This figure is arrived at by taking total local wealth divided by number of pupils enrolled.

Professional staff assigned to schools in Garrett for the 1974-75 year is 306 or 53.4 per 1,000 pupils enrolled and ranks 20th in Maryland.

Ann Smith First Woman On Indiana Ambulance Crew

Paramedic Ann Smith has become the first woman to ride with the ambulance crews in South Bend, Indiana.

Miss Smith, who will graduate this month from St. Mary's College Notre Dame, Indiana, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Smith, Pittsburgh, and granddaughter of Mrs. Fulcher P. Smith, Oakland and the late Fulcher P. Smith.

Ann works two days a week, often twelve hour shifts, for no pay. She prepared for her ambulance work-study program last summer by taking emergency medical training at the Police and Fire Academy in Pittsburgh, where she had 81 hours in class and 40 hours of practical training. At the end of the course she was certified by the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation.

After graduation, Ann hopes to stay in the paramedical field, and would like to further her training and become involved in regional health planning.

Miss Smith has been active in school and community activities as well, serving as hall president; member of Executive Board of Student Government; Red Cross Volunteer and coordinator of the Red Cross Blood drive. She is also an associate member of the Southern Garrett County Rescue squad and was a Girl Scout leader from 1969 to 1971.

Among her educational experiences have been two trips to France, one to Strasbourg and one to Cannes.

Judge Hamill Finds Two Men Guilty Of Larceny Monday

Two persons found guilty of larceny of shrubbery have been released on continuation of bond pending a pre-sentence investigation ordered by Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., following a trial Monday. The removal of four charges was denied in another case.

Ted Moreland, Gorman, and Oren Martin, Red Oak, both pleaded not guilty of larceny of shrubbery from Arborvale Corp. at Weber's Crossing, valued at $825 on February 27, and receiving stolen goods in the same incident. Judge Hamill found them both guilty on the count of larceny. The charge of receiving stolen goods, in both cases, was dismissed and merged with the larceny count. A pre-sentence investigation was ordered. Moreland was released on continuation of property bond and Martin was released on continued cash bond.

Charles Paugh, Deer Park, charged on the same two counts, requested postponement of trial and was ordered remanded to the custody of the sheriff's department pending posted bond of $500.

The motion of removal of four charges against Roger Lee Mattingly, Oakland, was denied by Judge Hamill at a hearing on Monday. The suggestion of removal of charges of burglary at the residence of Isabell Ackles, larceny of a rifle there, daytime house breaking and grand larceny, was made May 13. The charge of rape against Mattingly was not involved in this hearing.

Leroy Anderson, popular composer, died at age 65.

The third district VFW meeting in Cumberland on Sunday, May 4 was attended by several of the local post.

Installation of officers will occur at the armory in Oakland on Sunday afternoon, May 25, at 2 o'clock.

Northern Baseball Team Wins Again

Northern High baseball team captured its ninth win of the season in 11 outings, blasting Oldtown High 21 to 0 Tuesday afternoon at Oldtown.

Ron Teets whose no-hitter was broken up by a fourth-inning single by Bill Slider, got the win over Steve Brown.

Ken Sines had four hits for the Huskies while Paugh had three. Mike Cooper and Kevin Steckman had Oldtown's only other hits.

Fire Doused At Red Run Inn, Theatre Saturday

Deep Creek Volunteer firemen were called to Red Run Inn and Theatre Saturday evening about 8:55 when a gas stove in the kitchen overheated.

Fourteen firemen from Deep Creek responded to the call, and Oakland stood by for an assist. Damage was slight and was confined mainly to a wall behind the stove.

Although patrons were evacuated for approximately one-half hour, business was able to be resumed Sunday as usual.

The Deep Creek company was also called to a grass fire May 11 east of McHenry along Bumblebee Road, but there was no damage.

The fire is thought to have been caused by a downed electric line.

Off-Road Vehicles Fun For Drivers, Rough On Wildlife

Owners of an estimated 7.5 million off-road vehicles --snowmobiles, trail motorcycles, dune buggies, mini-bikes, all-terrain vehicles and hovercraft — attest to the unique pleasures derived from their use. The "ORVS," as these recreational machines are known, enable their owners to "get back to nature."

But ironically, some ORV drivers are unwittingly, and others wilfully, destroying the very thing they set out to enjoy: the natural world around them.

When improperly used, ORVs can inflict irreparable damage on nature's ecosystem. They can destroy wildlife habitat, cause soil erosion, create noise and litter, disturb wildlife, and seriously disrupt other types of recreation.

Because of this growing problem, the National Wildlife Federation is pressing the Bureau of Land Management to adopt new regulations that will limit the use of ORVs on public property.

27 Get Degrees At 3rd College Commencement

in the General Studies curriculum.

The graduates, members of their families and guests heard the college's founding president, Dr. Luther G. Shaw, speak of education and opportunity in the commencement address, "The Door Not Taken." As vice-president of Student Government Association, Douglas L. Sites, gave the class farewell address and presented Dr. Shaw with a portrait which will be displayed in the entrance lobby of the administration building.

Guests were welcomed to the commencement by Dr. Bruce G. Jenkins, Associate Dean of Instruction, who presided over the ceremony. Invocation and benediction were given by Rev. Arthur J. Gotjen, adjunct professor of biology. Members of the faculty who served as marshals were C. Dennis Fearnow, Dr. Lillian R. Mitchell, Raymond Alexander, and Randall Harman. Student flagbearers were Robert Crone, Kathleen Russell, and Gregory Eberhart.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, Herbert Harman and Mr. Diehl presented Dr. Shaw with a plaque and expressed appreciation for his leadership and achievements during the 5 years of his presidency. They also announced that the college Learning Center will be named in his honor.

Platform guests for the commencement were State Senator Edward J. Mason, County Commissioners Wayne B. Hamilton and Don Bender, Dr. William Buser, Superintendent of County Schools, William Goldsborough, Maryland State Board of Education, and Dr. Wesley N. Dorn, Executive Director, Maryland Council for Higher Education.

Organist Ms. F. Marcella Kerns played the tradition strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" for the academic processional of robed graduates, administrators, faculty members, and honored guests. The ceremony closed with the recessional to Verdi's "Grand March from Aida."

Commissioners To Receive Keys To Buses At Program

A Key ceremony, during which time the keys of the new buses of the Garrett Bus system will be presented to the County Commisioners, has been planned by Fred G. Mullich, director of the system.

The date was set for Tuesday, June 3, at 1:30 p.m., and the program will commemorate the putting into service of the new Transcoach vehicles for the system.

A tentative place for the ceremony was scheduled for the National Guard armory in Oakland, High and Eighth streets, but the place could not be confirmed until the return of the commander from summer training.

Refreshments will be served prior to the ceremony with one of the vehicles on display. There will be a statement by a county commissioner and introduction of guests, a statement by representative of the local Commission on Aging, Inc., and a statement by a representative of the Maryland Department of Transportation, culminating in presentation of the vehicle keys to the county commissioners.

A short ride on the new vehicles will then be taken through the Pleasant Valley area.

Third graders in Mrs. Jean Noel's art class at Dennett Road School stand between displays of art work which will be exhibited next Wednesday in conjunction with a P.T.A. meeting and the annual spring band and choral concert. Left to right above are Timmy Tharp, Sally Dillsworth, Gordon Gregory, and Dawn Friend. The fruit on the table is of sawdust, to the right is paper sculpture, and behind the children are tissue flower pictures. These and many other objects and pictures will be on display in the hallway of the school next Wednesday, May 28. Band members will perform such numbers as "Battle Hymn of the Republic", "Down by the Station", and "Songs of the Carpenters Vol. II" beginning at 7:30, and the chorus will conclude the program at 8:30 with such songs as "Amazing Grace", "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing", and "Candy Man". Mrs. Noel, who feels art is a means of communication and a response to the world around us, used many mediums in her class, ranging from crayons, chalk, charcoal, corrugated paper, clay, plaster of paris, and cloth to newspaper. Activities included abstract, realistic, monochromatic and finger painting; paper designs and collages; charcoal, chalk and pencil drawings; and 3-D work with strip paper sculpture, foam, mobiles, clay, papier mache.

Soccer is the basic source of Rugby, American football, and Australian Rules, all of which are derived from this very old sport. Football clubs were formed from 1820 onward. Apprentices played football in city streets. Eventually the game was introduced into public schools, where it received a new social standing. Each school created their own style of game, which of necessity depended on the size and shape of the playing ground.

Sam Storey Wins Bass Tournament

Seventy-eight fishermen participated in the annual Maryland Bass Federation's elimination tournament held over the weekend at Deep Creek Lake.

Winner of the tournament was Sam Storey, who had a string of fish weighing 11 pounds, seven ounces, by the close of the 20-hour contest. Mr. Storey also hooked the largest single bass, a largemouth weighing seven pounds, 14 ounces. Mr. Storey had no luck at all on Saturday, but won the contest with his Sunday catch.

In second place was Ted Blusiewicz, whose catch totaled seven pounds, 11 ounces. His string included the largest smallmouth bass caught, a four pound, one ounce specimen.

Third was Ron Dorn, with five pounds, 13 ounces; fourth was Tom Dietz, five pounds, nine ounces; and fifth was Don Moore, four pounds, 14 ounces.

These men will compete in September in an undisclosed spot in the national bass fishing contest.

In the two days of competition fishing, only 41 fish were caught. One man, here from Wednesday through Friday for so-called practice days, caught fifty bass, but during the actual contest caught only one bass.

All fish caught during the tournament and in the two days' practice time preceding the tournament were returned to the lake.

The tournament concluded Sunday evening with a dinner at Village Inn with Bill Burton, outdoor editor for the Baltimore Sun and master of ceremonies of an outdoor show on WMAR-TV, as guest speaker. Tom Thayer was local master of ceremonies, and James Coulter, Maryland secretary of the Maryland Department of Natural Resources, presented a state flag to the Maryland Bass Federation.

Fishermen came from 13 bass fishing clubs in the state for the contest. The nearest club is located in Hagerstown. This is the first year the elimination tournament has been held in this county, and the only remark heard which could be construed as a complaint was that the lake is "too clear."

The contest was sponsored by the Pepsi Cola Bottling Company, Cumberland; Deep Creek Lake - Garrett County Promotion council, and Johnny's Bait House, where the fish were checked.

An Alabama county is anticipating a new oil find.

The Master's Touch

God must love beauty, to use it so lavishly. The Master Artist dapples the soft green leaves with golden sunshine, turns the brook to flowing crystal, and puts a song into Spring itself.

There is beauty in us, too . . . because He put it there. In His sight, none of us are ugly, none of us are forsaken, none of us are "lost."

But sometimes, in the busy process of day-to-day living, we turn blind eyes upon the world's loveliness, and take for granted the gifts which should brighten the hours and years. We need a faith that gives us vision to find again the inner beauty He gave us in the beginning . . . a gift which He never takes away. Let us go, then, to His Church. Let us "enter into His gates with thanksgiving . . . for the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His Truth endureth forever."

EDIFACE COMPLEX

Lesson for May 25, 1975

Background Scripture: Isaiah 31:1-3; Jeremiah 7:1-15; 26; Micah 6:6-8. Devotional Reading: Matthew 6:1-8.

The ancient Egyptians had it.

The Greeks of old had it.

The Romans and Jews had it, too.

. . . not to mention many Christians!

What?

Rev. Althouse

The Ediface Complex!

Deceptive Words

This complex is seductively dangerous to all religions, for it manages to divert our attention from the core of the religion (usually an invisible, intangible essence) to something very visible and very tangible, a building, a religious ediface.

With the Jews, of course, the "ediface complex" was centered on the temple at Jerusalem. To use the term "complex" does not mean that there was anything necessarily wrong with the ediface. In fact, the centralization of worship in the Jerusalem temple was a very unifying force in the nation of Israel. It was a constant, impressive, and very visible reminder of the presence and power of God. There was nothing wrong with the theology of temple worship.

But what was wrong is what always goes wrong when the "ediface complex" infiltrates a religion: the importance of the ediface is distorted way out of proportion. That point is reached when unwittingly the ediface becomes a substitute for God himself, when people look to the building instead of the spiritual reality the building is supposed to represent.

Whenever the people of Israel were threatened, says the prophet Jeremiah, they tended to look to the magnificent temple of Solomon as their security: "This is the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord" (Jeremiah 7:4). Nothing could be more deceptive than these words that reek of the "ediface complex." They are indicative of a false sense of security.

The Shiloh example

The prophet invited the smug people of Israel to remember the example God set for them at Shiloh, the first centralized site of Jewish sacrificial worship. This sanctuary in the Samaritan mountains was destroyed by God because the people who worshipped there were blithely immoral. No sanctuary is safe or secure simply because it is a place of worship.

So it could happen even to the beautiful temple of Solomon in Jerusalem. What angered God was the moral behavior of the people who worshipped in that temple. These people did not see any connection between their worship of God and their moral behavior. They had eyes only for the ediface, not that which lay behind it.

Jeremiah was not the only one to understand this: it was a constant theme of many of the prophets of Israel. The Prophet Micah, for example, put it this way: "With what shall I come before the Lord. Shall I come before him with burnt offerings?" (Micah 6:6). And his plain answer was that none of these rituals with the ediface itself were what God [illegible] wanted:

"He has showed you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?"

Introducing Your Sheriff Department

John C. Leitz, 54, is one of the newer members of the Garrett County Sheriff's office, having been sworn in December 30, 1974. He is currently working in the northern portion of the county in the Friendsville area.

Born October 1, 1920 in Baltimore, he was a resident there until December 1974 when he moved to Garrett County. He and his wife, Evelyn Louise Leitz, had maintained a residence in the county since 1966.

He and his wife have two grown children, Bob Leitz and Christine David, both of whom reside in the Baltimore area.

Prior to entering the sheriff's department here, Deputy Leitz served 24 years with the Baltimore City Police Department, retiring in December 1974 with the rank of Sergeant. During his career there, he spent time in the Patrol division and served 8½ years as an instructor in the Police Academy, teaching a variety of general police subjects. He finished his career in the Tactical section where his function was emergency services, crowd control and the rendering safe and disposition of clandestine explosives and incendiary devices.

Since joining the sheriff's department he is engaged in conducting in-service training for the members of that department.

During his career in Baltimore, he received two commendation ribbons for outstanding achievement and also the police commissioner ribbon for services during the 1968 civil disturbances.

Among his certificates for specialized schooling while a member of the Baltimore PD are the Maryland Police Training Commission Teaching Certificate; U.S. Department of Justice - Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs; Baltimore PD - Police Leadership and Administration; FBI - Law Officers Training School; International Association of Chiefs of Police - Police Management; U.S. Marine Corps - Instructor Orientation course; Department of the Army - Bomb and Sabotage Training, Explosive and Incendiary Recognition; Identification and Recognition of Clandestine Devices; Recognition and Identification of Hazardous Devices; Bomb Threats and Defense Against Civil Disturbances and Sabotage; Md. Police Training Commission - Bomb Seminar; Baltimore Junior College - Basic Driver Education; Catonsville Community College, Motor Fleet Supervisors Workshop Disaster Control and Civil Defense - Disaster Services, Radiological Meter Operator; and five certificates from the Baltimore PD for in-service training.

He attended schools in Baltimore, including St. James Parochial Grammar School, Baltimore City College, (high school), and graduated from the Community College of Baltimore with honors in June 1972 with an Associate of Arts degree in Law Enforcement, where he had an average of 3.692 out of a possible 4.0.

During World War II he served in the U.S. Army spending 18 months overseas in the European Theatre of operations, getting two battle stars for the Rhineland and Central Europe campaigns.

Deputy Leitz is a member of the National Rifle Association; American Legion Post No. 130; Fraternal Order of Police, Baltimore Lodge No. 3; Delmar and Potomac Chapter of Bomb Technicians and Investigators.

TWENTY-FIVE YEAR MEMBERS — Two members of Garrett Lodge No. 113, Knights of Pythias received 25-year certificates at a regular meeting of the order last Thursday evening. They were presented by Lawrence Groves, chancellor commander, center. Recipients were Willard Hayden, left, and Ben Knepp, Jr., right. Eligible for 25-year certificates were two others, who were unable to be present. They were Robert Holt and Robert Dodge. It was indicated that some 50-year jewels may be presented to two or three members the first meeting night in June.

Events Above The Mountain Top

Paul S. Frank, Jr.

Lunar Eclipse

The moon will pass through the earth's shadow early Sunday morning. It will enter the darkest part of the shadow at 1:21 a.m. By 2:06 a.m. the moon will be in the exact center of the shadow. At this time the full moon will appear deep reddish-orange in color.

It is easy to observe changes in brightness of the moonlight during the eclipse as well as the changes in the color of the moon as it passes through the shadow. For those who desire to observe the entire eclipse, observations should begin at midnight and extend until 3:54 a.m. so that the entire penetration of the earth's shadow may be seen.

Changes in the color of the moon are due to the refraction of the sunlight passing close to the earth by the atmosphere. These bent light rays are reflected from the moon so that it appears differently and does not usually disappear in the shadow. The condition of the earth's atmosphere changes from eclipse to eclipse so that the exact color changes may not be predicted with certainty.

Full Moon occurs at 2:09 a.m. Sunday. The moon will rise at 5:58 p.m. today. By Wednesday moonrise will not occur until 11:34 pm.

Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn are easily visible this week. Mercury is to the lower right of Venus and is just above the west horizon an hour after sunset. Venus is the brightest object in the west sky. It forms an isosceles triangle with Castor and Pollux in Gemini. Saturn will be very close to Venus on Friday evening. Mars rises about an hour and a half before the sun among the stars of Aquarius. Jupiter rises about an hour before the sun and is the brightest object in the predawn sky.

Column For Homemakers

By Mrs. Freda Denison Extension Agent

Garrett County Heritage

Garrett County Homemakers are proud of their Heritage and expressed this feeling with a program on "Show and Tell".

The guest speaker was Mrs. Robert Dickinson. She gave a history on stitchery and had a lovely display of Crewel Embroidery she had done. Mrs. Dickinson is a Home Economist and has taught a class in stitchery at the Community College at McHenry.

Three Homemakers, Mrs. Jonas Beachy, Mrs. Foster Yost, and Mrs. George Bowser gave a short history of Maple Sugar Making. They made maple sugar cakes and showed how to pull taffy.

The Instrumental music was provided by two young homemakers from the Bittinger area, Mrs. Joyce Brenneman and Mrs. Joyce Miller. Their music was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Reuben Fazenbaker, County Council Vice President presided over the meeting. Mrs. Freda Denison gave remarks on College Days and encouraged women and husbands to attend.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

For some time there has been an increasing tendency to misspell and mispronounce the name of one of our old landmarks, Broad Ford. This now is often spelled "Broadford" with an accompanying ridiculous pronunciation of "Broadferd." Taking this erroneous spelling by the newspapers, and the incorrect pronunciation by certain local radio commentators as their cue, the public is being misled.

If this continues, we reasonably may expect in the future to see Deer Park become "Deerpurk;" Loch Lynn "Locklin;" Terra Alta "Terawlta," etc. Do any of the residents of these comunities desire such changes? Surely they do not.

Broad Ford, the little stream that helps to form and gives its name to the new Broad Ford Lake, heads just south of Route 219, is joined by Kings Run near where it crosses the old Deer Park road, about two miles west of Deer Park, and then meanders southeast to where it empties into the new lake. Doubtless in the old days it was forded, rather than crossed by way of a culvert as has been the case within the writer's long experience, but it would seem that whoever gave the stream and its ford the name must have been in an expansive mood, as the actual ford could not have been more than perhaps fifteen feet wide.

The historic road at this point is the original one dating from Washington's time, Westbound, crossing the Savage River at the Westvaco lumber yard, it climbed Backbone Mountain, passing through Swanton, to the Polly Ingman Inn; thence past the farms of Michael Garrett; John Riley (later the Andrew Pysell farm); the Anchorage (home of the Cumberland Perry families); the several Shaffer farms; the home of Major George Calmes, and on into Oakland and so to Morgantown.

With all the publicity now being given to the new Broad Ford Lake, this might be an appropriate time to restore the historic Broad Ford spelling, in newspapers and the various road and other markers, as well as the proper pronunciation.

Very truly yours,
Robert B. Garrett

Insurance FACTS

State governments exercise some control over many phases of the operations of insurers. The insurer is often continually regulated by the states. This is because most obligations of insurance companies extend years into the future. The state provides supervision in most cases to see that the promises in the most lengthy contracts are fulfilled. The strictest regulation of contracts is applied in fire insurance, where each of the states stipulates the exact wording for the standard fire insurance contract.

At GONDER INSURANCE AGENCY, 203-205 South 2nd St., Oakland, 334-3343, we pride ourselves on the completeness of our service. Commissioners Limit Speed On Deep Creek Drive

County road improvements were under discussion at the regular meeting of the County Commisioners. Commissioners Wayne Hamilton and Don Bender met with Swanton area residents concerning road conditions there. Speaking for the Roads department, Paul W. DeWitt, administrative engineer, told those present that work on the road would begin next month.

In other action involving roads, the commissioners adopted a resolution to post Deep Creek Drive with a 30 mile per hour speed limit sign and prohibit heavy truck traffic from using that road. The resolution was adopted in accordance with Article 25, Section 1, of the Annotated Code.

Commissioners said they took this action because of increasing hazards being caused by speeding vehicles.

Asks for Bus

Representatives of the Child Development Policy Council met with the commissioners to request a local match of $1,200 to purchase a small school bus for the Child Development program. They took the request under advisement, citing uncertainties in the upcoming budget on the availability of funds.

Tuesday Chairman Hamilton met as a representative of the Maryland Association of Counties with Secretary of Agriculture, Y. D. Hance, to discuss preservation of agricultural land in Maryland. Mr. Hamilton was asked to represent MACO because he is an official of a rural county and is in active farming himself.

Don Bender, chairman of the Roads board, went on a roads inspection trip to review road conditions in a portion of the county.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Brian David Beachy, who passed away one year ago, May 22, 1974.

No little child has ever come from God and stayed a brief while, returning again to the Father, without making glad the home, and leaving behind some trace of heaven. The family would count themselves poorer without those quaint sayings, those cunning caresses, that soft touch, that sudden smile. This short visit was not an incident; it was a blessing.

Industrial Users Notified Of Gas Allocations Cut

Major industrial users of natural gas in Garrett and Allegany counties have adopted a "wait-see" attitude on the announcement last week by Columbia Gas of Maryland that fuel allocations will be cut 55 percent by November.

The gas company's intended curtailment of industrial usage, due mainly to dwindling gas supplies, follows by less than six months a 10 percent cut last December.

The four industries affected locally are the Kaiser, Mt. Savage and Harbison-Walker Refractories and the Amcelle Plant of Celanese Corporation.

Harbison-Walker stated that the refractory process is wholly dependent on fuel of some sort, and is waiting to see just what fuel is available in November. Harbison-Walker, which fires two continuous kilns, can fire half of the kiln on fuel oil and the other half on natural gas, a capacity not possessed by other plants. The Grantsville plant can thus adjust to a temporary switch to fuel oil easier than could the other refractories.

However, fuel oil allocations will be based on usage last year, when the industries were using mostly gas, and it is possible that not enough fuel will be allocated to maintain present production levels.

Large volume industrial customers in Maryland were notified last week by letter from Columbia Gas of Maryland, whose manager for the Cumberland area, John S. Wilson, stated reasons for the curtailment.

Eleven large volume industrial customers in the state could anticipate a minimum curtailment of 55 percent below normal allocation during the five winter months beginning November 1. He cautioned that the curtailment projections are based on preliminary figures and could be increased.

Last winter industrial curtailment only reached ten percent in Maryland due to reduced consumption by some of the affected industrial customers.

Columbia Gas Transmission Corp., supplier for the Maryland company, has invested more than 800 million dollars since 1970 in the development of new gas suppliers. Programs include a synthetic gas plant now in operation in northwestern Ohio; construction of facilities to receive natural gas in liquid form from Algeria estimated to commence in 1977; acquisition of an interest in 32 tracts in the Gulf of Mexico to explore and develop new gas reserves, and participation in a group proposing the construction of a pipeline to bring natural gas from Alaska. If government approvals are received promptly, deliveries from Alaska could begin by 1980.

Last Week's Accidents Injure Several Persons

Held over from last week's copy with Saturday referring to May 10.

Several persons were injured in accidents last week through Saturday night. Some were treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital while others apparently received only slight injuries.

Richard Dean Rush, operator of the car and a passenger, Linda Sue Rush, both of RD 1, Oakland, were treated and released from the hospital following a three-car accident on Md. 135 near the Sand Flat road Saturday afternoon.

Rush was driving east on Rt. 135 and failed to reduce speed to avoid a collision with a car driven by James E. Kent, Mt. Lake Park. Kent was in the process of making a left turn into a private drive from eastbound on Rt. 135. Kent then crossed the highway attempting to avoid a collision, and struck the parked, unoccupied car of Rosalie V. Evans. Tfc. C. H. Hinnant charged Rush with failing to reduce speed to avoid a collision.

A one-car mishap late last Thursday sent three persons to the hospital where they were treated and released. Roy A. Dillsworth and his two passengers, Ruby and Roger Dillsworth, all of Swanton, were traveling east on a private road approaching Route 495. The operator applied his brakes and had none. He then lost control, ran off the left side of the road, down an embankment and turned over. Tfc. Ronald Lewis investigated.

In a two-car wreck last Saturday the passenger in each car sustained slight injuries. Anna Mae Sharnas, Lakewood, Ohio, was a passenger in a car operated by Joseph S. Eddins, Parma, Ohio and Patricia L. McGinnis, RD 2, Oakland, was a passenger in the car driven by Theodore N. Bishoff, RD 1, Rowlesburg, W. Va. Eddins was driving north on an unnamed road (Co. Rd. 343), in the Cove area. Through inattention of the operator, he failed to note the car driven by Bishoff turning left from McHenry road onto Co. Rd. 343, when the collision occurred. Bishoff had failed to grant the right-of-way and Tfc. Hinnant also charged him with displaying expired registration plates.

Another passenger was slightly injured last Friday afternoon in a two-pickup mishap on Md. 135 near Swanton Hill road. Hazel L. Barnard was riding in the pick-up driven by William Otto Barnard, both of Swanton.

Barnard had entered Rt. 135 and had gone about 200 feet westbound and was turning left into a private drive. Garrett E. Smith, Bridgeville, Pa., was passing Barnard at the time and the two collided in the eastbound lane.

Late the same night Ronald E. Paugh, Star Route 1, Oakland, was traveling west on the Glendale road just east of U.S. 219. Joseph F. Kamineck, Jr., of RD 4, Deer Park, in a pickup, turned left from Rt. 219 onto Glendale road, cut the corner too sharp and collided with the Paugh car. Tfc. Hinnant charged Kamineck with making an improper left turn.

Paul J. Himelrick, Terra Alta, W. Va., was traveling east on the Crellin road just east of the Dilly road last Saturday morning and lost control of his vehicle. The car went off the roadway and struck an embankment. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater charged Himelrick with operating while intoxicated.

Nancy J. Upole, RD 3, Deer Park, was traveling south on Md. 560 just south of the Garrett road last Saturday afternoon. Her car went out of control for some unknown reason. A witness stated the car swerved several times on the roadway, went over an embankment, struck a fence and came to rest astride a drainage ditch. Sgt. H. W. Graham investigated.

A two-vehicle accident occurred on U.S. 40 at Keyser Ridge last Saturday night.

Victor L. Kifer, McKeesport, Pa., was driving westbound on Rt. 40 as James R. Frantz, Star Route, Grantsville, was eastbound. Kifer crossed the roadway into the eastbound lane. Frantz noticed this and went left to avoid the Kifer car but the two collided. Tfc. Dale Williams charged Kifer with failing to keep to the right side the road and operating without a valid license.

Administrators Of Carroll Co. Here For Title I Tour

School administrators from Carroll County visited schools here Wednesday, May 14, to observe the services being provided children as part of the local E.S.E.A. Title I project.

Visiting were Sharon Butler, Frances Crawford, Virginia Reese, Ronald Burinsky, and Frank Wargny. They expressed special interest in the roles of the early childhood resource teachers and the parent-aides.

A morning meeting with local Title I personnel and elementary supervisors was held to present an overview of the program and to answer questions. The visitors, accompanied by Ernest Spoerlein and David Miller, toured Classrooms at Oak Street, Center Street, Friendsville and Grantsville schools talking with principals, teachers and children. They joined the parent-aides on visits to home to talk with parents. A luncheon meeting provided another opportunity for discussion with the various people involved in the program.

Construction decline is said to be stabilizing.

The skirt flowed softly into a chapel length train and was complemented with a wide hemline ruffle. Her fingertip veil of illusion, edged with matching lace, fell from a wide lace headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white daisies and babys breath.

Maid of honor was Frances Sorrels of Staunton, Va. Learning Center To Be Named In Dr. Shaw's Honor

The naming of the Garrett Community College Learning Center in honor of the college's founding president, Dr. Luther G. Shaw, was announced at commencement last week by Robert F. Diehl, vice-chairman for the Board of Trustees.

As Dr. Shaw shared farewells with members of the graduating class, expressions of gratitude for his leadership and service came from Herbert Harman who presented a plaque from the Board of Trustees as a token of their appreciation, and from Douglas L. Sites, vice-president of the Student Government Association.

In his farewell message as commencement speaker, Dr. Shaw chose "The Door Not Taken" to express his views on the need for educators and students to realize the full implications of the community college open door policy.

"Unlike Robert Frost's poem in which there was a choice of only two roads," he said, "this college offers to all of us here the choice of three open doors- a revolving door, a closet door, and a door of opportunity — and each of us here must make the decision as to which of these doors he will enter."

Dr. Shaw's hopes for the future came in his closing words with a reference to the "Impossible Dream" that was realized with the building of the college. "I am sure that the door WE take will be the one to assure that at Garrett Community College the dream will live on."

Three others, Kathy Ann Diedrich, Lynn Jean Huber and Janet Lynn Graffam, all 18, and from Pittsburgh, pleaded not guilty on the same charge and the plea was sustained. A fifth girl involved, a juvenile, was not charged.

John Edward Grider, no home address, had been charged with vagrancy by wandering about Bradley Manor and other public buildings, intoxicated, with no money and no home address and deemed a vagrant. The case was dismissed at a trial Tuesday as the state did not wish to prosecute at this time.

Area Boy Scouts Earn Advancement

Fifteen Boy Scouts in the Deep Creek District of Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America, have earned advancement awards in the first quarter of 1975 for meeting a progressive series of requirements in various skills. This was reported by Dr. James Fearer, Deep Creek District Advancement Chairman.

Highest rank approved so far this year was for Star Scout to the following: Donley Uphold, of Troop 75, Bayard, W. Va., John Johnston, scout master; Kevin L. Biser, Troop 70, Mt. Lake Park, Leo Martin, Scout Master.

Dr. Fearer also announced that fifty scouts earned a total of sixty-seven merit badges during the quarter. The merit badge program encourages scouts to explore worthwhile fields of interest to help them find what kinds of activities they like best and those for which they are best suited. The program also offers further training in scouting fundamentals and skills.

"In addition to the new knowledge a scout acquires, the badges are required for Star, Life, and Eagle advancement ranks, and the program brings a scout into contact with successful and responsible citizens," Dr. Fearer said. "There is an expanding need for more counselors to join those present in the Deep Creek District who work closely with Boy Scouts on subjects ranging from agriculture to zoology and business to outdoor skill," he added.

Survival of 10-year-old Boy Is Termed "Miracle" After 11-hour Ordeal Trapped Under Falls

JOYFUL CLIMAX to night-long anxiety occurred at 7:13 Sunday morning when Somerset, Pa., water rescuers emerged from beneath the water falls just north of Swallow Falls with 10-year-old Richard Bouchard alive and well. The boy had spent the night behind the roaring water after being swept over the falls while swimming early Saturday evening. Repeated dives by his father failed to find Richard and rescue service personnel were called to the scene. Here members of Southern Rescue wrap the boy in blankets prior to an ambulance run to Garrett County Memorial Hospital. Somerset diver Donald Shaffer who found Richard, and Shaffer's diving partner, are just coming out of the water in the background. —Photo by Perry Shaffer.

The persistence of emergency crews and the courage of a 10-year-old boy beat fantastic odds against survival after Richard Bouchard was swept over the lower falls at Swallow Falls State Park Saturday.

The drama, which began as fun, moved swiftly to horror, lingered agonizingly for nearly eleven hours on despair, and climaxed in a burst of joy, the like of which few have ever had the privilege to enjoy.

Young Bouchard, his father, sister Christina and two neighbor children, all from Forestville, were having a ball sliding down the rocks in the water below Swallow Falls. "One more time, Dad," said Richard as the group prepared to go back to their tent at the campgrounds. Mid-channel current caught him, sweeping him rapidly toward the falls over "Blue Hole." His father raced to catch him but missed. The boy went over, plunging into the boiling, rolling waters which through the years have claimed many lives.

Repeated dives by the father failed to find Richard, who, unbeknown to his dad, had surfaced in a cavity behind the roaring falls which effectively muffled his cries for help. Daylight was fading and so was hope that the child was alive.

A call for Southern Rescue Squad was recorded at 8:35 p.m. placed by Clifford England of the Maryland Park Service. Sheriff's deputy William Bernard, hearing the monitor, also left for the scene. Park Superintendent Charles Thomas, Harold Stark and Richard Sines hurried to the falls. Herrington Manor life guard Julius Goepp began diving. Rescue squad members in addition to those on crew one responded, all equipped with miner's lights. A quick survey indicated much more help was needed and Deep Creek Fire Company which has developed a potential for water rescue dispatched men, boats, ropes. Deer Park firemen brought generators and lights. State fire marshal Robert Shimer brought walkie talkies. As they were arriving on the scene, three boys on the east side of the river reported that they heard a yell from beneath the falls. The report seemed almost unbelievable. EMT Carl Cathell re[illegible] dent [illegible] children had be[illegible] under the falls for nearly 45 minutes and then came bobbing out.

The report, however, had an electric effect on the Deep Creek firemen who immediately launched their boat and prepared an assault on the falls.

Meanwhile, the tension of the moment was having a profound effect on the parents of Richard, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Bouchard. The heartrending, gut-wrenching prospect of having lost their son forever was making its presence felt. Mrs. Bouchard collapsed on the trail. Rescue squad members carried her to a waiting ambulance, thence to Garrett Memorial Hospital for sedation, then back to the tenting area. EMT Celene Trickett stayed with her much of the night.

The father, however, returned to the river to take up a lonely vigil on a rock jutting out over the falls.

Rescue crews were busy setting up a plan of attack upon the river. EMT Ben Sincell swam a rope across the river above the falls from which a line was secured to the boat, hauling it as close to the falls as possible. Md. State Tfc. Gary Berkebile traversed the river by the rope to help coordinate the effort. The current was overpowering. Repeated efforts by Skip Bernard and Gary King failed to breach the roaring waters to get behind the falls.

Scuba gear was needed and was not immediately available.

A call from Sheriff John Evans, Jr., went out for the Maryland State Police scuba team at Hagerstown who thought they might arrive at about 6 a.m. Sunday morning.

A subsequent teletype message indicated that arrival would be delayed until nearly 10 a.m. Time was of the essence, with the possibility, remote as it was, that Richard was still alive, so Sheriff Evans called Somerset fire department which has a water rescue team. They received the call at 3 a.m. and were enroute at 3:20.

Under the falls Richard was aware that there was much activity in his behalf. He commented that he couldn't go to sleep because the lights were too bright. He didn't know at that moment that rescue attempts had been called off until daylight and that lights were left on to let him know, if he were alive, that he hadn't been abandoned.

Deep Creek fireman Chuck Thomas, and Deer Park firemen Roland Schoch, Bob Thrasher, James McCartney, and EMTs Chris Donnelly, Wayne Englander and Ben Sincell kept watch throughout the rest of the night and tended the generators. Food seemed to appear magically from concerned Park Service personnel and other EMTs.

About 6 a.m. Somerset firemen rolled into the park, immediately set their equipment in place, suited up and prepared to enter the water. At that moment a fisherman walking down

Dedication of the plaque is a step toward the permanent memorial to be constructed on grounds of the newly constructed Friendsville elementary school.

Started over two years ago by the district, with an expected expenditure of nearly $10,000, money has been raised by donations from veterans' organizations, fraternal groups, business establishments and individuals.

The bronze plaque and accompanying stone containing the names of the six heroes, have been received and will be placed in the completed memorial. Citizens of Friendsville and nearby areas have been helpful in planning the event, Mountain District officials said.

Rubella Outbreak Occurs In County

A localized outbreak of Rubella (3-day measles) has been identified in this county, according to Dr. William W. Pope, county health officer. He said the first case appeared April 6 and a total of 35 cases have been identified. Ages of cases range from two years to forty-six.

Principle symptom has been a rash appearing on the face spreading to the trunk and body which lasts only a few days. Many cases reported some fever and soreness of the lymph nodes of the back of the neck. Adult cases reported soreness of the joints. Blood tests confirmed the identification of the disease in one case and other blood tests are in process, Dr. Pope said. Health advisors from the State Health Department have assisted in the tracing and identification of suspected cases.

Last major epidemic of Rubella swept the country in 1964. Of the four pregnant women known to be exposed to the present outbreak, all have been found to be immune to the disease.

Francis Mouse unloaded a 3rd inning grand slam home run in support of Tim Martin's shutout pitching as the Allegany High Campers defeated Southern Rams 10 to 0 in District One finals of the Maryland class "B" baseball tournament, on Saturday.

Martin used good control in limiting the Rams to no runs despite allowing eight hits. He walked two, stranded all 10 runners, and fanned seven for his sixth victory in nine decisions.

Senior Gary Welch suffered the loss for the Rams in three innings, allowing five hits, seven runs and two walks, while striking out none. Dan Bosley then took over, fanned 3 and gave up four hits and three more runs.

Allegany had jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first inning. The Campers added another in the second, then four on Mouse's homer. They added three more in the final innings.

Southern finisehd the season with a 5-8 record, losing the last four contests consecutively.

Back To The Bible Church

Jesus built His church during the lifetime of His apostles. The people who were called out of sin by the Gospel were gathered into the church we read about in the Bible (Acts 2:47).

The Bible church was the subject of prophecy in the Old Testament, where it is referred to as the "Kingdom".

Isaiah said (Isaiah 2:1-4) that Jehovah's house would be built "in the last days". In I Timothy 3:15 we see that the house of God is the church. The last days refer to the last age of time, which began on the first Pentecost after the ascension of Jesus (Acts 2:17). We are now living in the age that Isaiah stated that the church would be built.

In Daniel 2 we read of the image Nebuchadnezzar saw, and Daniel's interpretation of it. There were to be four universal kingdoms to rule over men, beginning with Babylon, then in power. We learn from history that these four kingdoms are: Babylonian, Medo-Persian, Greek and Roman kingdoms. In verse 44 of this 2nd chapter, Daniel says of the fourth, or Roman kings, "In the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom". In Luke 3:1 we find that the Roman kings were ruling in the first century of our era. It was time for God to set up His Kingdom, or church.

The object of Jesus' promise was the Bible church. At the outset of His ministry He preached, "the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand" (Mark 1:14). Near the end of His public ministry He plainly said, "Upon this rock I will build my church" (Matthew 16:18).

In Acts chapter 2 we read of the beginning of the church when the first Gospel sermon was preached and 3,000 believed and obeyed the Lord.

It was anticipated by the Lord that the church, as a body would be lost from view during the dark ages. In Revelation 12:6, John was told that the church would be lost for a time as a woman lost in the wilderness.

The departure from the truth that carried the church into apostacy was very gradual. It took several hundred years for an apostate church to fully develop. During these years, the church lost its name, organization, most of its doctrine, form of worship and method of work.

We get back to the Bible church, not by starting a new denomination, but by teaching the same truths the apostles taught, revealed to them by the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 3:5). Restoring the church is done by taking the seed, which is the word of God (Luke 8:11) and planting it in the hearts of men. When the word is conceived there it will produce faith (Roman 10:17); it will produce repentance (Romans 2:4); it will impel a man to confess Christ (Romans 10:10) and to obey his Lord in baptism (Acts 2:38). At this time the Lord will add him to the church (Acts 2:47). If we continue faithfully in the church (Acts 2:42), He will give us the crown of life (Revelation 2:10).

By faithfully following the teaching of the Bible we restore the name, organization, doctrine, worship and work that God gave the church. If we do this we are the same church that existed in the first century — the Bible church.

We would invite you to study with us to restore that church.

Man Held Under Bond Of $50,000

Warren T. Curry, 28, North College Hill, Ohio, Monday, was ordered held under $50,000 bond pending trial on charges of attempted robbery and robbery with a deadly weapon, of James Nelson Layman, star route, Frostburg, who was cutting grass in a cemetery behind Mt. Zion church along U. S. route 40, some eight miles east of Grantsville.

Allegany district court Judge Miller Bowen set a full cash bond for Curry, who was committed to the Allegany county jail in default.

Authorities said Curry is being held in Allegany county rather than Garrett county jail at Oakland because of security precautions.

Curry is charged with attempted murder and robbery with a deadly weapon (a knife) of Mr. Layman, 71.

Mr. Layman was beaten and robbed of $50 while cutting grass. Mr. Layman was hospitalized with abrasions and lacerations and is still a patient at Sacred Heart Hospital in Cumberland where he was listed as "improved".

Curry was taken into custody last Friday afternoon in the New Germany area, but a second man believed involved in the robbery incident managed to elude police.

State Police said extra patrols are being maintained in the county in an effort to locate the second man. A helicopter was used last Friday. A female companion of Curry also was being sought.

Curry also is being held on a fugitive warrant from Orange County, Fla., where he is wanted for escaping from jail at Orlando in May. Police said Curry also was wanted on charges in South Carolina.

The second man police are searching for is described as a colored man about six feet tall weighing between 165 and 180, light skinned and has Afro-styled hair. He reportedly has a mustache and sideburns and was wearing blue trousers and shirt when last seen.

Completes Basic

Airman Harry C. Turney, III, son of Harry and Ruth Turney, 302 M. Street, Mt. Lake Park, has completed his basic training and several weeks of schooling at Lackland Air Force base in Texas. the east side of the river, stopped to observe the activity. He heard a shout from beneath the falls and pointed to the spot from whence it came. The divers entered the water at 6:55 under the pounding falls, and at 7:13 Somerset fireman/diver Donald Shaffer emerged with Richard in his arms. Richard was indeed alive

A crescendo of shouts, pats on the back, jumping up and down, and, admittedly, a few tears, greeted the rescued and rescuer. A miracle had really happened. Every effort, muscle strain, sleeplessness and discomfort had been worth every minute of it.

Richard wasn't much the worse for his ordeal. He was cold, tired, frightened and hungry, but that's about all. He was quickly carried to the ambulance while Supt. Charlie Thomas and EMT David Turney went to tell the parents the great news. The reunion of mother and son, of father and son covered a gamut of emotions that is better left undescribed. As EMT Chris Donnelly said, "It made the day."

Widespread appreciation of the work of the Somerset Volunteer fire department and scuba divers who came to Swallow Falls last Saturday to assist in rescuing the youth has been expressed here by many people, who have expressed a desire to contribute to their support. Donations may be given to the Sheriff's office in Oakland which will be forwarded to the Somerset organization.

Game Of Tags

The wonders of creativity have not ceased in our old Line State. For proof, observe the innovations on the new license plates, which will not long be a novelty, but now can serve as a cause of gaiety.

For example, have you seen Dad riding along with the children and DAD on his metal fixtures? Or a SIR or SIS who look as if they are just that? A MRS would be right in line except for women's libbers, but we have not spied one. We have seen a DRY, but not WET, a GET but not a GEM anywhere. Nor have there appeared many sportsmen's words, such as ROD, BOX, PRO or SKI.

It is very easy also to think of initials, especially for the people one knows, but I do not know of anyone so lucky as to have his own. However, a few days after May 1, I saw in a Maryland city the DLK which probably has appeared on so many automobile sales slips in Grantsville.

Many people who have remarked about the new license plates agree that the whole system is much better without labeling any vehicle with derogatory words like PIG or BAD or NIL, but they could appear if one watched enough in several localities. Fortunate people may have a reference to the car, as in CAD (on a Chevrolet) or some real action words that make you notice, such as FLY, POP, ADD or FRY. Some drivers would be aghast at driving a car which carries around misspellings: LUV, DUZ, RUF, or SED, and I agree, for there are enough of these in other businesses.

The names are now appearing with JIM, BOB, and TOM as prominent ones, but excitement will certainly reign for the owners who know that other people are reading WOO, SEX, MOD or CON. Has anyone seen a simple Man? Or a simple number such as TWO or SIX or TEN?

If you can do all of this with a state lettering system of three letters, think what you could produce with one of four

But the true individualists who ordered their own license plates make the rest of us recline in the ranks of the commonplace. Two of these seen by the writer reflect definitely opposing self-images. On one small green Austin Healy was the admission BROKE. And on an older Cadillac, all black and shiny, parked in front of me, was the driver's characterization, MRCOOL.

Notice to Women Who May Be in the Early Stages of Pregnancy

Several cases suspected of being Rubella (German-measles or 3-day measles) have been recorded in Garrett County. It is important that all women in this county who may be less than 20 weeks along in pregnancy check with their physician, or the health department, to determine (1) if they are definitely pregnant, (2) whether blood tests show that they have immunity to the Rubella disease.

If Rubella is present in the community, and a woman is in the early stages of pregnancy but does not have immunity to Rubella, it is very important for the health of her unborn child that she receive advice, and possibly treatment, from a physician.

Again, tests of pregnancy and immunity to Rubella are available through your physician, or from the health department.

For further information, call the health department at 334-8111 or 895-5900.

Northern Huskies Lose To Bruce 1-0

Ron O'Reily's single through the legs of pitcher Buddy Fauber chased home Bob Ahern from third base in the bottom of the eighth inning, to give Bruce High a 1 to 0 victory over Northern High Huskies Monday afternoon at Bishop Walsh High school and a berth in the district 1 class "C" final playoffs.

Bruce will go against Brunswick High for the district championship.

Pat Donnelly, surrendering only two hits, registered his third win in as many seasons over Northern in post season playoff action. Monday he scattered two singles and struck out 15 batters and didn't allow a runner past second base.

Two years ago Bruce won 1 to 0 in a 12 inning game. Last year Bruce won 9 to 3.

Monday Donnelly and Fauber dueled to a scoreless deadlock for seven innings. Terry McIntyre led off the bottom of the eighth with a single, the fifth hit of the game for the Bulldogs and was forced at second by Donnelly.

Bob Andrews then hit a triple and the game appeared to be nearing its end when Donnelly raced around third, but he was thrown out at the plate, with Ahern stopping at third. O'Reily then followed with his bouncer up the middle and Ahern raced home with the winning run.

Northern's biggest threat occurred in the sixth inning when Mark Russell was hit by a pitch, the first Huskie to get aboard since Bender's single in the first inning. Russell was sacrificed to second but then Donnelly induced Ronnie Teets and Fauber to strike out.

Donnelly walked one batter while Fauber walked two and struck out five. The Huskies concluded their season with a record of 10-3.

The dinner was preceded by a tour of the chemistry laboratory facilities at the college and was followed by a talk on "Folk Medicine," by Dr. Ralph Bolmster, School of Pharmacy, University of Maryland.

Accompanying Angela was her chemistry instructor, Mrs. Sarah Ruston.

Angela is a straight "A" student at Southern. She is a member of the Nationtl Honor Society and is listed in "Who's Who Among High School Students". Outside of school Angela spends a lot of time at the roller skating rink as she skates competitively.

Two Mile Busing Limit Is Defeated

William Goldsborough, member of the Maryland State Board of Education, announced this week that the issue of not busing public school students who live two miles or less from their schools was defeated at the last meeting of the Maryland Board.

At the last meeting, Richard Shifter, board vice president from Bethesda, made the motion to set a two-mile bus transportation limit for high school students.

The final vote defeating the motion was four to three, Mr. Goldsborough said.

The present policy calls for elementary students who live less than a mile from school to walk, while high school students have a mile and a half limit for busing.

At Wednesday's meeting of the State Board of Education in Crisfield High School, a review of the policy for school bus transportation will be made, especially for those students who live along hazardous routes where there are no sidewalks.

A state responsibility for pupil transportation committee was appointed this Wednesday.

50 Locally Made Quilts are Exhibited In Baltimore Area

An impressive collection of more than 50 locally-made quilts was placed on exhibition and sale last week at Hutzler Brothers department store in the suburbs of Baltimore.

This more recent handcraft promotion was the result of efforts of Ivan and Virginia Rowe, owners of The Appalachian Shop, area handcraft outlet, McHenry. The Rowes have been developing off-season and out-of-county markets on behalf of local crafters for several years.

The exhibit in Baltimore of such a large number of Garrett County quilts was acknowledged as a historic first for local quilters by the Maryland Historical Society. Photographic and television coverage of the colorful assortment of handmade quilts was undertaken to document the event. Mrs. Rowe appeared with the quilts on Baltimore's WMAR-TV news and was interviewed by Susan White, the program hostess.

According to Mr. Rowe, the community can certainly be proud of these quilters whose talents contributed to this first large showing of county skills in a metropolitan area.

Experts tell us that all over the world, the greyhound has been employed as the most reliable and efficient chaser among dogs. Even Neolithic man used the greyhound for a runner, and a hunting dog. When dogs no longer were used to catch prey to supply their owner with food, coursing came into its own as an independent, legitimate sport. In Roman times, the courser was advised to pet his dog after the chase, so it would be sure to feel its owner's appreciation.

Tom Bittinger, left, examines a plaque presented to him Wednesday evening by Roger Uber, member of Boy Scout Troop 99. Scoutmaster Tom was honored by the Troop and teachers and aides at Green Street School for his efforts on behalf of the Boy Scouts, at a surprise appreciation dinner at the school. In the center, behind a camera, is Pat Fischetti, district scout chairman, who was one of the nearly 60 guests at the event.

Judge Jones Hears Drug, Other Cases

Drug, littering and assault cases were heard in District Court by Judge Lewis R. Jones during the week ending May 27. Cases of assaulting a police officer and disorderly conduct were noted as being transferred to Circuit Court. Seven of the Washington, D. C. area were released on their own recognizance on charges of larceny.

Randy Lee Hoover, Albright, W. Va., and Jimmy Martin Casteel, Friendsville, pleaded not guilty of possession of marijuana on Gravel Hill road April 12, at trial last week. They were found guilty and a pre-sentence investigation was ordered. A juvenile was also involved in the same case and is to be tried in that court.

Annabelle Bittinger and Clark Bittinger, both of RD 2, Grantsville, pleaded not guilty of depositing trash on the property of David L. Oester on RD 2, Grantsville, since March 1. They were both found guilty and fined $50 and $10 cost each, at a trial Tuesday.

Three persons were released on their own recognizance pending trials in Circuit Court. Barry Ball, RD 3, Deer Park, has been charged with obstructing a police officer, Sgt. Hobart Shillingburg, from executing his lawful duties at the Garrett County Sheriff's office, May 12. Larry Corby, Hutton, has been charged with assault and battery on Charles Sliger, Jr., on Third Street, Oakland, the same day. Craig Corby, of Hutton, has been charged with three counts: disorderly conduct, destruction of property and assault and battery on Charles Sliger, Jr., on Third street in Oakland the same day as the other incidents.

Seven other persons were released on their own recognizance on the charge of larceny of a rototiller from the Fratz Mart., Accident, Monday. They were first held on $5000 bond each but were released at a bond hearing Tuesday. The seven are: Robert W. Mozdzen, Hyattsville; John Wilson DeCatur, Hyattsville; Robert Eugene Saylor, Riverdale, John Williams Huggins, New Caroline; Nancy Lynn Hayes, Adelphi; Judy Ann Saylor, and Joseph Bidler Whitesel, Jr. The trial was noted as set for June 23.

Three not guilty pleas were sustained, Homer Flesher, and Jeannie Glover, both of McHenry, had been charged with assault on Kathy DeWitt at Oakland May 1. Wilmer Crawford, Friendsville, had been charged with violation of the town overload law by operating a 70-ton crane where restricted.

The charge of assault on Norman H. Minnick, Bayard, W. Va., on Rt. 50 near Gorman, on April 30, by Mary Jane Towsend, Gormania, W. Va., was dismissed for lack of prosecution.

Jo Ann Shahan, K street, Mt. Lake Park, had been charged with passing a worthless check but the case was stetted at a trial Tuesday.

Must Get Permits For Dogs By July 1

Dog licenses for 1975 will expire on June 30, the County Commissioners announced. Sale of tags for the upcoming year will begin June 1 in the County Treasurer's office in the Court House in Oakland.

To comply with the new law, the dog owner must have proof of rabies vaccination before the license can be issued, the commissioners pointed out. Commissioners said the Health Department would hold clinics throughout the county in mid-June to enable dog owners to have their pets vaccinated.

Tom Bittinger Is Honored At Boy Scout Dinner

"We appreciate you and we love you, Tom" were the appropriate concluding remarks at a dinner held Wednesday evening at Green Street School in appreciation for Tom Bittinger, scoutmaster of Troop 99 composed of boys from that school.

The surprise dinner was planned by teachers and aides at the school, and consisted of a covered dish meal brought by parents of the boys, the teachers and aides, and members of Proctor Kildow Post 71, American Legion, which sponsors the troop.

Approximately 60 persons were present, including special guests Pat Fischetti, district Boy Scout chairman; Alex McPheeters, Potomac Council field executive, William Watson, supervisor of pupil transportation for the Board of Education; Sally Wilson, special education coordinator; Mr. and Mrs. Playford Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Yost, representatives of Proctor Kildow Post 71; Mrs. Dorothy Bittinger and daughter, and Rev. Troop leader Bill Abernathy gave a speech of appreciation expressing his and all the boys thoughts on the help and time Tom has given to the troop. Roger Uber presented a plaque to Mr. Bittinger.

A gift of sunglasses was also presented to Mr. Bittinger.

Remarks were made by Mrs. Regina Stork, principal and teacher at Green Street School, who also serves as a den mother for the Troop. Sweets That Don't Sour Your Budget

Why sugar is so expensive, has recently become a burning consumer issue. But a more appropriate question might be, why use so much?

Sugar hasn't always been a major source of calories. In fact, not until the 16th century did large consignments begin to arrive in Europe. Before that Westerners had only limited contact with sugar and depended on honey and fruit for sweetness.

In the United States sugar consumption has grown from none, when the Pilgrims arrived, to an awesome figure of over 100 pounds per person per year. And even though total food consumption has declined in recent years, sugar consumption has remained constant.

In 1974 per capita sugar consumption was 101.5 pounds. Estimates for 1975 from a reliable source are 97.8 pounds per person. Not much of a decline when you consider the high price.

To put it simply, daily sugar consumption equals about 500 calories or 2/3 of a cup. Add this up over a year, and it amounts to about 180,000 calories or 50 pounds of body fat. Is it any wonder medical and dental professionals are concerned about high sugar intake?

Sugar is a major factor in the cause of tooth decay, one of the nation's leading health problems. When sugar is present in the mouth for extended periods of time, it provides an excellent medium for the growth of acid-producing bacteria. The acids erode tooth enamel ultimately causing dental caries.

Concern has also been expressed about the relationship between sugar and cardiovascular disease. Research in this area, although nonconclusive, points to a mechanism by which dietary sucrose (table sugar) might predispose one to heart disease. Some researchers have found a positive correlation between the amount of sucrose consumed and the level of blood lipids, i.e. the greater the sugar, the higher the lipid level.

Not only are we plagued by over-consumption, but we must also contend with misconceptions about sugar. Many believe sugar is needed for energy. This is only half true. Carbohydrate is necessary for energy and sugar is just one source of carbohydrate. Other sources including bread, flour, potatoes and macaroni products supply energy as well.

So, what can you do? Dr. Jean Mayer, noted Harvard nutrition professor, recommends sugar intake be reduced. But a diet completely free of sugar is practically impossible and not necessary unless a medical problem demands a sugar-free diet.

Sugar is a natural constituent of many foods such as fruits, vegetables and milk. The sweet compounds in these foods may or may not be sucrose, since fructose, lactose and glucose also occur naturally in foods.

Fructose, the sweetest of all the sugar, is common to fruits and honey. Milk and dairy products are the only dietary sources of lactose. Glucose, fairly well distributed in fruits, some vegetables and honey, is also referred to as blood sugar. Once inside the body, all sugar will be converted to glucose, so they can be used for energy.

In some food products, especially baked goods, sugar is needed for the proper flavor and texture. Shortened cakes and cookies are two examples. Successful bread making would also be hampered without sugar. And finally sugar is a "hidden" ingredient in many food products — added to enhance the flavor.

Overweight Draws Some Large Fines

Larger fines for motor vehicle violations were the result of overweight. Two pleaded guilty in District Court before Judge Lewis R. Jones. Others forfeited on this count. Many paid for speeding.

Kenneth R. Burkett, Jr., Boston, Pa., forfeited collateral in the amount of $642.90 for a 13,965 lb. overload of coal. Burkett also paid $25 for failing to comply with the Md. Road Fuel Tax law.

Ray H. Jones, Elk Garden, W. Va., pleaded guilty for refusing to be weighed and was fined $255, (coal).

Randall S. Minnick, of Mt. Storm, W. Va., pleaded guilty on the same count and was fined $105, (stone).

Ellsworth G. Lambert, forfeited in the amount of $63 for 2,900 lb. overload of coal, Wilfred M. Scott, Albright, W. Va., paid $25 for 800 lb. overload of coal, Elmer B. Moreland, RD 1, Gormania, paid $55 for 2,500 lb. overload, also for coal.

Others forfeited collateral as follows:

Exceeding the posted speed limit: David E. Tasker, Oakland, $25; John R. White, RD 3, Deer Park, $25; Monica L. Jensen, RD 2, Oakland, $15; Willard M. Ashby, Oakland, $40; Carl D. Martin, Mt. Lake Park, $15; Ray D. Elliott, RD 2, Oakland, $30; Joni Lee McNeel, of Grantsville, $25; Nargert C. Baker, Everett, Pa., $35; Edgar A. Tennant, Bethesda, $25; Reva B. Thomas, Mt. Lake Park, $32; David F. Bernstein, Wheaton, $25; Robert F. Hawkins, Marlton, N. J., $30; Richard G. Sanderson, Jr., Mendham, N. J., $25; David V Sisler, RD 4, Deer Park, $30; Willard A. Elliott, Oakland, $25; Ray H. Shahan, Belle Vernon, Pa., $25; Samuel J. Opel, RD 1, Accident, $25; Ralph L. Lotkin, Columbia, $25; Kenneth J. Hibshman, Meyerstown, Pa., 30; and Martin T. Neat, Friendsville, $39.

George E. Munn, St. Clairsville, Pa., displaying tags issued to another vehicle, $30, and operating on expired registration, $30.

Mishaps Of Past Week Show One Person Injured

Only one slight injury was noted among accident reports of the State Police during the past week.

Patsy Guido, Louisa, Va., was slightly injured in a two-car mishap on U.S. 40 just east of Foster Inn road last Wednesday about 12:35 p.m. She and John M. Linkous, Jr., Owings Mills, were westbound on Rt. 40 when Patsy Guido hit her brakes due to a vehicle stopping. Linkous also hit his brakes, went to the right but was unable to avoid hitting the Guido car. Tfc. Dale K. Williams charged Linkous wih failing to reduce speed to avoid a collision.

Eleanor G. McCreery, and Ronald E. Kenney, Ridgeley, W. Va., were westbound on U.S 48 at the intersection of US. 40 last Wednesday morning. Eleanor McCreery hit her brakes, slowing down and was struck in the rear by the Kenney pickup. Tfc. Williams charged Kenney with operating at a speed too great.

Five wrecks were noted Monday.

Ralph I. Tewell, Cumberland, was traveling east on U.S. 40 near the Beall School road Monday afternoon. He spotted the car driven by Alice L. Snyder, Frostburg, following, which failed to reduce speed, run off the right side of the roadway and striking his car on the right side. Tfc. C. D. Skidmore charged Alice Snyder with failing to reduce speed.

Paul J. Davis, Glassport, Pa., was driving north on U.S. 219 near Lake Shore drive Monday night. He attempted to get something into a back-pack in the rear seat. In doing so, his car crossed the center of the road, forcing another vehicle off the road. In attempting to correct the error, he lost control, crossed the roadway and came to rest in a ditch. Tfc. Skidmore charged him with negligent driving.

In an evening accident the same day, Donna K. Sipple, of Grantsville, was driving west on U.S. 40 near the Salisbury road and placed her turn signal to make a left turn into a driveway. Curtis E. Burchiwald, Hopwood, Pa., following, attempted to overtake the Sipple car and collided with it. Tfc. Skidmore investigated.

About the same time, Lydia B. Geare, Cumberland, was traveling east in a station wagon on Md. 135 followed by Mark A. Hahn, Tunnelton, W. Va. Lydia Geare signaled for a right turn but made a left turn instead just as Hahn started to pass. Tfc. Ronald Lewis charged Lydia Geare with not giving a proper signal.

A little later the same evening, Elsie M. Meredith, Bayard, W. Va., was headed south on the Gorman road when an unidentified vehicle forced her off the road. She lost control, struck a wire fence, spun around and came to rest on the west side of the southbound shoulder. Tfc. Lewis investigated.

Other recent accidents were noted.

Harry L. Beckman, RD 2, in Oakland, was traveling south on the Gorman road the afternoon of May 20, and lost control of his car in attempting to elude a bee that had gotten inside the car. The car went off the side of the road. Tfc. L. R. Rosage investigated.

The afternoon of May 19, Patricia J Justice, Ridgeley, W. Va., was slightly injured in a two-car mishap on the Crellin road near the Old Crellin road. She was stopped in the eastbound lane of traffic due to road construction work in progress. Timothy Smith, Crellin, failing to notice the Justice car stopped, collided with it. Tfc. C. H. Hinnant charged Smith with failing to reduce speed to avoid a collision.

Northern Defeats Southern 2nd Time

Dave Bender pitched a four hitter and aided his own cause by knocking in two runs and scoring two others himself, lifting Northern High school to a 5-2 verdict over Southern High last Thursday afternoon at Accident.

The Huskies downed the Rams several days before that by a 7-5 score. Thursday's game concluded their regular season with a 10 to 2 record.

Bender scattered three singles and a double, yielding Southern's only two runs in the fourth inning when Neil Stoner singled home Bob Fletcher and Dan Bosley.

Bender got the Huskies off well in the opening inning when he lashed a single, sending Ron Teets and Buddy Fauber home. In the third he scored on a base hit by Roger Sines. Northern ended the scoring in the bottom of the fourth inning when Fauber sacrificed to score Teets and Bender raced home on a hit by Kenny Sines. Southern's record is 5-7.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

As a resident and taxpayer of Oakland, for several years, it would seem to me that the people of this beautiful little town deserve better than the present arrangement in regard to the care of "stray" dogs.

Of course, the first blame belongs to the less than humane people who dump unwanted pets into another community. These are not able to fend for themselves, and so the end result is slow starvation.

Friday night, our neighborhood was kept awake by the pitiful cries and dying moans of three starving dogs, a Dachshund, a golden cocker, and a mixed breed, as large as a Doberman. For two weeks, I had been appealing to the dog-catcher for help in this matter, but he is a busy man at his regular work, and this side-line does not get much of his time, apparently. Finally I went in person, on Saturday, to make a desperate appeal to the local police. These competent young men were most polite and sympathetic, but it was just not their department.

A solution came when a stout-hearted young man, a superb shot with a rifle, took over the duty of the dog-catcher. But I would like to know why this job cannot be given to someone with a real interest in prevention of cruelty to animals—someone who does not feel that the job is contemptible and not worth bothering with.

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) Norma M. Harvey

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, in care of U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks–

Please explain the Water Resources Conference you are putting together.

A Water Resources Conference is currently being arranged by my office to provide a platform for the discussion of long-term future water needs in Central and Western Maryland. Local and county officials will have the opportunity to talk directly with key state and federal representatives responsible for planning and administering the development of secondary water resources. Officials from the State Department of Natural Resources, Corps of Engineers, Department of Agriculture and the Environmental Protection Agency will be among the speakers addressing future water needs of our area. Panel discussions and informal seminars will enable mayors, county commissioners and local planning staffs to question state and federal officials on specific area problems. The exact July date and location for the conference will be announced shortly.

What is the status of the Small Business Emergency Relief Act?.

The legislation passed the House overwhelmingly and is currently pending in the Senate.

Such property is normally available without cost. Interested communities may wish to contact the Regional Office of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation for further details. The address is Federal Building, 7th Floor, 1421 Cherry Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19102.

What are the duties of the Speaker of the House?

Among other things, the Speaker presides over the House, appoints all special and select committees, appoints conference committees, and often makes on-the-spot rulings and decisions affecting the business of the House. The speaker may vote, but usually does not, except in case of a tie.

Sermonette By Area Ministers

by Rev. James Remley
Bethel United Methodist Church, Mt. Lake Park

Memorial Day is a time when we try to honor our war dead by remembering what they have done for their country and reminding ourselves what we should do so that the sacrifice they made will not be in vain. In spite of the display we make on this day we are much aware of a lot of mis-directed good intent and of many pseudo, or false patriots.

This is happening because many of us do not have the dedication to really learn what is right or good for our country, and many dare not care because to do so would result in real honest effort or sacrifices they do not care to make. Real true patriotism and statesmanship is shown in dedication which leads to both knowing and doing what will be helpful to our nation. And, that which is helpful to our nation will be helpful to its citizens and the citizens of the world.

In Proverbs 14:34 God's word tells us that 'righteousness' exalts a nation. 'Righteousness' is that which is right before God. The writer is reminding us that what is for God is for persons and for nations.

Those who claim to be true patriots of a nation and yet turn away from God, do not dedicate themselves to knowing His will and way are either misdirected or are just plain "Quacks", Pseudo-patriots.

In the book of "Acts" in the New Testament we have sermons by the Apostle Peter and by Stephen the Martyr which points up the truth that God successfully leads a nation when they walk with him and that when they drift away from God they invite weakness, shame and destruction. They point to how God has provided for the nation who trusts in Him and helped them to be strong and not only are blessed, but can then also be a blessing to others.

The remaining part of Proverbs 14:34 sounds a warning after the first part of the verse has presented a promise. That warning is that "Sin Is A Reproach To Any People". Sin is the opposite of Righteousness, and is anything that is opposed to the will of God. The first part of the verse tells us that what is for God is for persons and people, the last part of the verse tells us that what is opposed to God is against the good, the best interests of persons, of people.

Much of the shame and embarrassment that has come to our nation and weakened us in our ability to influence the world has come as a direct result of rejecting the principles of the Christian faith.

Repeatedly the prophets of the Old Testament remind us what the results are when we ignore the God of all creation. Amos tells of the famine in the land. We are constantly being reminded of the food shortage in our world and warned of future possibilities for starvation. Haggai the prophet reminds the people of the economic failures when God is left out of the national life, and we have heard of a few rumors of a struggling economy. The prophets also warn of the failure of the nation who ignores God to be able to stand against enemy nations, and we have been and are still being pushed around by nations much smaller than we are.

Sin is a reproach, it weakens within and brings division which results in shame and embarrassment.

If we would be true patriots and statesmen of our nation and the world we should hear the promise of God in 2 Chronicles 7:14; "If my people, who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their evil ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will heal their land".

ENOCH PRATT FREE LIBRARY BALTIMORE

Prospective doctors and nurses from Oak Street Kindergarten are shown above displaying caps and masks which they received on their visit to Garrett Memorial Hospital. The tour was designed to familiarize the children with hospital procedures, equipment, and personnel. It included a demonstration of a blood test, explanation of X-ray equipment, and a "Papoose Board". The children were then shown how a physical examination is given, how doctors and nurses are dressed for surgery, and an anesthetist showed how patients are put to sleep. They also saw a demonstration of a cast being put on and another cast being removed. An elevator ride (a first experience for some of the children) took them to the cafeteria for refreshments. The class was accompanied by teacher, Mrs. Helen Carroll; aide, Mrs. Barbara Thomas, and several parents.

If she has kept up with the course all term, she'll not flunk because of this nap. BUT – if she is counting on the midnight oil to pull her through the exam . . . Too bad!

You've heard of people being converted to Christianity on their deathbed. True! As Christ promised salvation to a penitent thief on the cross, so God's love reaches out even in the final hour to those who call on Him in faith.

But don't live your life on the dangerous principle that last-minute cramming will satisfy all your religious needs.

There will be millions of adults and children in church next Sunday. They are seeking spiritual truth, gaining Christian convictions . . . not because they need some religion to die with – because they need Faith to live by.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

WORDS TO DO

Lesson for June 1, 1975

Background Scripture: Exodus 24:3-8; Jeremiah 36; John 21:24, 25; Revelation 1:10, 11
Devotional Reading: Psalms 119:105-112

We've all seen the Western movie scene in which a small crowd of mourners gathers on a forlorn prairie cemetery to "pay last respects" to a tragic victim of accident or gun play. Because the town is still without a clergyman, someone among the mourners is asked to "say the words" over the stark wooden coffin.

Rev. Althouse

Religion has long emphasized the importance of saying some specific and hallowed "words" in almost every occasion and event of life. Most religions have both their sacred scriptures and their ritualistic incantations. With the ancient Egyptians it was their "Book of the Dead" to procure immortality. For Hindus there are the Upanisheds and Vedas. The Moslem has his Koran, the Jew his Torah, and the Christian his Bible.

"In Accordance With These Words"

The words by themselves are instructive and inspiring. Yet the importance of the words is to be found in the actions inspired by the ideas. When Moses came to the people of Israel with the first ordinances from God, what he had in mind was not that the people would simply enjoy the words for their wisdom and beauty. The words were primarily indicative of something to be done. "... all the people answered with one voice and said, 'All the words which the Lord has spoken we will do'" (Exodus 24:3).

Hearing "the words" would not be enough; they had to be obeyed. This was to be the basis of the relationship between God and Israel. "And Moses took the blood and threw it upon the people, and said, 'Behold the blood of the covenant, the symbol of our relationship with God which the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words'" (24:8).

So the purpose of "the words" was to teach the people to live in harmony with God's will and purpose. To this end the words were passed on orally from generation to generation and at last with the advent of writing and writing materials "the words" were at last written down and the scriptures were came into being. But the purpose was never in the hearing of the reading, but in the doing.

To hear and repent

In time, however, the words came to have yet another purpose, for despite the frequent admonitions to "read and do," many of the people both wittingly and unwittingly broke the ordinances which God had given them. When this happened God gave still more "words" to one of his prophets so that the errant children might be called away from their folly and back to God.

When the nation of Israel had come to the point when they were only "hearing" and no longer "doing," God told the prophet Jeremiah:

> Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah until today. It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I intend to do to them, so that everyone may turn from his evil way, and that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. (Jeremiah 36:1-4)

"The words" are intended to tell us what to do, what not to do, and to call us back to the Lord. Our Bible is thus much more than beautiful and instructive words; it is a book to live by.

You would probably be surprised at how many prescriptions we still get that require intricate compounding. We welcome these prescriptions for they give us the opportunity to exercise the professional skills we learned in school.

For these "special" prescriptions we maintain in top condition very accurate weighing and measuring equipment. We also keep a complete stock of these drugs and chemicals that might be called for in a multiple ingredient prescription.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Birthday Celebration Honors Mrs. Margaret Friend on Ninetieth

OBSERVES NINETIETH — Mrs. Margaret Friend, above, holds one of the many birthday greetings she received in honor of her 90th birthday, the card from the White House, signed by President Ford.

A birthday celebration was held on Sunday, May 18, to honor Mrs. Margaret Friend on the occasion of her 90th birthday anniversary which was May 24. Mrs. Friend is a native Accident resident but for the last two years has made her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Beckman, of near Swanton.

Those in attendance included Mrs. Friend's three surviving sisters: Edna Bond, McHenry; Emma Forsythe, Accident; and Schrilla Glotfelty, Swallow Falls. Her children were all present: Lloyd Friend, Friendsville; Oma Lohr, Addison; Melrose McClintock, Finleyville, Pa.; and Margaret Beckman, of North Glade. Others present for the celebration were Ralph and Virginia Kelso, McHenry; Mrs. Earl Turney, Mayme Wright, and Jane Beachy, all Addison, Pa.; Rosa Richter and Jean Friend, Accident; Myrtle, Elizabeth, and Melrose Hanft, Cove; Clarence DeVore, Eighty-Four, Pa.; Melvin, Dotty, Leslie and Andrew Beckman; and Rudolph and Marvin Beckman, all of North Glade.

In addition to the many greetings from friends and relatives, Mrs. Friend received birthday greetings from President Gerald R. Ford, Vice-President Nelson A. Rockefeller, U. S. Representative Goodloe E. Byron, and Maryland Governor Marvin Mandel.

The White House greeting, signed by President Ford, read, "Mrs. Ford and I extend our warmest congratulations on a very special occasion, your 90th birthday. We wish you every happiness."

The nation's vice-president chose to send his greetings by way of a telegram which arrived on the eve of her birthday. It read, "Congratulations on your birthday. We judge a person's life not only by how long they have lived but how they have lived. By both measures yours has been a full and inspiring one. On this special occasion, I am delighted to join your friends and family in wishing you many more years blessed with health and happiness. Sincerely, Nelson A. Rockefeller, Vice President."

Is Commended For Long Service At University Of Md.

A newsletter of the College Physical Education, Recreation, and Health, University of Maryland carried an item in its spring edition about Mrs. Vivian C. Courtney, formerly Miss Vivian Clary, of Mt. Lake Park.

The article highlights the important contribution Mrs. Courtney has made to the mission and growth of the college. She is administrative assistant to the Dean.

It relates:

"Mrs. Courtney began her career in the service of the State in July, 1933, when she took a job as secretary to the director of Garrett County Welfare Board. In 1948 she came to the College Park campus as secretary to Dr. Paul Nystrom, in the Extension Service of the University. Later she worked as corresponding secretary to Dean Steinburg in the College of Engineering.

"On May 1, 1951, when the college was two years old, Mrs. Courtney accepted the position of secretary to Dean Lester M. Fraley, now dean emeritus, which she continued to hold until 1971. At that time new Dean Marvin H. Eyler named her as his administrative assistant in charge of college records. This duty involves assisting in the preparation and administration of budgets and having the prime responsibility for College under-graduate and graduate records, and College contractual arrangements and payroll.

"She has seen the College grow from its infancy of a small number of major students and programs to its present multi-faceted curriculum with over 700 major student enrollment. She says, 'While I am pleased with the growth and development of the College, I miss not being able to know all students like I did when the College was smaller.'

"Mrs. Courtney is an enthusiastic fan of Maryland's athletic teams but she has an equal interest in other activities that her students and colleagues are involved in. She also has an avid interest in the events and people of her native Western Maryland region.

"Dedication and service are seldom appreciated in the degree warranted. Last year the State of Maryland, represented by Governor Marvin Mandel, honored her 41 years of service with a diamond-studded pin."

Tax Relief Program Ready To Start

The state is preparing to implement the "circuit breaker" legislation, the new property tax relief system for Maryland homeowners who are 60 and older.

Dates and schedules are to be announced soon, according to William H. Riley, director of the State Department of Assessments.

An estimated 75,000 houseticipate in the first phase of the program with 280,000 eventually to be affected.

All persons who have been part of existing programs of tax credit for the elderly will receive their applications for credits by mail. All newly eligible Marylanders who must be 60 years old by July 1 to be part of the first year's program, will be notified as soon as possible. All credits must be applied for annually.

Eligible homeowners are to receive a statement of their maximum tax liability. Liability is to be calculated on the assessed value of the dwelling up to $30,000.

Homeowners will be required to submit a statement of their net worth. No credit will be allowed if the homeowners' net worth exceeds $150,000 on the year for which the credit is to be allowed.

The credit is also determined on the basis of the homeowners' income. His maximum tax liability is not to exceed three percent of the first $3,000 of combined income; four percent of the next $5,000; five percent of the next $4,000; seven percent of the next $3,000; and nine percent of any income in excess of $15,000. GOOD NEWS

Rebate from Chrysler.

That's in addition to the tax rebate from the U.S., and you don't have to wait for your tax rebate to get ours. Just buy or lease a '75 Duster, Valiant or Scamp, and Chrysler will give you $200 back. And that's after you've made your best deal with us. But hurry. Limited time only.

Just think: up to $200 from the government and a full $200 from Chrysler. How's that for making your tax rebate go further! But an offer this good has to be limited to cars in stock, one per customer, retail customers only at participating Chrysler-Plymouth Dealers.

Here's more good news! Our Duster and Valiant are No. 1 in most of the things you want in a compact. Gas mileage? According to EPA's Buyer Guide, Valiant and Duster got better mileage than the competitive 6's. Room? According to Automotive Industries' Roominess Index, Valiant and Duster are roomiest in their class. Same with trunk space. Resale? According to Automotive Marketing Reports, of all leading compacts, a one-year-old Duster and Valiant have the highest resale value. And resale value means real value.

Spotted Tick Fever Season Beginning

William W. Pope, M. D., M. P. H., Health officer for Garrett County, warned Maryland residents that they are now experiencing the beginning of the tick and Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever season in Maryland which extends from late April through August. Humans contract the disease from an infected tick which contaminates a wound while feeding.

Marylanders are urged to be especially cautious this year since in the previous year there were 49 cases diagnosed in the state with two fatalities while in 1973 only 14 cases were diagnosed. A mild winter plus a wet spring has produced conditions nearly ideal for a bumper crop of ticks.

Precautionary measures can greatly reduce the risk of infection in man. Avoiding bushy vegetation and the use of a tick repellent applied as recommended can be effective. Dr. Pope recommends frequent examination for the presence of ticks and parents are encouraged to examine their children on a head-to-toe basis as often as necessary and especially at bedtime. Special care should be taken in examining the areas of the body covered by hair.

Ticks found on a person should be promptly removed. While several household products such as alcohol, fingernail polish or liquor make the tick easier to remove, victims should never delay the removal of the tick with such a product is found. Simply using paper tissues and a steady pull to remove the tick from its imbedded position is effective. Care should be taken not to crush the tick and contaminate the skin. Clean the wound and apply any antiseptic. Dispose of the tick by either burning or flushing down the toilet.

Rocky Mountain Spotted fever can be fatal. Symptoms of the disease include a sudden onset of a severe headache and fever of 100 degrees or more which appears three to ten days after the attachment of an infected tick. A characteristic mild rash may appear on the lower arms and legs after three days.

Dogs are susceptible to tick infestation. Inspection of pets before allowing them indoors will prevent the risk, nuisance and cost of infestations of the house. Dogs do not transmit Rocky Mountain Spotted fever to humans nor do they become sick from an infected tick bite.

Praesepe

One of the most interesting features found in the area of the sky called Cancer is this star cluster shaped like a beehive. It may be seen by the unaided eye and is particularly beautiful through binoculars or a small telescope. This star cluster is thought to be 400 million years old. The distance to the Praesepe has been calculated to 515 light years.

An open star cluster such as Praesepe consists of stars with a composition similar to that of the sun. Open clusters are concentrated near the equator of our galaxy. Other examples of this type of star cluster are the Hyades and Pleiades found in the constellation, Taurus.

Boat Destroyed By Fire Tuesday

Fire Tuesday afternoon destroyed a 16-foot boat which was being operated at Deep Creek State Park. No one was injured.

Members of the Deep Creek Volunteer Fire department were summoned at 4:30. Firemen said the boat was owned by Francis P. Kelly, Sr., of Borden Road, Frostburg, and was being operated by Francis P. Kelly, Jr., with a companion.

Firemen said the fire apparently was caused by a gasoline leak. After the fire started the boat was brought back to the shoreline where Kelly and his companion ran for help.

Legion Commends President's Action

Members of Proctor Kildow Post No. 71, American Legion, at a regular meeting, highly commended President Gerald Ford on his positive action recently in committing the armed forces to the task of rescuing the crew and returning the "Mayaguez" vessel to its owners off the coast of Cambodia, and approved a letter of commendation to be sent to the president for his decision.

The letter was mailed to the president from the post on May 21, signed by Randall R. Kahl, post commander. Copies of the letter also were sent to U. S. Senators J. Glenn Beall and Charles McC. Mathias, Jr., and Congressman Goodloe Byron.

The letter indicated that the 671 members of the post endorsed his position. The post membership has since been increased to 677.

The letter stated in part: "We feel it is time to show nations that we must be respected and be free from being molested, that we will not tolerate any interruption in our nation's normal operations.

Red House Class Attends Outdoor Education Sessions

Twenty-eight members of the sixth grade elementary class from Red House Elementary School have been attending a special Outdoor Education class sponsored by the Maryland Park Service.

Classes were held at Herrington Manor or Swallow Falls every Thursday for one and one-half hours from April 7 to May 29. Children in the program were from Mrs. Dorothy Spaid's classroom.

The conservation-minded projects studied included ecology, wildlife, geology, and vegetation. A boat tour highlighted one week, and events concluded today with a picnic.

Classes were instructed by Rangers Bob Friend and Jackie Torres. One of the program objectives was to enrich children through direct experience in a natural environment.

Natural Resource Violations Noted

Two were fined and two others were placed on probation before verdict in Natural Resource violations in District Court during the week ending May 27.

Many ambitious and imaginative projects are underway for the celebration of the 200th birthday anniversary of the United States. Some of the larger ones include refurbishing the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor, distributing 4.5 million scores of patriotic music to high school orchestras, bands and choruses, and a "freedom train" carrying historical exhibits all over the nation.

In all 50 states, Bicentennial commissions are working closely with civic and business groups.

The real strength of efforts underway lies in grass roots planning for the celebration. In Maryland this stems from 24 locally appointed Bicentennial committees. These working committees are representative of their respective communities and members are in the best position to interpret local needs and interests.

This enables local groups to develop their own programs which is characteristic of the kind of representation called for in The Declaration of Independence.

The success of this gigantic birthday commemoration will depend, not upon the number of spectators, but upon the number of Bicentennial participants. It is time for the millions of Americans to become involved in some way, in this historic activity.

Man Receives Two Concurrent Sentences Thurs.

Robert D. Kemp, 47, of Deer Park, last Thursday was given two one-year sentences in Garrett County Circuit Court when two appeals were heard by Associate Judge Harold E. Naughton, of Cumberland.

But he made the terms concurrent with a 13½ year sentence imposed upon Kemp earlier by Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill, in the Garrett County Circuit Court.

Kemp had appealed after Judge Lewis R. Jones in district court had given the man one year on charges of driving a motor vehicle after his license had been cancelled or revoked, and of attempting to flee to avoid arrest by an officer.

These two sentences had been made consecutive with the 13½ years imposed in a former conviction.

Judge Naughton's action leaves the total sentence stand at 13½ years. Kemp pleaded guilty to the two charges when his case was called last Thursday morning in Oakland.

Five Are Named To Board Of Elections

Five members have been appointed to the Garrett County Board of Supervisors of Elections by Governor Marvin Mandel. Three are supervisors and two are alternates.

The Supervisors are George M. Browning, Oakland; William R. Bever, Swanton, and Thomas W. Hetz, RD 1, Lonaconing (Garrett Co.).

The two alternates are Mrs. Fannie Sullivan, Mt. Lake Park, and George E. Coddington, Oakland.

The two-year terms began Monday, June 2. Appointments were dated May 28.

The supervisors are reappointments and the alternates are new.

ETV Station May Be Built In Oakland

Station Originally Planned For Cumberland May Be Transferred Here

The Maryland Center for Public Broadcasting has made application to the Federal Communications Commission to delete the FCC's channel 36 allocation at Cumberland and to authorize it instead at Oakland.

The state's broadcasting center has also requested the FCC to continue to reserve the channel 36 allocation for non-commercial use.

These changes in the original plans for statewide public television coverage were approved by the Maryland Public Broadcasting commission at its quarterly meeting on March 18.

According to Dr. Frederick Breitenfield, Jr., the center's executive director, recent studies show that 90 percent of Allegany county's population already receives public television either by broadcast from the center's channel 31 in Hagerstown, or by cable service.

"Construction of a station in Cumberland, as we had originally planned, would be an extremely costly means of serving a very small segment of the population presently not receiving a public television signal," he said.

"However, a single low-power station located near Oakland could reach a large portion of the population of Western Maryland not now receiving Maryland public television programming. These are the points that we brought to the attention of the Public Broadcasting commission."

In this county there is no Maryland public television service. Three cable systems carry Pennsylvania or West Virginia public television services to about one-third of the county's 21,000 residents. About 15,000 of the county's population is in the Oakland vicinity.

Dr. Breitenfield said that FCC approval of a channel 36 allocation for Oakland would result in substantial cost saving, in line with Governor Marvin Mandel's request to state agencies to effect stringent economies.

"The Cumberland station was to have been a $1.8 million installation; a small station at Oakland, if approved, will cost $200,000, " he said.

An Oakland transmitter would be the fifth station in Maryland's public television system.

Traffic Count At McHenry Increases

The traffic count on U.S. Route 219 at McHenry for March showed a sizeable increase over the same month last year by 24.2 percent. It is said due to better skiing weather this year.

In March 107,841 vehicles were conducted as compared to 86,852 in the same month last year.

Two other checkpoints in Western Maryland showed an increase. Md. 36 at Lonaconing showed 29.1 percent increase and U.S. 40 at Town Creek, 17.3. The only decrease was U.S. 40 at Clarysville, down 2.1 percent

Man Sought By Police Identified

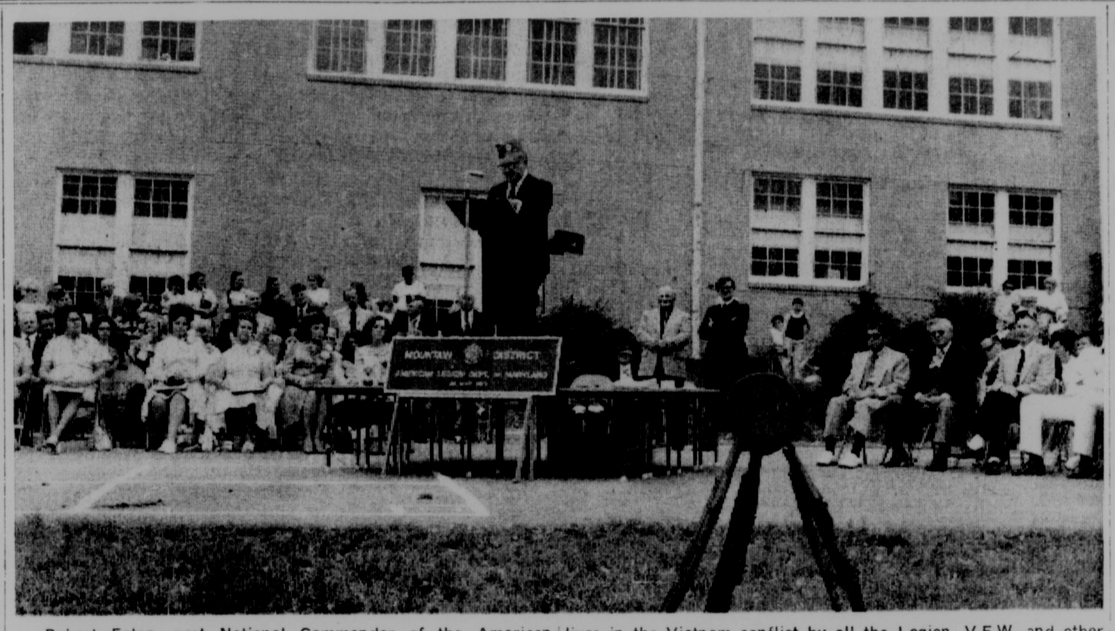
A suspect being sought in the stabbing-robbery of a 71-year-old Frostburg area man has been tentatively identified, according to State Police at LaVale.

Authorities believe the man being sought is Glenn Murlin Wiliams, Jr., 21-year-old colored man whose last known address was Jacksonville, Fla.

State Police believe that Williams is originally from Ohio, and search efforts are continuing since a truck stolen from Delta Mining company in this county was found abondoned in Wheeling earlier last week.

Williams is wanted in connection with the stabbing-robbery May 22 of James Nelson Layman, star route, Frostburg, in the Zion church cemetery along U.S. route 40 in this county.

The truck was impounded by West Virginia authorities for examination and police were awaiting a complete report.



Robert Eaton, past National Commander of the American Legion, began his speech Saturday at the memorial plaque dedication in Friendsville by asking wives and parents of deceased veterans not to feel the loss of 50,000 lives was in vain. Commander Eaton was the principal speaker at the ceremonies Saturday which began with a memorial flight by planes from the Maryland air national guard and concluded with a salute to parents and wives of the six Friendsville young men who lost their lives in the Vietnam conflict by all the Legion, V.F.W. and other units present. Three branches of the military were represented by the hats and rifles in the foreground, while Mr. Eaton is standing to the rear of part of the plaque being prepared by members of the American Legion in honor of the deceased. Wives and family members of slain Friendsville men were guests of honor near the speaker's platform at the Friendsville elementary school.

Program Of Tax Credit Provides Elderly Relief

Is Applicable To 1975 Tax Bill For Those Eligible

A program of Property Tax Credit from real property taxation including state, county and municipality taxes, has been established to provide relief for certain elderly property owners, according to Jerome K. Moyer, supervisor of Assessments and Taxation.

He pointed out the property tax credit which is not to exceed $750, is applicable to the 1975 tax bill which will be received immediately after July 1. This tax credit is only applicable to the resident property owners. It is limited to those persons who actually reside in the dwelling for more than 6 months of the 12 month period, including date of application; whose net worth does not exceed $150,000, as of January 1; who apply before October 1, 1975; who is 60 years of age or over; and whose total real property tax bill exceeds his maximum tax liability.

Mr. Moyer said the maximum tax liability will be calculated by the local assessment office and certified to each eligible owner prior to payment of tax bill. In order to obtain this certificate eligible owners should obtain application from the local assessment office in the court house, he pointed out.

A supply of applications will also be placed in each post office and each bank for convenience of property owners. Applications will be mailed to persons who received a tax credit last year.

Beginning June 9 property owners who need assistance in completing this application may bring their application to the Assessment office. Mr. Moyer also pointed out there is also a disability tax credit available at the County Commissioners' office in the court house to persons who have not attained the age of 60 years as of July 1, 1975, who are totally and permanently disabled according to social security or railroad retirement administration, whose combined gross income is not in excess of $5,000 for the calendar year 1974 and who apply before September 1.

He also pleaded not guilty of resisting arrest by Tfc. Broadwater in Vindex January 11. The jury found him guilty on all three counts. A charge of assault on Trooper Broadwater was dismissed.

Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., presiding, sentenced Tasker to six months each on the two counts in reference to Tpr. Broadwater. The two six-month terms are to run concurrently. Tasker was also sentenced to six months on the charge of assault and battery on Deputy Finch. This sentence is to run consecutively with the other two.

In his remarks, Gen. Eaton sought to impress the wives and parents of the soldiers that the loss of their husbands and sons, along with 50,000 other lives, was not in vain. Although authorities will attempt to assess the reasons for the unsuccessful war for generations, he noted that the future belongs to America and that a day will come when we will be a stronger America than we were before.

He believes that America is a country of patriotic people, and that as a country we must continue to be good. Even in the trauma over our defeat, we must not forget to remain militarily strong, he reminded.

He urged the families of the deceased and everyone to look forward and to be loyal to the objectives of the U.S. as "we owe this to the men who lost

Listen, Americans!

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON
President—National Education Program
Searcy, Arkansas

Some time ago, a company in Niagara, Wisconsin, ceased to make a profit. It was faced with the necessity of closing its doors and giving its employees notice. The employees got together and accepted a three year contract at reduced income, both in salary and in fringe benefits. Company officials agreed to keep the company operating. Now, the employees have received a bonus, the company is profitable again and everyone has a better understanding of the necessity of "profits".

During the recent past, Americans have been given an almost daily treatment of such headlines as "Oil Profits Up 83 Percent." The stories emphasize dollar volume of profits and such words as "vulgar" are applied to profits of oil companies. The same is true of automobile manufacturers, steel and many other segments of what is called "big business".

But seldom, if ever, do you see or hear a story in the press or on radio or television which explains that 1972 was a very low year for corporate profit throughout the American business community. This being true, any increase in profits in subsequent years does not mean a company is doing something illegal or bad. The highest average corporate profit percentage in America is around six percent. If profits in an oil company in 1972 were down to one percent and they went up a hundred percent the next year, the company would still be in trouble with only two percent. Then if profits doubled the next year, they could still be under a safe and reasonable profit figure, with four percent profit.

What has caused so much misunderstanding is the huge dollar figures in the oil industry in particular. Yet, the cost of building a medium size refinery is 300 million dollars and if oil companies are to keep America moving, they must have huge amounts of profits to reinvest. Jobs come from profits and expansion of business. Without profits, there will be no jobs, and even government is helpless to function or to provide public works jobs without a continuous flow of taxes which do not come in unless there are profits.

There is one group of Americans who do understand the need for profits. That group is the management or leadership of Labor Unions. One of them is the President of the United Automobile Workers, Mr. Leonard Woodcock. He appeared on the television program "Meet The Press" January 26, 1975. Listen to what he said. "You can't cut prices when you're losing money on every car that is sold. Profit margins in the automobile industry have been paper thin for more than a year. During the first nine months of 1974, General Motors reduced its sales over the year before by 17 percent, but had a drop in profits of 86 percent".

What Mr. Woodcock was saying was the same thing that was said many years ago by the founder of the American Federation of Labor, Samuel Gompers. He said, "The first responsibility business has to labor is to make a profit".

That simply means that if the man who pumps gas in your home town sells his gas for the same price he pays for it, he won't stay in business; he can't hire someone to help him, thus providing another job; and he won't take home any bacon for his children.

First off, solid cedar is beautiful, right? If you agree, that shows you've got good taste. And, that's what we make—pre-cut homes out of Western red cedar. Beautiful. Now, picture this: neighbors out painting and fixing up while you're sitting in your Justus solid cedar home relaxing. That's another beauty of building with Justus. The Justus Company. To Construct 600 Foot Chimney

Construction of a 600-foot tall reinforced concrete chimney to collect all power boiler stack gases from Westvaco's Luke mill was announced today by David G. McMaster, mill manager.

The $3,000,000 project is underway now, according to Mr. McMaster, and it will go up at a rate of 25 feet per day.

He added that the work is expected to be completed late in 1975.

Purpose of the project is to combine the stack gases from all three of the mill's power boilers into one chimney. The 600-foot height of the chimney is to conform to good engineering practice by making the unit two and one-half times taller than the highest stucture at Luke.

The new chimney, when completed, will actually be taller than the Washingron Monument in Washington, D. C.

The stack will reduce the ambient levels of sulfur dioxide.

When completed the huge unit will be be 40 feet in diameter at the bottom with three-foot thick walls. The stack will be 24 feet wide at its highest point.

their lives."

A gun salute and taps were presented by Grantsville Legion Post No. 214, and all military and marching units participated in a salute to the parents.

All six of the deceased men were alumni of Northern High School, and the NHS band, under the direction of Melvin Schwing, played several patriotic selections during the ceremonies.

Rev. William Carlson gave the invocation; Dan Burkhart, adjutant of the department of Maryland, the dedicatory prayer; and Rev. R. J. Riffle, the benediction.

Other units taking part in the program included the U. S. Naval Sea Cadets, a 47-member marching unit of youngsters aged 14 to 17 from Cumberland, under direction of Commander Eggleston, and the Mt. Savage Fire Company drill team, under direction of Sgt. Thomas Kenny.

Following the ceremonies, luncheon was served to families of the honored soldiers and those who participated in the program. Members of the Friendsville fire auxiliary prepared and served a roast beef and ham meal to those present.

Religion In The U.S.S.R.

While it is true that the arrest, conviction, and sentencing to long-term imprisonment of Rev. Georgi Vis, Baptist pastor in the U.S.S.R. is moot testimony to the prevailing winds of persecution in that Socialist utopia, the incident highlights some even deeper questions.

For example, this latest example of religious oppression took place at the very time the Communists sent a delegation of 20 "regisered" - i.e., approved - clergymen to the United States to tell the American people (and press) that "no one (in the U.S.S.R.) is denied his religious rights."

How the Communists manage to reconcile these apparent contradictions might be found in the charge against Rev. Vins which resulted in his ten years sentence to a concentration camp. According to news reports, he was convicted of "harming the interests of Soviet citizens (i.e., the Soviet government) in carrying out religious activity."

Since the clerical delegates to the United States were plainly involved in "religious activity," it appears obvious that under Soviet law the only religious activity they could carry out would be that which would BENEFIT the Soviet government and the Communist system.

Is that true religious freedom? Of course, it is not. We trust, therefore, that the American people will not be taken in by the blatant lies about Communism uttered by the visiing Soviet churchmen. If the Soviet Union really wishes to provide evidence that the Communist dictatorship is "mellowing," they will release Rev. Vins from prison.

Back To Bible Unity

Religious thinkers today realize that one of the greatest problems in Christianity is a lack of unity among believers in Christ. Division of those who profess to follow Christ has wrought havoc with the cause of our Lord. There are many churches striving for "union" today, but not for "unity".

Jesus prayed that we would all be ONE (John 17:20, 21). He knew that such unity would cause the world to believe Him. With unity, the first church preached the Gospel to the known world in one generation (Col. 1:23).

There was UNITY in the message they preached; in their faith and practice; organization of the church under Christ, the head (Col. 1:18); and there was unity of worship. The church of the first century had ONE bond of union, faith in Christ and obedience to His will.

But it wasn't long until uninspired men began to alter the Divine teachings, usurping the authority of God. While the change was gradual, the church was lost, and an apostate church was in control. In 1517 Martin Luther began the "reformation" and protestantism. Along with him were others who rebelled against doctrines that were unscriptural. To produce conformity among their people, these reformers wrote creeds, confessions of faith and the like.

This was followed by internal divisions among the various denominations which created even more denominations.

In the early 19th century a number of men of various faiths desired unity and sought to promote it. As they studied the problem, they realized that there was only one true foundation of unity — return to the basis on which the church was united in the first century. To do this they said, "we will speak where the Bible speaks and be silent where it is silent". They knew they couldn't change the Bible but they could change their beliefs and practices to fit the Bible.

With the Bible only as their guide, unity was achieved for hundreds and thousands in the first part of the 19th century.

Unity is not achieved by coercion, or church union, but by ALL consenting to the truth (John 17:17); by being of one mind (I Cor. 1:10); and by altering any former beliefs that are not harmony with the statement of Scripture.

"Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity" (Psalm 133:1)!

Need Volunteers For Oral History Project At Library

Volunteers are needed to help plan and implement a project to record on tape the reminiscences of senior citizens and other natives of Garrett County. This attempt to collect local oral history to the present day is a joint effort of members of the Garrett County Historical Society and the Community Center Libraries Project of the Ruth Enlow Library of Garrett County.

A preliminary organizational meeting will be held at 1 p.m., Wednesday, June 11, at the Ruth Enlow Library, Oakland.

The meeting will be conducted in four parts. Paul T. Calderwood, past president of the Garrett County Historical Society and Associate Editor of the Glades Star, will define oral history, discuss what is being done in established programs, and explain the value of such a program in Garrett County. Mr. Calderwood attended the 1973 Oral History Conference conducted by the Md. Historical Society and iwll share some of the important insights he gained from that and similar meetings.

Walter W. Price of the Garrett County Historical Society will speak about some of the sources of local history who might be considered and approached for first interviews. Mr. Price, Editor of the Glades Star for several years, is an authority on local history.

Miss Edith Brock, Administrator of the Ruth Enlow Library, will talk about the importance and application of such a project to the county library system. Taped interviews will be kept in the main library.

Finally, Miss Margaret Mance, Coordinator of the Community Center Libraries Project, will lead a business meeting to establish working committees and consider steps that must be taken to begin a viable project. Particular attention will be given to actively involving senior citizens in this library related activity.

One conversation was already taped and is the first of what will hopefully become an expansive collection of oral reminiscences. That conversation, which occurred in January, was between Mrs. Ellen Zimmerman, library aid at Crellin Community Library, Miss Mance, and Mrs. Agnes Lantz, life-long resident of Crellin, who talked about her remembrances of life in Crellin which was the home of two of the county's major industries, sawmilling and coal mining.

A second interview is scheduled with Robert B. Garrett, a respected source of local historical information, particularly about Deer Park and B & O Railroad history.

The ideas and contributions of anyone who has interest and/or experience with oral history will be welcome.

Emphysema Sufferers May Get Special License Plates

Maryland residents, suffering from emphysema, disease of the lungs, will be entitled to the special license plates and parking privileges which are already extended to certain other handicapped persons who drive automobiles, beginning July 1, according to L. Fred Dean, local council president of the American-Maryland Lung association.

A Senate bill extending these benefits to persons with emphysema was passed during the recent General Assembly.

In order to establish eligibility patients must have a physician certify to the extent of their illness. Under the Motor Vehicle code persons with the plates are exempt from paying parking meter fees and shall be allowed to park for unlimited periods in parking zones.

Events Above The Mountain Top

Paul S. Frank, Jr.

June 5-11, 1975

The closest planet to the sun has been observed on three flybys of Mariner 10. The last occurred on March 16th when Mariner 10 flew to about 32 kilometers (200 miles) above the planet's surface.

Photographs showing details of the planet's surface as small as 45 meters (50 yards) in diameter enable more accurate counts of craters. The observations make possible deductions about the history and composition of the planet. It has also been determined that the planet has a magnetic field generated independently of the solar wind.

New Moon will occur at 2:49 p.m. Monday. The moon will set at 4:46 p.m. today. By Wednesday moonset will not occur until 10:24 pm.

Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn are visible. Venus is very bright among the stars of Gemini. It sets three hours after the sun. Saturn also among the stars of Gemini sets two and one-half hours after the sun. Mars and Jupiter appear near each other in the predawn sky. They rise about three hours before the sun with the stars of Pisces.

Six minutes more daylight occur Wednesday than occur today. Sunrise was at 5:51 a.m. this morning. Sunset will be fourteen hours forty-nine minutes earlier and sets four minutes later than it does today.

A fire service class will be taught at Eastern Garrett County Volunteer Fire department on June 12. Gene Carlson will instruct on Fire Service Tankers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

Why must a few spoil things for the rest of us? Why can't the cheapies and the fish-hogs play the game along with the rest? The Broad Ford recreation area is intended to be for the enjoyment of all, offering something for every member of the family. Although it is owned and operated and financed by the town of Oakland, it is open to the public with only a very modest entry fee, charged to help cover the expenses of operation and maintenance. Picnic tables and grills 'neath the shade of beautiful trees; boating, swimming, walking and fishing are some of the many attractions.

But the cheapies and the fish-hogs still are a problem, spoiling the deal for all. Too cheap to pay the 25-cent admission charge, they park illegally outside the park, trespassing on town property and creating resentment by those who do come in. And the fish-hogs! With a state limit of 5 and 7 per day for bass and trout, some of the fish-hogs sneak away with catches of 20, 25 and more. Is this sportsmanlike? We need the support of the fair-minded sportsmen. We need your help, your moral support, as well as your invaluable support at the gate, if we are to make Broad Ford recreation area a place we all can enjoy.

Gordon K. Douglass

Dear Sir:

Mrs. Mary Frances Paige was featured in the past week's newspaper. She is a wonderful, dear lady. Back in 1958 I was in the hospital twice in one year for two serious operations. One night this lady came into my room about 1 o'clock to check. I said "Do you know what I would like to have to eat?" She said, "But it is one o'clock." I said, "I mean for breakfast." She said, "You name it." I said, "Some real hot buttered toast with hot milk with lots of salt and pepper." She said, "You will get it." And that is what I had for breakfast. Something my dear old mother fixed for me when I was a child and sick.

Everyone was so nice and good. All the good doctors and especially Dr. Alvarez. Thank you all for pleasant memories.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

I would like to commend The Republican for refusing to print advertizing which subsequently appeared in another publication.

I am very glad our local paper prints, as advertizing, personal local opinion, as this is a valuable community forum. However, it is necessary when one does this to maintain a standard of taste and avoid too much emotional zeal. I am very pleased to see that this concomitant of responsibility is also being upheld in addition to promoting expression of opinion.

Yours truly,
Marilee I. Payne

1975 Conservation Program Listed

Garrett County farmers who plan to carry out conservation practices under the 1975 Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) are urged to sign up with the County Office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS), Leslie Guard, Chairman of the Garrett County ASC Committee, says.

The program is late this year and there are some differences between the old program (1974) and the new one. Also, funds are limited. It is still not too late to think about doing some practices with enduring benefits, Mr. Guard said.

Sign up will be June 6 through June 27. Farmers may come to the ASCS Office to file a request for participation in the program. As in the past, request for cost-sharing must be on file prior to starting to work on the practice.

Some points noted on the appeal are: (1) No such order was received (by registered mail as is the custom); (2) the Town denies the power is vested in the Secretary, and (3) denies investigation of the conditions by the Secretary. An article on the subject appeared in The Republican of May 22.

June 19 has been declared "Miss Marion B. Leary Day" as she will be 100 years old.

Alfalfa Weevil, Army Worms Here To "Bug" Farmers

Army Worms and Alfalfa Weevil are here! Farmers are alerted to check their alfalfa and corn fields for these two very destructive insects by James McHenry, County Extension Agent, Agriculture.

The army worm has been found in the county. They are presently in the crop trash or in hay fields. In this stage they do little damage but will be moving into corn shortly. The young army worm feeds primarily at night. During the day they seek shelter under field litter, lodged plants and weeds, McHenry said. Army worms appearing in Garrett County this early is due to the unusually warm spring. Treatment for army worms is dependent on the extent of damage to corn. Treatment is with Malathion, Dylox or Toxaphene following the directions and rates on the label.

Alfalfa weevils are heavy in some areas. Farmers making the first cutting of hay are noticing heavy population of alfalfa weevil larvae on cutting bars.

Farmers are advised to observe fields and when 50% of tips of alfalfa show damage, either cut or spray. A successful practice in Garrett County has been to cut the alfalfa and spray the stubble with a combination of Methoxychlor E. C. plus Malathion E. C. at two quarts of material per acre, according to Mr. McHenry. This combination will also control pea aphids and meadow spittlebugs.

The main problem is for farmers to check their fields regularly. In the rush of spring work, sometimes insect outbreaks go unnoticed.

The Extension Service has available F.S.-149 "Control of Insects on Alfalfa and Red Clover" and Bulletin 237 "Pest Control in Field Crops." Both of these publications can be obtained by calling the Extension Office, or by stopping in the office in the basement of the Post Office building.

Byron Planning Water Resources Meeting For July 11

Rep. Goodloe Byron announced he is organizing a meeting of local, state and federal officials to discuss long-term water needs for Central and Western Maryland.

The Water Resources Conference is scheduled for Friday, July 11 at Frederick Community College with participants expected from Garrett, Allegany, Washington, Frederick, Carroll, Howard and Baltimore counties.

"One of the purposes for having this meeting is to bring local and county officials directly in contact with key state and federal representatives responsible for planning and administering the development of secondary water resources," Byron said.

Representatives from the State Department of Natural Resources, Corps of Engineers, Department of Agriculture and the Environmental Protection Agency will be among the speakers attending the summer seminar.

Byron hopes that the panel discussion and informal seminars will enable mayors, county commisioners and local planning staffs to question state and federal officials on specific area problems.

Realignment Of Rt. 42 Discussed

State Highway Administration officials met with the County Commissioners concerning the realignment of Maryland route 42 from Friendsville to U.S. 219. The SHA said public opinion at a hearing in Friendsville last month caused officials to review the project.

At the meeting Monday the Commissioners were told that the SHA would be moving ahead with upgrading existing route.

On hand also were State Sen. Ed Mason, Del. DeCorsey Bolden, Jack Bushby, Robert Hysaik and William Goldsborough from the SHA and Paul DeWitt, county roads engineer, with the construction of the National Freeway through Friendsville. Citizens there are showing more concern about its impact on existing roads in the future. It was pointed out that upgrading of Md. 42 from Friendsville to U.S. 219 would be imperative after the National Freeway is completed.

Commissioners continued in budget sessions with G. Bradford Rinard, executive director, Community Action. CAC's local request reflects an approximate $4,000 increase over the current year, even though it was expected that total programs at that agency would decrease for the coming fiscal year. The commissioners took the request under advisement.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Margaret E. (Maggie) Beeman wishes to express a heartfelt thanks to the doctors and staff of the Garrett County Memorial Hospital; to David Burdock, Bill Brantner, and Rev. George Tichinell.

Also to the many wonderful friends who sent cards, flowers, gave money, and brought food to our home in our time of grief and sorrow. Our thanks go out to all of these many dear people.

May God bless you all.

Insurance FACTS

The standard fire insurance policy provides insurance first of all "against direct loss by fire". The word fire is not defined in the contract, but has been explained in detail as courts have interpreted its full meaning. Fire is produced by combustion, yet not all combustion is fire. The presence of heat, steam, or even smoke is evidence of fire, but taken by itself will not prove the existence of fire. A fire must be combustion which results in actual flame or glow.

GONDER INSURANCE AGENCY, 203-205 South 2nd St., 334-3343, will be happy to go over your fire insurance policies with you and explain them to you. We handle every type of insurance — personal lines — life, health, accident, homeowners, auto, boat, mobile homes, motorcycles, and commercial insurance. We know how to get you the most for your insurance dollar.

COMMISSIONERS GET KEYS — Garrett County Commissioners George Edwards, Don Bender and Wayne Hamilton accepted sets of keys for the new Garrett Bus System vehicles at the conclusion of a ceremony marking the occasion Tuesday at the Oakland Armory. Making the presentation was Norman D. Hall, right, director of Public Transportation Development for the Maryland Department of Transportation. Twenty-one persons rode the new bus on a tour through Pleasant Valley following the ceremony.

Norman Hall Is Speaker At Bus Ceremony Tuesday

Norman D. Hall, director of public transportation development for the Maryland Department of Transportation, was the principal speaker Tuesday afternoon at the key presentation ceremonies for the new Garrett Bus System at the Oakland Armory.

Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, Wayne Hamilton, was master of ceremonies and introduced special guests including Don Bender and George Edwards, county commissioners, who addressed remarks to the group.

Present were Lester Edwards and Raymond Kaughman, both the Department of Transportation; Mrs. Norman Hall; Thomas A. Damron, western sales manager for Transcoach Corporation which supplied the buses; Bud Berry, assistant administrator for the Tri-County Council; Robert Ford, chairman of the local Commission on Aging; Gary Mullich, director of the Garrett System, Dr. William Pope, deputy county health officer, and David Ramsey, with Emergency Services.

In his speech, Mr. Hall apologized for the Secretary of Transportation Harry Hughes who was unable to attend, and went on to note that these buses were the first purchase of the rural Transit demonstration program.

He also stated Garrett County was an ideal demonstration area as the county people show the right amounts of incentive, initiative and desire to succeed necessary for such a project.

Following his presentation of three sets of keys for the buses to the three county commissioners, 21 members of the group were taken on a bus tour through the Pleasant Valley area.

Refreshments, featuring a cake baked by Mrs. Shirley Rinker of Route 1, Gormania, decorated with a Garrett System bus, were served at the beginning of the 1:30 p.m. ceremonies.

There are many ancient games which resemble golf in some ways, but were not exactly like it. Everyone agrees that golf is a unique game, and the result, perhaps of a natural evolution of some of the earlier sports. Records show, the experts tell us, that a kind of golf was played in Scotland during the fifteenth century, and it has been pointed out many times that the game reveals characteristics in keeping with the Scot's reserve, caution, and meticulous care.

SENSING THE NEWS

ANTHONY HARRIGAN

Southern States Industrial Council

A Radicalized Britain

Anyone in America who thinks that the British Labor Party espouses a tame version of socialism has need of examining the realities on this side of the Atlantic. Well-informed observers note the rising influence of truly radical elements within the Labor Party.

It is not generally known in America, for example, that Clause Four of the Labor Party's current Constitution commits that party "to secure for the workers by hand or by brain the full fruits of their industry and the most equitable distribution thereof that may be possible upon the basis of the common ownership of the means of production, distribution and exchange." Such a goal, if attained, would involve a thoroughly radicalized and restructured Great Britain in which traditional freedoms were eliminated.

Many thoughtful Britons are seriously alarmed at the growing influence of hardcore radicals. In a speech delivered to the Rotary Club of London before the last general election, Geoffrey Stewart-Smith, editor of East-West Digest and a former member of Parliament, made these telling points:

"There are ominous parallels between events in Chile and in Britain today. They had a government voted into power on a minority percentage of the votes committed to a radical policy of nationalization. So have we. They had raging inflation. So have we.

"Allende nationalized banking, insurance, mining, textiles, consumer durables, food canning and foreign commerce.

"The Queen's Speech contained indications of further massive nationalization in this country. Polls, however, indicate the British people do not want it.

"Allende brought in a state holding company. We will soon have the National Enterprise Board.

Allende's Directorate of Trade and Industry froze prices. We have price controls now.

"Allende demanded that trade unionists should determine production. The Government's White Paper 'The Regeneration of Industry' demands that planning agreements should be drawn up by management 'in close consultation with trade union representatives.'

"If anyone thinks that these measures were brought in to improve economic efficiency, they should have their heads examined. The aim never has been and never will be greater efficiency but rather the use of economic means to seize political power.

"What lies ahead is predictables.

"Companies faced with massive increases in costs (due to the quadrupling of Arab oil prices probably under Soviet pressure) and frozen prices will suffer a chronic cash flow problem and face bankruptcy.

"Allende gave himself power to appoint state's 'interventors' on boards of private companies if they were in financial difficulties; reduced production; or were laying off workers.

"Both the Labor Government and trade union leaders in Britain are pressing for power to appoint the same kind of people on the boards of private companies but they will be called state directors, state controllers or even public trustees!"

As Mr. Stewart-Smith pointed out, the Labor government is under enormous pressure to advance more quickly to socialism. In Parliament, the extreme left-wing group of Laborites is opposing the government on defense spending and other issues. In the unions, the older anti-communist leadership is yielding to newer Marxist elements.

The revolutionary groups are very active in their attacks on industry. For example, Mr. Stewart-Smith noted in his speech that the International Socialist organization will "actively find jobs for people in industry in order to attack companies within." They produce a series of revolutinary newspapers devoted not only to various industries but to individual companies.

Clearly, the hour is late in Britain for a major campaign of education aimed at defending the country's free institutions, including the institution of private property.

Sermonette By Area Ministers

by John A. Grant
Vicar of St. John's Episcopal Church, Deer Park

"... and who is my neighbor?" St. Luke 10:29.

You are driving down the highway, and you see a car parked on the shoulder. As you come closer, it is apparent that it has some kind of mechanical trouble. Two more seconds go by, and you have whizzed past the disabled automobile.

Yet, the vision of the car will persist and you will wonder what happened to it. Like many Christians your conscience will bother you, because you will remember the story of the Good Samaritan. Perhaps you could have helped the stranded motorist, but at that particular moment you chose not to do it.

Our Lord's story of the Good Samaritan ranks high on the list of ones which Christians remember. It covers several different expressions of one's personality. The longer it is studied, the greater the number of answers which appear to this question, "... who is my neighbor?"

One of the deepest meanings to this story lies in the fact that we have to make choices each minute of the day. Generally these choices are made automatically, but sometimes they require several moments of thought. Unfortunately, our attitude at the moment will dictate whether or not the choice is made accordingly to the highest moral standards.

It is easy to condemn the priest and the Levite for failing to help the man who had been beaten and robbed. Yet, given the same choice, what do you do? Do you stop and give help only when it is convenient, or do you do it automatically.

Consider for a moment several things which could have gone through your mind the moment you saw the stranded motorist. First, he was probably a complete stranger, and there was little chance you would ever see him again. If you pass by, he would never be able to confront you with your failure to help him. Second, you might get involved in a time consuming affair and miss a very important appointment. (In this day, when everything moves so fast, it is unforgivable to be late!) Third, is a reason which will always ease your conscience, you might cause a traffic accident by stopping to help someone.

With these considerations in mind, maybe it is harder to condemn the priest and Levite. Obviously, we too make self-centered choices, and do it many times a day.

Thus, we begin to understand that our Lord was teaching something about how we should make choices. When we make one, it should be made beyond our own personal attitude at the moment. Often, what is convenient, is really the right thing to do.

So next time you see a situation where help is needed, don't keep on going and disappear around the next curve. All your good intentions aren't worth a nickel if you don't put them into action ... and action means that you do know "who is your neighbor."

Rescue Squad Plans Carnival Saturday

Members of the Southern Garrett County Rescue Squad are planning their annual fund-raising carnival this Saturday, June 7, on the employe parking lot of the First National Bank in Oakland.

All types of carnival games will be available between 1 and 5 p.m. Baked goods will also be offered for sale.

Members of the Harige Clown unit of Ali Ghan Shrine, Cumberland, will be performing, and members of the Southern High School band will be playing selections during the afternoon. All three squad vehicles will be on display.

As part of the fund drive this year, over 9,456 hand-addressed letters to residents of the southern part of the county have been sent requesing donations.

Money contributed will be used for continuation of services and also for a new squad building. The building currently in use on Liberty Street is becoming too crowded for the number of vehicles and squad members.

Persons knowing of a suitable site for building a new rescue squad hall within one-half mile of Oakland may contact Brad Stewart, chairman of the finance committee who is also in charge of carnival arrangements.

The first and largest donation so far to the fund is a check for $1,000 from Community Helpers Circle composed of five families from Deer Park and Swanton.

Road Contract On Rt. 40 Awarded

State Highway Administrator Bernard M. Evans has announced the award of a contract for a grading and paving project in Garrett County to The Interstate Amiesite Corporation of Concordville, Pa.

The $51,146 contract includes the grading and paving of the roadway along U.S. 40 for 0.114 mile east of New Germany Road, which has been permanently relocated 0.25 mile further west of its previous location.

Also included in this project is the construction of a by-pass lane, which will broaden the roadway's existing width of 24 feet by 12 feet for a portion of the highway to be paved.

G. E. Geary, Assistant District Engineer - Construction in Garrett County, explained that the purpose of the road work is to lower the roadway by approximately three feet, thereby reducing the sight distance and eliminating visual difficulties. Mr. Geary projects the construction time to be a maximum of six weeks.

Rabies Clinics Support New Law

A new state law, effective July 1, requires that all dogs over four months of age be vaccinated against rabies.

As a result Dr. William W. Pope, deputy state health officer for this county announced that the department, in cooperation with local veterinarians and the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene would be offering clinics on June 13, 14 and 15.

Dr. Pope said proof of vaccination must be provided before the dog owners may get a county dog license after July 1. The fee at the clinics will be $2 per animal.

Dates and locations:

Oakland, Armory, June 13, 5 to 8 p.m.; Grantsville, fire hall, June 14, 2 to 3:30; Friendsville, fire hall, 14th, 4:30 to 5:30; Oakland, armory, 14th, 6:30 to 8; McHenry, fairgrounds, June 15, 2 to 4 p.m.

Persons using the clinics will receive a green bell-shaped rabies tag and a completed rabies certificate for dog or cat.

Last year 27 animals were confirmed by Maryland laboratories as having rabies. Majority of these were bats.

Collect Telephone Calls Authorized For Social Security

Employees in the Cumberland office of the Social Security Administration are authorized to accept collect telephone calls from Garrett County recipients.

Congressman Goodloe Byron said James Caldwell, Commissioner of Social Security, feels that Garrett County does not need a full-time Social Security office and it would be impractical to provide toll free service by either wide area telephone system (WATS) ro foreign exchange (FX) lines.

The response to Congressman Byron came after W. Dale Ellis, director of Senior Citizens Programs for Garrett County, asked for a full-time Social Security officer for the elderly, handicapped and disabled.

Ellis said he felt that the two hour a day two days a week operation at the National Guard Armory in Oakland Tuesdays and Fridays does not meet the needs of Garrett countians. Ellis suggested bringing the field worker to Garrett for two full days which was also rejected.

Caldwell promised Congressman Byron that regional and local management of Social Security will continue to monitor the Garrett County area for indications of a change in telephone service needs.

Ellis urged Garrett countians with Social Security problems to call the Cumberland office collect if an appearance can not be made at the Oakland office.

Receives Degree

William Bruce Grant, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Grant, 121 North Second street, Oakland, has received a Bachelor of Arts degree at West Virginia Wesleyan's eighty-fifth annual commencement. He is a history major.

Taken To Med Center

Mrs. Julie Rush, 26, Friendsville, was transferred from Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland to the University Medical Center in Morgantown, W. Va., by the Southern Rescue squad last evening about 9 o'clock.

She remains in serious condition at the hospital where she is in the intensive care unit.

Marihuana Profitable — For Criminals

Largely unnoticed by the public a vicious propaganda campaign has been launched against reputable and top-ranking scientists, doctors and medical researchers who have had the temerity to speak out against marihuana.

For example Prof. Gabriel Nahas of Columbia University, after extensive research, declared that the use of marihuana as little as three times a week seriously reduces DNA synthesis in the body; and that, in consequence of this, the generation of immune cells (the T-lymphocytes) is reduced by a factor of 41 percent. Conclusion: Marihuana is bad for people.

Following the press conference at which the findings were announced, however, Columbia University was swamped with letters which accused Dr. Nahas of "psychopharmacological McCarthyism" (there's that dirty word, again!) and attacking his findings as "meretricious trash" among other things.

Others who have warned of the dangers of marihuana have been similarly abused. Why?

Because there is enormous profit in the sale and distribution of marihuana and its derivative hashish — millions upon millions of dollars. Those who seek to profit by any means—even at the cost of the lives and health of others—will stoop to any level to discredit those who would foil their nefarious trade.

It is time for the medical profession as a whole to launch an all out attack against the dangerous drug, marihuana, and to encourage others of their profession to continue their scientific research into the health hazards risked by users.

Gentlemen Of The Jury

As a trial of prominent government officials is ending, we again realize the importance of the people in a jury system. Conservatism or lack thereof, political party, and certainly the ideas of integrity in an individual's living pattern, all greatly modify the verdict which he, as a member of the jury, will uphold.

Our American legal procedure prides itself on the jury system, representing trial by the peers of the accused. In the psychological sense, it may be difficult to prove who can be defined as a true peer; nevertheless, there is an attempt at pure justice in removing from a jury panel those prejudices interfere with dedicated judgment.

Trial by jury has its basis in the English tradition, stemming from the reign of Henry III, not from the Magna Charta, which merely put the king below the law and provided for no loss of life, liberty, or property without judgment of one's social equals. These questions were to be resolved, according to the Charter, by the appropriate mode of trial for the type of case being considered.

Modern juries are impaneled and sworn to investigate questions of fact from which they return a verdict. This has not always been true, however. When the Normans invaded England, they adopted primitive types of justice. By an "inquest" the chosen men decide questions upon their own knowledge instead of testimony from witnesses. Chiefly for transacting the royal business, this method seems unusual to us, but it happily superseded the old forms of trial that fill us with horror. Trial by physical ordeals (hot coals or floating in water), by wielding weapons with an adversary to determine the innocent party, or by compugation, that is, having one's neighbors swear to one's innocence, were hardly what we could see as examples of the finest justice. Much later, in the twelfth century, procedures were changed so that jurors decide only upon evidence heard in court.

Despite criticisms of its lengthy involvement and argumentation, the jury system is defended by many people who feel that its abolishment would have grave consequences, for it remains a phase of government in which ordinary citizens may still take a direct part. And most of us agree with George Washington, "The administration of justice is the firmest pillar of government."

Downgrading Freedom

Downgrading Freed om ...

One of the underplayed news stories of recent weeks was the story of Sen. Henry M. Jackson's "Summit" visit to Communist China and his recommendations on his return.

For several years, Sen Jackson (D-Wash) has maintained a hard-line posture on defense and foreign policy, despite his record of liberalism on domestic issues. Now, it seems, he intends to shed his image as a hard-liner.

This became apparent in a press conference that the Washington Post said had "the earmarks of a presidential campaign production." The Senator's hard-line opposition to Chinese Communist ambitions was abandoned in his announcement that he favors full U.S. diplomatic relations with the Peking regime and withdrawal of the American embassy from Free China on Taiwan.

The Committee for A Free China has rightly described Sen. Jackson's proposals as "wrong morally, militarily, strategically, tactically, diplomatically and practically."

Sen. Jackson's statement is shocking and dismaying. It is nothing less than a proposal that the United States signal to the world that it downgrades the value of association with a free people and prefers a harmonious relationship with a regime ideologically committed to the destruction of the United States and responsible for the deaths of more than 20 million anti-communist Chinese on the mainland. Is this to be American moral leadership in the decade ahead? Is this Sen. Jackson's view of the responsibility of American power?

Sen. Jackson's switch to the apologist role is unmistakable. When a reporter noted that the senator sounded like he had discovered a "good communist superpower," Sen. Jackson replied: "I'm not passing on the goodness" of China but "what I've suggested is there are many areas where our interests are parallel."

What areas? How can the United States, a nation based on individual liberty, have parallel interests with one of the most brutal anti-human regimes of modern history?

Obviously, the interests of the United States cannot parallel the interests of Communist China. Everything in Mao's China is antithetical to the way of life in which Americans believe. Free China or Taiwan, however, represents not only dedication to orderly, domestic processes but is a continuation of the mainstream of historic Chinese culture which Mao and his brutal cohorts have sought to destroy. Indeed at this very time the Peking regime is attempting to extinguish the last vestiges of the Chinese people's dedication to the principles of their older civilization.

The United States has to deal with Communist China as a fact of international life. Discussions can be carried forward without adding to the prestige of the Mao regime or undercutting the Free Chinese on Taiwan. If American history means anything, especially its history of involvements in the Far East since the 19th century, the United States has a solemn obligation to its own traditions and interests to foster genuine freedom in Asia - - not to suggest that the lights of freedom in Asia are of no importance.

Sen. Jackson's private summit meeting in Peking suggests that ambition has triumphed over principle and that the senator is hoping to earn the good will of those in America who are bent on appeasing Chairman Mao.

Earnings Drop

Westvaco Corporation has reported that earnings for the second quarter and six months ended April 30 fell below last year's levels.

Sales of $180,741,000 in the second quarter were 8 percent below sales of $197,446,000 a year ago.

Second quarter earnings amounted to $7,201,000, equal to 64 cents a share, 46 percent below earnings of $13,389,000, or $1.21 a share, for the corresponding period last year. Earnings for the first six months of 1975 amounted to $17,231,000, or $1.54 a share, a decline of 23 percent from the $22,477,00, or $2.03 a share, earned in the first six months of 1974.

David L. Luke III, president, said the drop in second quarter income from last year's figure was attributable to external economic conditions.

Sermonette

Vacation time is here! For most places school is almost over; weather is warm; summer is here. This becomes more noticeable every year. Our new interstate and four-lane highways make all parts of the nation more easy to get to; jet air-craft make Europe and other parts of the world just a few hours away. We have more long week-ends, and workers enjoy longer vacations. The leisure-recreation industry is the second or third largest industry in many states, and certainly among the top in Oakland and Garrett County. People will be on the move this summer in record numbers.

What is the Christian to think about this new leisure? In the New Testament, there is little attention given to leisure. People worked hard for a bare existence in a primitive rural society, as many people do today in the more underdeveloped parts of the world. But one incident stands out, an incident where Jesus did and did not do certain things. This is the Wedding Feast in Cana of Galilee where Jesus was deeply involved with people enjoying an occasion of leisure and joy. Jesus did not take advantage of this happy gathering to preach a sermon. In fact, there is no record that he even gave the Invocation at the feast! He was just there, like anyone else, enjoying himself and rejoicing in the joy of the newly married couple. When the need arose for more wine, he quietly went out and took care of it, without calling attention to himself.

Here is a pattern for the Church and the Christian as leisure time is given to all of us. Leisure is a gift of God to be enjoyed, to be used, a time for the company of others. Leisure is a time for refreshment, companionship, for renewal of body, mind and spirit. It has value just as work does. It is a shame when people feel guilty when they are free from work, guilty that they are not working or doing something "useful." Leisure is a gift of God to be enjoyed as Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, a gift which we must use responsibly and for which we give thanks to God.

The Creation story in Genesis points out that after God had created the heavens and earth in six days, on the seventh day he rested. This has real meaning for us in this day of technology, science and unprecedented productivity. For man is beginning, at least among a majority of American people, to meet basic needs for food, clothing and shelter. So we as a people have a greater time of rest; or if not rest, at least time off from work. We have mobility of good highways and jet planes. We have opportunities for traveling, seeing and meeting people. These are gifts to all of us, gifts of God which, like all gifts of God, we must thank him for, and use responsibly. If we give thanks to God for our leisure time, we will find that he has "given a hearty desire to pray," and that we may be comforted in all our lives, including our leisure this summer. Thanks be to God for his many gifts and blessings to us.

The Rev. Manning L. Smith

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

INCOMPLETE CHRISTIANS

Lesson for June 8, 1975

Background Scripture: Deuteronomy 6:1-9; Luke 4:1-4; 2 Timothy 3:10-17; 2 Peter 1:16-21.
Devotional Reading: Psalms 119:89-96.

A mother was helping her son to unpack his army duffel bag. In the breast pocket of one of his uniforms she found the Bible she had sent to him.

"Did you read it?" she asked.

"Oh, you bet," her son replied.

"How far?" she persisted.

Flashing a smile, her son replied, "From cover to cover."

Rev. Althouse

Handing him the Bible, she said, "Turn to page three, please." Opening the Bible, he found on page three two twenty dollar bills. "I put them there when I sent you the Bible," she explained.

If it were forbidden

In relating this little story, I am not suggesting that all of my readers start paging madly through their Bibles. But I do believe that in many homes the Bible might be the very best place to hide money, for it seems to be one of the places least likely to be disturbed.

Church historians tell us that for daring to translate the Bible into English, William Tyndale was burned at the stake and Henry VIII did his best to keep the English Bible out of England. Public notices with this warning were posted:

No women, nor artificers, nor apprentices, journeymen, servingmen, yeomen, husbandmen or laborers shall read the Bible in English to himself or another, privately or openly on pain of a month's imprisonment.

Perhaps we'd be further ahead today if our own government were to pass such legislation. The prospect of people reading it "on the sly," buying it under the counter at bookstores, having it sent in a plain wrapper" ..... well, who knows what that might do!

The writer of 2 Timothy assures us that "scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work" (2 Timothy 3:16).

Ill-equipped

Judging by those standards and our biblical illiteracy, many of us are quite incomplete as followers of Christ. We are ill-equipped for our discipleship because, although we honor and venerate the Bible, we do not study it, know it, and use it up to anything close to its potential. The Bible is one of the Christian's finest, most important resources, but it is also one of the most neglected.

The most common excuses are that the Bible is just too difficult to understand. Yet, we live in an age of multiple popular Bible translations and have an almost unlimited supply of literature and other aids to help us understand it. There are courses in Bible study and even our televisions stations sometimes provide this kind of programming.

Why is it, then, that many of us continue to be so incomplete as far as the Bible is concerned?

DRUGS MUST BE CAREFULLY STORED

A great many medicines react to outside influences and must be protected to insure their potency. Some must be refrigerated, some kept away from light and still others must be kept in special containers. When a new drug comes in, one of the very first things we do is determine where and how we should keep it.

When you receive a medicine from us that requires special handling we will either tell you about it, put it on the label or attach an extra label with the proper directions. Always follow the storage directions carefully to insure you are getting the most benefit from what you are taking.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Modern Milk

Nonfat dry milk has all the qualifications to place it high on the list of convenience foods. It has multiple uses, requires little storage space, has long shelf life, and instant availability. One added advantage — it's inexpensive.

Right now it's also plentiful. U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that commercial stocks are more than double those of a year earlier. In total volume it represents nearly 115 million pounds.

It works well for weight watchers looking for high nutrition and low calerie count, and for those requiring protein or other nutritive boosts. It can be added to fluid milk and other foods to increase protein, mineral, and vitamin count.

You can buy it by the box, mix it by the quart or gallon, drink it by the glass. Whatever your family milk requirements are, you mix only what you need, when you need it. Once it has been reconstituted, freezing is not recommended, but once reconstituted it should be refrigerated.

Proper storage requires only that it be kept in a dry, cool spot in your pantry. It should be tightly covered to avoid absorption of any moisture. Shelf life is about 6 months.

It has many uses other than as a beverage. Nonfat dry milk can be substituted for fluid milk in baking. When used this way, it should be added to the dry ingredients of the recipe. It should not be sifted. To fill liquid measure, use given recipe amount in water.

Mixed with equal amounts of ice water, nonfat dry milk can be whipped up to the consistency of whipped cream and served as a low-calorie dessert topping. It can also be whipped with frozen juice concentrates for a dessert in itself.

A good breakfast muffin will provoke praise for the cook and a reduced cost per muffin when made with nonfat dry milk.

Apple Crunch Muffins

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, ⅓ cup instant nonfat dry milk, ⅓ cup granulated sugar, 4 tsp. double action baking powder, 1 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. cinnamon, 1 cup finely chopped peeled apples, ¾ cup water, ¼ cup vegetable oil, 1 egg.

Crunch Topping: ⅓ cup firmly packed brown sugar, ⅓ cup chopped nuts, ½ tsp. cinnamon.

Sift flour, add nonfat dry milk, sugar, baking powder, salt and cinnamon in bowl. Mix in apple. Combine water, oil and egg. Stir into flour mixture. Do not overmix. Spoon into 12 well-greased muffin cups. Combine ingredients for topping. Sprinkle topping over batter in each cup. Bake in preheated 400 degree oven 18 to 20 minutes. Serve warm.

Broccoli in Cheese Custard

1 (10 oz.) pkg. frozen chopped broccoli, ¾ cup instant nonfat dry milk, ½cup shredded Swiss cheese, 2 eggs, 2 tbsp. lemon juice, 2 tbsp, butter, melted, 1/8 tsp. pepper, 1-¼ cups hot water.

Cook broccoli according to package directions. Drain well. Meanwhile, in a large bowl beat remaining ingredients until combined. Place broccoli in a 1-½ quart casserole. Pour in custard mixture. Set casserole in shallow pan on oven rack; add enough hot water to pan to come up about one inch around casserole. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven 40 to 45 minutes or until knife inserted in center comes out clean and top is browned. Yield: 6 servings.

Construction On New Church Underway

Construction has begun on the new St. Ann's Catholic Church and parochial residence in Northern Garrett County. The site of the Church is at the intersection of Routes, 40, 48, and Foster Mill Road, two miles east of Grantsville.

The modern style church, seating about three hundred, was designed by Joseph C. Severino of the architectural firm of Bender Associates, Incorporated, of Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. Mr. Severino, familiar with Western Maryland, has designed the church with the mountainous terrain in mind, and the scenic beauty of the area as a back drop. The interior of the church features light oak altars, statues, pews, and stations of the Cross. The General Contractor is Walter C. Growden, Incorporated, Bishop Walsh Road, Cumberland.

When completed, the church will serve the combined missions of St. Ann, Avilton, and St. Stephen, Grantsville, and will be the only Catholic Church in Northern Garrett County.

Rev. Kenny Cox, O.F.M. Cap. is the pastor of the congregation which will number between one hundred seventy five and two hundred families.

INTRODUCING THE FIRST AFFORDABLE MINI THAT DOESN'T LOOK LIKE A CHOPPED VAN

THE CHAMPION 22' MINI-MOTOR HOME
If you've been looking at other mini-motor homes you know that those in Champion's price class look like they were haphazardly joined together. Well, Champion has changed all that.
The Champion mini-motor home doesn't have the crimped aluminum siding or the boxy design of the other mini's. Instead we use smooth aluminum siding shaped aerodynamically so that the curved lines combine nicely with those of the driver's cab compartment. The sleek exterior styling is also highlighted with red, white and blue accent stripes for a distinctive sporting flare. Slant side windows and raised roof line also add to the futuristic design.
RIDES AND HANDLES LIKE A BREEZE
The frisky Champion mini-motor home rides, handles and parks almost as easily as the family station wagon. The cozy, quiet driver's area with deep cushion bucket seats and car-type instrument panel make driving a pleasant experience. Even the gals will enjoy taking the wheel with Champion's great maneuverability. Because Dodge power steering, power brakes and automatic transmission make this value-packed beauty handle like a breeze.
When you're on the highway, a powerful, efficient, Dodge 360 cu. in. V-8 engine has all the moxie it takes to handle passing situations and long pulls up steep grades. Easy riding characteristics such as independent front suspension provide a brand of driving comfort that makes getting there as fun-filled and relaxing as being there.

Congressman Goodloe Byron
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, in care of U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks–

Can you please discuss the Bicentennial Community program and tell me how our town may apply?

Communities in Central and Western Maryland may apply for official recognition as a Bicentennial Community as part of the nation-wide effort to stimulate grass roots involvement in America's 200th annuversary. According to the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission (ARBC) the following procedures should be followed: First, your community should organize a special Bicentennial planning and coordinating committee which is representative of all segments of the community; Second, plans should be drawn up which will include at least one lasting reminder of the special effort the community undertook for the Bicentennial commemoration; Third, obtain the approval of the Chief Executive Office or governing body of the community and then submit the application through the appropriate Bicentennial agency.

Why must a veteran requiring nursing home care first be hospitalized under VA auspices?

Under the Veterans' Health Care Expansion Act of 1973 this is no longer true, the new law permits the furnishing of nursing home care, in the case of service-connected veterans requiring such care for their service-connected disabilities, upon determination of need by a VA doctor.

Where can I obtain copies of bills before Congress?

Copies of specific bills may be ordered through my office here in Washington.

I understand that the Library of Congress offers surplus books free to schools in the U. S.? Please comment on this.

The Library of Congress maintains at all times a collection of surplus books which are available to educational institutions and public bodies in the United States. Authorized representatives of schools and libraries may make free selections from this donation collection. The Publications are available for selection at any time, Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m., in the Exchange and Gift Division, Room 2016, Annex Building. Interested institutions may contact the Library of Congress for additional information.

Please explain the proposed tax exemption for volunteer firemen?

Under proposed legislation volunteer firemen would be exempt from paying income tax on annual earnings less than $500 which they may receive while performing services as a member of a volunteer fire company.

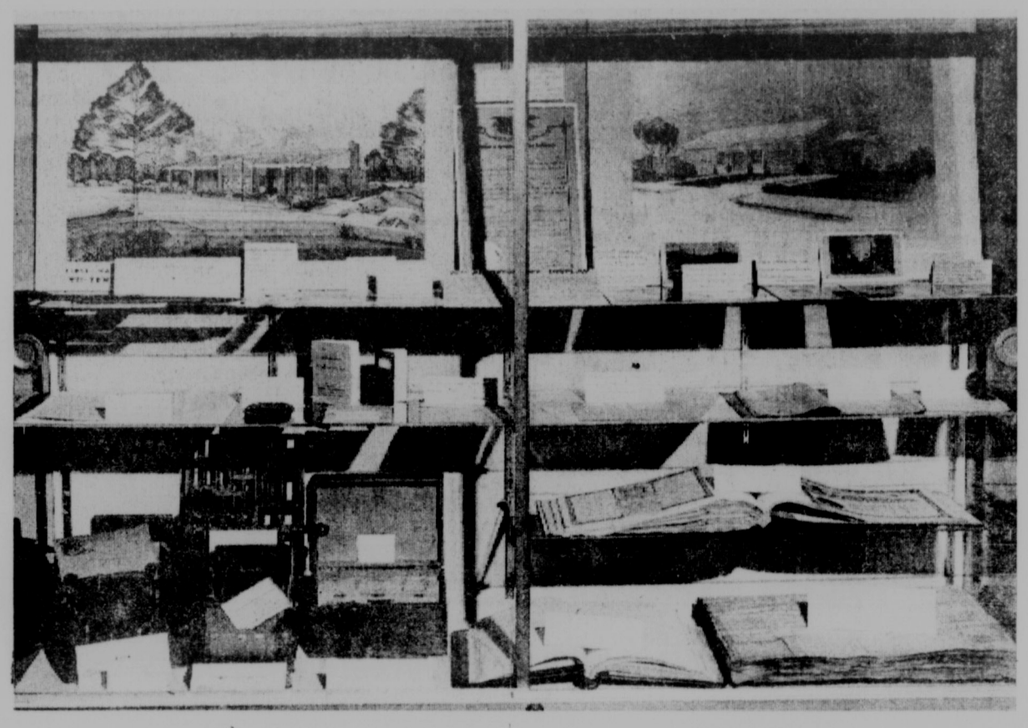
Historical Display Set Up At First National Bank Lobby



A special 75th anniversary display of interesting materials related to the history of The First National Bank of Oakland has been set up in the lobby of the bank's main office in Oakland.

The display includes several rare items including National Currency (bank money) issued by the First National Banks of Oakland and Friendsville. The oldest bill is a $10 bill which was part of the first money the bank issued in 1900. It was hand signed by R. E. Sliger, then cashier of the bank, and F. A. Thayer who was president of the bank at the time. Other rare items include a coin bank issued around 1930 by the Farmers' Bank of Oakland, a 1905 coin bank issued by the First National Bank of Oakland, a newspaper advertisement published during World War I, old machines, bank charters, old minute books, and the very first savings account ever opened by the First National Bank of Oakland in 1900.

The public is invited to view this display.

According to Lynn Beckman, Public Relations Officer of the bank, other articles of interest will be included in the display from time to time. He said the bank plans to have other interesting displays this summer too. He further pointed out that the current display has nothing to do with the bank's recent "Firstalgia Hunt". He said the items now included are not eligible for the contest.

The "Firstalgia Hunt" contest, which ended May 31, is currently being judged and the winners will be announced on June 19.

Tough Strip Mine Control Began June 1

A tougher regulation policy dealing with strip mining in the Deep Creek Lake drainage basin is one of the components of the county's new lake zoning ordinance which became law on June 1.

The county's board of zoning approvals will now have to approve each strip mining permit application on a case base basis before coal operators will be able to mine coal in the lake basin.

In a related development the state's Mine Land Reclamation committee asked the county commissioners to consider slowing down strip mining until the committee can study the overall impact of the mining. The commissioners referred the request to the county's Planning commission for a recommendation.

The Board of Zoning Appeals will have the ultimate say as to which strip mining permits will be approved.

The Lake zoning ordinance, adopted earlier last month after more than a year of study and public meetings, requires local public hearings on mining industry requests and a special county exception before coal can be stripped in the Lake's drainage basin.

Western Maryland coal operators had voiced objections to the county measure but environmentalists felt it filled a gap in the state law and may be a sign of more county control over the industry in the future.

The law will allow the appeals board to consider effects of strip mining in the lake area and set standards for the total number of acres to be open for mining at any given time.

The ordinance also gives the appeals panel power to hear citizen testimony on strip mining proposals at hours more convenient than the state's daytime meetings.

Miners are claiming that the new law merely adds another layer of bureaucracy to existing mine-control structure.

Robert C. Harvey, president of the Western Maryland Coal Owners and Operators association, said the miners already are faced with time consuming procedures at the state level. He said those procedures tend to delay mining development and the delays often make it difficult for miners to keep their men regularly employed.

Wayne B. Hamilton, chairman of the county commissioners, said that the new county zoning law "is not an out and out outlaw of strip mining but every case and every permit will be treated on its own merit."

He said the county wants to assure that the Deep Creek Lake area is not burdened by too much strip mining, particularly in the area of the Cherry Creek tributary.

He said another area of concern was a 4,000 plus acre tract known as the Blough property, which lies between state park land and Bittinger, east of Deep Creek Lake.

Marshall Rickert, county planning director, said the county "is going to attempt to approach the aggregate impact of strip mining so that it will not adversely affect the lake."

Volunteers Sought To Work In Parks

Volunteers to work in state parks throughout the year are now being sought through a Volunteer in the Parks (VIP) program currently underway throughout the state.

The program is designed to encourage volunteer participation of members of the community with local state parks. VIPs assist at the park with numerous activities such as conducting research, giving visitor information or assisting with other visitor service programs.

They may also give special demonstrations of their own talents such as a craft or taxidermy.

Volunteers are needed in all four county parks, Herrington Manor, Deep Creek, Swallow Falls and New Germany. Anyone interested in volunteering may call the facility nearest them and make an appointment for an interview. VIPs receive a certificate and badge for their efforts. Applicants under age 18 must have written parental consent.

As many volunteers as possible are sought for work all year around.

Tri-County Unit Funds Decreased

The U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has made grants totaling $8,800 to the Tri-County Council of Western Maryland through its 701 Comprehensive Planning Program for fiscal year 1974.

The total for Allegany, Garrett and Washington counties is a decrease from the total of $19,000 granted to the Tri-County Council for fiscal 1973.

Programs of rural districts are directed in part to the following purposes: area wide comprehensive land use planning, technical assistance to small governments, long-range capital budgeting, increasing governmental productivity, regional sewer and water planning and economic base studies and action plans.

HUD has aided small towns and rural areas for more than 20 years through the 701 programs.

Since 1972, the first year for which an appropriation of $100 million was available, more than 2,000 different municipalities, counties and areawide organizations have been assisted.

The enactment of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 substantially amended the program of HUD assistance for state and local comprehensive planning.

All grant recipients will now carry out an ongoing comprehesive planning process, which by August 1977 must include a land use and housing element as a minimum.

The land element must have locally determined criteria and implementing procedures for coordination of effects of land use planning and all federal agencies.

No New Cases Of Rubella Reported

No new cases have been reported in the recent outbreak of Rubella (three-day measles) which has been identified in Garrett County. The first case appeared April 6, and a total of 35 cases have since been identified. Health advisors from the State Department have assisted in tracing and identification of suspected cases.

The last major epidemic of Rubella swept the country in 1964, and it is estimated that as a result of that epidemic, there were in Maryland alone 1,500 miscarriages and 1,500 children born with some defect caused by the infection. Defects may range from mild to severe and may affect hearing, vision or mental development or cause congenital heart disease.

Since the 1964 epidemic, Rubella control measures have been developed and utilized. Immunization against Rubella is recommended for all children from one year of age, and is required for entry to school. In Garrett County, about 70 percent of two year olds and 95 percent of six year olds have been immunized against the disease.

For pregnant women, blood tests are available ot determine if a woman has immunity to the disease. About 90 percent of such women do have immunity and their pregnancy is then not endangered by the disease. Of the four pregnant women known to have been exposed to the present outbreak, all have been found to be immune to the disease. For the woman who is not immune, as determined by the blood test, the greatest danger to her pregnancy occurs in the first 12 weeks, with some danger present still in the second 12 weeks.

Rubella is a highly contagious disease probably spread by a sneeze or cough or direct contact. A person infected with Rubella may be contagious one or more weeks before and after the outbreak of the rash, making isolation generally a futile procedure.

Women who think they may be in the first 20 weeks of a pregnancy should learn if they are definitely pregnant and if they have immunity to the disease. These tests are available from their physician or from the Health Department. For further information, persons may call the Health Dept. Persons who know of possible cases should report these by calling the Health Department.

Be "Fair" Minded . . .

The Garrett County Agricultural Fair Board is thinking about proper entertainment for the coming fair in August. It is not too early for Garrett County farm people and the culturally minded citizens to also becoming "fair" minded.

We have had an extremely wet spring and agricultural products may not be advanced as far as the farm people would like, but there are other aspects of the annual fair which would not have to be hampered by the weather. Baked goods, clothing, handwork, are only a few of the cultural projects that citizens already could be working on, with a determination to make this annual event one to be remembered.

Grantsville Park Plans Underway

Grantsville Lions Club Heads Community Project

Grantsville Lions Club President Donald R. Hershberger and Mayor Donald E. Swauger of Grantsville announced today that plans for a new area park in Grantsville are underway.

In 1973 the Grantsville Lions Club lost most of a small park and Little League ball field it owned and maintained because of construction of the interstate highway. Members immediately began thinking of a new park to serve not only local children but all area adults as well. Two adjoining parcels of land centered in the northern portion of town were viewed as the best possible location in Grantsville for a future park. Over the next two years, planning, negotiating and financing took place until the park reached its present stage.

Both parcels of land have recently been purchased and the Garrett County Planning and Zoning Commission staff helped with detailed drawings and site planning. A site plan is now complete.

Depending on availability of financial aid from the Maryland Open Space program, the 8-acre tract will be improved by grading, plantings and landscaping. Construction is planned of a regulation Little League baseball field, 2 tennis courts, a softball field, a basketball court, parking area, picnic area, tot lot, roofed pavilion and rest room facilities, outdoor furniture, and cooking fireplaces. After these have been completed, there are additional facilities planned to increase the usefulness and beauty of the park. These would be constructed over a period of several years.

Entertainment Is Planned Nightly At Fair August 4-9

General admission will remain at $1.00 per adult and children under 12 years, free. For the demolition derby, however, admission will be $2 per adult and $1.00 for children under 12. Gates will open for the derby at 4 p.m.

Various other items were also discussed at the fair board meeting, including fire safety, sanitation, guard rails for the race tracks, and the use of the supplement in The Republican instead of the fair book.

The next meeting of the board will be Tuesday, July 1, at the fair grounds.

Spring Rains Slow Construction Of National Freeway

Spring rains have hampered the construction of the National Freeway (Route 48) but the section between U.S. Rte. 219 south to the West Virginia border is expected to be opened by late next fall.

The remaining section, from Finzel road to Keyser Ridge, will be completed early next summer.

More than $50 million in contracts are currently underway but the rainy weather is delaying all phases of work, paving work particularly. There is also only a limited supply of aggregate for use in the paving work, according to the State Highway Administration district office in Cumberland.

The Route 48 freeway will parallel Route 40, the National Road which was the first federally-financed highway in America back in the early 1880s.

Contracts underway and the percentage of completion are as follows:

S. J. Grove and Sons Company, grading, draining and paving 4.23 miles of the Freeway from near relocated State Route 546 to near Piney Grove at a cost of $5,088,588, 65.8 percent finished; grading, draining and paving 2.94 miles from near

Three Charged On Drug Possession

A joint effort by the sheriff's department and Oakland town police culminated in three arrests Wednesday afternoon on the possession of marijuana charges.

Oakland Sgt. Hobart Shillingburg obtained warrants for the arrest of Roy DeWitt and Carl Freeland and one male juvenile. Also participating in the coordinated effort were sheriff John Evans, Jr., Chief of Police Percy Lawton, and three deputies.

The arrests were made at a house on Center Street.

According to Chief deputy Frank Finch, further arrests may be pending following additional investigation.

The young men over 18 are still in the county jail pending a bond hearing.

The Friendsville Rotary club is again sponsoring the 11th annual Old Time Fiddlers' contest, to be held on Saturday evening, July 19, beginning at 8 o'clock at the Firemen's hall and town parking lot in Friendsville.

Ward Livengood, chairman for the event, said numerous applications already had been received from contestants.

Bid On Savage River Bridge Is $798,101

One bid was received Tuesday for construction of the new Savage River bridge in this county and the offer was substantially above the estimated cost for the project, it was learned from Paul DeWitt, administrative engineer for the County Roads system.

The bid was submitted by the George F. Hazelwood company, Cumberland, for $798,101. The county commissioners had anticipated the cost to be in the neighborhood of $700,000.

The bid was taken under advisement by the county commissioners.

The new bridge, needed to replace a temporary span which has been in use since the old bridge was condemned last year, is to be built with a combination of county and state funds. The General Assembly approved legislation allowing the state to pay $350,000 as one half of the cost of building the bridge, with the county obligated to pay the other half.

The bridge is a county owned structure but the road leads into state parkland and much traffic is generated by vehicles using state facilities.

Mr. DeWitt said engineering plans already are completed for the project.

Free Cancer Clinics Are Being Planned

Free clinics for uterine examination for cancer and breast self-examination was the topic of a planning meeting sponsored by the Garrett County unit of the American Cancer Society held recently.

Those attending the meeting were Dr. William Pope, deputy county health officer, Katherine Speicher, R.N., county Public Health nurse; Dorothy Greenwood, R.N., Jerry O'Neill, director of Western Maryland Cancer Society; Dorothy Rudy, R.N., Mrs. Webster Brenneman, Pauline Faucett, R. N., and Mrs. Ruth Durst.

Clinics will be held at Oakland, Friendsville, Bloomington, Grantsville and Kitzmiller during July and August. A random survey will be made so that an approximation of attendance at each clinic could be determined. The clinics will be held at Health Department facilities in each of the towns, and will be staffed by physicians in the county who will contribute their services at no charge. They will be assisted by Public Health nurses and volunteer workers from the local Cancer unit.

The clinic will be free to any person who attends, with the cost of the laboratory work paid for by a grant from the Cancer Society. The grant is made possible in part by response of local residents to the fund-raising crusade in the county. Garrett was the first county in the state to meet its 1975 fund guota.

An attempt will be made to reach all women in the county over age 18 who have not had a cervical examination for cancer within the past twelve months.

Boy Hit By Car On Oak Street Last Thursday

A nine-year-old boy was treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital, having been hit by a car in front of his home on Oak street last Thursday evening.

Timothy M. Tharp, 700 block Oak street, Oakland, was hit by a car driven by Carroll W. Hahn, Oakland, as the boy ran across the street. Hahn traveling east on Oak street, noticed the boy running and start to cross the street, and hit his brakes. His car skidded about 24 feet and struck the boy with the left fender. The boy had run from right to left across the street. Sgt. Hobart Shillingburg of the Oakland Police investigated.

Gary F. DeBerry, Rt. 219, Oakland, had started to get out of his car on Center street and Alley 13 (parallel and between 2nd and 3rd streets) and opened the door into the lane of traffic. Richard D. Bishoff, S. 4th street, Oakland, following, struck the opened door. Sgt. Shillingburg investigated the accident which occurred Tuesday afternoon.

Lucinda K. Cooke, Alexandria, Va., failed to negotiate the proper clearence while crossing the 3rd street bridge over the B and O railroad just past midnight Monday morning, by failing to look where she was going and keep her car under control. Pfc. Roger Lewis of the Oakland Police charged her with negligent driving.

Schools To Get $2,555,727 For Ensuing Year

Board Had Sought $914,000 More But Will Get $470,000

After two months of budget work sessions with the Board of Education the County Commissioners notified Dr. William H. Buser, county superintendent of Schools that an additional $470,000 would be allocated to Garrett County School Board for fiscal year 1976. The Board had asked for an additional $914,000. Total allocation will be $2,555,727 for an increase of 22 percent. The total amount budgeted last year was $2,085,727.

In a letter of transmittal to the Board of Education, the Commissioners pointed out that $203,000 would go to teacher salary increases and another $39,000 to be added to the current cost of maintenance. The remaining amount of $228,000 is to be distributed among the other categories by the Board of Education.

Commissioners pointed out the large increase locally was mostly attributable to a reduced income from the state and the effects of inflation on overall operating costs to schools such as fuel and supplies.

The 22 percent increase represented one of the largest increases in local money to go to the Board of Education from local sources, they said.

Commissioners said they expected to finalize the total county budget and set the levy early next week.

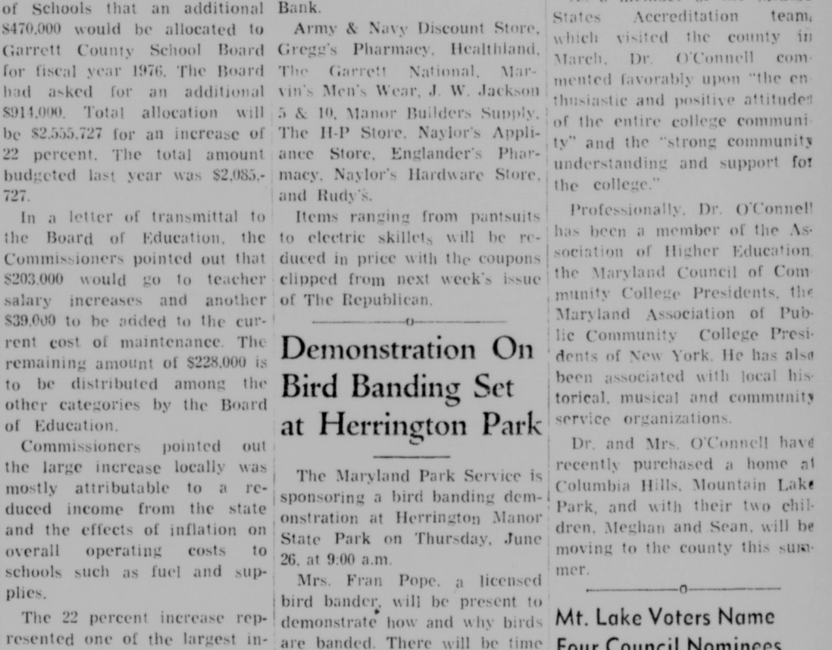
Happy 100th Birthday, Miss Leary



By Carol Canan

Next Thursday, June 19, marks the 100th birthday anniversary of one of Oakland's better-known and loved citizens, Miss Marion B. Leary. Miss Leary taught in local schools for many years before her retirement in 1937.

Miss Leary has loved her students, and indeed all children, all her life and firmly believes there are other things to teach children besides the 3 R's.

In accordance with her 100th birthday, next Thursday has been set aside both by the town of Oakland and the county commissioners as Miss Marion B. Leary day.

Miss Leary's long and varied schoolteaching history began with a love of school and learning. High points of her summers for years were the 10-week summer sessions taught in Oakland by schoolteachers to young people who aspired to become teachers. Her career locally began with a term at the school on the old Mt. Lake Park road near Little Yough Lake, and spanned several schools and four decades before she retired.

Miss Leary was born in 1875 to William Lewis and Rebecca Crim Leary, who lived in Washington county near Downsville. They moved to Oakland in 1882, and lived where Browning Discount is now located, with Mr.

Twelve cars of a 104-car Chessie System freight train derailed early Sunday morning two miles west of Terra Alta, W. Va., but railroad officials said no one was injured and there was no spillage of dangerous cargo.

There were 90 loaded cars and 14 empties on the freight, which was eastbound from Cincinnati to Cumberland. The derailment occurred at 3:13 a.m. and blocked both tracks. The No. 1 track was opened by 2:35 p.m. and the No. 2 track by 10:30 p.m. The cause of the derailment was not immediately determined.

One of the loaded cars contained soybean oil, which was leaking after the wreck.

Three Instructors Retire After Long Years Of Service

Three Southern High School teachers were presented Certificates of Appreciation from the Department of Education, State of Maryland, by Dr. William Buser, Superintendent of Garrett County Schools, as guests at a retirement dinner for teachers given by the Board of Education on Thursday evening, June 5, at the Wisp, McHenry. Some 100 persons were present.

Master of ceremonies for the dinner was Luther D. Parrack, Jr., principal of Southern High School. The three retiring teachers from Southern are Willard O. Wolfe, his wife Jean D. Wolfe, and Bessie D. Price.

Mr. Wolfe, native of Fellowsville, W. Va., graduated from Fellowsville High School and is ending a career of 37½ years in the fields of science and Phys. Ed. He graduated from West Virginia University with B.S. and M.S. degrees. He coached basketball and baseball at Aurora, Tunnelton, Bruceton and Terra Alta high schools and was also football coach at Terra Alta. In Garrett County, he taught science at Southern High School for fourteen years. He will follow his hobbies of reading, fishing, hunting and traveling during his retirement.

Mrs. Wolfe, also a graduate of W.V.U., has taught in Garrett County for fifteen years. Her classes have included English, social studies, music, and journalism. Before coming to Garrett County, she taught at Aurora, Arthurdale, Terra Alta, and Bruceton high schools. While at Bruceton High School, she organized and directed the school band for five years. She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, International Honor Society for Women and the National Quill and Scroll Society. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe are active members of St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Oakland and reside at McHenry.

Mrs. Price taught in West Virginia for eighteen years before coming to Garrett County. A member of the Southern faculty for twenty years, she has taught English for the past several years and has been head of the English department. She founded the annual student publication, "With Pen in Hand," as a project for her creative writing classes. In addition she was a member of the committee responsible for the establishment of Garrett Community College. She is also a member of Kappa Delta Pi, National Educational Honor Fraternity. Mrs. Price belongs to the Bethel United Methodist Church in Mt. Lake Park, where she served as choir director and organist for approximately ten years. She is the wife of Walter W. Price.

Bible School Set For Deer Park Episcopal

During the week of June 23rd to June 27th an evening Bible School will be held for adults and children at St. John's Episcopal Church, Deer Park. The first session will begin at 7 o'clock on Monday evening June 23rd, and end at 9 p.m. Each evening will follow the same schedule.

In previous years, St. John's has focused its attention on a Daily Vacation Bible School for the children of the church and the community. However, there has been an expressed desire by adult members of the church for some type of Bible study, according to Rev. John A. Grant, rector. An evening Bible School fills this need, and is open to adults of the Deer Park community.

As in past years, the children's portion of the Bible School will feature arts and crafts as well as Bible study.

Cereal Leaf Beetle In Area, Agent Warns

If you have oats, wheat, barley or rye, check your fields immediately for presence of the cereal leaf beetle. Reports are coming in of infestations of oat fields in the Garrett County area. Larvae of this insect were active over a wide area in the county last year.

Look for small black blobs shaped somewhat like a potato bug sticking to the leaves. This is the larvae form which, like the alfalfa weevil, skeletonizes the leaf. Infestations range from light to heavy. Heavily damaged oat fields may look white like a frost hit the top portion of the leaves.

This insect can destroy a grain crop but it can be controlled. Malathion 57% E.C. (emulsifiable concentrate) at the rate of 1½ pints per acre) 1 pound active ingredient per acre) is the recommended material. Spray when infestation averages two larvae per plant.

Cereal leaf beetle is primarily a problem in oats but the insect may also attack wheat as well. Do not apply Malathion less than seven (7) days before harvest for control of this insect. If the infestation is light and the grain well developed, you may be able to squeeze through without spraying particularly on wheat.

Dean At WVU Is Terra Alta Man

The youngest dean in the 80-year history of West Virginia University's Arts and Sciences college, largest in the state with more than 5,000 students enrolled has been appointed.

He is 40 year old William E. Collins, native of Terra Alta, who has been acting dean since John C. Wright resigned last fall to become vice-chancellor of the University's Board of Regents.

Dr. Collins' appointment was announced by WVU president James Harlow, who said Collins was recommended unanimously by a faculty-student search committee.

A biology professor, Dr. Collins received his bachelor's degree in agriculture from WVU, and his master's degree in genetics, and his doctorate in physiology from the University of Wisconsin.

He studied in New Zealand as a Rotary Foundation Fellow and he worked in India as a program specialist for the Ford Foundation.

IN 1971-72 he served on President Harlow's staff as one of only 39 Academic Administration Fellows in the nation selected by the American Council on Education.

Hercules

Halfway between Arcturus and Vega northeast of Corona Borealis is the constellation Hercules. The asterism to look for in identifying the area of Hercules is a keystone or a trapezoid. Hercules' head is to the south. He is kneeling holding a club in his right hand and a three-headed dog in his left hand.

Near the end of his days Hercules was given a poisonous magic robe which caused him so much pain that he built a funeral pyre with which he planned his death, but before it was ignited, Zeus sent a cloud to carry him into the sky where we see him today.

Grantsville and Lions Club member, has acted as Lions Club park committee chairman for two years and will continue in this role during park construction. During an interview this week, he said that under the Maryland Open Space Program, the Maryland Department of Natural Resources has agreed to make a grant of a substantial amount of money to aid in acquisition of the land and development of the park. This will be the first such park in Garrett County aided by state open space funds. Because of this, both county officials and the county planning and zoning commission staff have labored to make the park dream become a reality, and keep interest in the construction details.

Initially, the name chosen for the park was "Grantsville Community Park." With more detailed study, it was learned that the park can and will serve Little League teams from western Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and that visitors from the tri-state area will regularly use its facilities. Because of such wide patronage, it was decided to give the park the name of "Grantsville Area Park."

The land for the park was acquired from Mr. and Mrs. David L. Broadwater and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Speicher. The larger Broadwater tract was in use as farmland, and the Speicher property is improved with an old orchard and trees. The park will be just west of the Grantsville Area Health Center facing Miller Street, with an entrance and parking facilities off this street.

Grantsville Lions Club contributed $10,000 in club funds for park development. Also, work nights are set, when the entire membership clears under brush and does other jobs to reduce labor costs. Mayor Swauger stated in an interview that such an ambitious and costly park project could not have been financed by the Town alone. It is projected that open space funds for a grant will be based on a 3 to 1 ratio. Public contributions and Town force account work will make up most of the local share. Thus if $15,000 can be contributed by the locality, as much as $45,000 may be finally obtained from the Maryland Department of Natural Resources as its contribution in grant-in-aid, enabling a $60,000 park to be built.

The Grantsville Lions Club has entered into a written contract with the Town of Grantsville agreeing to be responsible for future upkeep and maintenance of the park, once built and in use. This agreement aided the Department of Natural Resources in reaching a decision to help finance the project, since it establishes continuing responsibility for upkeep. This will be a costly and significant factor in the years to come.

Mayor Swauger, Commissioner Edwards; Lions Club President Hershberger were unanimous in their praise of scores of Grantsville, Garrett County, and Maryland residents who have worked so hard to make the park become a reality. Past Week Has Been Mostly Cool

The past week's weather has been cool with mostly cloudy skies except Monday's and Tuesday's sunshine. There were thunder showers Thursday afternoon and Friday night. Sunday and Monday were quite breezy. In spite of what seemed a lot of rain, only .82 inch fell. The normal for a week in June is 1.17 inches.

Daytime mercury readings averaged 69.3 degrees or 8.4 degrees below normal. The highest was 75 degrees last Thursday afternoon. Morning lows averaged 49.4 degrees or 2.6 degrees below normal, with the lowest being 41 degrees Monday.

The May weather summary follows, with a surplus of temperature and rain.

There was some rain on every day but six during the month. A total of 5.57 inches fell during the month which is 1.86 inches above normal. Wettest day was the 29th with 1.12 inches and next the 4th, with 1.06. There was a ten-day succession of rain, an 8-day and a 7-day which took care of all but the six days without rain.

Temperature-wise the month was 2.9 degrees above normal. Highs averaged 71.9 degrees or 1.6 above normal. The highest was 84 degrees on the 21st. It was 80 or above on four other days at the same time of the month. Coolest day was the 5th when the mercury got up to only 57. Lows averaged 47.5 degrees or 4.2 above normal. Lowest was 34 degrees on the 8th. Mildest morning reading was 58 degrees on the 30th. The mercury dropped into the 30s on six days.

Thunder showers occurred on five days, distributed over the month. Winds were mostly calm to light, but occasionally brisk during the showers.

Sermonette

June is "Marriage Month" for many people around the country...a time to celebrate the occasion of our wedding days.

Peter Marshall said that when two people commit themselves to each other as husband and wife, they are entering "the highest halls of human happiness." Most of us yearn for that state within marriage, and some of us reach moments in our marriages which approach that point of "high joy," but for the most part we do not live in the extreme state of ecstasy. Nor could we. Nor should we.

"Happiness," said C. S. Lewis, "is an American dream. It is not necessarily Christian." Christians are not "happiness seekers." They are givers of happiness. We are happiest when we've made someone else happy. Happiness in marriage is not so much to be sought as to be shared, to be given. When two people work at giving themselves to each other, they are on their way to happiness. Too many marriages fall apart because the thrill is gone, the romance isn't there. So one partner or the other seeks for thrill and romance elsewhere. That's the detour.

When we married, our vows were in terms of commitment, not romance. Commitment through thick and thin, through sickness and health, through poverty and wealth, for better or for worse. And in commitment there is responsibility to work at love, forgiveness, and romance.

We were brought together by God. In His name we decided to say "Yes" to each other. We need to continue saying "Yes" to each other day by day. Let's say "Yes" again during these June anniversary days...so that our marriages might find God's blessing and that we might find again..."the highest halls of human happiness." I commend to your reading that beautiful writing in the Old Testament for a new spark in your marriage, "The Song of Solomon."

Awards were presented to the winners of the first annual rocket contest at Dennett Road School last Friday morning. Principal Clark Sharpless made the awards presentations.

Winners were Dave Callas, first, with a Red Max rocket which amassed 77 out of a possible 100 points and traveled 195 feet high.

In second place was Robert Shahan, whose Gobbler traveled the highest, 783 feet, and amassed 76 points.

Susan Snyder was the only girl to place in this year's contest. Her Gobbler traveled 498 feet and gathered 75 points.

Vincent Lambert's Renegade gained a fourth place for him by traveling 357 feet and winning 75 points.

Roger Naylor and his Andromeda were in fifth place, with 74 points and 300 feet in altitude. Randy Reckner was sixth with 72 points and 783 feet.

Group winners were Gary Heginbotham, Sincle Brown, Gerry Alvero, Mike Layton, Perry Rhodes, Roger Naylor and Paul Warnick. Their Javelin scored 79 points and traveled 210 feet.

Prizes were model rocket kits donated by Arts n' Crafts Centre in Oakland. The first place winner got a complete model rocketry field operations kit with launcher.

Judges for the contest were Clark Sharpless, Bill Lovett, Doris Opel, Leora Larue, and Lenora Schrock, fifth grade teachers, and Lynn Fraley, physical education instructor. Les McDaniel figured altitude with the aid of an altiscope.

Rockets were judged in five categories, each worth 20 points. Categories were appearance, including paint and construction; flight path; electrical efficiency; altitude; and recovery.

IN MEMORIAM

A Father's Day tribute to the memory of Charles Rush, who passed away July 9, 1969.

Death is a Gateway we all must pass through
To reach that Fair Land where the soul's born anew.
For man's born to die and his sojourn on earth
Is a short span of years beginning with birth.
And like pilgrims we wander until death takes our hand.
And we start on our journey to God's Promised Land.
A place where we'll find no suffering nor tears,
Where TIME is not counted by days, months or years.
And in this Fair City that God has prepared
Are unending joys to be happily shared,
With all of our loved ones who patiently wait
On Death's Other Side to open "The Gate!"

So dearly loved and so sadly missed by His Wife,
His Children, and
His Grandchildren

—Adv. 15-1t.

IN MEMORIAM

A Father's Day tribute to the memory of Charles Rush, who passed away July 9, 1969.

Death is a Gateway we all must pass through
To reach that Fair Land where the soul's born anew.
For man's born to die and his sojourn on earth
Is a short span of years beginning with birth.
And like pilgrims we wander until death takes our hand.
And we start on our journey to God's Promised Land.
A place where we'll find no suffering nor tears,
Where TIME is not counted by days, months or years.
And in this Fair City that God has prepared
Are unending joys to be happily shared,
With all of our loved ones who patiently wait
On Death's Other Side to open "The Gate!"

So dearly loved and so sadly missed by His Wife,
His Children, and
His Grandchildren
—Adv. 15-1t.

and Mrs. Yantz Waltz.

Her papa was a carpenter and helped work on some of the buildings still standing around Oakland. He worked on the house constructed by Gustavas DeLauder near the Lutheran church, and was the only carpenter in town at that time who knew how to construct dormer windows. He also helped with the "gingerbread" trim on the B & O Railroad station in town.

In October, 1882, Miss Leary began attending school at the Oakland Grammar School in Miss Head's class. She can still recall the picture on the cover of her first primer, although she was so advanced that she moved rapidly out of the first primer and up to the third reader. Her older sister Elizabeth had taught her how to read before she began attending school.

She attended school regularly until she was ten, when she returned to Downsville for six months. She returned to Oakland and finished her formal schooling in 1893, after which she relied on summer schools for further education.

Since summer schools required tuition, Miss Leary swept at Oakland Elementary School with the janitor to help earn money for lessons.

She also vividly recalls her joy when she was about eight years old at receiving a whole quarter for a day's gardening work for Mr. Hayden, since that was the first quarter she ever had earned.

In 1890, Miss Leary was one of the participants in the first Decoration Day observance held in Oakland, sponsored by Crook Post, G.A.R. Miss Leary read a selected poem during the program.

When Miss Leary was 11, she and her friend Olive Breen were enticed to the Yough river west of town to see the elephants being watered there and were offered an elephant ride by one of the keepers. They accepted, but had ridden only as far as Shirer's Tin Shop before her grandfather spotted them and ordered them to dismount. Miss Leary almost got a spanking on the way home, since "young ladies do not ride elephants."

Her teaching career actually began at age 13 in Mr. Fringer's private school where she helped younger children to learn to read.

At age 15, she worked for a DeShields family in Cumberland and went to summer schools ten weeks each summer. She remained with them for three years as governess to their three children and then William Hinebaugh requested her to go to the Mt. Lake School. At that time there was no privy for either sex at the school, and Miss Leary boarded the evening train back to Oakland after her first day and insisted to the Board that a privy be installed, and so it was. She worked there for three weeks, then that same year she opened a school at Shield Run near Bayard. Out of her $25 a month she had to pay room and board. To help with expenses, she worked as a bookkeeper for John Paugh, with whose family she boarded. At that time she taught 19 children in the one-room school. Some of the pupils were old enough for the first year of high school but had had no schooling. She got to go home to Oakland Thanksgiving day but did not get home for Christmas that year.

In regard to boarding with the families of children she was teaching, Miss Leary says, "You could not be a snail or a sneak" when you lived with them.

She was at Shield Run one school year before going to work as governess to children of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Johnston, Washington, D. C. While in their employ, she also attended Berlitz School of Languages and obtained her certificates in German and French.

With them, she traveled to their summer home in New Castle, N. H. and then stayed to teach fifth, sixth and seventh grades for one year, returning home in 1901.

In 1902 her grandmother died and she went to Washington county where she taught one year at Spring Grove School with 29 pupils.

In 1904 she began a year's term at Red House where she taught grades one through seven and had 39 pupils. Thursday nights four boys would stay after school for tutoring in algebra and geometry.

In 1905 she taught at Fairview school where she had all grades in a one-room school, then she returned to Red House for three years.

A move to Hutton was made in 1910, when she taught for two years as a teaching principal. Her grandmother Carney became ill at this time and she spent four years taking care of her in Fairmont until her death. In 1916 she taught school in Oakland Elementary school, beginning with 32 third graders and adding 20 more when another teacher left and her children were moved into Miss Leary's room, which is now occupied by Mrs. Pat Bray at Center Street School.

A serious operation slowed her down temporarily in 1916, when her sister Bets took over her teaching chores part of one year.

A trip to Colorado for a two year teaching sojourn in Dillon and Kremmling took place in 1918, and is one of the highlights of her life. Miss Leary loved the country and its people, and says it was all "just grand." She clearly remembers her little mare she rode the two miles to school, and recalls that the horse would not stay tied and often would come peer in the schoolroom windows.

Between 1920 and 1937 she taught at Oakland Elementary school. In 1923, she became teaching principal and held that position until 1933 when she taught seventh grade.

In '34 she began working with a special class consisting of third grade repeaters, fourth graders who were accelerated and fifth graders who needed to make up work to maintain their fifth grade level.

Even after retirement in 1937, Miss Leary worked tutoring children for many years.

In addition to local summer sessions taught by teachers in this county, Miss Leary also attended Keymar Institute in Hagerstown, Frostburg State College school, Towson college and Johns Hopkins summer schools.

Her time since retirement has been spent "about the house, keeping house," working in the yard, visiting relatives, watching television, and playing canasta with baby sister Ann Miesenbach, who is 92. Although lately Miss Leary spends most of her time on the second floor of their Center Street home, she is still spry and takes care of her personal hygiene and her own room, even signing her own checks and handling finances. On Sundays, the sisters take turns reading a Bible lesson and doing prayers. Formerly a devout Presbyterian, Miss Leary is now a member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church and looks forward to Pastor Richard Seaks bringing her communion.

Her dedication to her job, church, family and community has been a fine example for former students for many years, and each year since her 95th birthday she is presented with a money tree in remembrance by a group of ten. She is truly an inspiring woman to have earned such dedication, and knowing her is a joy not to be forgotten.

Happy birthday, Miss Leary!

How Negro Mt. Was Named Is Related

How Negro Mountain in this county received its name is recounted in Sunday's Centennial Edition of the Cumberland Evening Times of June 8.

It related:

"Although a prominent black man or woman was never figured in its history, Garrett County has a Negro Mountain. The mountain took its name from Col. Thomas Cresap's slave, Nemesis by name, who was killed on it in an engagement with Shawnee Indians.

"Tradition relates that Nemesis was included in a party of settlers in pursuing a war party of Shawnees who had been raiding settlers in the Western Maryland, West Virginia areas following Braddock's ill-fated expedition on Fort Duquesne.

"The party had followed the Indians to the area west of the present-day Grantsville when Nemesis saw one Shawnee poised to kill Cresap with a rifle shot. The black man jumped into the line of fire when the Shawnee's flintlock boomed, with Nemesis taking the ball in his chest to save Cresap.

"Ever since the mountain on which the black slave sacrificed his life has been known as Negro Mountain."

Local Baseballers Lose To Keyser

Everett split a doubleheader with Romney Sunday afternoon, winning 2 to 1 and then losing 4 to 2 to cling to the top spot in the Pen Mar baseball league.

In the other doubleheader Keyser evened its record at 4-4 by sweeping a twinbill from winless Oakland 5 to 4 and 5 to 3.

At. McHenry Pazzalo doubled in a pair of runs and Mark Tysinger and Jerry Mahoney shared four hits as Keyser used a two run sixth inning to top the Mountain Top nine in the opener. Ernie Shotwell doubled and singled for the losers.

In the second game Stan Safran and Tysinger stroked a double and single each and Mahoney turned in a seven hitter for the sweep.

Speicher, Chuck Igram and Jim Bosley rapped a pair of hits each for Oakland in the second game. Paul Lewis, in relief in the first inning, allowed just two hits over the remainder of the game but the four run first inning had secured the victory.

Shotwell and Ingram pitched in the first game. Brady and Lewis pitched in the second.

This Saturday the Oakland nine will play a double header at Everett, and on Sunday the team will play Mt. Savage on the local diamond at Garrett Community college, McHenry.

Dividing With The World

Current news tells us that one billion dollars yearly has been pledged by our presidents as a beginning fund for food in needy nations. At last, a leader has virtually pledged himself to charitable principles. As Kissinger went on to clarify the promise, "A world order in which tens of millions starve and millions more are undernourished will never be accepted as just."

Josue de Castro, who wrote "The Geography of Hunger," agrees that we can naturally defeat hunger. He rebels against the theory of Malthus, that at one time the world will be overpopulated and so, consequently, hungry. He advises readers that it is the skeletons of advanced societies which are marked with signs of hunger and lack of proper diet, not the bones from groups which have been regarded as less affluent. From this we see that man's collected wealth and the problem of distributing it, not the struggle to obtain riches, ultimately brings on the problems similar to those now being sensed by international concerns. De Castro defines the solution in a basic concern and sharing of privileges by the earth's people; in this manner, we can eliminate true hunger.

But this may be a concept long in learning, for we know how difficult is the task of real unselfishness. We give a child a carrot or piece of jelly bread, and then we laughingly say, "Give me a bite," and interpret his refusal to share as selfishness. However, we must theorize and admit that the child has a basic animal behavior and must be trained to give a portion of his food to another.

Roberto Acuna, a Chicano who was interviewed by Studs Terkel for his book on working people, brings home the fact that it is actually de-humanizing for people to refuse to share. He says that his family, one of vegetable harvesters, was asked to bring vegetables to a church bazaar. He then elaborates, "After we got the stuff there, the only people havin' a good time were the rich people because they were the only ones that were buyin' the stuff."

The desire for being generous to fellow humans is one which lies latent unless one motivates himself to action. And this always brings to mind some days in western Maryland when it was not possible to have all the treats one wanted. Such a good sharing it was, each Tuesday when factory workers were paid, and a generous lady in our family brought home a pint, not a half gallon, of ice cream, so that we each had a valued portion. That dessert was more appreciated than fancy peach parfaits of today.

Perhaps the world is awakening to the real value of ethics. And one day will come the comprehension of Sir James Russell Lowell's idea of what embellishes giving. "Not what we give, but what we share, For the gift without the giver is bare."

SPORTS Go-Round

by Larrie Weaver

The rule with Greek Wrestlers was to secure three throws before the victory was decided. The wrestlers were accustomed to rub their bodies with oil in the belief that they secured a greater pliancy of limb, and doubtless also to check excessive perspiration. Of course, it was difficult to grasp each other firmly, owing to the coating of oil, so they were required to roll in the dust of the stadium, or to be sprinkled with fine sand kept for that purpose at Olympia.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I am a mother of five children who have been and are being educated in the Garrett public school system and I can no longer sit back and listen to the anti-groups and persons who continually harass the School Board and the Committee on Family Education without coming to their defense. These people are very much interested in the welfare and good of the school system. No specific church group has a monopoly on "heaven". All are concerned with betterment of our county and our children. I can't understand why so many citizens are against everything progressive and spend their time fighting instead of doing constructive work. Granted Communism can be a threat, but we would all be better off if we would stick to Christ's command to "go forth and spread the gospel".

I have read ads and letters which I feel are misinterpreted and misconstrue facts. Since returning from the National PTA convention, we had better hear some statistics presented there; that three of every four teenage marriages end in divorce, plus numerous pregnancies and abortions among young girls. We don't need to leave the county to find that this is true. They didn't learn these things in our schools. Their education sex-wise started in first grade when some ill informed eager first grader took them aside and told them what all they knew. Why don't we wake up to the fact that we need some education in this line to help prevent these unfortunate situations. Ignorance is no excuse.

I feel fortunate in having raised our children on a farm where they could learn first hand about breeding and birth of animals. They learned about God's wonderful nature. Many children have not had this opportunity to learn about the beautiful part of reproduction but have only had second-hand dirty information which can be more harmful than any class taught in any school.

We should keep in mind that committee members working on this facet of education are also interested in all of the children. Let's start thinking positively about our schools and county and stop being "anti" everything.

Mrs. Robert (Ruth) Glotfelty

When you know how to use the new long distance rates, talk is cheap.

There are some things that take only a minute to say. Happy birthday. Hello. I miss you.

And now when you take just a minute, you also save.

Because now with the new interstate rates, you're charged for just the minute or two you actually use. Instead of the first three, like before.

What it means to you is this:

During the day you can call all the way to Los Angeles, talk for a minute, and pay just 56¢.

Talk for two minutes, and it's just 96¢.

Or save even more by calling at night or on the weekend.

Then one minute is only 22¢. Each additional minute, only 16¢.

When everything else seems to be costing you more, you can still save.

Just keep this coupon handy, take a minute, and dial direct.

OPERATOR-ASSISTED THREE-MINUTE RATES

STATION-TO-STATION Full rates apply at all times. First 3 minutes $1.95

PERSON-TO-PERSON Full rates apply at all times. First 3 minutes $3.55

Additional minutes cost less than the first minute.

Dial-direct rates apply on all interstate calls (excluding Alaska) completed from a residence or business phone without operator assistance. They also apply on calls placed with an operator from a residence or business phone where dial-direct facilities are not available. For dial-direct rates to Hawaii, check your operator. Dial-direct rates do not apply to person-to-person, coin, hotel-guest, credit card or collect calls, or to calls charged to another number, because an operator must assist on such calls.

A PITTSBURGH MAN failed to stop for a red light at Third and Alder Streets in Oakland Friday about 6 p.m. and crunched into the car in the center of the above photograph. Anthony J. Hoelzle, Pittsburgh, was headed south on Third when he struck the car operated by Willard Thornton Sheally, Route 1, Oakland. There were no injuries. City police Sgt. Hobart Shillingburg investigated.

Three Hospitalized In Sunday Wreck

Three persons were admitted to Garrett County Memorial Hospital after the pickup in which they were riding struck a tree on Paradise Point road late Sunday.

Charles Harvey, RD 4, Deer Park, one of the passengers was listed in satisfactory condition yesterday morning at the hospital. Kenneth P. Niner, operator of the pickup, and the other passenger, Jeffrey Gosnell, both of Star Route, Oakland, were discharged previously.

Niner was headed east on Paradise Point road near the Zeddock Miller road about 5:15 p.m. when he noticed an oncoming vehicle. Due to the narrow road the operation went off the right side, lost control and struck a tree near the road. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater charged Niner with operating an unsafe vehicle.

A one-car accident occurred five minutes earlier not far away.

Mark Douglas Bylan, Deer Park, driving south on Sand Flat road near the Pergin Farm road, came out of a left hand turn in the roadway, lost control of the car, went off the right side of the road and struck an embankment and tree. Tfc. Broadwater charged him also with operating an unsafe vehicle.

At Church Workshop

Four members of St. Peter's Catholic Church, Oakland, attended a training workshop last week for a forthcoming GIFT program to take place in the parish this coming fall.

GIFT stands for Growth In Faith Together. It is primarily an adult religious education program.

Attending the workshop last Friday and Saturday were: Rev. Martin E. Feild, pastor, Chairman and Executive Secretary of the program; Miss Margaret Boyle, Reflection Group Director; Joseph Shorb, Catechetical Director, and Benjamin B. Thorn, Continuing Response Coordinator. Clarence Stem, Publicity Director, was not able to attend the workshop, which was held in Sparks, Md.

Two Are Bitten By Dogs Last Week

Members of the Garrett County Sheriff's Department answered two dog bite calls during the past week.

On June 8, James Garner, Jr., 11, of Rock Lodge Road, McHenry, was bitten by a German Shepherd dog and was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Deputy John Leitz located the dog and owner, Blair Buckel, also Rock Lodge Road, on June 10 and the animal has been tied up for the next ten days to determine whether he might possibly have rabies.

Mrs. Elsie Green, Marsh Hill Road, was bitten twice on the backs of her legs by a dog Tuesday, June 10. Mrs. Green was taken to Garrett County Memorial Hospital for treatment and that dog, property of George Parker, also has been incarcerated for ten days.

Chief Deputy Frank Finch advises anyone who is bitten severely by a dog to contact the sheriff's office so that the dog may be located and penned for ten days. He also advises that owners are liable for damages to clothing and for hospital fees incurred by their pets.

Some jobless say pet food is good nourishment for them.

Educational Grants Now Available

The U.S. Office of Education recently announced that the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant will be made available to part-time as well as full-time students, according to J. W. Janssen, Dean of Students, Garrett Community College, McHenry. The BEOG is an outright grant of money by U.S.-O.E. to eligible students for meeting the costs of college and associated living expenses.

The grants are awarded on the basis of income level. Generally persons with an income of $12,000 or less are eligible. The lower the income, the higher the grant amount. The grants may range from $200 to $1400 depending upon income level, educational costs, and numbers of hours for which enrolled.

Dr. Janssen stated that the BEOG could be used to cover educational expenses for the GCC Summer Session and or the coming Fall and Spring semesters. Applications should be submitted as soon as possible. BEOG aplications are available at the high school counseling office or at GCC. The forms are mailed by the applicant directly to an agency for processing. The only application cost is that of a stamp for mailing.

Members of Cub Scout Pack 70, Mt. Lake Park, sponsored by Garrett Lodge No. 113, Knights of Pythias, held their soap box derby Sunday afternoon, June 8, at 1 o'clock, at Southern High School. Others participating included Curtis Jenson, Chris Callis, Billy Reall, Scott Germain, Chris Bentley and Chip Rowan.

Members of the Southern Rescue Squad stood by during the race, and Paul DeWitt, county roads administrative engineer, also assisted.

Board To Hear Teacher Grievance

A hearing was set for this afternoon, Thursday, June 12, before the Board of Education on a teacher grievance filed February 19, according to Tom Shaffer, MSTA field representative for Western Maryland.

The grievance hearing is in accordance with the negotiated agreement between the County Teachers Association and the School Board.

Shaffer said that around February 12 the teacher made some verbal remarks in the school corridor that prompted a conference with the school principal that same day.

He said several matters were discussed, including the principal's judgment that such remarks were detrimental to teacher morale in the school.

Mr. Shaffer represented the teacher at a conference with Dr. William Buser, county superintendent of schools. The case was then appealed to the Board of Education.

Representing the teacher at the board hearing this afternoon will be James Whattan, attorney for the Maryland State Teachers Association. Superintendent's counsel will be W. Dwight Stover. Attorney for the school board is Ralph Burnett.

Mr. Shaffer did not state the name of the teacher involved. When Dr. Buser was contacted he said since Mr. Shaffer had not named the teacher he preferred not to mention it either and preferred not to make any additional comment until after the hearing.

Further appeal to the State Board of Education is provided by Maryland State School law, if that action is desired.

For centuries men have been using nets to reap the rich harvest of the sea. There is a classic rhythm to the saga of the sea and fishermen. It is a tale filled with danger and persistence—success and failure. Indeed, it is very much akin to life itself.

You may not have to wrest your living from the sea, but you can learn a lesson from those who do. Fishermen the world around are, for the most part, devout folk. They've learned the meaning of faith. They know God. Seldom will you see even the smallest harbor town without a church. There men—and the women who wait for them—go to pray.

Have you been to your church lately?

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

KOINONIA

Lesson for June 15, 1975

Background Scripture: Jeremiah 26:1-6; Luke 24:13-27, 44-49; John 20:30-31; John 1:1-4, 14.
Devotional Reading: John 5:39-47

In the Greek New Testament there frequently occurs a word for which there is no adequate equivalent. The word is koinonia (COIN-o-NEE-uh) and most often it is translated as "fellowship," although that term is quite inadequate. The word "koinonia" implies partnership, sharing, friendship, mutual participation, communion, and relationship. As William Barclay puts it, koinonia "is that bond which binds Christians to each other, to Christ and to God."

Rev. Althouse

"...Fellowship with us..."

In a sense, the Bible is a koinonia. The writer of I John speaks of his epistle in this manner: "...that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship (koinonia) with us..." (I John 1:3).

Each of the various writers of the Bible had experiences in which they encountered God. Their biblical writings are an attempt to express and share with us those encounters. Their purpose is not just to tell us about those experiences, but to help us enter in to their experiences and encounter God for ourselves.

When the writers of Genesis write of creation and the story of Adam and Eve, they are attempting to help us to feel the same sense of awe and wonder in God's presence which they felt. When the writer of I Kings tells us an episode from the history of Israel, he wants us to experience, just as he does, the presence of God working in the affairs of men.

"...That you may believe..."

When the Psalmist sets down his testimony of faith, he wants us to share personally in his moment of inspiration. When the prophet records his warnings to the people of Israel, he wants us to feel the same sense of God's judgement that he feels. When the writer of one of the gospels records for us the words and actions of Jesus, he does so that we might encounter the Lord for ourselves.

This is what John says about the purpose of his gospel:

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name (John 20:31).

The writer of John, therefore, wants to share his experience with us, not just that we may know about it, but so that, in a sense, we may live it with him. The purpose is not to teach us history—what dates and events—nor is it to lay us rules, regulations, or even a philosophy. The purpose is to give us an opportunity to let God speak to us about our problems, our concerns, and our lives.

The term "The Word of God," then, is not simply what we receive when we read a book, but the living experience of God himself, who speaks through our koinonia with those who produced the book we call the Bible.

When Baby Goes On Vacation

Packing for vacation probably isn't high on anyone's list of "like to do" — and a baby may seem to complicate matters. However, being organized and refusing to take more than is needed will simplify both packing and traveling.

First consider where you are going, for how long and how you will get there. Then make a list by categories of things baby will need. Try to put items aside in advance. Keep a separate list of things to pack at the last minute, such as vitamin drops and a favorite toy.

Purchase containers of powder, lotion, cream, cotton and other necessities — enough to last the whole trip. Discuss with the doctor any medications you should have on hand and prepare a "first aid" kit for baby. Be sure to include a thermometer and baby aspirin — just in case.

Taking clothing that is comfortable, washable either in a basin of suds or at a launderette and requires no ironing. Doing mini-laundry frequently is better than packing many outfits.

Generally speaking, it is wise to use the same products on the road as at home to avoid any possible reactions. This is especially true with formula and food. Plan to take an adequate supply for baby to allow for any unforeseen delay in arriving at your destination. if traveling light is a factor, try to check in advance if the brand of formula is available at your vacation spot.

Disposables — diapers in particular — are a boon to traveling with a baby. Moist towelettes are also useful.

Pack a diaper bag or large over-the-shoulder type bag with the things baby will need for the trip itself. Include changes of clothing along with diapers, medications, toiletries, food, a toy or two, waterproof pad and "burp"-cloths.

Traveling by car allows space for extras, such as a portable crib. However, be sure you have and use a safety seat for baby. If traveling by air, alert the airline in advance. They generally make special efforts to help with boarding and deplaning as well as providing feeding and changing facilities. For train and bus travel, ask about accommodations and rest stops.

Back To Bible Preaching

The spoken word is a powerful instrument. That is why freedom of speech is found in the Bill of Rights. The truth, freely spoken, is an instrument of righteousness so great God can use it as His power of salvation (Rom. 1:16).

Evangelists are the men God has provided to proclaim His will (Eph. 4:11), and to them He has one order: "Preach the Word" (2 Tim. 4:2).

God has placed His saving power in the Gospel. Faith in it is necessary and obedience to it is demanded (2 Thess. 1:7-9).

God has ordained that this saving power be exerted through preaching (Mark 16:15). So thorough were the efforts of early Christians that Paul wrote in Col. 1:23, "the gospel has been preached in all creation under heaven."

Through their preaching the apostles became the most powerful figures in their day. But preaching soon failed when the apostles died. A church liturgy grew up that stifled preaching. It was not until the early part of the 12th century that men began to do the kind of preaching that is attributed to the seed sowing that led to the reformation.

Toward the end of the 19th century American pulpits were aflow with Scripture quotations by men who believed they could justify their doctrines by the Bible.

In the 20th century modernism moved into the pulpit, destroying the power of the pulpit message. This hyper-critical attitude began to question the authority of everything without weighing the evidence.

The social gospel took the place of the gospel of salvation. Preachers laid emphasis on help in the here and now because they had strong doubts about life after death. What preaching that is heard from these pulpits never deals with such things as sin, the blood of Christ, salvation and the deity of Christ - except to deny them.

Another type of preaching that is a departure from the gospel is political preaching. The modernists uses political themes for what he calls "social betterment". Using subjects of world characters, they move from one to another, as each one fails, to herald the approaching day of Christ.

If we are interested in feeding the souls of men we MUST get back to Bible preaching. We must realize that the truth is only to be found in the Gospel. The church of Christ stands squarely on the Gospel of Christ, obedient to His mandate to preach the Gospel, and that gospel alone (Mark 16:15; I Cor. 2:2-5; Gal. 1:8-10; 2 John 9).

WHY should we limit ourselves to Bible preaching in the pulpit? First, there are other times and places when political integrity and social betterment can be taught. Second, people are HUNGRY to hear the Bible. Very little Bible is used in the pulpits of our land today. We should feed the soul properly, by preaching exactly what the Bible says.

Modernism and traditionalism will pass away, but the Gospel of Christ will remain (Matt. 24:35).

W. Md. Sites Added To National Register

Four Western Maryland historic sites have been added to the National Register of Historic Places, according to the Maryland Historical Trust, an agency of the Department of Economic and Community Development.

One of those is in this county, two in Allegany and one in Washington county.

Listed for this county is "Hoye Site," a prehistoric Indian village occupied from ca. A.D. 1000-1500. This is the southernmost late prehistoric village known in the Youghiogheny drainage area. This site is the only known late woodland occupation in this county which has not been extensively disturbed by construction or excavations.

The three other sites listed: Barton Indian village, Allegany county; Shawnee Old Fields village, Allegany county; Elliott-Bester house, Washington county.

By
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, c/o U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks:

What is the status of the Emergency Unemployment and Special Unemployment Assistance Extension Act.

The measure has passed the House of Representatives and is currently pending before the Senate.

As a member of the House Interior Committee, perhaps you can tell me how I go about obtaining a conservation yearbook?

The Department of Interior Conservation Yearbook Series is now in its tenth year. During this time the publication has served as a means of informing the public about various environmental issues from grassroots efforts in conservation to reports on minerals, land and water. The latest Yearbook examines our dependence on natural resources and some of the choices America must consider in the years ahead. You may order your copy by sending a check for $4.95 to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C. 20402.

Could you please use your column to encourage employers with job openings to list their available positions with the local Maryland Department of Employment Security office?

In order to aid Sixth District residents currently seeking permanent or part-time employment, employers may list their job availabilities at these Employment Security locations: Allegany County—239 North Mechanic Street, Cumberland, Telephone 722-1930; Baltimore County—311 East Pennsylvania Avenue, Towson, Telephone 823-3300; Carroll County—25 Liberty Street, P. O. Box 270, Westminster, Telephone 848-9440; Frederick County—22 West Church Street, P. O. Box 700, Frederick, Telephone 662-2166; Garrett County—216 East Alder Street, P. O. Box 208, Oakland, Telephone 334-2183; Howard County—Joseph Square, Columbia, Telephone 730-1985; Washington County—401 East Antietam Street, P. O. Box 1099, Hagerstown, Telephone 733-0100.

How do you size up the feeling in your district as far as gas rationing goes?

My last questionnaire showed a 2-to-1 opposition to gas rationing by Central and Western Maryland citizens.

I applied in March for social security but was told that I would not get my check until June. Do I still receive that $50 special payment?

Yes. Under the Tax Reduction Act of 1975 you need only have applied for social security before April 1 and have received a check for the month of March no later than August 31.

Senior Citizens Planning Picnic Wed., July 16

A picnic will be held for Senior Citizens in Garrett County Wednesday, July 16, at Herrington Manor State Park.

Senior Citizens over 60 will be admitted to the park free, provided they display the canary yellow discount card or one of the State Park passes.

The picnic luncheon, prepared by the staffs of the county's hot meals program headed by Mrs. Vivian Tasker, will be served at noon.

The picnic, planned by the county's Senior Citizens Program, sponsored by Garrett County Community Action Committee and the Commission on Aging will include various entertainment throughout the afternoon including a musical concert, hiking, nature programs and fellowship.

A similar picnic last year drew nationwide attention for Garrett County because of the outstanding cooperation of the state park headed by Superintendent Charles Thomas who freed his staff that day to assist.

W. Dale Ellis, director of Senior Citizens Programs, said some 500 Senior Citizens are expected to attend but he pointed out that reservations must be made at one of the hot meals centers, Crellin, Jennings or Kitzmiller or through a form published in the June 12 edition of The Republican. The deadline for reservations for the picnic must be made by June 30th.

Ellis explained that reservations are needed to determine how much food to prepare and the number of activities to hold.

Bowser-Wolford Nuptials Exchanged Saturday, May 10

Weding vows were exchanged by Bonnie Sue Wolford and George Henry Bowser II on Saturday, May 10, at 2:00 p.m.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Issac K. Metzler, grandfather of the groom, in Glade Mennonite Church near Bittinger. Organist was Miss Sheila Buckel, playing selections chosen by the bride and groom as well as the traditional marches.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wolford, 412 Park St., Frostburg. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H Bowser, route 1, Accident.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore the traditional wedding gown of re-embroidered Chantilly lace and crystal sheer. The bodice of lace had a scoop neckline and Bishop sleeves. The A-line skirt of crystal sheer swept to a chapel train. The elbow-length veil made of triple layers of bridal illusion and affixed to a Juliet cap of Venice lace trimmed with pearls and crystals. The bride carried a bouquet of seven cascading gardenias with the center gardenia as a liftout corsage.

Mrs. Hazel Gaumer, sister of the groom, Greensburg, Pa., was matron of honor. Her full-length gown of yellow crepe was flocked with white daisies. She carried an arm bouquet of daisies. A headpiece of shoulder-length yellow bridal illusion was worn to match the dress.

Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Pope of Finzel and Mrs. Mary Jane Wiland of Cresaptown. Their dresses of green flocked crepe and headpieces matched those of the matron of honor. The flowers of both bridesmaids were also arm bouquets of daisies.

Wayne Gaumer, Greensburg, was his brother-in-law's best man. Ushers were Harry Wolford, brother of the bride, Frostburg, and Harry Stephen, cousin of the groom, Bel Air.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the church basement. Mrs. Lenny Michaels and Mrs. Bess Miller, aunts of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Adeline Wolford, another aunt of the bride, served punch. Helping with the coffee was Mrs. Wanda Richardson, also aunt of the bride. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Janet Brenneman and Mrs. Anna Yoder.

For a trip to West Virginia the bride wore a light blue pantsuit with matching accessories.

The bride, a graduate of Beall High School, was employed by D. J. Fabrics in LaVale.

A graduate of Northern High School, Mr. Bowser is employed by M. F. Fetterolf Coal Company.

The couple resides at Rt. 1, Box 153 B, Grantsville.

New Telephone Directories Are Being Delivered

More than 10,000 new telephone directories for Garrett County will be delivered during the next two weeks.

A. W. Meyer, C&P Telephone manager, said that as a paper-saving measure each household will receive one directory. In the past, the quantity corresponded to the number of phones in the home.

Customers who need more directories may request them by returning the postcard left with their new books, or by calling their local C&P business office. Businesses will continue to receive one directory for each telephone, or a quantity agreed upon with the customer.

"We're trying to tailor the distribution of directories to meet the needs and desires of our customers," Mr. Meyer said. "At the same time, we have to face the reality that we cannot continue to obtain supplies of paper at our former rate of consumption."

Mr. Meyer reminded customers to check the phone book for important up-dated information.

"When you need a telephone number or you want to know something about your service, turn to your phone book," he suggested. "You may actually be surprised at how much it can help you."

Here are some of the items in this directory: Revised emergency numbers and the addition of a number for the Poison Control Center listed on the inside front cover; Space for a personal number list on page 1 of the Call Guide; A new location listed for paying telephone bills; Updated information about several important aspects of telephone service in the Call Guide; Tips on how to use the white pages to find listings more quickly and easily.

The cover story tells how the black and orange flower came to Maryland.

ACP Signup Deadline Nears

Sign up deadline for county farmers for the 1975 Agricultural Conservation program has been set at Friday, June 27, according to Granville P. Halterman, director.

Cost shares are from 50 to 75 percent of the cost of carrying out approved soil, water and woodland conservation practices. ACP helps farmers solve conservation problems in several broad practice groups, he said. He listed these as: establish protective cover; improve existing protective cover; conserve or dispose of water; improve stands of forest trees and meet special county conservation needs. The ACP also helps provide required technical service for certain practices.

He said funds were still available for conservation needs. Detailed information may be obtained from the county ASCS office on U.S. route 219, North of Oakland.

2 Bear Sightings Reported In Area

The bears are roaming again.

Two reports of black bear sightings have been made this week, one at Rock Lodge Road and the second at Bradley Lane, Oakland, to Members of the Natural Resource Police.

The first sighting was about 4:45 p.m. Sunday on the Rock Lodge Road, reported by James Garner. The bear probably came from the Cherry Creek cove area and was seen near the state by-water area.

There was also a report of a bear in the area behind Bradley Lane early Monday afternoon, but wildlife officers were unable to catch sight of either animal.

Residents along Bradley Lane saw the animal go across a lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruckert and onto the town Property and up into the woods again.

Natural resource police advise citizens who spot a bear to leave the animal alone and not attempt to feed, pet or otherwise disturb it.

The Natural Resource Police also were called to inform a nude swimmer in the Hooppole area of an imminent arrest unless she put on a swim suit, and to search for a man reported missing at Deep Creek State Park at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Park rangers had conducted a search until 8:30 p.m. and were planning to call an all-out search effort when they were informed that the "lost" man, Richard Anderson, had returned to his home in Martinsburg, W. VA., without advising other members of his camping party.

Three Teachers Are Listed As "Outstanding"

Three teachers from Center Street Elementary School in Oakland have been selected as Outstanding Elementary Teachers of America for 1975.

Chosen were Linda Kay Fearnow, Mary Martha "Pat" Bray, and Helen Sollars Friend.

These three are now in competition for one of five national outstanding Elementary Teachers of the Year awards. Each national winner will receive a $506 grant and an award commemorating their selection.

Guidelines for selection for this honor include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service and professional recognition.

A complete biography and record of achievements of each outstanding teacher is presented yearly in the awards volume, "outstanding Elementary Teachers of America."

Agreement Reached In Teacher Grievance Suit

An agreement was reached between the parties involved in a teacher grievance suit heard last week before the Board of Education.

H. Lynn Fraley, teacher at Dennett Road School.. had claimed that a letter to him from Clark Sharpless, principal at the school, reprimanded him, which is against the rules of the negotiated agreement between the County Teachers Association and the school board.

In the agreement reached last Thursday, the grievances listed were to be withdrawn in return for the letter from Mr. Sharpless being placed in a sealed envelope which may be opened only with the concurrent approval of Mr. Sharpless, Mr. Fraley and the superintendent of schools.

LOST CHILD LOCATED — Two-year-old Michael John Wenham, Joppa, was found about 7:30 p.m. Friday after being lost in the woods near Lake Forest Campgrounds for five hours. A coordinated effort by four fire departments, the sheriff's department, Maryland State Police, two rescue squads and Natural Resource Police culminated in the successful rescue effort when Don Ringer, a Northern Rescue Squad member, found the child. Pictured above are Jim McCartney, member of the Deer Park Volunteer fire company; Terry King, also a member of the Deer Park crew, little Michael, and Sheriff John Evans, Jr.

School Budget Cuts Hurt, Buser Says

The announcement by the Garrett County Commissioners last week on the Board of Education Budget will cause budget cuts that "hurt," according to Dr. William H. Buser, Superintendent of Schools.

Herbert Harman, Board of Education President, indicated it would be very difficult to cut an additional $348,110 from a school budget which has already been cut about $513,000 by the school board and staff.

In response to the cut the school board adopted the following resolution at their meeting Thursday, June 12.

"The Garrett County Board of Education FY 1976 Budget Request of the County Commissioners from the local appropriation was $818,110 adtracted expenditures. Based on the Board's feeling that the an increase in the local appropriation of $470,000. This action in effect means the Board of Education will be cutting its FY 1976 Budget by Approximately $348,110.

"With the magnitude of this cut the Board directs the superintendent to make major cuts in supplies, materials, equipment, number of employees, and contracted expendituress. Based on the Board's feeling that the employee salary requests were reasonable and established in good faith with them, the Board directs that the salary reductions for employees be kept to a minimum. The salary cuts for employees should reflect the principles used in evolving the original salary schedules."

Daily meetings have been in progress with the Board of Education staff looking for ways to implement the cuts. A meeting has been held with the leadership of the Garrett County Teachers' Association and special Board of Education meetings will be held to best plan the utilization of the additional available funds.

Currently it appears that cuts will be made in additional administrative and supervisory requests and a number of teaching vacancies will not be filled. The Board of Education will also need to weigh the amount of reduction in personnel as opposed to funding salary packages of employees as planned.

Dr. Buser said he felt this backward step was being brought about by (1) the failure of the State to maintain its percentage share of funding, (2) the authorization by the County Commissioners last year to spend Board of Education reserves that are not available this year, and (3) the unwillingness of the County Commissioners to grant additional local funds.

Women Voters To Hold Meet Monday

The League of Women Voters of Garrett County will hold two meetings Monday, June 23.

The 9:30 a.m. meeting will be held at the home of Jane Ducoli on Lake Shore Drive and the evening meeting will be held at 7:30 at the home of Patricia Peck on Tenth Street, Oakland.

The discussion will focus on the succession of the offices of President and Vice President of the U.S. and will be led by Mary I. Love, chairman of the Representative Government Committee, and members of the committee, Dorothy Janney and Eugene Straub.

Both meetings are open to the public and interested persons are welcome to attend.

Roads Group To Decide On Route 42 This Summer

The State Highway Administration is hoping to have a decision sometime this summer on what it will do to improve Maryland Route 42 in this county.

John D. Bushby, district 6 engineer, said the alternatives being considered for the project are now being reviewed.

A public hearing which would affect Route 42 from its point at U. S. Route 219 to relocated Route 42, south of Friendsville, was held at Friendsville elementary school in April. Following the hearing two state legislators and the County Commissioners asked the SHA to merely upgrade the highway rather than select a new alignment.

The request was made to Mr. Bushby by Sen. Edward J. Mason, Delegate DeCorsey E. Bolden and commissioners Don S. Bender, George C. Edwards and Wayne B. Hamilton.

While a decision on the project still has not been made it appears likely that the SHA will decide to abide by the legislators' request and improve the road rather than build a new stretch.

Mr. Bushby pointed out that the project is in the SHA's five year program but if a new alignment is decided on it would be after 1980 before the project would actually be funded. If upgraded widening and shoulders and straightening some of the more severe curves would probably be started much sooner.

Friendsville Mayor Karol Rush has asked that the SHA construct the new road which he feels would benefit the area more than the repaired road.

Area Gets More Sunshine During The Past Week

More sunshine was noted in the area during the past week than in recent weeks. Temperatures have been near normal with Summer officially beginning Saturday.

Following last Thursday's .76 inch of rain there has only been small amounts late Saturday and early Monday. Skies have been clear to partly cloudy.

Daytime temperatures averaged 77 degrees or .7 degrees below normal. The highs were 83 degrees on Sunday and Tuesday. Lows averaged 53.1 degrees or 1.1 above normal. The lowest was 47 degrees last Saturday.

Summer begins with the Summer Solstice, Saturday, June 21, at 8:34 p.m. DST. Saturday is the longest day of the year. Days then will start to become shorter until the first day of winter in December.

Other grand lodge officers will participate at the ceremony set for 2:30 p.m. that day.

Potomac Lodge No. 5, of Washington, D. C., will furnish the famous "George Washington Gavel" for the grand master to use in laying the cornerstone. This gavel was used by George Washington to lay the cornerstone of the United States capitol building on September 18, 1793.

Members of Oakland Lodge No. 192, and members of other Masonic bodies will take part.

Deer Park Man Pleads Guilty of Larceny Friday

A Deer Park man pleaded guilty of larceny of shrubbery at a trial in Circuit Court last Friday before Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr.

Charles Paugh pleaded guilty to larceny of 165 pieces of shrubbery from the Arborvale Corp., Oakland, last February, valued at $825. A charge of receiving stolen goods was dismissed at the trial. A pre-sentence investigation was ordered.

Cash bond was paid May 23 and is being continued pending the investigation.

Two Juveniles Heard Yesterday

Two juveniles were heard in Circuit Court by Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., yesterday. One was found to be in need of supervision and another a delinquent minor on two charges.

A 16-year-old male was found to be in need of supervision by reason of being disobedient, ungovernable and beyond control of his mother. The court sentenced him to the custody of the Department of Juvenile Services until discharged by due process of the law.

A 17-year-old male was charged in two counts of being delinquent. One was for breaking and entering and the other was possession of a dangerous, concealed weapon. The court committed him to the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene until released by due process of the law. The office of the Secretary then will assign the youth to the appropriate juvenile institution.

County Holds Tax Levy At $2.73 For 5th Year

For the fifth year in a row, Garrett County commissioners kept the $2.73 tax rate on each $100 of assessed valuation, it was announced yesterday morning.

The commissioners had spent the past several weeks concentrating on various proposed budgets of the various county agencies.

Formal approval for the budget of $7.1 million is expected when the board holds its regular weekly meeting next Monday.

The budget is roughly a $1 million increase over last year's expenditures. Despite that, the commissioners were able to keep the tax rate the same, partly through increased property assessments and partly because of severe pruning of county department requests.

Biggest appropriation in the budget will be for the Board of Education which will receive $2,555,727 next year, a 22 percent increase over the current budget.

The second highest budget allocation is for the highway department, which will be getting $1,837,000 as its share of the new budget. That figure is roughly the same as last year.

Another sizeable expense for the county is the Health Department with $179,000 being allocated there, a slight rise from last year.

The commissioners noted that there are only two new programs in the new budget: $8,044 for the Early Childhood Development program, and funds for construction of a new animal shelter. The childhood program was formerly operated by Community Action agency but is now functioning under the Garrett Community college. A total of $21,000 had been requested from the county for the program but that amount was reduced by nearly two thirds by the commissioners.

Some county departmenta and agencies actually will be getting less revenue this year. Community Action agency's county revenue will drop from $32,000 to $10,000 and the planning department and sheriff's budgets were also reduced. The sheriff's department budget will be $119,838, and the county wil appropriate $9,695 for opration of the county jail.

Garrett Community college's allocation will increase from $220,000 last year to $295,000. County Commissioners' office budget will remain the same except for a slight increase needed for office personnel salary increases. The commissioners' budget represents about one percent of the total county budget.

Also provided for in the new budget are funds for a new asphalt plant needed to continue road improvements. The commissioners said they would like to get a grant for the plant but if that is not possible they still intend to find money to purchase the plant.

The Savage River bridge project which may cost nearly $100,000 more than anticipated, is still not settled. The state is studying the single bid received for the project and a recommendation is expected soon.

The entire levy will be published in the near future.

Lost Child Found Unharmed Friday

Two-year-old Michael John Wenham was found unharmed Friday afternoon following a five-hour search by local fire departments, rescue squads, State Police, the sheriff and Natural Resource Police departments.

The youngster, who will be three next month, had apparently wandered away about 2:30 from Lake Forest Campground where his parents, Frank and Wendy Wenham, of Joppa, were camping.

Firemen from Accident, Deer Park, Deep Creek and Oakland turned out to aid members of the Southern and Northern Rescue Squads on a search mission through the woods. Members of the Maryland State Police also assisted in the search and brought in their K-9 bloodhound from Cumberland, although he was not used.

Don Ringer, of the Northern Garrett Rescue Squad, found the child about 7:30 p.m., approximately one-fourth of a mile from Route 219 and the campgrounds in the vicinity of the Deep Creek Information booth.

The child was in considerably better shape than his parents when found, except for hunger. He had spent the time divided between playing and calling for his mommy. The Wenhams have one younger son.

Browning Heads Election Board

At a reorganizational meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Elections for the county on Tuesday, June 10, George M. Browning was re-elected president. Mr. Browning, Oakland, and William R. Bever, route 1, Swanton, were recently reappointed by Governor Mandel as Democratic members, and Thomas W. Hetz, route 1, Lonaconing was reappointed as Republican member. They will serve a two year term.

Contempt For An American Hero

It seems strange that, at this very time when Americans everywhere are celebrating America's 200th birthday and recalling the glory of America, some Members of Congress display nothing but contempt and shame for America and American heroes. Such, however, is the case of Congresswoman Bella Abzug of Manhattan, whose labor on behalf of alien causes brought her name to the attention of the Central Intelligence Agency. Recently, in a Congressional debate, Representative Lawrence McDonald of Georgia (a Democrat), in support of his argument quoted a few of the words spoken by General Douglas MacArthur in his classic and historic address to the Corps of Cadets at West Point in 1962.

And through all this welter of exchange and development, your mission remains fixed, determined, inviolable—it is to win wars. Everything else in your professional career is but corollary to this vital dedication. All other public purposes, all other public needs, great or small, will find others for their accomplishment; but you are the ones who are trained to fight; yours is the profession of arms."

Mrs. Abzug wasted no time in getting to her feet. "I had not really intended to speak on this great subject," she said "...but, speaking of General MacArthur, it seems that old canards never die, they end up on the floor of this House."

A canard, of course, is a false and malicious lie, a hoax. The one who perpetrates a canard, is, therefore, a liar of the worst sort.

To most Americans, such a smear attack against any great American is unthinkable, indeed, the late Senator Joseph McCarthy was censured for a much milder criticism ("General, you are not fit to wear the uniform.") against an Army officer whose name today is all but forgotten. But brazen Bella is not likely to be censured, or even criticized; indeed some 70 or 80 Members of the Congress popularly known as the "new mavericks," follow Mrs. Abzug like puppy dogs wherever she goes; whatever she votes for, they vote for.

To heap insult upon irony, the people of Manhattan, who wished Mrs. Abzug upon us in the first place, recently had the effrontery to journey to the Nation's Capital, hat in hand, to beg the American taxpayers to bail them out of the financial mess they are in. We are grateful that President Ford had the good sense to turn them down. — U. S. Press Association.

THANK YOU

The Southern Varsity Cheerleaders would like to express their thanks to Browning's Foodland for contributing the $50.00 Food Basket. The winner of the food basket was Mrs. Vera Graham of Oakland.

First off, solid cedar is beautiful, right? If you agree, that shows you've got good taste. And, that's what we make—pre-cut homes out of Western red cedar. Beautiful. Now, picture this: neighbors out painting and fixing up while you're sitting in your Justus solid cedar home relaxing. That's another beauty of building with Justus. The Justus Company. Inside Business

Is The Consumer Still King?

By Ross Wilhelm

One of the basic ideas on which our economy was founded was that "the consumer is king." What it means is that in buying the things they want or need, and by not buying things they don't want, consumers determine which products stay on the market and which are withdrawn, which companies succeed, which fail.

While critics of business have argued that the consumer was never king, there is much evidence to the contrary. The critics over the years have claimed that the designs of women's clothing, for example, are determined by dress designers—that the women can take only what is offered to them by the dress industry. However, the total failure of the "maxi" just a few years ago and the rise of the liberated woman have laid this myth to rest.

The critics also have argued that the consumer is simply manipulated by advertising and that consumer wants are determined by the marketers, not by his or her real consumer needs.

Yet, in recent times we have seen the products of major companies fail to gain consumer acceptance despite enormous advertising and marketing programs such as those for the leather substitute Corfam or the Edsel. In addition, we have learned in recent months that we cannot simply advertise our country out of the recession by manipulating consumers to buy more. The fact is that throughout our history, the consumer has indeed been king.

In recent years, however, we have observed a change, the influence of the consumer in the marketplace is declining. In the name of protecting the environment or product safety or health, the influence of consumers on product design has been diminished. In the case of automobiles, we have seen the government force consumers to buy hardware and equipment they did not want, such as the interlocking seat-belt system. We have seen the Federal Drug Administration wage a steady war against vitamin usage despite the widespread demand for these products. In almost every American industry, control over product design has been shifting from the marketplace to Washington. Only when consumers have rebelled, as with the seat-belt interlock system, or when people have stopped buying has Washington backed off from its imposition.

Certainly, there is a need to protect people from unknown dangers, or dangerous products or unscrupulous sellers. However, protection should not mean treating the public like a group of morons. Protection does not mean that consumers should be forced to pay the cost of avoiding all risk, and not be given the choice as to how much risk they will assume. Protection must mean educating people to make intelligent decisions and insuring that they obtain the information they need to make them. We are rapidly moving toward "protecting" people to the point where they are losing their freedom.

Busy Bees Group Makes Fall Plans

Plans for fall for the Busy Bees organization of girls at Green Street School are already being formulated, according to the teacher and four aides who work with the group.

Since the Busy Bee activities have closely followed a Girl Scout program during the past year, it is hoped that a leader for such a group may be found and the girls may become an actual troop next fall. The Busy Bees are sponsored by Del Boring Tire Service in Oakland.

The ten Busy Bee members have made matching hats, purses and scarfs as a part of a uniform. They also made holiday gifts for parents and various jewelry pieces in addition to planting seeds for home and flower boxes for the school grounds. They also took several field trips to such places as the florists, the zoo, the library, a local restaurant and the bowling alley.

Mrs. Barbara Weaver is the teacher who has worked with the group, and aides are Shirley Kight, Jane Mick, Pat McBee, and Louise White.

Events of the school year concluded last Wednesday with a spaghetti luncheon at Cornish Manor. Special guests included Mrs. Sally Wilson, coordinator of special education, and Mrs. Regina Stork, principal of Green Street School.

A McHenry woman was injured in a one-car mishap just past midnight Monday on the Mayhew Inn road. Another one-car mishap and a hit-and-run accident were also noted.

Michele M. Geisler, 19, McHenry, was injured when the wheel of the car she was driving dropped off the roadway onto the right shoulder. The car crossed the road to the left, climbed six feet up an embankment and overturned. The car was called a total loss in the accident which occurred near the Bray School road. Tfc. C. H. Hinnant charged her with operating at a speed too great for conditions.

Dennis Roy Skeens, Branchland, W. Va., was traveling on U.S. 40 near the Zehner road last Wednesday evening. He had left a parking lot at a high rate of speed, lost control of the car, crossed the road and hit an embankment. Trooper Ronald Georg charged him on two counts, operating without registration plates and displaying expired plates.

Cheryl Ann Slagle, Friendsville, was driving west on old Route 42 coming to the intersection with proposed new Route 42 the night of June 7. As she stopped, an unknown vehicle following struck the right side of her car and the driver fled the scene. Tfc. C. D. Skidmore investigated.

Margaret M. Frazee, McHenry, and Esther D. Friend, RD. 3, Deer Park, were driving west on Md. 135 last Friday morning. Margaret Frazee slowed to turn into the Bausch and Lomb plant when Esther Friend started to pass on a solid double line and collided with the Frazee car. Tfc. E. J. Upole charged Esther Friend with passing on left when unsafe.

A car-rig accident occurred last Friday afternoon on U.S. 40 just west of the Green Lantern road. There were no injuries in this one. Clifton C. Williams, Jr., Towson, had slowed his rig for a vehicle in front of him making a right turn, When John R. New Visual Aids Help 4-H'ers Learn In Veterinary Science

CHICAGO—Young people interested in animals and their well-being will find a new learning aid to their liking.

Color slides, 1,200 in 26 sets, developed for use in the national 4-H veterinary science program have been mailed to state 4-H leaders reports T. W. Thompson, assistant director of the National 4-H Service Committee. The visual aids, designed for use with the existing three units of 4-H veterinary science, were funded by The Upjohn Company and produced by the National 4-H Service Committee.

Starting with the Normal Animal, the principal division of units moves into the study of Animal Disease and concludes with Immunology, Zoonoses and Public Health, Thompson noted.

Major inputs to the development of the teaching aids were provided by a special project committee. And Dr. Charles N. Dobbins Jr., head of the extension veterinary department, University of Georgia, chaired the committee.

4-H'ers learn by doing

More than 55,000 boys and girls from 9 to 19 are enrolled in the Cooperative Extension Service conducted 4-H veterinary science program. Their learn-by-doing activities appeal to both urban and rural youngsters, whether or not they have their own animals to care for.

For example, last year members of the Poplar Grove 4-H Club conducted a pet vaccination center in Gilman, Wis., which is about 20 miles from the nearest veterinary clinic. Veterinarians from neighboring towns gave the shots while club members held the animals and kept medical records. More than 70 cats and dogs were vaccinated as a result of this community service project.

4-H'ers in the program not only get an insight into preventive animal medicine but they also become aware of symptoms of illness that may be caused by external or internal parasites, bacteria and viruses, improper nutrition, poisons, or even stress.

Other groups have assembled animal skeletons, assisted at local veterinary clinics and made calls with local veterinarians.

Upjohn offers awards

In addition to educational aids, The Upjohn Company provides college scholarships of $800 each to six national winners, chosen from 24 sectional winners receiving expense-paid trips to the 54th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 30-Dec. 4, in Chicago.

A $50 U.S. Savings Bond goes to one winner in each state, and up to four medals of honor are awarded per county.

Winners are selected on the basis of their records of accomplishment by the Extension Service.

County extension agents can provide more information on this 4-H program and schedule the new visual aids for clubs and groups in their area.

More than 55,000 young people in the national 4-H veterinary science program will benefit from new visual aids funded by The Upjohn Company and produced by the National 4-H Service Committee. Aids include 26 color slide sets developed to improve teaching in three program units established by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Open House Set At Center For Handicapped

Open house is scheduled this weekend for the Activities Center for handicapped adults in Oakland, sponsored by the Garrett County Community Action Committee.

The Center, located in the former Harvey Builders Supply structure across from Bradley Manor, will be open Friday from 6 until 8 p.m., Saturday from 10 to 3 and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m.

All interested persons and prospective participants are welcome, according to Fred Peters, director of the program. All persons, whether they may have physical, mental or emotional handicaps, are eligible for enrollment at the center. Transportation will be provided by the center to and from the homes. The Activities Center will be in operation from 9 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. five days a week.

Renovation and remodeling of the structure is complete, with several areas partitioned for special activities. A kitchen is also included in the center, with a cook to prepare lunch for the staff and participants.

t The staff plans to provide avtivities centered around the existing skills of the participants and to progress at the rate of each individual's needs and abilities. An atmosphere will be established in which the participants of the program will develop meaningful relationships with other persons and enjoy the activities. Most important, the center will provide an opportunity for the handicapped person to function as a valuable and contributing member of his community.

In November, a sheltered workshop affiliated with the Activities Center will be opened. This workshop will provide jobs for the handicapped under minimal supervision. Those person who have achieved the necessary skills to work will move from the Activities Center into the Sheltered Workshop. Local businessmen are now being contacted for possible job contracts they can provide for the workshop.

"How Does Your Garden Grow?"

Dr. Lawrence Sherwood, Pastor
St. Paul's United Methodist Church

Your garden can be a parable that speaks to you about life. Jesus used the common experiences with growing things to talk about God and His Kingdom. So many of the parables of Jesus deal with seeds and their growth.

The next time you are in a garden pause and think about the ways of God. Perhaps you will come to the realization that (1) the garden will not grow as it should unless you or some other persons are involved in the preparation of the soil, planting of the seed, cultivation of the plants, and harvesting at the proper time; and, (2) even though you work at the garden night and day, all the power for growth comes from the soil, seed, water, sun, and air.

The Apostle Paul saw both of these truths. He expressed them in I Corinthian 3:6 as he spoke of the growth of the Church: "I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase."

These facts apply not only to your summer garden and to the Church; they apply also to you as an individual.

(1) Just as your garden requires your attention if it is to grow properly, so does your life. You need the regularity of worship in Church and private devotions to break up the hard soil of your life; you need to weed out bad practices from your life if the tender plants of Christlikeness are to grow.

(2) But, also, you need to know that God works in your life far beyond what you can do for yourself. After you have "planted" and "watered" it is God that gives the "increase."

For our gardens to grow it takes both work and faith. In regard to our lives it will be well for us to follow the proverb: "Work as though all depends on you; trust God as though all depends on Him." This is how your garden grows!

The last bus will run after the movie at about 8:30 p.m.

Phone Company To Appeal Case

Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company officials announced plans to appeal a decision by the State Public Service Commission rejecting a 20 cent pay telephone and increases in basic residential and business rates.

The company filed last December for an approximately 22 percent boost in residential and business rates, residential other assorted rates, plus the 20 cent pay phone rate, all designed to raise an additional $63.8 million in yearly revenue.

The commission said the company could have only $21.9 million in additional revenues. The rates approved by the commission enable the company to raise per call message unit charges to seven and one-half cents from seven cents, implement a monthly charge for extension phones of $1.30 for homes, and raise toll calls within the state by eight percent.

Louver Doors Help Decor, Air Closet

Louver doors are doubly useful for closets. They provide a decorative accent in any room, and they allow ventilation, which helps to keep clothing fresh and prevent mildew.

Consider the bifold type. They swing out only half as far when opened, and are no more difficult to install than side-hinge single doors

Groundbreaking For Medical Center Set Friday At Mt. Storm

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the Mountaintop Medical Center near Mt. Storm willl be conducted this Friday, June 20, at 11 a.m. directly across from Union High School on Route 50.

The building to be constructed there will measure 86 by 30 feet, with a 20 by 30 foot lobby in front. The construction is to be completed in 100 days by the Moss Associates, Inc., of Harrisonburg, Va., with enough of the work completed so that a doctor and a dentist can begin practice by August 1.

Facilities in the building will house a doctor, dentist and nurse practitioner with supporting staff. There will also be room for additional medical personnel.

Members of Mountaintop Health Services, Inc., the nonprofit organization responsible for the center, is now negotiating with Memorial General Hospital In Elkins, W. Va., for specialist services and clinics.

Expected cost of the new facility is $113,470, with part of the costs borne by a grant form the National Health Corps under the Appalachian Regional Commission. Other funds have been allocated by the County Commission and citizen donations. Citizens donations now amount to more than $12,000.

The new center will provide needed services in the Bayard, Gormania, Mt. Storm, Elk Garden, Thomas and Davis areas.

Two acres of land for the center were donated to the corporation by Mr. and Mrs. Vic Hanlin.

Mrs. Pamela Smith Bowman received her high school diploma on June 1 from Wakiawa Community School for Adults, held during graduation ceremonies at the Farrington High School in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Mrs. Bowman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterman, Mt. Lake Park, and wife of SP-4 Jeffrey Bowman, stationed at Schofield Barracks in Hawaii.

They were part of a class drawn from dealerships from many areas. They received instruction on how to diagnose and repair outboard problems.

Old Currency To Be On Display

Area residents will soon have an opportunity to view an historical collection of currency dated back to the colonial Revolutionary Period. Six panels of various issues and of U. S. Currency will be displayed at the First National Bank of Oakland during the week of June 23, according to I. Lynn Beckman, Public Relations Officer.

This exhibit, obtained from the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, includes, on the first panel, currency issued by the Continental Congress and Colonial Revolutionary States. Because of its steady depreciation in value, the Continental Currency gave rise to the expression "not worth a Continental." The warning "death to counterfeit" appears on a large part of the Continental Currency. Also shown are examples of obsolete or "broken bank" notes issued during the period 1850-1866.

The First National Bank has scheduled the exhibit so that area residents may become acquainted with the representative types of large, old size U. S. Currency of yesteryear and especially those notes with historical significance. According to Mr. Beckman, this Federal Reserve display, along with two others which will follow this summer, is another presentation of the bank in commemoration of its 75th Anniversary.

DAR Host Flag Day Luncheon

The Youghiogheny Glades Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was host to the annual Tri-State Flag Day luncheon held Saturday at the Edge O'Lake Restaurant.

Five Chapters were invited: Bedford, Pa.; Fort Ashby, W. Va.; Potomac Valley, Keyser, W. Va.; South Branch Valley, Moorefield, W. Va., and Cresap Chapter, Cumberland.

Dr. Lawrence Sherwood, the main speaker, displayed a fragment of a flag captured from a Hessian soldier at Battle of Trenton during the American Revolution.

Miss Helen King, 12th Street, Oakland, a member of Cresap Chapter, received an honor certificate and pin for her 50-year membership in her chapter. They were presented to her by her former Regent, Mrs. John J. Hafer, Sr., Frostburg.

Miss King is a daughter of the late Joseph W. and Lottie (Wildesen) King of the White Church area. She retired in April 1967 after 35 years of service with the State Highway Administration in the Baltimore office and returned to Garrett County to enjoy her retirement.

Mrs. Kesner was treated for multiple contusions and abrasions while her daughter sustained contusions and an arm injury.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Hurray for Mrs. Robert Glotfelty for speaking out last week. I agree with her well written letter.

I am a mother of four children being educated in Garrett County and I'm tired of hearing from the anti groups. The National PTA and local chapters are working for the welfare of our children. Let's get involved and work with them for our children.

Mental Health Group Seeking Financial Aid

The Garrett County Mental Health Association is presently conducting its annual Bellringer Campaign. Volunteers will be calling upon their neighbors asking for support to continue the work of the Association.

This year Miss Helen M. Bittinger is acting as Campaign Treasurer and is accepting contributions at the First National Bank in Oakland. Mrs. E. E. Wildesen has been campaign coordinator and recruited approximately 100 volunteers.

The local Chapter is affiliated with the Maryland Association for Mental Health and is a non-profit volunteer citizen's organization supported by public contributions. The Associations are not connected with any branch of State Government.

Bellringer volunteers will help the Mental Health Association make a difference for the mentally ill by: Working for improved care and treatment for mental hospital patients; establishing aftercare and rehabilitation services; sponsoring the development of treatment, education, and special services for mentally ill children; stimulating the creation of Community Mental Health Services.

The Mental Health Bellringer March takes its name from the official symbol of the National Association for Mental Health. The Symbol represents an actual bell, which was cast in Baltimore in 1953 with metal from chains and shackles once used to restrain mental patients. The Bell bears this inscription: "Cast From Shackles Which Bound Them, This Bell Shall Ring Out Hope for the Mentally Ill and Victory Over Mental Illness."

Inside Business

The Political Power of "Big Business" is Overrated

By Ross Wilhelm

For many years, radicals have preached that Big Business has enormous political power, which it uses corruptly across-the-board —in the economy, in government and in the community. The argument has been that large money contributions by business firms for political ends have enabled them at least to secure unwarranted advantages and to thwart the power of the people. What the critics prefer to ignore or underplay is the large number of laws that have been passed over the strong objections of business firms, and especially Big Business.

To be sure, the Watergate scandals showed that many businessmen made contributions to both parties, but it is questionable what their money bought.

A clear demonstration of the "political power" of business, especially Big Business and the giant oil companies, is the recent tax law revision. In the push to cut taxes and close tax "loopholes," the Congress eliminated the oil depletion allowance, a tax provision that compensates oil field owners for the reduction in their reserves of oil whenever they pump and sell it. The allowance was intended also to provide an incentive for further exploration and development of new fields. So much of the criticism of this really constructive tax provision has been centered on the oil industry alone, most Americans think of "oildepletionallowance" as one inseparable word, when in fact it covers a hundred or more natural resources.

In the recent tax bill, the depletion allowance was eliminated only for the major oil companies but not for the smaller ones. Where is the political power of Big Business if it disappears when it is most needed?

The automobile industry also provides numerous examples of the political weakness of the big auto firms. In recent years, we have seen the federal government pass many laws and regulations mandating pollution control and safety equipment for cars, over the strong objections of the auto firms. In many cases the automakers warned of consumer resistance to the high cost of the added hardware and that many of the requirements were unrealistic. Nevertheless, the laws and regulations were passed. Recently, the government has had to postpone some of these demands and to back off as it has become obvious that they are unrealistic. But the auto companies had not been able to prevent such bad legislation initially. Again, where is the political power of Big Business?

The reality is that while many firms are large, they do not have political power. Political power comes from command over votes, not dollars. Indeed, labor unions, environmental groups, consumer groups and many others have far more power in Congress and in government.

Business is a convenient "devil" to cast in the role of a "behind-the-scenes" political manipulator, but it is in truth usually miscast.

Dr. Ross Wilhelm is a professor of business economics, University of Michigan. The series, Inside Business, is sponsored by the Business Roundtable.

Oakland Nine Loses 4 Games

Mt. Savage and Everett won double header games from Oakland in the Pen Mar baseball league, last Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday Mt. Savage topped Oakland 7 to 4 and 15 to 4 on the Garrett Community college diamond at McHenry and on Saturday at Everett the team lost 3 to 0 and 9 to 0.

Everett stands at the head of the league with a 10-2 record with Romney next at 8-4, then Keyser and Cumberland and Mt. Savage with a 7-5 record. Hyndman is next to the cellar with a 3-9 record with Oakland at the bottom with no victories in twelve games.

Chuck Ingram had a three run homer for Oakland Sunday with Harv Spiker getting two hits and Ernie Shotwell a double. In the second game Gary Bosley had a two run home run for the Oakland team.

Hyndman is scheduled to play a double header on the college diamond at McHenry on Sunday afternoon starting at 2 o'clock.

Insurance FACTS

Basic standards for insurance rates are often set up by state governments. These make sure that rates will be reasonable and adequate for the class of risks they apply to. They stipulate that no rate will discriminate unfairly between risks involving essentially the same hazards. Rates are considered reasonable when they supply sufficient revenue to pay all losses, to pay the expenses of doing business, and in addition, to produce a reasonable profit for insurance carriers.

PICNIC MORNING

Happiness is a picnic morning. Happiness is a day spent with the family. Happiness is walking and talking and sharing the fun and beauty of God's world with those you love.

A picnic is always a happy idea. Somehow, just getting away from the daily routine does wonders. The sound of a cool waterfall, the rustle of a bird on the wing, the warmth of a friendly sun: all of it makes you "come alive" with a new kind of freshness.

There is another place where we all may renew our strength for the times we live in. The atmosphere, fellowship, and inspirational teachings of your church will do much to keep you walking happy. Spend next Sunday morning in church.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

"IT IS WRITTEN"

Lesson for June 22, 1975

Background Scripture: Psalms 19:7-14; 119:9-11, 105, 130; Matthew 4:1-11.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55:18-11.

The Bible is credited with being the best-seller of all time. There seems to be no dispute about that.

What is considerably less unanimous is the question as to whether it is also the world's "best-read" book. There seems to be a considerable gap between "Bibles sold" and "Bibles read."

Rev. Althouse

Is it relevant?

I once heard the Bible described by a teenager who was considerably more candid in expressing his opinion of the Bible because he didn't know I was overhearing him: "It's just a lot of musty old stories about a lot of far-out 'has-beens' who lived 'once-upon-a-time' in some 'never-never' land'"

Apart from being somewhat dazzled by the artistry of his expression, I was hardly surprised, for this young man's impression of the Bible is shared by many young people and adults alike. One of the big reasons why the Bible is more bought than read is that many people assume that, though sacred in some way, it is largely irrelevant to life in our world today.

The Bible, however, was intended to be read rather than revered. It is not irrelevant, for the most part, and, in fact, is one of the most contemporary pieces of literature in the world.

The story of Adam and Eve, for example, is our story, not just history. The chronicles of Israel in the Old Testament are concerned with religious, social, economic, and political issues that are very much with us today. The personal problems and concerns of which the psalmists and sages of the proverbs write are those that we face in our lives. The teachings of Jesus in the gospels are concerned with issues and realities that never become obsolete. The story of the early church in Acts and the counsel of the apostles in the New Testament epistles find many, many significant parallels in our own experiences.

More desired than gold

The Bible is relevant because it speaks to our needs today if we will take the time and effort to listen. The writer of the Psalms spoke of the scriptures, saying: "More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb" (Psalms 19:10). What many people do not realize is just how valuable the Bible can be to each of us.

A significant illustration of this fact comes from the Bible itself: the temptation of Jesus in the wilderness. What is it that sees him through this time of trial and temptation? Again and again in the midst of some of Satan's craftiest challenges, Jesus searches his memory and says, "It is written. . . ." Fortified with the wisdom and guidance of the scriptures, Jesus is victorious in this great trial.

So too we may prevail in the trials of life when, equipped with the riches of the Bible, we may say, "It is written. . . ."

IT TAKES KNOWLEDGE TO TREAT THE SICK

Despite great advances in medical knowledge, there are still some people who depend on old fashioned self-treatments. Some let persons with no drug or medical training advise them what medicines to take.

When door-to-door peddlers or mail order opportunists presume to tell you what to take when you are sick—be wise. In order to treat sickness a diagnosis of the cause is needed. No one but a physician has this knowledge.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

OPEN LINE

By
Maryland—Sixth District

This regular column serves as another vehicle to keep in touch with all segments of my constituency. It is an open invitation for you to question me on issues, let me assist you with your problems, request information or comment on whatever happens to be on your mind. Letters should be sent to me, in care of U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515. While space is obviously limited for printing all replies, I shall make every effort to answer each person who contacts me.

The following questions were typical of the kind asked of me in recent weeks–

My son was 18 in May but did not have to register with the Selective Service. What's the story?

As of April 1, 1975, all young men whose 18th birthdays occurred between then and December 31, 1975 were asked to delay their registration actions until early 1976. The reason is that the Selective Service system is going to switch over to a once-a-year period of registration. The exact dates will be announced later this year.

What has happened to the Emergency Railroad Jobs bill?

The legislation to improve the nation's rail transportation system and reduce unemployment by authorizing repair work on essential railroads, has passed the senate and is now pending action in the House.

How many people are receiving Social Security benefits in Maryland?

As of December 31, 1974, there were 448,000 beneficiaries receiving monthly cash benefits totaling $75 million. Sixth District recipients number approximately 70,000 with monthly cash benefits exceeding $13 million.

Does your office have any agriculture booklets on home canning?

Citizens interested in government literature on home canning or freezing of fruits and vegetables should write Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colorado, requesting a free listing of available booklets.

I read recently that you have introduced a bill to aid veterans. Could you please send me a copy of the bill and let me know its status?

This week I wrote Chairman Montgomery of the Veterans Pension Subcommittee to urge hearings on the legislation which would prevent veterans from losing their pension benefits as a result of a social security increase. Under the proposed measure, cost-of-living increases in social security benefits would not be taken into consideration in determining eligibility for a veteran's pension and compensation. I am hopeful that action can be taken prior to the social security increase scheduled for July.

Who is eligible for supplemental security income (SSI)?

The supplemental security income program covers people 65 or over, and blind and disabled people of any age, including disabled children. For these three groups, the basic conditions of eligibility are specified levels of income and resources. Interested citizens should contact their local social security office for details.

Farmers Asked To Return Census Report

Letters appealing to 8 thousand farmers to return completed report forms for the 1974 Census of Agriculture are being mailed by the Bureau of the Census. In January, 30 thousand forms were mailed to Maryland farmers and residents associated with agriculture and so far, 73 percent have been mailed back or otherwise accounted for.

Bureau officials say this is the last in the planned series of follow-up letters, as collection of census data is scheduled to be closed out June 30. In addition, telephone calls are being made to selected farmers who have not yet returned the forms in order to obtain information about their 1974 agricultural operations.

Everyone who received a form should return it, even those not actively engaged in farming, such as landlords or those no longer farming. That information can be noted on the form which should be mailed back in the envelope provided.

Response to the census is mandatory by law. By the same law, all information about individual farms is confidential and can be used only for statistical purposes.

Feature Peat Farm In Md. Magazine

The story of how Elbert E. Buckel realized the value of the peat bog in his native Garrett County and developed it is told in photographs and text in the Summer issue of MARYLAND Magazine. "Peat for Profit" tells how this valuable vegetation was formed over eons and is now systematically harvested by the Garrett County Processing and Packaging Corporation.

"When we get our good peat, we think we've got one of the best you can buy," says Mr. Buckel in the current issue of MARYLAND Magazine, now on newsstands. He points out that while Maryland will never be a leader in United States peat production, the Garrett County producers add to this State's reputation for diversity.

Odd Items

In our folklore speech, we call a stubborn person a loggerhead. Actually, a loggerhead is a sea turtle, found near the coast in Maryland, also in the lower Chesapeake Bay. How stubborn is a turtle?

We also use "slumgullion" as a term for unappealing mixed food or materials. This makes some sense, for Slumgullion is a place in Colorado where volcanic mud closed one side of a valley. Believe it or not!

Will Rogers had never seen a man he didn't like, and I have never seen a tree that could be called ugly. The more misshapen, the more picturesque.

There are many strange mixtures in human culture, but have you ever noticed how a six-footer will choose a four foot tall wife? Not often is it vice versa.

One of the funniest old familiar songs I have heard lately: "the fuzzy old cat comin' in from the stable, lickin' up milk on the kitchen table."

Someone recently jolted me by asking if I, like her, had trouble enduring our Eastern Shore plains. This surprised mountaineer agreed readily.

Why can't the busiest of people give some of their worries to the people who use their extra time for criticism and gossip?

Doesn't it always work out that when you immediately find the item you want, the clerk has just become involved in a phone order?

An opportunist is one who drives through the yellow light when it has been shining as he approached.

A high level of definition: what a reporter gets when he asks (any) president a question.

Humility: what you experience when you have added a column three times and arrived at three different answers.

Greed is always at a hop to capture all, and never being joyful enough to skip.

Peace of soul is not lightly won.

A perfect answer: When I explained to a man that I wanted no wealth, just some peace and time to work quietly on my own projects, he said, "Well, at that you have to be satisfied without money."

A Tradition Worth Remembering

Following the British route in the battle of Lexington and Concord, General Gage found himself bottled up in Boston, besieged by Minutemen from miles around—not only from the outlying districts of Massachusetts, but from New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode Island—like a swarm of angry bees. To break the siege, Gage planned to occupy two high points overlooking Boston, Dorchester Heights on the South, and Breed's Hill to the north.

But on the evening of June 16, 1775, the Committee of Safety dispatched 800 Massachusetts and 200 Connecticut troops, under the command of Col. William Prescott, to fortify the hills to the north. All during the night they labored, and by daybreak the astonished British looked up to see an earthen fort where, only hours before, there had been open field and pasture land. When a cannonade by guns from a British battery on Copp's Hill and from men-of-war in the harbor failed to dislodge the Minutemen, Gage ordered 2,300 troops under Major General William Howe to drive the rebels from their trenches. Under cover of artillery fire, the Redcoats were able to cross the Mystic River, land at the bottom of Bunker Hill without opposition, and prepare to make their assault.

With great courage, the Minutemen held their fire until the very last moment. They knew that they were outnumbered by more than two to one, that they had no artillery, that they had less than three rounds of ammunition per man, and that every shot had to count. "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes!" was their command. Although men were falling all around them, they waited until the Redcoats were almost on top of them before firing their first volley. The British dropped as though mowed down by a scythe. They fell back, regrouped, and charged again. Again, the Minutemen waited, and again, they drove back the Brittish. On the third attack, however, with their ammunition gone, the Americans were forced to retreat. Technically, the battle had been won by the British, in actual fact, it was an overwhelming victory for the Colonists. Although the American losses were heavy—over 450 killed, wounded and captured—the British losses were frightful, 1,000 casualties, including 89 officers.

Having lost more than 20 percent of all his forces, General Gage faided to take Dorchester Heights, which were occupied by General Washington without opposition. On March 17, 1776, the British found it necessary to evacuate Boston altogether.

Equally important, the Battle of Bunker Hill demonstrated that Americans had the will and courage to fight, and that they were willing to die for the cause of freedom. — U.S. Press Association.

Back To Bible Authority

We need authority in religion to know what is true or false, right or wrong. The Authority must tell us what to believe, and what to do. That which we listen to as an authority determines what we believe and do. Since God exists, He is the ultimate authority in religion. All spiritual truth inherent in and issues from God.

God first made His will known by the prophets. Those days have ended. In these days God is speaking through His Son. Jesus is now speaking for God, and we must hear Him (Matt. 17:5). All authority has been given to Jesus.

The apostles were delegated authority to build up the church. The evangelists were and are to preach with "all authority", or have a "thus saith the Lord" for the things they teach. Evangelists do not have authority, but are to quote authority — what God says through Christ in His Word. Elders who rule the local congregation do so only as administrators for God as He directs through His Word (Heb. 13:7).

Jesus forbids the exercise of authority such as denominations have when they convene with delegates to make laws to govern man in his efforts to serve God, and attempt to enforce those rules (Mark 10:42, 43).

Down through the years there have been differing concepts of authority, but the only thing that can bring a uniformity to these concepts of authority is the acceptance of the fact that there is one supreme revelation from God to the common needs of the souls of all men. This is why we should return to Bible authority.

We have only to choose between human and Divine authority. Let's go back and obey the command of God to hear His Son (Matt. 17:5).

If you think it will be difficult to decide whether you want to follow human or divine authority, ask yourself "What will judge me in the last day?" Then read John 12:48 where Jesus tells us we will be judged by His Word. The only real decision we can make is to go back to Bible authority for all we do in religion. Respect the silence of the Scriptures. Begin practicing those things authorized by the Lord. Grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ (2 Pet. 3:18) and you will be acceptable to God in the day of judgment (Rev. 20:12).

For Christians, Christ alone is King, and His Word our only rule of faith and practice.

4-H'ers Express Life-styles In Home Environment Projects

CHICAGO—Consciously or not, people are affected by color. Red expresses a mood of boldness and power, blue seems hopeful and serene, and yellow happy or frivolous.

Color, texture (the feel and look of things), and design (sizes, shapes and arrangements) are all basic to the creation of pleasant, functional living spaces.

For the nearly 170,000 young people in the national 4-H home environment program sponsored by The S&H Foundation, Inc., living spaces might mean a shared room or one's own room, an apartment, the family home, or housing in the community at large. Personal and family life-styles differ, and 4-H'ers find that furnishings, equipment and housing can be means of expressing these differences—ways of saying "This is me!"

Young people in the national 4-H home environment program are eligible for awards donated by The S&H Foundation, Inc. Six achievers, yet to be designated, will replace these 1974 scholarship winners shown with Patrick McGee (right), senior vice president, Corporate Services, The Sperry and Hutchinson Company. Creating more pleasant and functional living spaces—through furnishings, equipment and housing—is the goal of this Cooperative Extension Service conducted program.

Projects are varied

"Learning by doing" activities in the Cooperative Extension Service conducted program are educational and fun. Attics may turn out to be treasure troves of discarded furniture and accessories that can be restored to usefulness with some repairs, sandpapering, and refinishing or painting.

Has the family outgrown its home or has some room ceased to serve its purpose? 4-H'ers might blueprint structural additions to the house or draw up plans for remodeling a room. They'll compute costs and decide who will do the work: themselves, other family members, or outside contractors.

4-H members from 9 to 19 help budget, shop and care for household equipment from hair dryers to stereos to automatic washers. In the process they develop the consumer skills they need to cope with today's inflationary economy.

Developing citizenship

Shifting their sights to the larger area of the community, 4-H'ers study zoning laws, how they operate and how they can be changed if necessary. As they become aware of special housing needs of the elderly and of lower-income families, they grow in responsible citizenship.

For outstanding achievement in the 4-H home environment program, S&H provides $800 college scholarships to six national winners. The six are chosen from among 24 sectional winners who receive expense-paid trips to the 54th National 4-H Congress, to be held in Chicago Nov. 30-Dec. 4.

A $50 U.S. Savings Bond goes to one winner in each state, and four medals of honor are awarded in each county.

More information on the 4-H home environment program is available from county extension agents.

Stars and Stripes Forever

Throughout history, music has been an integral part of human civilization. The major events of our personal lives — weddings, funerals, commencements, religious observances, athletic events, ceremonial occasions and so forth — are distinguished by musical accompaniment.

With the approach of the Bicentennial commemoration, it is appropriate that we recognize the significance of music in the public ceremonies of America, not only during this year but throughout our national history.

Bicentennial events will be of an enormous variety, marking the importance of our national commitment to different individuals and groups that make up our nation. Yet, one event certain to occur in virtually every town and city throughout our country is a parade commemorating our day of national independence.

It is appropriate therefore that we as a nation recognize the contribution to such ceremonies which have been made by American composers of marching music.

Members of the American Bandmasters association, the American High School Bandmasters association, and others, have suggested that we pay tribute to all our great composers by designating as our official national march what they believe to be the most deserving work of the great composer, John Philip Sousa.

Sousa composed more than 100 marches. He became to the march what Strauss was to the waltz or Beethoven to the classical symphony.

His distinction as a musical composer, band director, public leader, and patriotic citizen, make it appropriate that we honor all American composers and all musicians throughout the nation by designating his great work, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," as our National March.

I have introduced a resolution in the Senate to that effect, and I look forward to its widespread national support and adoption by the Congress as part of our Bicentennial commemoration.

PRESIDENT — NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Questions Americans Want Answered

While Congress is investigating Watergate, the CIA, the FBI and many other areas, there are some questions America needs to have answered. These have to do with a change in policy from standing for the freedom of all mankind, to a posture of lending aid and sustenance to the enslavers.

Congress should investigate: Why America turned its back on Nationalist China and helped Red China gain a seat in the United Nations. Who or what caused the United States to adopt a policy of no-win in the wars we have fought beginning with the Korean War? Did our no-win policy in Korea bring on the war in Southeast Asia? Will our no-win policy in Southeast Asia bring on other "brush-fire" wars in which American young men and women will be asked to die? Why did we continue to send aid to Eastern European countries in the Communist community while they sent guns and ammunition to the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong? Does the United States have a policy of never using an atomic or nuclear weapon unless the United States itself is attacked with nuclear weapons? If so, who is responsible?

Congress Should Investigate

Why should American taxpayers be required to underwrite the sale of wheat to Russia to the extent it inflates our own food prices at home? Why should the Export-Import Bank and other U.S. lending institutions fund industrial development of Russia and exploration and development of Siberian oil/gas fields with American taxpayers underwriting a part of that funding when we are short on cash ourselves? Why should Russia be able to borrow U.S. dollars at less interest and on more favorable conditions than hard-pressed American businessmen? Why does Congress still specify a week in September as Captive Nation's Week and then render aid and comfort to the captors?

Closer To Home Questions

Why is our right to the Panama Canal Zone wuddenly being questioned and changes being offered? Why does the United States continue to foot a large percentage of the total bill for the United Nations while that organization never criticizes any Communist nation or action? What is behind the move on the part of some members of Congress to dignify the dictatorship of Fidel Castro? Is it connected to the Panama Canal Zone "new treaty?"

What Is Our Future?

As more than a third of the entire world has come under the heel of Communist tyranny, the U.S. has stood as the one power capable of stopping Communist military aggression. The entire free world, including NATO, SEATO, and the third world of emerging nations, whether they know it or not, must depend upon the United States to defend them if they are attacked by Russia or Red China. Given our recent action in Southeast Asia, what is there to cause Russia and Red China to cease their aggression? We know that if Russia were to attack the U.S. with nuclear missiles, we would retaliate. What would we do if the attack were with conventional weapons?

Call us!
Natural gas has a distinctive odor added for your protection. When you smell gas, first check pilot lights and burners on gas appliances and equipment.
If you still smell gas after making these checks, then call us. Why not make a note of the telephone number now?
Also, be aware that the source of a gas odor could be external — gas from leaks in service lines or street mains that could migrate into your premises through walls or drain lines.
If the odor is strong:
- Ventilate the house — open doors and windows.
- Shut off appliance valves.
- Don't use matches or operate any electrical appliances. Don't use any light switches or other switches. Leave them alone!
- Leave the house — make your call to the Gas Company from a neighbor's home.

Summer Solstice

Twice each year the sun reaches a greatest angle from the equator. This angle of twenty-three and one-half degrees is equal to that of the inclination of the earth's axis from the perpendicular to a line joining the center of the earth and the sun. It is this tilt of the earth that is partially responsible for our seasons. Saturday at 8:27 p.m. the sun will be at its greatest angular distance north of the equator, directly over the Tropic of Cancer. This position of the sun is the astronomical beginning of the season called summer.

Monday at 12:54 P.M. the moon will be in its Full Moon Phase. At this time it will be on the opposite side of the earth from the sun. Moonrise will be at 4:54 p.m. today. Wednesday moonrise will not occur until 10:07 p.m.

Venus, Mars and Jupiter are the most easily seen planets this week. Venus is the brightest object in the evening sky for three hours after sunset. Mars and Jupiter are near each other in the predawn sky. They rise with the stars of Pisces about three hours before the sun. Jupiter is the brighter of the pair.

There is no change of daylight Wednesday compared with today. Sunrise and sunset are separated by the same time on both days. Sunrise is at 5:50 A.M. today followed fourteen hours fifty-eight minutes later by sunset at 8:48 P.M. Wednesday the sun rises at 5:51 A.M. and sets at 8:49 P.M.

In 1719 James Figg became the first bare-knuckle champion boxer of Britain. Though his boxing was more a kind of fencing with fists, he developed it into a true art. Through Figg's enthusiasm, authorities tell us, the sport became a popular entertainment and drew big crowds. These further increased when fights were arranged — illegally — for money. This was the birth of the prize fight, and of boxing as we know it today.

When Your Home Freezer Stops

Have you ever thought about what you would do if your home freezer stopped running? If your freezer does stop running or the electricity goes off for some time, you can take special precautions to keep your food from spoiling.

Follow one of these rules, and you stand a good chance of preserving your food:

– Keep the freezer closed. Open it only to take food out for transport or to add dry ice. Try to determine how long the current will be off, and how long the food will keep. The length of time food will stay frozen depends on:

– The amount of food in the freezer. A full freezer will stay cold many hours longer than a freezer only a quarter full.

– The kind of food. The freezer full of meat will not warm up as fast as a freezer of baked food.

– The temperature of the food. The colder the food, the longer it will stay frozen.

– The freezer itself. A well-insulated freezer will keep food frozen much longer than one with little insulation.

– Size of freezer. The larger the freezer, the longer the food will stay frozen.

If you have a locker plant in your area, make advanced arrangements to take care of food during an emergency. When transporting the food to the plant, wrap it in plenty of newspaper and blankets or use insulated boxes. Then rush the food to the locker plant.

Your next best alternative is to add "dry ice" to the freezer to try to retain the cold. The more dry ice you use, the longer your food will remain frozen. Invest some time on the telephone, when you have no emergency, to find out where you can buy "dry ice" should you need it.

If all else fails, break out the home canning equipment and cook the thawed food whatever way your family may like it. Here again, be sure you have the containers, lids, and other canning equipment on hand, and those canning recipes handy.

Sometimes frozen foods are completely or partially thawed before you discover that your freezer is not running. You may safely refreeze foods that have thawed if they contain ice crystals or if they are cold, about 40 degrees, provided they have been held at this temperature no longer than 1 or 2 days. But remember, use refrozen foods as soon as possible after the emergency.

Always examine meat or poultry before you decide what to do with it, because it may become unsafe to eat if it starts to spoil. Get rid of the food if the color or odor of the thawed food is questionable.

Remember, be prepared for when your home freezer stops running. Don't let a power blackout wipe out your frozen foods.

52 Fatal Traffic Mishaps In May

During May there was a total of 52 fatal traffic accidents on Maryland highways, leaving 57 persons dead. Of the 57 killed, 27 were tested for blood alcohol levels.

Of the 27 tested, 19 were the drivers of the fatal vehicles. Of these 19 drivers, the following results were determined by the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner: Drivers had been drinking; five drivers had not been drinking.

Drivers who were involved in fatal accidents but who were not killed themselves, are not required to be tested under present Maryland law. If they were required to have a blood alcohol test, the actual extent of alcohol involvement in highway accidents would become much clearer to all concerned, according to state police.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

SECTION 1: That the Charter of the Town of Mountain Lake Park, to-wit: Chapter 26 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Garrett County, be amended to read as follows:

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS

26 - 86 POWER OF TOWN TO LEVY SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.

THE TOWN MAY LEVY AND COLLECT TAXES IN THE FORM OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS UPON PROPERTY IN A LIMITED AND DETERMINABLE AREA FOR SPECIAL BENEFITS CONFERRED UPON THE PROPERTY BY THE INSTALLATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF WATER MAINS, SANITARY SEWER MAINS, STORM WATER SEWERS, CURBS, AND GUTTERS AND BY THE CONSTRUCTION AND PAVING OF PUBLIC WAYS AND SIDEWALKS OR PARTS THEREOF, AND IT MAY PROVIDE FOR THE PAYMENT OF ALL OR ANY PART OF THE ABOVE PROJECTS OUT OF THE PROCEEDS OF THE SPECIAL ASSESSMENT. THE COST OF ANY PROJECT TO BE PAID IN WHOLE OR IN PART BY SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS MAY INCLUDE THE DIRECT COST THEREOF, THE COST OF ANY LAND ACQUIRED FOR THE PROJECT, THE INTEREST ON BONDS, NOTES, OR OTHER EVIDENCES OF INDEBTEDNESS ISSUED IN ANTICIPATION OF THE COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS, A REASONABLE CHARGE FOR THE SERVICES OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF OF THE TOWN, AND ANY OTHER ITEM OF COST WHICH MAY REASONABLY BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE PROJECT.

26 - 87 PROCEDURE.

THE PROCEDURE FOR SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS, WHEREVER AUTHORIZED IN THIS CHARTER, IS AS PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION.

THE COST OF THE PROJECT BEING CHARGED FOR SHALL BE ASSESSED ACCORDING TO THE FRONT RULE OF APPORTIONMENT OR SOME OTHER EQUITABLE BASIS DETERMINED BY THE COUNCIL.

THE AMOUNT ASSESSED AGAINST ANY PROPERTY FOR ANY PROJECT OR IMPROVEMENT SHALL NOT EXCEED THE VALUE OF THE BENEFITS ACCRUING TO THE PROPERTY THEREFROM, NOR SHALL ANY SPECIAL ASSESSMENT BE LEVIED WHICH CAUSES THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS LEVIED BY THE TOWN AND OUTSTANDING AGAINST ANY PROPERTY AT ANY TIME, EXCLUSIVE OF DELINQUENT INSTALLMENTS, TO EXCEED TWENTY-FIVE PER CENTUM (25%) OF THE ASSESSED VALUE OF THE PROPERTY AFTER GIVING EFFECT TO THE BENEFIT ACCRUING THERETO FROM THE PROJECT OR IMPROVEMENT FOR WHICH ASSESSED.

WHEN DESIRABLE, THE AFFECTED PROPERTY MAY BE DIVIDED INTO DIFFERENT CLASSES TO BE CHARGED DIFFERENT RATES, BUT, EXCEPT FOR THIS, ANY RATE SHALL BE UNIFORM.

ALL SPECIAL ASSESSMENT CHARGES SHALL BE LEVIED BY THE COUNCIL BY ORDINANCE. BEFORE LEVYING ANY SPECIAL ASSESSMENT CHARGES, THE COUNCIL SHALL HOLD A PUBLIC HEARING. THE CLERK-TREASURER SHALL CAUSE NOTICE TO BE GIVEN STATING THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE PROPOSED PROJECT, THE KIND OF MATERIALS TO BE USED, THE ESTIMATED COST OF THE PROJECT, THE PORTION OF THE COST TO BE ASSESSED, THE NUMBER OF INSTALLMENTS IN WHICH THE ASSESSMENT MAY BE PAID, THE METHOD TO BE USED IN APPORTIONING THE COST, AND THE LIMITS OF THE PROPOSED AREA OF ASSESSMENT. THE NOTICE SHALL ALSO STATE THE TIME AND PLACE AT WHICH ALL PERSONS INTERESTED OR THEIR AGENTS OR ATTORNEYS MAY APPEAR BEFORE THE COUNCIL AND BE HEARD CONCERNING THE PROPOSED PROJECT AND SPECIAL ASSESSMENT. SUCH NOTICE SHALL BE GIVEN BY SENDING A COPY THEREOF BY MAIL OR TO THE OWNER OF RECORD OF EACH PARCEL OF PROPERTY PROPOSED TO BE ASSESSED AND TO THE PERSON IN WHOSE NAME THE PROPERTY IS ASSESSED FOR TAXATION AND BY PUBLICATION OF A COPY OF THE NOTICE AT LEAST ONCE IN A NEWSPAPER OF GENERAL CIRCULATION IN THE TOWN. THE CLERK-TREASURER SHALL PRESENT AT THE HEARING A CERTIFICATE OF PUBLICATION AND MAILING OF COPIES OF THE NOTICE, WHICH CERTIFICATE SHALL BE DEEMED PROOF OF NOTICE, BUT FAILURE OF ANY OWNER TO RECEIVE THE MAILED COPY SHALL NOT INVALIDATE THE PROCEEDINGS. THE DATE OF HEARING SHALL BE SET AT LEAST TEN AND NOT MORE THAN THIRTY DAYS AFTER THE CLERK-TREASURER SHALL HAVE COMPLETED PUBLICATION AND SERVICE OF NOTICE AS PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION. FOLLOWING THE HEARING, THE COUNCIL, IN ITS DISCRETION, MAY VOTE TO PROCEED WITH THE PROJECT AND MAY LEVY THE SPECIAL ASSESSMENT.

ANY INTERESTED PERSON FEELING AGGRIEVED BY THE LEVYING OF ANY SPECIAL ASSESSMENT UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION SHALL HAVE THE RIGHT TO APPEAL TO THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY WITHIN TEN DAYS AFTER THE LEVYING OF ANY ASSESSMENT BY THE COUNCIL.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS MAY BE MADE PAYABLE IN ANNUAL OR MORE FREQUENT INSTALLMENTS OVER SUCH PERIOD OF TIME, NOT TO EXCEED TEN YEARS, AND IN SUCH MANNER AS THE COUNCIL MAY DETERMINE. THE COUNCIL SHALL DETERMINE ON WHAT DATE IN INSTALLMENTS SHALL BE DUE AND PAYABLE. INTEREST MAY BE CHARGED ON INSTALLMENTS AT THE RATE TO BE DETERMINED BY THE COUNCIL.

ALL SPECIAL ASSESSMENT INSTALLMENTS ARE OVERDUE SIX MONTHS AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH THEY BECAME DUE AND PAYABLE. ALL SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS SHALL BE LIENS ON THE PROPERTY AND ALL OVERDUE SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS SHALL BE COLLECTED IN THE SAME MANNER AS TOWN TAXES OR BY SUIT AT LAW.

ALL SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS SHALL BE BILLED AND COLLECTED BY THE CLERK-TREASURER.

Health Dept. Has Jurisdiction Over Bake Sales

THE LAMP CUT is being performed on Lottie Shirer as she sits under two infrared lights while her permanent is cut and dried. Steve Savia, one of two nationally-recognized hair stylists who participated in the annual Garrett County Cosmetologists hair styling show Sunday, is working on Miss Shirer while his co-worker John DiPietro puts finishing touches on Stephanie Smith. The lamp cut is brand new fashion from New York for people with curly hair.

The health department has issued a notice that it has jurisdiction over bake sales.

According to regulation 10.03.15 governing eating and drinking establishments, it designates the county health department as the local regulatory, enforcement and approving authority for foods being prepared and offered to the public.

Dr. William Pope, county health officer, said it was the immediate objective of the department to receive applications for and issue temporary permits to persons or organizations sponsoring bake sales and other events in which food was offered to the public.

He said issuance of permits would allow the department the opportunity to give consultation and set forth sanitary requirements in preparing and serving food to the public. He added that sanitary precautions were necessary to prevent the occurrence and transmission of toxic agents and micro-organisms responsible for foodborne illnesses.

He advised anyone contemplating a bake sale to contact the Environmental Health Section of the health department prior to the sale to make the necessary application for a permit.

VOLUME 99 | OAKLAND, GARRETT COUNTY, MD. JUNE 26, 1975 | PER COPY 15c | NUMBER 17

Our Heritage...

Persons hearing the talk given by Jim Comstock, Editor, of Richwood, W. Va., last Thursday evening at the annual dinner meeting of the Garrett County Historical Society, must have been impressed with what is possible for one man to accomplish in any program he undertakes, if he has the dedication and perserverance.

Mr. Comstock has devoted countless hours to collecting and preserving the history of West Virginia, and to make people aware of the importance of the state's heritage.

He demonstrated to the county historians and all persons interested in preserving Garrett county's heritage, that the same could be accomplished here either through intense individual effort or the effort of the Historical society or other interested group.

This county has been fortunate in having had several persons so interested but there is still oodles of research yet to be done. Not only research is necessary but the continuing process of preserving what we still have available.

Mr. Comstock's example should be an inspiration to history lovers.

Community Action Attempt To Increase Budget Fails

An emergency meeting Tuesday of the Community Action Agency in this county with the local County Commissioners brought little if any change in the commissioners' stance on the CAC budget cut.

Community Action was cut from a budget of $32,000 in 1974-75 to $10,000 for the coming fiscal year. They had requested $36,000 for the coming year.

Approximately 100 persons attended the meeting before the commissioners Tuesday, including director CAC G. Bradford Rinard, some CAC staff and board members. Representing the Commissioners were George C. Edwards and Don S. Bender. Commissioner Wayne B. Hamilton had a previous commitment and was unable to be present for the meeting. Allan Paugh served as moderator for the groups.

The Commissioners had finalized the new budget and any additional Community Action Committee funds would have to come from the county's contingency fund, a move which is seen as unlikely.

Commissioner George Edwards said that the Committee, along with others suffering budget cuts, has some valid points in asking for more money but he said the county also has its problems.

He further stated that the Commissioners are thinking of setting up a council of representatives from different organizations to examine all programs funded by the county to stop duplication of effort and to come up with a better perspective of service from these organizations.

They also may review every department to try to anticipate monetary problems which are just beginning so these can be corrected before next year's budget is under discussion.

Commissioner Bender stated that the county is "Budgeted down to the last penny" and that NO additional funds are available at this time.

He also noted that last year, CAC was assigned $32,000 and during the year made a request for an additional $20,000 for three new Head Start school buses, which was granted by the previous board of commissioners.

The Committee was advised if there are other pertinent points or comments they would like to make, they may submit them in writing to the Board at any time.

The commissioners not only cut the budget but also earmarked the funds which the CAC will be getting in the new year.

Instead of simply turning the county money over to the Committee, beginning July 1 the CAC will have to specify how the county money will be spent before the commis-

Residents Requested to Report Cliff Swallows

Mrs. Willam Pope, local representative for the Maryland Ornithological Society, is requesting that any county residents noticing colonies of cliff swallows report their findings to her.

Cliff swallows suffered extensively in Hurricane Agnes in 1972.

These birds usually nest in barns along with the barn swallows, but lack the scissor-tail of the barn swallow. They have a square tail, dark above and light below, with a light forehead and lower back.

Nests are strikingly different from those of the barn swallow constructed of mud pellets and resembling a bottle or bulb. Nests are attached to rafters or eaves in barns, or may be constructed around concrete dams or under bridges.

Three Hurt In Plane Smash-up

A plane crash at a private airstrip on Bloomington Mountain injured three Sunday morning about 11:30 when the plane stalled while attempting to land.

Ethan Bever, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bever, Deer Park, was hospitalized with numerous stitches in his head following the crash. His father suffered a fractured jaw and George M. Bever, his grandfather, sustained abrasions and contusions.

The Tri-Pacer craft, which George M. Bever had had only two days, was less than 30 feet from the ground when the engine stalled. The wheels hit the ground, causing the plane to flip first onto its propeller and then on its top. The plane is a total loss.

Unless additional complications developed, Ethan was expected to be released from the hospital Wednesday.

sioners will approve payment.

Wayne Hamilton, in an earlier statement, pointed to the high administrative costs involved in the Garrett CAC program, noting that out of about $598,000 involved in a program, approximately 30 percent, or $171,000, went for administrative costs.

Other Problems Apparent

Budget problems are not the only troubles currently plaguing the CAC, since the agency is now undergoing a broad shakeup recommended by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

A three-member team from OEO, a branch of the Maryland Department of Employment and Social Services, conducted a study of the committee last month and came up with a number of recommendations.

Among the findings are that the committee's by-laws should be rewritten, that written internal fiscal control procedures are lacking and that the committee should establish grievance procedures.

OEO representatives visited the local agency after he and Mrs. Dorothy Francis, a board member, made the request for a study, from an "objective outside source."

The OEO recommended a complete reorganization of the CAC board and a recommendation that a legal opinion be sought on the legality of the present board make-up.

It found that employes now have no grievance procedures and also the CAC fails to "provide for an efficiency rating procedure for employes."

Although committees are established, they are not functioning.

The board should evaluate its own programs and prepare written documents of its evaluations.

Director Rinard said he questioned the legality of the current board organization because some agencies funded by CAC are represented on the board.

He also questioned the appointment to the board made by Commissioner Wayne B. Hamilton.

According to Mr. Rinard, he interprets federal guidelines to mean each commissioner must appoint a person who resides in his district to the board. He feels that Hamilton's appointment of Charles Stevens to the CAC board is illegal since Stevens is a resident of Commissioner George C. Edwards' district. Commissioner Edwards' district now has two representatives since he appointed himself to the board.

Mr. Stevens reportedly has been one of the board's more vocal participants. Mr. Hamilton defended his action by saying he believes the appointment is clearly legal, and noted his satisfaction with Mr. Stevens' efforts "to get answers about where the money is going."

Mr. Rinard Speaks

This morning, Mr. Rinard was quoted as saying that these county fund cutbacks "could doom the Community Action program to dissolution" and definitely will have serious impact on the CAC agency, the 8,645 poor people and the economy of the county."

At the meeting Tuesday, he repeatedly questioned why the agency was cut back 68.8 percent over last year's level when no other agency got such a drastic cut.

He also stated that the CAC would have taken a 12 percent decrease, the same amount federal funds were cut this year since one program was transferred to the local college and another was revised and made smaller, and made no complaint.

Mr. Rinard feels the county cutback could put the CAC office out of business, or so badly strangle the services offered to the poor people that the programs could not effectively continue.

They may have to close two Senior Citizen centers in order to continue operations at the other two, or make similar drastic changes in services offered.

4-H Pushes Nationwide Auto Program For Teens

CHICAGO—In four workshops the Cooperative Extension Service has introduced a new nationwide automotive program for teens.

Labeled 4-H Wheels, the humanistic effort to develop desirable attitudes toward automotive safety and care was thoroughly outlined to representatives of some 40 states. Meetings were held May 27-June 4 in Atlanta, Ga.; Boston, Mass.; Omaha, Neb.; and Reno, Nev.

Especially designed for the pre-driver and the new driver, Wheels is an action packed, 12-session course that's part of the national 4-H automotive program sponsored by The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company and conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Course is free

All teens are encouraged to enroll in 4-H Wheels when it is offered in their local community. And they can sign up for the course without charge through their local county extension office.

Color slides, scripts and tape cassette, plus self-testing activity sheets, will introduce pre-drivers to topics like these:

- The car's in your hands—your responsibilities as a driver
- Where the power comes from—the engine and how it works
- Where the rubber meets the road—tires
- Car buymanship—what to look for in a car
- Accidents—their cause and cure

Wheels members meet after school or on weekends where the automotive action is: in the auto showroom, used car lot, service garage, insurance office, tire center or police station. Their leaders are community volunteers who utilize local experts in the practical, technical and safety aspects of owning and operating a car.

Teens who sign up for the new 4-H Wheels program will be preparing themselves for responsibilities of car ownership, operation and maintenance. The 12-session course for pre-drivers is being offered as part of the national 4-H automotive program sponsored by The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company and conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service.

4-H Wheels kit

Audiovisuals and other curriculum materials for the course in kit form were developed by a national 4-H automotive program development committee chaired by William Garmon of the North Carolina 4-H staff, with the assistance of Firestone and the National 4-H Service Committee.

In addition to the kit, other educational and promotional materials are available to local community leaders, including an organizational guide and leaflet for prospective members. A 4-H Wheels final event is outlined in another booklet. And certificates of participation are offered.

Firestone provides incentives to 4-H members who excel in this and other automotive projects. The company awards $1,000 college scholarships to eight national winners, an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress to one winner in each state, and up to four medals of honor per county.

Awards are arranged and announced by the National 4-H Service Committee. This year's national winners will be honored at the 54th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 30-Dec. 4, in Chicago.

Firestone also offers two plaques and 10 framed certificates to counties and/or clubs in each state conducting the most outstanding 4-H automotive programs.

Miss Teresa Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bender, accompanied the Oak Grove Mennonite Youth Group to Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, for a few days last week for a youth rally. This week she is teaching Bible School at the Oak Dale Mennonite Church, Salisbury, Pa., and is staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bender, St. Paul.

Billy Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas, is attending Boys' State, at Bainbridge, for a week.

SPORTS Go-Round

by Larrie Weaver

A change in men's fashion during the reign of King Louis XIV of France was responsible for the creation of the French fencing style. The new elegance of the era no longer permitted the carrying of the long, trailing rapier, and a short, light court sword took its place. Gentlemen were expected to carry it in constant readiness for the defense of their honor. Not only could this sword be handled with greater ease but it was as effective for both offense and defense.

DEL BORING TIRE SERVICE INC., 258 N. 3rd St., 334-8178 will gladly assist you in deciding just which tires will be most effective for your driving habits. The Nation's Intelligence Needs by Sen. Charles McC. Mathias, Jr.

The reaffirmation of Constitutional government involves more than rhetoric. It requires, as a minimum, the rendering of accounts by those who have held public trust.

It also demands that we renew again those Constitutional principles that guide our actions. It is by a return to those principles that we can correct any abuses of that trust.

At no point in the spectrum of governmental activity is this more necessary than in the operations of those agencies that constitute the intelligence community. For it is there that great power has been exercised with few of the checks and balances that serve to guard our liberties and our values.

When Senator Mansfield and I proposed the creation of a special Senate committee to review our nation's intelligence gathering needs, in the fall of last year, no one anticipated that this problem would receive the intense public scrutiny of the last six months.

Since then, disclosures have led to questions which in turn have brought more disclosures and still futher questions. The agenda of the Select Committee on Intelligence is lengthening.

Simple disclosure of the facts, however, is only the beginning of the job which faces us as Committee members. When the historical record is as accurate and as clear as we can make it, we have the further duty of charting a course for the future of our country's intelligence operations.

The question posed by the headlines of the last six months is whether the United States can permit its agencies to use methods and tactics which we find morally repugnant. If so, where do we draw the line? Finally, how shall these agencies be made accountable to the public in whose behalf they act?

Secrecy and open government have proven to be uneasy partners. This does not mean that they can not coexist, as long as the rules are clear.

Before the job of the Select Committee is done, we must confront the problem of bringing the intelligence activities of the United States into harmony with the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The precepts of these great works were forged in the bitter experiences of Americans under the yoke of a colonial government in which they had no voice. They should be lightly ignored today.

Larger Federal Health Service Area Sanctioned

The federal government announced this week that it has approved establishment of a four-county Western Maryland health service area, even though the area lacks the minimum 500,000 population required by federal guidelines.

The result will be that Frederick County will join the three Appalachian counties of Allegany, Garrett and Washington to form a new health service area which will receive block grants for health services.

Approved at the request of Governor Marvin Mandel, the health service area will operate under the existing Health Planning Council of Appalachia Maryland, which is based in Cumberland.

Carl Strayhorn, executive director of the planning council, said that one benefit will be the likelihood that more money for health services probably will be accessible for this section. He also said, however, that it is not known whether that money will actually be obtained.

While Frederick county will join the area, it will not be eligible for the Appalachian Regional Commission funds which the remaining three counties are now receiving.

Mr. Strayhorn said that at some time in the future it may be necessary for the planning council to add another staff member to handle the four-county area, although at this time the council has the minimum five staff employes required by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The health areas are being organized throughout the nation under the Federal National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974.

Besides approving the western Maryland area, HEW also sanctioned an area of the Eastern Shore which comprises Cecil, Kent, Queen Annes, Talbot, Caroline, Dorchester, Wicomico, Somerset and Worchester Counties. That area also lacks the minimum 500,000 population called for by federal guidelines.

County Citizens Cited By Agency

Residents of the county may have helped sixteen young Americans learn more about caring for the needs of people throughout the world. Garrett county was selected to act as a "learning laboratory" for these sixteen interns from United States Agency for International Development (AID) who were preparing for future overseas assignments.

AID is the branch of the Department of State that handles economic aid to foreign countries. The intern program recruits and trains young men and women who will be assuming executive positions overseas in the agency.

They go through a two year training program that familiarizes them with AID policies, programs, and operations, that the learning of a five week Washington assignment. The county was chosen for its proximity to Washington and citizens expressed an interest in working with the interns.

According to Marshall Rickert, director of the county Planning Commission, the interns were first introduced to some 50 representatives from area agencies and business and given information and background data on an economic cross section of the community. They then interviewed local residents, visited sawmills, farms with ponds, small stands of timber, craft shops, schools, public library and health facilities.

Interns discovered development problems always had a history and that solving them was not a simple matter. They realized that different residents may have totally different ideas about community problems and how to solve them.

The four projects the young people proposed were forest industries, a maple sugar co-operative, commercial trout farming and a mobile health-care unit. Designing the proposals which were not formal proposals, but gave the interns practice in using AID procedures. Projects were presented to the community on the last day of the program with questions raised by residents about methods of transporting trout to market profitably, etc. The forest industries project may have a chance of being put into action with the planning Commission using the information to see whether a woods products industry encouraged to locate here.

In appreciation of the county's hospitality, Daniel Creedon, chief of AID's Manpower Development division, presented county leaders with a plaque with the following message: "In recognition to the citizens of Garrett County, Md., for the helpful and innovative contributions they made to the training of International Development Interns. Their hospitality and cooperation in this important project provided these young officers with a learning experience which they will long remember and profit from in their work abroad."

Jury Awards $5,370 in Case

An Allegany County Circuit court jury deliberated some four hours Tuesday before deciding to award $5,370.20 to a Garrett County man for medical expenses incurred after his son was struck by a motorcycle nearly four years ago.

John R. Michaels, Mt. Lake Park, had filed a damage suit on behalf of himself and his son Robert P. Michaels, against Mrs. Julia Ann Janoske Reckart and her father, Wade E. Janoske, Red House.

The Michaels boy was struck by a motorcycle operated by Mrs. Reckart along Mason School road on July 22, 1971. He was treated in Garrett County Memorial hospital and subsequently transferred to the West Virginia University medical center at Morgantown where he underwent surgery for a fractured skull and a fractured leg. The jury included five men and seven women.

Mr. Janoske testified Tuesday that he arrived at the accident scene about half an hour after the mishap and found evidence that indicated to him the youth was in the roadway. The plaintiff contended the youngster was struck while off the surface of the road.

Mr. Janoske also said his daughter had been told not to ride the vehicle on the road since it had no license and registration and was indeed an off road cycle. Mrs. Reckart said the occasion of the accident was the only time she had ridden the motorcycle on the Mason School road.

Mrs. Elaine Iden testified she had seen the defendant riding the motorcycle past her home on several occasions.

During cross examination Mrs. Iden said the girls she saw had been wearing a helmet. Mr. Janoske, when recalled to the stand, testified he is a motorcycle dealer and knew of at least two young women who regularly rode motorcycles along the same road to get to his dealership.

Mr. Michaels was represented by Daniel F. McMullen, Jr., and Robert O. Kazary, Cumberland. The defendant was represented by Robert H. Reinhart, Cumberland; and John B. Toston, Oakland. Associate Judge Harold E. Naughton presised.

Jury Finds Man Guilty of Grand Larceny Tuesday

A Keyser, W. Va., man was found guilty of grand larceny by a jury at a trial Tuesday in Circuit Court with Chief Judge Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., presiding.

Julian H. Doman pleaded not guilty to the charge of grand larceny, but the jury found him guilty. Judge Hamill ordered a pre-sentence investigation. Bond of $2500 was to be continued pending outcome of the investigation.

The case was transferred from District Court in December. He was charged there with breaking and entering and larceny of the house of Elmer Fazenbaker at Mill Run on September 9 last year. Goods taken were valued at about $800.

He had been released from the Garrett County Jail December 16 on payment of the $2500 bond.

Letter to the Editor

The town of Oakland is to be congratulated for having the Marion Leary Day on her one hundreth birthday. A more deserving person could not be found.

Her former students have been aware for some time of the tremendous influence on our lives that this truly remarkable lady has exerted on us even after these forty-five or fifty years.

Her power to motivate the slacker was a thing to behold. How could anyone not have the desire to want to learn to read after hearing her read one of the classics, with all the feeling and emotion she could so capably muster?

I know we are all just a little better, somehow, by being permitted to have known her.

Nine Are Killed On State Highways

Nine persons lost their lives on Maryland highways last week, according to the weekly news release compiled by 1st Sgt. J. E. Harvey of the Maryland State Police. Of those killed seven were drivers, one was a passenger and one was a pedestrian. At least three of the deaths, in the opinion of the investigating officers, could have possibly been prevented had seat belts been in use.

Persons killed through June 22 totaled 313 compared to 295 for the same period last year.

Sermonette

Modern Idolatry

I have a question which I want you to answer in your own mind: "Have you ever worshipped an idol?" If your immediate answer is an emphatic, "No", I challenge you to think again for I am sure that you and I have both worshipped an idol more than once.

Many years ago the prophet Hosea said about the Israelites, "With their silver and gold they made idols for their own destruction." Hosea 8:4b.

Hosea was the first prophet to make a thorough attack on idolatry and the use of magic in worship. There had been other men of God before him who had warned the people against the worship of idols. Elijah had protested against the worship of Baal, and so had Elisha, but neither of them objected to the use of pagan symbols or pagan ceremonies in the worship of the Lord. As long as people worshipped him, the forms did not matter.

However, Hosea saw that the form mattered a great deal. Even though one might say that he worshipped the Lord, if his worship is not in keeping with what the Lord wants, then one is not really worshipping the Lord at all.

The idols in this case were two golden calves which had been set up in the reign of Jereboam. "Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said to them, 'It is too much for you to go to Jerusalem. Behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.' " I Kings 12 Jereboam wanted to make it easier for the people to worship, and therefore, he made gods for the people to worship. But, that sort of a god is no god at all, and Hosea told the people, "The calf of Samaria shall be broken to pieces."

There are at least three kinds of idolatry. The first grows out of ignorance. People make an idol and worship it because they do not know the true God. Paul refers to this type of idolatry in his speech on Mars Hill as we read in the book of Acts, "As i was going about and looking at the things you worship, I even found an altar with this inscription, "To an unknown god". He then proceeded to tell them about the one true God. Such gods are important to people. Even though they are artificial, they express a real longing and deep need for the one true God.

There is a second type of idolatry which comes from ignorance plus egotism. The Nazis and the communists provide perfect examples of this. When the atheistic Communist finds the key to what life is all about in the "dictatorship of the prolatariot", he finds his own god. After all, our God is that in whom, or in which, we think we find the answer to life's meaning and the key to what life is all about.

There are many others who believe that there is a cosmic principle that supports their god. Such beliefs are little more than human arrogance and egotism. It has been truly said, "It is just as much idolatry to worship God according to a false mental image as by means of a false metal image."

There is still a third type of idolatry. It is not based on ignorance; we know that a golden calf is not a god. It is not an expression of human pride and arrogance which leads a person to deny the one true God and to substitute an enlarged edition of himself in his place. We might call this type of idolatry "practical atheism".

We know an idol is an idol, and we know that there is a power in the universe greater than ourselves, our class, our race, our nation. We give this power, or God, "nominal allegiance", but our whole life is based on values which deny his existence. It was said of Israel, "The people feared the Lord, and served their own gods." How well this describes the religion of many people. They fear the Lord, they count themselves as religious people, they observe the outward forms of religion, but they serve their own gods, the gods of money, success, power, profit and pleasure. And, that religion is not worth anymore today than it ever was.

Too often there is a great difference between the God we worship and the gods we serve, but the gods we serve are those in whom we really believe and in whom we trust for they direct the course of our lives and our conduct. The goals for which we strive and the things we cherish most are usually more in keeping with the gods of this world than with the "God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." We worship the God of Jesus, but we serve our own gods. This, too, is a type of idolatry, "practical atheism."

Know this, there is one true God and you need him. If he is not real for you or anyone, it is not his fault. He speaks to you loud and clear. He moves in your life as certainly as he lives. If he is dead for you or anyone, it's because you're too proud to acknowledge his presence in your lives, it is because you are too arrogant to let God be God where and when and how he wants to be God.

How tragic the words of Hosea, "With their silver and gold they made idols for their own destruction". They did not intend for it to work out that way, but it did, and it always does.

"I am the Lord Your God, you shall have no other gods" is still the first Commandment. We must worship him, and serve him, if we would really live — now, and forever.

Board of Education Hearing Clarification

Dr. William H. Buser, Superintendent of Schools, indicated a part of an article in last week's newspaper may create a wrong impression in the minds of school personnel and public and wrote and explanation. Under the negotiated agreement between the Garrett County Board of Education and the Garrett County Teachers' Association, principals may reprimand teachers under certain conditions and using appropriate procedures, he said. He said he felt the article of June 19 may have created the impression that the agreement prohibits principals from reprimanding teachers.

Dr. Buser indicated the remainder of the article was basically consistent with a recent grievance hearing before the Board of Education.

Northern Rescue Squad Receives Check For $708

At a meeting of the Garrett County Gas & Oil Lessors' Association on April 25, it was decided to dissolve the organization which had been in existence since the fall of 1962. The funds remaining in the treasury were to be given to the Northern Garrett County Rescue Squad.

Aiken, President of the Garrett County Gas and Oil Lessors' Association, presented the check to James Wilburn, President of the Northern Garrett County Rescue Squad. Accompanying Mr. Aiken were Clark Schlosnagle, Treasurer, and Paul Goehringer, representing the Board of Directors. Those accompanying Mr. Wilburn were Donald Newman, Raymond Yoder, and Allen Cutler, board members of the rescue squad.

Out-of-doors Eating Safety

Fun times — that's summertime! It is here. This is the time for gathering in the back yard for a cookout or going on a picnic. Out-of-doors eating is fun but needs careful planning.

Probably the biggest factor in your planning is food safety. What value is funtime if all attending end up with food poisoning. Food poisoning can usually be traced to improperly handled, prepared or served foods. Following are some guides to safe eating:

Keep food clean. When preparing food, wash your hands thoroughly and often. Keep insects and animals away from food.

Keep hot foods hot (above 140°f) and cold foods cold (below 40°f).

Food poisoning bacteria grow more easily in some foods than others. These include: All creamed dishes; puddings, pie fillings, or casseroles; all types of poultry, ham, and fish; potato salad; gravies; and chopped food for sandwiches, such as egg or ham salad.

When going on a picnic, carry salad or sandwich ingredients, in refrigerated containers. Combine them after you arrive.

Serve as many foods as possible that are safe to eat without refrigeration. These include summer fruits (strawberries, cherries, peaches, nectarines, and melons), pickles, fresh tomatoes, celery, lettuce, and carrots. Serve cookies or cake that do not need refrigeration for dessert.

If you ever have any doubt as to whether food has been contaminated, throw it out. It is better to be safe than sorry.

Commissioners Formally Adopt Year's Budget

The Garrett County Commissioners formally adopted the FY 1976 budget for the county at their meeting on Monday. The Commissioners pointed out that due to the effects of inflation on agencies, most budget request were up dramatically for FY 1976. The Commissioners jointly reduced the budget requests back to a level that could be funded at the current tax rate, they indicated.

"Our biggest problem was trying to avoid a tax rate increase because, under these nationwide economic conditions, no one can afford to pay more in taxes than is absolutely necessary", Commissioner George Edwards said.

"The Commissioners appreciate the support from the general public that we have received in maintaining the tax rate", he added.

"Our responsibility is first and foremost to all county residents", Mr. Edwards said.

The County Commissioners sitting as the Health Board, endorsed the establishment of cancer screening clinics in the county to be conducted this summer. In other Health Board action, the County Commissioners appointed Dr. William W. Pope as County Health Officer for a four-year term.

Construction on Animal Shelter Is Under Way

Construction for the Garrett County Animal Shelter started this week outside Oakland, off the Sang Run Road.

The new facility will consist of ten pens and house forty to fifty animals.

The plans, developed in cooperation with the State Health Department and in compliance with their guidelines, will provide for easier handling of stray animals, they indicated.

Office space will be provided if interested citizens will volunteer to answer the phone or help in the facility, they said.

County Commissioner Don Bender said, "This building will enable us to comply with the Maryland pertinent regulation of management of stray animals".

"We have taken into consideration all the needs to stay within the Maryland requirements at the least possible expense", he added.

The new facility should be completed by late summer.

Auto Accidents Injure Several In Past Week

Several persons were injured in motor vehicle accidents during the past week in scattered parts of the county. Most were one-vehicle mishaps.

Daniel Robert Paugh, operator of the car, and a passenger, Francis Paugh, both of Elk Garden, W. Va., were treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital, following an accident on the Kitzmiller road near Md. 135 the evening of June 17. Paugh was driving a half-ton truck north on the Kitzmiller road when the right front tire blew out. This caused him to lose control of the truck which ran off the right shoulder and struck an electric pole. Tfc. Ronald Lewis charged him with operating an unsafe vehicle.

Terry Chapman, 10, passenger in a car driven by Ula Jane Chapman, both of Elk Garden, W. Va., was slightly injured in another one-vehicle mishap on Md. 560 near Oak Grove road last Thursday evening. Ula Chapman was driving south in a rain storm when she lost control, ran off the left side of the road and struck an embankment. Tfc. Lewis investigated this one also.

Curtis B. Duty, Perrysville, Ohio, was injured, in still another one-vehicle mishap, on U.S. 40 just east of Keyser Ridge the early morning of June 16, also caused by a tire blow-out. He was traveling east when the right front tire blew. The car went out of control, ran off the roadway and struck an embankment. Trooper J. E. Foley investigated.

A one-car mishap on U.S. 40 near River road in Grantsville was caused by a large block of wood which apparently dropped from a passing truck. Beverly Ruth Lener, Uniontown, Pa., was traveling east on Route 40 when it struck the wood. The wood damaged both left wheels of the car. Tpr. Foley investigated.

Olive P. Kerns, Accident, was traveling east on the Wisp driveway and attempted to make a left turn and failed to grant the right-of-way to a motorcycle driven by Ronald D. Green, Barton, headed south on Marsh Hill road, the afternoon of June 15. Cpl. Stephen Russell investigated.

Harvey F. Upole, Rt. 219, Oakland, was backing on the northbound shoulder of U.S. 219 just north of Oakland, near Fourth street, the afternoon of June 17. Claudia F. Morrow, Star Route, Grantsville, traveling south on U.S. 219 attempted to turn left onto Fourth street and was struck at the intersection by the Upole pick-up. Tfc. L. R. Rosage charged Upole with improper backing.

A one-ton truck of Carl Glotfelty, Center street, Oakland, was legally parked, unoccupied along the Fingerboard road just west of Tomar Drive shortly past midnight June 14. Michael R. Sanders, RD 1, Oakland, traveling west at an apparent high rate of speed, lost control, crossed the road, ran off it and struck the parked car. Tfc. D. E. Tharp charged Sanders with failing to keep to the right side of the road.

PRE-NATAL CARE IS IMPORTANT

When a woman knows she is to become a Mother, she should immediately consult a physician. His examination includes a study of her blood and its pressure, a urinalysis for disclosing possible kidney inflammation or diabetes, and a physical examination to insure a safe birth.

He will advise the proper diet and prescribe the necessary vitamins and minerals which helps both Mother and the coming baby. We welcome prospective mothers and appreciate the opportunity to serve.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

GROW UP!

Lesson for June 29, 1975

Background Scripture: John 15.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55:1-7.

"Come and eat your food so that you'll grow up big and strong!"

Someone has speculated that those words were among the first communications uttered by Prehistoric mothers to their children in caves and tree huts.

Rev. Althouse

Mothers are still saying those words with substantial success, for there is hardly a boy or girl who does not want to "grow up."

Growing Older

Unfortunately, after years dedicated to growth, many of us slow down in that process and some of us even stop growing at all. Author Louis Bromfield, in one of his novels, says:

But with me there was no growth. I had lost nearly twenty years which should have been employed in thinking, and because those years had been wasted I had never attained any degree of maturity. I had merely grown older, and like those men who constantly cling to their youth or return to it at college reunions and Legion conventions, I had merely withered. Unfortunately some people do not grow up, they only grow older.

Christians, the Bible makes it clear, are intended to continue in the process of "growing-up." The writer of Ephesians asks that "we may no longer be children . . ." but "rather . . . grow up in every way." It is not enough for the disciple of Jesus to merely grow older.

In the Gospel According to John, we find an allegory of Christian growth. One of the key words of the fifteenth chapter of John is the word "abide." Jesus says, "Abide in me, and I in you" (15:4). Later he goes on to say: "As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me" (15:4). Still later he speaks of abiding in his love.

What does he mean abide?

The word is often translated as "to dwell." Jesus is urging his disciples to dwell or live in him. J. B. Phillips, translates this also as "grow." "Now you must go on growing in me and I will grow in you." Later he uses the word "share": "It is the man who shares my life and whose life I share who proves fruitful."

Growing up

Obviously, we are intended to grow up in union with Christ. This union is like the union between the vine and its branches: the branches grow from the vine. Furthermore, just as in all growing things, the branches are expected to bear fruit and Jesus makes much of the respective rewards of branches that are fruitful or unfruitful.

It is said that no one grows old. You are old when you stop growing. Let us stop worrying about growing old and let us concentrate on growing up "in every way to Christ."

A little girl who fell out of bed explained to her mother: "I guess I fell asleep too near to where I got in."

What about you?

Back To The Bible Creed

When we talk of returning to the Bible it seems strange to some people. "We've always had the Bible," they affirm. But only in a measure. There is much of the Bible they have never heard, and much they have heard in religion is not Bible. We need a return to the Bible beyond the imagination of many.

In the first century, the Bible was the only "creed book" early Christians had. At that time they received, what we know as the New Testament, orally. To them it was final authority in all things God desired of man (2 Pet. 1:3). The New Testament expressed the true "creed" of the first Christians. The word "creed" comes from the Latin and means simply, "I believe."

Not long after the New Testament was completely written, we find human creeds beginning to appear. They came to be "what" was believed rather than "whom" was believed.

The first to appear was the "Didache", or "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles." Appearing about A.D. 120, it never was written by the apostles. Next was the Apostles creed, dating to about A.D. 140. Again, it was not the work of the apostles. The creed of Apelles came in the 2nd century, followed by the Nicene creed of 325 A.D. and in the 9th century the Athanasian creed appeared.

With the reformation creed making received a new impetus. They were designed to safeguard distinctive doctrine. Some of these were the Augsburg Confession of Faith, the Genevese Creed, the Hidelberg catechism, and the list goes on and on.

Creeds were written to help man understand what God has said. As a result, many ask, "Can we read the Bible without creeds and understand it?" Eph. 3:3 says the Bible was written as God revealed it to the writer. Verse 4 says, "when we read we can understand."

Men have obscured the Word of God by their creeds that do not agree with the Bible. For instance one of the articles of a denominational creed says, "that we are justified by faith only." The Bible says we are not justified by faith only in James 2:24.

The New Testament expresses our faith in Christ. What we do in obedience to Him is the result of our faith in Him. I believe in Him so strongly, I want to do just exactly what He asks.

The New Testament will furnish us doctrine to teach and believe, a plan of salvation to obey, worship to perform, work to do, and a life to live. The Bible reveals a God to love and a Christ to magnify. It is the Spirits message that brings forgiveness of sins, spiritual life now, and eternal life in heaven. It gives joy and purpose to human existence, sanctity to life, and security to the soul that abides in its teachings, faithfully. It is all the creed our souls can possibly need.

What was your vote on the energy bill with regards to a suggested 20 cent gas tax?

I opposed the amendment for a federal gasoline tax that would have added 20 cents to the cost of a gallon of gas. For your information, the amendment was defeated by a wide margin of 345-72.

How can I find out the amount of money credited to my Social Security account?

Interested citizens should fill out the post card form entitled "Request for Statement of Earnings" and mail it to the Social Security Administration, P.O. Box 57, Baltimore, Maryland 21203. The form may be obtained from your local social security office.

Is there any booklet available that shows how to determine the amount of compensation due a veteran and his family?

Your local VA office is the best source for such information. However, as a supplement, my office does have a limited supply of Veterans' Benefits Calculators. You may obtain your personal copy by writing me, c/o 1730 Longworth Building, Washington, D. C. 20515.

I understand that a judge has recommended to the U.S. Postal Service that they lower first class postage rates to 8½ cents. Is this true?

Last month, the chief administrative law judge of the Postal Rate Commission (PRC) recommended that the price of first class postage be reduced to 8½ cents an ounce from current rate of 10 cents and ounce. In addition, he recommended that second, third and fourth class mail rates be increased. PRC is an independent agency which submits recommended decisions to the Postal Service on postage rates and mail classifications. Hearings will take place on this matter July 7 & 8 in Washington and citizens may submit their views by writing to the Secretary, Postal Rate Commission, 2000 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20268.

When will you next be visiting our area?

Post office tours are scheduled in early July for Corriganville, Mt. Savage, Oakland, Kitzmiller, Rawlings, Pinto, Big Spring, Clear Spring, Burkittsville, Gapland, St. James, Fairplay, Sharpsburg, Keedysville, Westminister, Millers, Manchester, Hampstead, Owings Mills, Damascus, Lisbon, Cooksville, West Friendship, Woodstock and Columbia. Exact times and dates will be published in my upcoming newsletter and will also be published in your local paper.

Hancock Restaurant To Be Rebuilt

Groundbreaking for a new Sagle's Restaurant took place last week at Hancock. The restaurant, a landmark for thirty-nine years, and a place where many Garrett county persons stopped to eat while enroute to Baltimore and Washington or other eastern areas, was entirely destroyed by fire on April 7. The restaurant was operated by Ruth and Lucy Sagle.

The new restaurant will be under the same management and the contract calls for completion within 90 days. They announced it would be operated in the same country-like atmosphere.

The Galilean Satellites

First observed by Galileo in 1610, the four bright moons of Jupiter can be observed in binoculars. They are named Io, Europa, Ganymede and Callisto in order of distance from the planet. The observer will find it a rewarding experience to follow their changing configuration from night to night. During June Io moves from one side of Jupiter to the other 35 times while slower moving Callisto moves only from one side to the other.

The Last Quarter Phase of the moon occurs at 12:37 p.m. Tuesday. When the moon is at this point in its orbit around the earth, we see it ninety degrees or one-fourth of a circle to the west of the sun preceding it across the sky. Moonrise varies from 11:57 p.m. tonight to fifty-nine minutes past midnight next Wednesday morning.

404,480 kilometers (251,390 miles) will separate earth and moon Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. This greatest separation of the earth and its satellite is called the apogee of the moon.

Venus, Jupiter and Mars are easily visible during the week. Venus continuing to dominate the west sky at sunset. Jupiter and Mars are separating in the predawn sky from their close positions of last week. Jupiter is higher in the sky. These planets rise about four hours before the sun.

Mercury may be visible through binoculars, low in the southeast, just before sunrise at the end of the week.

Daylight is diminished by two minutes during the week. Sunrise was at 5:52 a.m. this morning. Sunset is fourteen hours fifty-seven minutes later at 8:49 p.m. Wednesday the sun rises at 5:54 a.m. and sets at 8:49 p.m.

Listen Americans!

Why Starvation?

Attention, all American taxpayers and businessmen who want to help the problem of World Hunger. Millions of people are facing famine, starvation and survival levels of living. The world must find the solution. To find that solution, we must look at the facts of past and present history.

Who Is Not Starving?

First, which of the nations of the world are exporters of food? Russia is not. Cuba is not. Red China is not. East Germany is not. Eastern European Communist satellite nations are not to any helpful degree. Ethiopia, which has just fallen to communism, is not. In fact, not a single country in the world which does not practice the legal principle of private ownership of land, is able to make any marked contribution to the starving masses of the world.

In the United States, Canada, Australia, the Philippines, West Germany, France, England, Indonesia, Formosa . . . in fact, in almost every nation in the free world, the problem of hunger and starvation is not nearly as acute as it is elsewhere. These are the nations who are called upon to "sell wheat to Russia," to send emergency food supplies to Biafra and to India.

What Does This Tell Us?

Take India for example. The editor of Progressive Farmer magazine pointed out in the April, 1975 edition, that India is the hardest hit nation in the world by starvation. The situation is getting worse. "Many Indian farmers were persuaded to purchase tractors, install irrigation, and use improved practices. There was progress and hope . . . Then in one fell swoop, a couple of years ago, Indian politicians decreed that no farmer could own more than 18 acres of land, regardless of deeds, land titles, efficiency, or hardship." This was fatal because no one can produce enough on 18 acres of land to pay for improved machinery necessary to productive farming.

Hunger a Communist Tool

Russia was called the "breadbasket" of Europe before the Communist took over. Cuba had the third highest standard of living in the Western Hemisphere before Castro. No prosperous, free from hunger nation has ever voted itself into the Communist orbit. No country in the communist orbit is now free from hunger. Stop and think! Hunger is a tool of communist imperialism. The reason is very simple. People free from the fear of hunger, have time to dream of, plan for, and strive to acquire all the other freedoms God intended man to have.

Has the degree of poverty in America increased in direct proportion to the amount of government control over agriculture, business, education . . . life? Can the problem of World Hunger ever be solved until man is free to own his land and market the product of his toil?

America tried communal ownership at Jamestown and Plymouth Colonies. . . and both times the people almost starved to death! Have we learned anything at all? Instead of helping communist governments produce hunger for the sake of political control, we need to help people become free.

Youth Corps At Work In Forests

A session for eight young people with the Youth Conservation Corps in Garrett County began June 18 and will continue until August 18.

The young people involved will work in and study about the natural environment and resources while being gainfully employed in outdoor activities directly relating to the use, management and protection of the natural resources. The local Program is directed by Bernard Zlomek, assistant regional forester for the Maryland Forest Service.

They will work on such projects as construction of a vista at an overlook at Monroe Run, building fords to cross streams, improvement of wildlife habitat by construction of game food plots, building hiking trails, pruning pine plantations, and cleaning streams.

One day a week will be spent on educational projects, beginning last Thursday with first aid taught by Mrs. Mary Ellen Lichty. Other projects will deal with total natural resource management problems.

The group will also visit wildlife management areas, have an opportunity to learn about intensive forest management practices, visit the wood-using industries in the county and learn about management of a wilderness area on the Monongahela National Forest and visit a Federal fish hatchery.

Swanton

The following trustees were elected at a recent meeting of the Swanton Community Association:

Lester Sweitzer, Orval Teets, Glenn Teets, Joy Buser, Amy Wilson, Opal Fazenbaker, and John Livengood.

Any group or organization wishing to use the community building should contact Mrs. William Buser, who is in charge of the calendar of events.

Some C&P Rates Increase June 21

New telephone rates for certain customers and types of service went into effect in Maryland Saturday, June 21.

The State Public Service Commission approved the increases which will generate an additional $29.1 million in revenues. The commission rejected a 22 percent general rate hike that would have produced $63 million in additional revenue.

The new rate hikes do not affect monthly charges for basic residential telephone service nor will the current 10-cent charge for a pay phone call can be changed.

The PSC did allow a 5-cent a month increase in the cost of extension phones in a home, and a 25-cent increase in the cost of business extensions to $1.75 monthly.

A one-minute minimum will replace the three-minute limit on long distance calls. While the change will allow a caller who talks one minute or less to avoid paying for three minutes, the new minimum will mean a hike of about 8 percent for long distance calls of greater duration dialed to Maryland points.

The charge for each call over the allowance for measured residence service will rise a penny to 7½ cents each. Extra calls over the allowance for measured business service will rise a penny to eight cents.

Other increases include a monthly charge of $1.65 for a Trimline telephone, up 20 cents, and $1.20 for a Princess telephone, up 25 cents.

In this agreement, the insurer obligates himself to guarantee the insured for loss or damage to prescribed property within a stated period by the specific perils of fire and lightning. The short nature of the insuring agreement, especially in fire insurance, is the core of the legal agreement between the parties. As such each phrase has much meaning and significance; and if you are purchasing such insurance, it is important that you understand the agreement fully.

VOLUME 99 OAKLAND, GARRETT COUNTY, MD. THURSDAY JULY 3, 1975 PER COPY 15c NUMBER 18

July 4 Thought...

Here is a thought for Bunker Hill day, suggested by H. A. Philbrick editor for U. S. Press association, Washington:

What is right with America is the system of government and economy bequeathed to us by our forefathers. What is wrong with America is the result of human weakness and shortcomings, and a failure to meet the high challenge which is inseparable from a Republic such as ours.

This thought is supported, although from an opposite direction by the daughter of Joseph Stalin who was accused of many horrible things. She said, "They should not have put the blame on one person for the wrongs which were the fault of communism as a whole." What is wrong with communism is that the system is wrong, and no amount of effort can ever make it right, or make it work for benefit of mankind.

The radical change we need in America is better people, and with better people the American system can be all that it should be. Betterment, like charity, begins at home.

Bausch & Lomb Award Winners

Pictured above are Harvey (Gurney) Kolb, and Joe Groves who were presented a check for $1,219.00 for an accepted idea they submitted through the Bausch & Lomb Suggestion System. This check is in addition to an award of $400.00 for the same suggestion submitted a year ago. The original award and the re-evaluation represent a total award of $1,619.00 which was split by Kolb and Groves.

Their idea was to have certain seals which are used at the Mt. Lake Park Plant, rebuilt rather than discarded and purchasing new ones. This suggestion is the most significant one submitted by a Bausch & Lomb employee to date, according to Pat Fischetti, left, plant superintendent.

A total of $6,955.50 has been awarded to Bausch & Lomb employees since September 15, 1973, for their ideas which have led to cost savings.

Third Street Bridge Battered Early Friday

The Third street bridge in Oakland over the B and O Railroad was battered just past midnight Friday when it was hit by a Pennsylvania car and closed for four days.

Richard D. Eylers, 19, Bethel Park, Pa., was treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital where he was taken by the Southern Rescue Squad following the wreck.

The bridge was closed from Friday until Monday. The wooden railing was knocked off the west side of the bridge, some going down onto the tracks causing trains to stop until the debris was removed. One piece landed on the telegraph wires. Also battered and needing replacement was a gas main attached to the bridge.

Eylers was speeding and had just driven through a red stop light at Third and Oak streets. He failed to stay in the roadway and collided with the bridge. The car landed on its side on the bridge roadbed.

Pfc. Roger Lewis of the Oakland Police investigated and charged Eylers on three counts, driving while ability is impaired by alcohol, exceeding the speed limit and failing to stop for a red traffic light.

Later Friday, Eylers posted bond of $170 on the three counts to appear for trial in District Court on July 15.

Service Awards Presented Friday

OAKLAND'S NEW SPEEDGUN is held toward a passing motorist on Center Street by police chief Percy Lawton. The gun, acquired from the town of Mt. Lake park, will be used inside the city limits all over town in efforts to assuage complaints from local residents about speeders. City policemen qualified to operate the speedgun in addition to the police chief are Sgt. Hobart Shillingburg, and Officers Roger Lewis and Jack Thomas. New police officer Richard Rinker will be attending school later this month at Hagerstown so that he too may qualify to use the gun. The compact unit, which displays a digital readout of a car's speed as it approaches or leaves, may also be used by police on foot with an accompanying battery unit. The trigger locks in the speed readout so that the driver may see for himself the speed at which he was clocked. Officers are now issuing moving vehicle tickets to speeders within the town limits, with the ticket money going to the state, not the town.

F.F.A. Honors James Michael

James E. Michael, of Grantsville, Assistant Vice President and Manager of the Lake Office of The First National Bank of Oakland, at McHenry, received an Honorary Degree in Agriculture from the Future Farmers of America yesterday, July 2, in special ceremonies held at the annual Maryland State F.F.A. Convention at College Park.

The award was presented to Mr. Michael in recognition of his "outstanding contributions to the greenhouse project at Northern High School, Accident, three years ago.

According to Harold Loughry, Vocational Agriculture Instructor at Northern High, the degree was given to Mr. Michael for his personal involvement and to the First National Bank of Oakland as a whole too. He said that without Mr. Michael's efforts in obtaining a loan of money from the bank and convincing the Board of Education and other school leaders of the need, the greenhouse project would not have been possible. He said that over fifty students are interested in greenhouse instructional programs this coming school year.

It was further stated that Mr. Michael has been active in helping to fund F.F.A. steer projects at the school too.

The Honorary Degree is one of only a few given out statewide each year.

As area residents know, the students have been selling products of the greenhouse, including garden plants and various live flower arrangements, since the greenhouse was constructed. Proceeds from the sale of these products are applied to the greenhouse loan at the bank.

Patricia Ann Bennett pleaded not guilty to two counts, assault on Tfc. Daniel E. Tharp of the Maryland State Police at Friendsville February 23 and resisting arrest by the same officer.

Donald Junior Baker II, E. Oak Street, Oakland, and Joseph and Joyce DelSignore, Deep Creek Lake, have been lodged in the county jail pending a bond hearing.

Arrests stemmed from an incident about 1 a.m. this morning, when Deputy Sheriffs Frank and Robert Finch attempted to stop the trio. A high-speed chased ensued, with the deputies clocking the DelSignore car at speeds as high as 110 m.p.h.

The deputies followed the car south on Route 219 and into Oakland, where they were able to stop the vehicle with the assistance of Roger Lewis, town policeman.

Charges against Baker, who was driving the DelSignore car, include operating a motor vehicle in a negligent manner; operating without a license in possession; exceeding the posted speed limit, and fleeing or attempting to elude a police officer.

Groundbreaking Planned For American H.V. Test Systems

A new industry to add to the strength of Garrett County's economy is now a reality, thanks to cooperative efforts of various county agencies and individuals.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for American H. V. Test Systems, Inc., which will manufacture and market high voltage testing equipment, will be held late this week or early next week.

President of the new corporation is Keith Reed, Somers, New York, who recently moved to Oakland with his wife. Mrs. Reed is secretary of the firm. Mr. Reed was formerly an executive vice president of Hypatronics, Inc. The company will manufacture equipment which tests anything dealing with the generation of power, including bushings, cables, generators, etc.

Mr. Reed estimates that approximately 50 percent of his testing products will be shipped overseas for sale and use. Products will also be sold to government agencies, electrical firms and universities in addition to industries.

Cooperation from seversl agencies and individuals was needed to help make the plant a reality. The Mayor and Town council of Accident annexed the property and provided water and sewerage. Others instrumental in the project were the Accident Planning Commission, the county commissioners, Kolb's General Store, W. H. Fratz, Inc.; and the Garrett Development Corporation, which will be the owner of the building and 10 acres leased to American H. V. Test Systems, Inc.; and the Garrett National Bank in Oakland. The county will provide an industrial access road to the site.

Several factors resulted in the selection of the Accident site over the many possibilities investigated. The property is not only near the National Freeway, but also is adjacent to Route 219 and the proposed by-pass of Accident planned by the State Highway Administration within the next five years.

New and adequate water and sewerage systems are available, thanks to the foresight of the Accident mayor and town council and planning commission members. They were responsible for choosing and setting aside 53 acres for industrial development within the town limits. Ten of these 53 acres will be occupied by the American H. V. Test Systems, Inc., with the remainder available for use by at least four other firms of comparable size.

The building to be erected in the first stage of development for American Test Systems will be a 100 by 100 pre-engineered steel Butler build-

Only a birth certificate, under the law, is acceptable as proof of age. As proof of identity at least one back up identification document containing the applicant's name and signature will be required. The card is intended for permanent use and need not be renewed.

Garrett County Playhouse: The First 20 Years

PART I

By Miliburn Mehlhop
veteran Playhouse Actor

Very early one Friday morning during the summer of 1962 Gene Yell, with his wife and a handful of young performers, stood powerless as the Garrett County Playhouse was almost completely destroyed by fire. In fact, the building itself (originally the Arden Boat Club), the sets, costumes and equipment all were lost—and indeed the little company must have watched the blaze as firemen, neighbors and patrons worked or stared or rushed about in the cold morning air with the thought that the theatre was gone forever. In the shock of the moment they had forgotten something:

A theatre is three things. It's the building of course, but more to the point it's the production company and—most important—its supporters. Together the three elements form an organism with a natural inclination to live. The building was gone, but anybody who thought the theatre was gone with it didn't know Gene Yell or Garrett County.

At ten o'clock that day the board of directors met with Mr. Yell and no time was lost in reaching the decision to continue production. The Board of Education agreed on the temporary use of the Dennett Road School auditorium and the balance of the day was spent in the gathering and construction of sets, costumes and lighting. The company went on that evening without dropping a stitch. The show was "The Marriage-Go-Round", reportedly one of the most successful season-openers in the history of the playhouse.

Production continued for two weeks on Dennett Road but the heat in the auditorium made life impossible for audiences as well as for actors. In the third week of the 1962 season work began on renovating the Blue Barn on Beckman's Peninsula, the theatre's present home. That was Thursday. The following Tuesday afternoon, during the final dress-rehearsal for "Seven Keys to Baldpate" (inaudible because lights were being hung and workmen were still hammering), a well was being dug at the behest of the local health inspector and thanks to the pulling of a string or two by area VIP's who wanted the show to go on. By performance time that evening the water supply was sufficient and go on the show certainly did.

This incident, while an outstanding one, is by no means the first or the last occasion on which Garrett County came to the aid of its theatre. From the very beginning the Garrett County Playhouse has depended upon local support for its continuance.

In 1948 Gene Yell, a young instructor with the Drama Department of the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque, and wife Barbara (formerly Barbara Burruss of Washington, D.C.) opened the Burruss summer home as a modest guest resort. A native of Chicago, Gene met Barbara during their college years at the Goodman Theatre and they were married in 1943. Their daughter Jennifer was born the next year and in 1948, after fulfilling his army obligation, Gene received his degree from Goodman and the University of Chicago.

They had spent a few summers at Hemlock Hollow, but the hard Garrett County winters had left their mark on the old farmhouse and outbuildings. Clearly the costs of restoring and maintaining the place would by that time be myriad and prohibitive. Even so, the place seemed a natural for a guest retreat. Located in the now-dwindling virgin timberlands of Pleasant Valley, Hemlock Hollow with its tree-strangled entrance, its bridges, its sudden glorious views of countryside and its massive doses of charm was by any standards suitable for framing. It had Garrett County's first swimming pool and (now sadly gone) a small dance pavilion spanning the story-book creek.

In a word, irresistible—and so the guests agreed, and many of them are still close friends and correspondents of the Yells. If the resort was a departure for the guest and for the Yells, the neighbors found it no less facinating. Having caught glimpses of lady guests in the latest daring styles of sunwear, some maintained that the Yells were running a nudist colony.

In 1952 Gene began seriously considering the idea of a summer stock theatre in the area, working on the theory that his students could learn more from an audience than books could teach them. The following year he made talks to several local organizations, to whom he might as well have been speaking to Sanskrit. The concept of a resident theatrical group was unimaginable to all but the few people who marked a spearhead: Dr. E. I. Baumgartner (an avid supporter and often the reviewer, Dr. Baumgartner never missed a production from the opening until his death), the Treacy Brothers (of Sincell's dry goods store), Mrs. Arthur Morris of Baltimore (summer resident) and Mrs. Gladys Vanucci (owned Point View Inn with her husband.)

Armed with this moral support Gene continued to seek sympathizers in 1954. He met with Mrs. Stanley Smith who helped him organize a list of prominent citizens who might be approached about serving on the theatre's board of governors. After many disheartening encounters Gene found agreement and support from seven persons who comprises the original board: Mrs. Homer Bennett, C. W. Englander, Irvin Feld, J. M. Jarboe, George Littman, Edward Smouse and Earl Zepp. While the board had no financial responsibility to the theatre, it was felt that the association of their names with the project would make the idea palatable to the residents. Gene recalls that, even though the members were not altogether certain of his intentions, they were remarkably helpful and considerate.

The next step was to find a suitable location for the playhouse and after a long search he came across the Arden Boat Club building at the north end of Deep Creek Lake. The lower floor of the structure had served as a night club during the prohibition years and was still resplendent in wormy chestnut panelling. It sported a magnificent forty-foot Victorian bar in walnut and mahogany. The upper floor would require s good deal of work but Gene felt that it was ideal. Luckily, Jim McCann who, with his brother Robert—both of Pittsburgh, owned the building, was on hand that day and Gene found him both interested and challenged by the idea. McCann did not ask for a written agreement and in fact required no specific rent, saying that he expected to make money only if the theatre did. One wonders where people like that are these days.

Cloudy weather still prevailed, however, as local organizations continued to refuse sponsorship to the project on grounds ranging from lack of interest to open suspicion, but another stroke of luck was on its way. Jane (Mrs. Arthur) Humbertson of Loch Lynn happened at that time to be the Incoming president of the Business and Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Humbertson had been secretary to W. B. Burruss (Mrs. Yell's father) during the summers in the late 20's and into the 30's. Unlike most of the county who did not know the Yells and so had no reason to suspect that any good might come of all this, Jane Humbertson took a serious optimistic view of Gene's proposal and BPWC became the sponsor.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

During the past month, I have represented Garrett County at the National PTA Convention and the Md. State PTA Summer Conference. I would like to share some things I learned from talking with people at these two gatherings. Following are situations which are now found in school systems in other parts of our state and other states: Divided school systems which have had five superintendents in seven years, Middle-income schools where 4th graders steal from parents to pay for protection from gang groups, elementary schools where teachers are afraid to turn their backs to write on a board for fear of being assaulted by a student, schools where the issue of busing is more important than the quality of education, school boards and superintendents which function as tyrants and refuse to listen to parents and education groups such as PTA, school systems where money is so badly managed that education standards are hurt. This list could go on and on but it draws the same conclusion. We parents in Garrett County are fortunate to have our children attending school here. We have a Board of Education whose dedicated members serve for only two hundred dollars per year. It has been my observation that these are concerned people who want the best for all of our children and who are willing to listen. We have a school Superintendent, Dr. William Buser, who is open-minded, cooperative and also willing to listen. We are also represented on the State Board of Education by Mr. William Goldsborough. Not all school systems are so fortunate! Of course, we, as parents, must take the time to let these people know our needs, our views and our complaints. They are not mind readers.

We live in a beautiful county which is relatively safe. I have seen the quality of education improve every year. If parents continue to be concerned and involved people who work cooperatively with members of our school system, from the Homeroom Teacher to the School Superintendent and the Board of Education, we'll continue to see education standards get even better. We also must become involved and learn of legislation which will help or hurt our children in Garrett County.

Then, in the future, people representing Garrett County at educational gatherings will continue to be proud to say "I'm from Garrett County and we don't have that problem where I live."

Sincerely,
Roberta Marie Genco

Dear Sir:

We would like to express our appreciation to the many people who searched for Michael Wenham on June 13.

Our sincere thanks to the Garrett County Sheriff's Department, Northern and Southern Rescue Squads, Maryland State Police and Park Service, Forestry Department, Deep Creek, Deer Park, Accident and Oakland Fire Departments, and all other volunteers.

It was amazing to see the number of citizens who came to aid in the search. We are proud to be citizens of Garrett County.

Changes Made In Bureau of Mines

In an administrative revamping, the state secretary of natural resources has transferred the Bureau of Mines enforcement functions to the Water Resources administration, despite objections from miners.

The administration changes, which took effect July 1, place Lee E. Zeni, the current state power plant siting program director, in charge of coal mining and reclamation, power plant siting and coastal zone management functions. The new agency will be known as the Energy and Mining administration.

Harry B. Buckley, director of the Bureau of Mines, which is headquartered in Westernport, Said it was too early to tell what changes would take place as a result og the new setup.

Coal strip miners and quarry operators have said they want their own separate mining agencies, rather than the new agency. State quarry mining functions, which mainly involve permits and pollution controls for rock, sand and gravel operators, will be assigned to the WRA.

In the case of coal mining, a majority of the mining application permits now need approval for water discharge anyway, and it is reported that the state's thinking is that the administration change will facilitate those permit applications.

Robert Harvey, coal mining official, said most miners are opposed to the changes because they prefer to have their own agency regulate the coal industry.

Mr. Buckley said one possibility for his bureau is that some inspectors may be moved to the WRA office while some of the Water Resources administration staff may be transferred to the Bureau of Mines office.

To Have Kids Crusade

A "Kids Crusade" will be held at the Crellin Assembly of God church, beginning Monday evening, July 7th, and continuing through the 11th, at 7 o'clock. "Aunt" Libby and "Aunt" Becky, students from the "Free Gospel Bible Institute" of Export, Pa., will be in charge. There will be stories, games and puppets. Boys and girls of all ages are welcome. Rev. Paul Poland is pastor.

GARRETT NATIONAL BANK

"The Bank with an Eye to Your Future"

Oakland-Accident-Bloomington-Kitzmiller-LaVale Plaza-Midland

Counterfeit Exhibit Displayed at First National

Individuals will have an opportunity to test their skill at detecting counterfeit currency next week, at the First National Bank in Oakland, as the bank shows an exhibit of real and counterfeit money which was obtained from the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. The display will be at the bank beginning Monday, July 7.

Denominations of currency in the exhibit range from $5 to $100. The bills are arranged side by side so that the viewer may try his luck at deciding which bill is genuine and which is counterfeit. When a button is pushed a light will come on. Green means "good" and red means "counterfeit".

Experienced bank personnel become adept at detecting counterfeit currency. Frequently, an experience counter can feel the difference.

Many people do not stop to look at their money but counterfeit bills can easily be spotted sometimes. Many bogus bills are carefully reproduced but portrait detail around the hairline and eyes may be slightly irregular on a counterfeit note. Sometimes the screening around the portrait may not be well defined. Other telltale signs are irregular serial numbers, off-color numbers and seals, and the omission of the silk threads in the paper of the bill.

According to I. Lynn Beckman, the bank's Public Relations Officer, next week's display is the second in a series of three displays being presented as part of the 75th anniversary of the institution.

ing combining manufacturing and office space. Additional development plans within five years call for erection of a similar structure with a 35-foot eave height for larger components and an overhead crane.

Wilson Construction Company of Cumberland will erect the building, which is scheduled to be ready for occupancy by November 1. The building will also include a loading dock, a 16-foot loading door and sufficient office space to accommodate the planned growth through the first five years. An estimated $150,000 worth of machinery will be installed so that manufacturing can begin.

Fifteen employes are scheduled to be working at the plant November 1, with an expected work force of 100 in five years. The force is expected to increase to 35 or 40 employes in the next 2 years.

Employes needed will be machinists, welders, electrical engineers and technicians, wiremen, draftsmen, mechanical assemblers, electrical assemblers and office and sales personnel. Employment will be through the local Employment Security office in Oakland. Six experienced workmen will be imported from New York to help begin plant operations and to train new employes.

Sheriff's Department Serves 161 Summons

John Evans, Jr., sheriff of Garrett County, reports that 161 civil and criminal papers were served locally during June 1975. A total of 166 complaints were answered and 37 arrests were made, including 11 on drug violation charges.

The sheriff's department automobiles traveled some 21,000 miles during the month while answering complaints, patrolling all areas of the county, and three trips to Baltimore transporting Prisoners.

Two trips to Frostburg were made, transporting juveniles.

One-Vehicle Mishaps Send 4 To Hospital

Four persons were injured in two one-vehicle accidents last week in the southern part of the county. All were taken to the hospital with one admitted.

George C. Chloros, RD 3, Deer Park, was treated and released from Garrett County Memorial Hospital in an evening mishap last Tuesday.

Chloros was headed north on Sam Sheed Circle off the Herrington Manor road on a motorcycle. On rounding a curve, the cycle slid on the loose gravel, spun out of control and turned on its side. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater investigated.

A mishap in Loch Lynn, the evening of June 23, sent three persons to Garrett County Memorial Hospital where one was admitted.

Juanita D. Hebb, operator of the car, and one passenger, George Washington Hebb, both of Mt. Lake Park, were treated and released from the hospital. Another passenger, Darlene DeWitt, also of Mt. Lake Park, was admitted and remained hospitalized two days.

Juanita Hebb was traveling north on Seneca Avenue. A dog being transported on the rear seat, jumped onto the front seat. The operator attempting to restrain the animal, drove off the right side of the road and struck a tree. Tfc. C. H. Hinnant charged Juanita Hebb with failing to obtain Maryland registration.

A truck accident on U.S. 219 near Collier road was apparently caused by excess speed the evening of June 19.

Ronald Noah Baumgardner, Walkersville, was traveling south on Rt. 219 when a vehicle ahead slowed to make a turn. Baumgardner applied his brakes which caused his truck to slide out of control, cross the road and strike a culvert. Tfc. G. A. Berkebile charged him with failing to reduce speed under existing conditions.

Multinationals Under Siege: A Threat To World Economy

By David Rockefeller

Any discussion of the world economy must consider its most visible and fastest-growing component—the multinational corporation. Its contribution to economic growth has been immense, yet, from a multiplicity of quarters, multinational enterprise now finds itself under siege.

Among the most commonly-voiced charges are these:

- The multinationals export home country jobs by means of "runaway" plants that move their manufacturing operations abroad and then export the production back home.
- Multinationals exploit less-developed countries by taking their natural resources, underpaying their labor, and pre-empting their scarce capital.
- Multinationals manipulate currencies, causing monetary instability, and use "variable transfer pricing" among their subsidiaries to avoid taxes and thus maximize profits.

First, on the matter of exporting jobs. Every reliable study—and there have been quite a few—concludes that just the opposite is true. Far from sending jobs out of the home country, the external activities of multinational companies actually create hundreds of thousands of additional jobs at home.

This comes about when multinationals export increasing amounts of goods to other countries. In 1970, for example, multinational firms accounted for just over half of total U.S. exports of $42 billion.

As far as imports are concerned, it is clear that most of the overseas production of multinational companies is destined for other than their home country markets, mainly in the countries where the goods are manufactured.

Next, the issue of exploiting less-developed countries and their pools of low-cost labor.

The critics seldom bother to mention what might happen to those labor pools if these jobs were not provided. Indeed, the principal complaint is not that we are exploiting them, but that we have been neglecting them in making our investments. The facts are that the great bulk of the overseas investment by multinationals is in developed, rather than underdeveloped, countries, and in high-wage, rather than low-wage industries.

The real point is that most multinational investments tend to be made where the markets are and where the prospects for earnings growth are greatest.

It is true that multinationals try to get and often do get much of their capital financing needs from within the countries in which they invest, as the critics charge. But here a superficial appearance is used to twist a virtue into a supposed vice. The real contribution of a multinational company to a developing economy is its ability to mobilize local resources—capital, raw materials, and human capabilities—in a way that will trigger more growth in the domestic economy.

David Rockefeller is Chairman of the Board of the Chase Manhattan Bank. The series, Inside Business, is sponsored by the Business Roundtable.

Capitol Comment

The Fourth of July
by
Sen. Charles McC. Mathias

The Fourth of July always marks a time of participation, of positive action, of citizens coming together rationally to resolve the problems of the nation. It also, of course, is a time for celebration and enjoyment of summer.

This year, the 199th observance of our national declaration of independence assumes special significance. We are just one year away from the celebration of the bicentennial. That, truly, is an occasion worth all the attention that is being paid to it, and more.

Across Maryland, communities large and small are making plans for the bicentennial. Some observances already are underway, and that is appropriate, for Maryland is older than the nation.

The bicentennial is an opportunity that we must not let pass without revitalizing that cohesiveness of spirit and purpose that served us well in 1776 and that can once again be our strength today.

That should be our commitment on this, our 199th Fourth of July holiday, and our dedication to the full meaning of the independence of our country.

Ground Broken For Dry Run Mennonite Church Addition

OFFICIATE AT GROUND BREAKING — Wilmer Murphy, building committee chairman, Raymond Brant, contractor, and Alva Maust, pastor, officiated at ground breaking ceremonies for the Dry Run Mennonite Church Sunday, June 29. The new addition will more than double the present seating capacity of the building, which was once a schoolhouse near Bittinger.

Ground was broken June 29 to begin enlarging the present meeting house of the Dry Run Mennonite Church, near Swanton.

Following the Sunday School hour, chairs and benches were moved from the present building to the building site where the worship service was conducted.

Elmer H. Maust, Bishop of the Cherry Glade Mennonite Church and of the Dry Run Church, preached the sermon on "I Will Build My Church." Alva Maust, pastor of the Dry Run Church, spoke on the history of the congregation and how the need for an enlarged building developed. Following the groundbreaking ceremony, Wilmer Murphy, chairman of the building committee, and Raymond Brant, contractor, briefly described the size and features of the new structure.

Roy Beitzel, Sunday School Superintendent of Dry Run for the past three years and member of the building committee, made a few closing remarks and led the closing prayer.

Other members of the building committee are Paul Uber, Harvey Bender and Larry Chap.

A large number of visitors were present for the service and shared in a fellowship lunch served following the morning service. In the afternoon a Summer Bible School program was held.

Work on the present structure was started by Elmer Bittinger, Springs, Pa., in 1938. In 1938 the present building was placed there — a schoolhouse brought from near Bittinger. The first service was held May 1, 1938. Ressley Tressler served as pastor until his death in 1956. Paul Bender, Ray Kinsinger and Vernon Yoder have also served as pastors in the past.

In 1973, Roy Beitzel was appointed Sunday School superintendent and Alva Maust, assistant pastor of Cherry Glade Mennonite Church, was appointed pastor of Dry Run.

On September 29, 1974, the congregation was reorganized as the Dry Run Mennonite Church under the Conservative Mennonite Church under the Conservative Conference with Elmer H. Maust, pastor of Cherry Glade serving as Bishop and Alva R. Maust continuing as pastor. In August, Sanford Bender, Oneida, Ky., is to assume responsibility as assistant pastor.

The new structure will more than double the seating capacity of the building.

Home canning Information

Home Canning is a highly rewarding experience. It can be creative and personally satisfying. It also can be frustrating and very hard to plan with our difficulty in getting lids.

Would like to share some information I have received from our Food and Nutrition Specialist, Dr. Dorothy P. VanZandt at the University of Maryland. Plastic Lids: Some plastic lids are on the market in different areas of the state. They have not proved satisfactory for recommended food processing methods. Untested Home Canning "Seals" are questionable buys. Plastic films and "Sealer Sticks" advertised as home canning sealers should also have FDA clearance and reliable test documentation.

As far as complete home canning units are concerned (jar and lids sold together) there are more than enough.

While the anticipated demand and supply situation of lids was a tight one, it still appeared that if those who needed lids just took what they needed, there would be enough to go around. Anxiety, hoarding and black market have resulted in the creation of an unreal situation.

Our advice is not to panic — be patient, buy only what you need for this canning season and although it might be difficult, avoid the black market.

Our Extension Service will be conducting information mini-workshops in our office in the basement of the Post Office, and also two workshops at the Community College.

Watch for announcements and attend the ones you are interested in. We have helpful information in the office you may pick up.

Another important service Extension has to offer is the checking of pressure canner gauge. Bring your lid in and we will check it during the week of July 7-11.

4-H'ers Learn Petroleum Gives Nation "Go" Power

CHICAGO—"Fossil" fuels are definitely not a dead subject for nearly 200,000 young people from 9 to 19 in the national 4-H petroleum power program.

These 4-H'ers take a lively interest in the gasoline and diesel oils that fuel the nation's power machinery from farm tractors to lawn, garden and recreational equipment.

Amoco offers awards

Participating in a tractor or small engines project is fun, educational, and may bring recognition for top achievement. For 31 years, 4-H program members have been competing for awards donated by Amoco Foundation, Inc. and arranged by the National 4-H Service Committee.

This year Amoco will award $800 college scholarships to six national winners, to be honored at the 54th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 30-Dec. 4, in Chicago. One winner from each state receives an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress, and up to four winners per county get medals of honor.

Regional contests

In addition, the foundation annually sponsors the 4-H eastern and western regional tractor operators' contests and small engine demonstrations. The 1975 regionals are slated for Omaha, Neb., Sept. 18-20, and Richmond, Va., Sept. 22-24.

4-H'ers enrolled in tractor projects become skilled in the safe, efficient operation and maintenance of farm tractors and machinery. They learn that proper care can almost double the interval between tractor overhauls and can reduce costly downtime. Practical activities include adjusting carburetors; lubricating the engine, transmission and wheel bearings; and storing, handling and conserving fuel.

Learn-by-doing projects

In small engines projects, both rural and urban 4-H'ers get a chance to work with lawn mowers, motorbikes, snowmobiles and outboard motors. Learning to take apart small engines and put them together again is basic to an understanding of how all engines—both simple and complex—operate.

The national 4-H petroleum power program is conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. Additional information is available from county extension agents.

Rural and urban young people from 9 to 19 in the national 4-H petroleum power program take a lively interest in tractor and small engines projects supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service. As they learn by doing, they work for scholarships and other awards donated by Amoco Foundation, Inc.

American Freedom and Christian Responsibility

By Rev. W. H. Leake, Deer Park, Md.

WHAT IS "OPEN EDUCATION"? WHAT IS "OPEN SPACE EDUCATION"? IS THERE A DIFFERENCE? YES, A BIG DIFFERENCE.

Open space education means what it says: "Education taking place in an "open space". It means education taking place in a room without partitions, much like the old "one room school house." OPEN EDUCATION has nothing to do with space. OPEN EDUCATION IS A PHILOSOPHY. OPEN EDUCATION can be practiced in an "open space" or in a room with partitions. By the same token, "traditional" education can take place in an open space.

REMEMBER: OPEN SPACE EDUCATION REFERS TO "SPACE" — OPEN EDUCATION IS A PHILOSOPHY.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE OPEN EDUCATION

OPEN EDUCATION encourages children to be "autonomous" — "to do their own thing."

OPEN EDUCATION promotes disrespect for discipline: Children sit and lie on the floor and are free to move about and talk as they please.

OPEN EDUCATION promotes disrespect for authority. Children are expected to make their own decisions about what they want to do and what they want to learn. The teacher does not teach — she is a "facilitator" or "manager of a learning environment."

OPEN EDUCATION promotes "situation ethics" morality. Children are expected and encouraged to determine how they want to behave depending on the situation in which they find themselves. Situation ethics morality does not recognize absolutes of right or wrong, nor does it recognize the Ten Commandments.

OPEN EDUCATION promotes permissive attitudes about sexual behavior, drugs and the value of human life.

OPEN EDUCATION encourages children to develop their own values, not "blindly" accept what parents, the church and society have taught.

OPEN EDUCATION does not aim to teach basic skills and facts. Rather, the aim of open education is to "SOCIALIZE" the child — to help him get along with others.

OPEN EDUCATION promotes dependence on groups rather than individual responsibility.

THE PRIMARY PURPOSE OF OPEN EDUCATION IS NOT TO EDUCATE CHILDREN.

THE PRIMARY PURPOSE IS TO "SOCIALIZE" CHILDREN — TO HELP THEM GET ALONG WITH OTHERS.

Parents, Grandparents and concerned citizens, do you want America to become a totally Socialist nation? If you do then sit back, say nothing, and let the so-called Experts push ahead with their Humanistic philosophy of "OPEN EDUCATION". But if you value Freedom and the American way of free enterprise, Then For Heaven's Sake, stand up and by counted. It's later than you think!

Congressman Goodloe Byron

When will Congress be acting on Legislation to increase benefits for disabled veterans?

Two weeks ago the House of Representatives passed a bill providing increases from 6 to 10 percent in compensation payments for disabled veterans. Veterans with a total or severe disability would receive the full 10 percent increase. The legislation also raised dependency and indemnity compensation payments for widows and children of men who died from service-connected causes to 11.3 percent.

My father is a social security recipient and has not yet received his bonus payment of $50 as authorized under the Tax Reduction Act. When will it be mailed?

Your payment should have arrived by now unless you applied for social security in March and have yet not received your first regular monthly check. Individuals who have not received their $50 bonus payment may want to check with their local social security office.

Is it true that the amount paid out in social security benefits checks each year exceeds the amount of money put into the program?

According to the Ways & Means Committee, social security disbursements are expected to exceed income by about $3 billion in 1975 and even more in future years.

How much money has been budgeted for solar energy research projects?

In a recent report, the Science & Technology Committee noted "that a stronger commitment must be made to develop new sources of nonnuclear energy". In this regard, the committee has recommended that $140 million be authorized for solar energy research and development programs.

Has a law been passed by Congress allowing stores to offer discounts to customers who pay cash for merchandise rather than using a credit card?

Under the Fair Credit Billing Act passed by Congress last year, a credit card company may not prohibit stores that accept the credit card from offering discounts to customers who pay cash.

I am writing a term paper on "Energy Conservation" and would like to know if you can recommend any books?

The Department of Interior has just published a comprehensive data book on energy entitled "Energy Perspectives". You may order a copy by writing the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, and enclosing a check for $3.10 made payable to the Superintendent of Documents.

Could it be that the reason your office has received complaints about shortages of canning lids is that there has been a sharp increase in family vegetable gardens!

Yes. The Commerce Department has provided me statistics indicating that the demand for home canning materials has increased 170 percent due in major part, to the planting of around 6.5 million new family gardens. A shortage of tin plate imports last year also caused a supply shortage of canning lids.

Uninsured Motorists Face Penalty Fee

Maryland motorists face a "penalty fee" of up to $40.00 should their vehicles become uninsured for any period of time after July 1, Ejner J. Johnson, State Motor Vehicle Administrator warned.

Legislation enacted at the 1975 session of the Maryland General Assembly requires the Motor Vehicle Administration to assess the fee. Proceeds, according to the law, will be deposited to the account of the uninsured section of the Maryland Automobile Insurance Fund (MAIF).

"This is yet another step," said Johnson, "to deter motorists who would otherwise drive without insurance. Even a lapse in coverage of one day comes under the provisions of the new law."

Johnson added that the penalty fee is in addition to existing penalties for operating an uninsured motor vehicle in Maryland.

Under existing law, MVA can suspend the license plates of an uninsured vehicle, as well as the owner's driving privilege. More than 22,000 such suspensions have been imposed since July 1, 1974.

44 Dogs Without Tags Picked Up

Dogs without tags which are found running loose in the county are now being picked up by county dog warden Roy Arnold. This week, he has picked up 44 animals.

All dogs must have a rabies shot from a veterinarian before they may be licensed. Licenses are available in the treasurer's office, in the court house in Oakland.

According to Mr. Arnold, he is bound by law to pick up all dogs running loose and take them to the county pound in Oakland. So far, only one owner has reclaimed his dog from the pound since the stricter enforcement of the license law went into effect.

Constable Arnold warns that dog owners who refuse to keep their pets tied are liable to be issued a summons requiring their appearance in court unless they comply with the leash law of the county.

He also asks that anyone interested in volunteering time to help answer the telephone or otherwise assist at the new dog pound currently under construction to call the sheriff's office and leave their name and phone number.

Dogs picked up are kept two weeks, then put up for adoption unless claimed by the owner. Those not adopted or claimed are destroyed within a reasonable time.

Young people interested in applying are to submit name, address, city or county, telephone number, age, sex, highest level of education completed, place of employment and a short resume of youth activities.

Blue Cross Seeks Rate Hike

Blue Cross of Maryland, citing worsening financial losses on certain non-group programs, has filed for an average 38.9 percent rate increase that would affect 72,000 subscribers.

A company spokesman said the increase, if approved by the State insurance commissioner, would apply to about 10 percent of the insurer's subscribers, including those covered by standard, community preferred, student and co-pay programs.

The spokesman said Blue Cross lost $3 million on those programs from January, 1974, through May, 1975, despite a subsidy of $1.4 million taken from group rate revenues.

Bus fare will be 50 cents for children and one dollar for adults. Admission to the park is free through the courtesy of the Maryland Park Service.

A nature walk guided by park rangers will start the activities, followed by outdoor crafts, games, races, swimming and a visit with Smokey the Bear. A movie will be shown in the Nature Center. Cricket reached the United States towards the middle of the eighteenth century and, until the advent of baseball, was pursued with zeal. The first American international match took place in 1841, when members of the New York club went to Toronto, and there beat the Canadian eleven. Eventually cricket had to give way, however, to the much more lively and dynamic game of baseball. The original bat was a primitive club, used for attack and defense.

Insurance FACTS

The insurance business is among types of private enterprises which is subject to government regulation. In fact, authorities tell us that it is generally classed as a business which is "affected with a public interest." This characteristic is the reason why many forms of government supervision of insurance are necessary. Although competition is an effective regulator for some businesses, in insurance, uncontrolled competition would work a hardship upon the buyers of insurance.

At GONDER INSURANCE AGENCY, 203-205 South 2nd Street, 334-3343, we offer protection-plus service from an experienced agency. Established since 1920, our prospective is on today and tomorrow. We offer every type of insurance, personal lines, life, health, accident, homeowners, auto, boat, mobile homes, motorcycles, and commercial insurance. We know how to get you the most for your insurance dollar.

Hint For The Week: Never store a vacuum cleaner near a radiator or furnace, since the heat may damage it.

Earth's Aphelion

Saturday at 11:00 p.m. the earth will be only 152,100,000 kilometers (94,512,000 miles) from the sun. This is the greatest separation between the earth and the sun during the year. Our summer heat is not caused by the distance to the sun, but by the angle of the sun's rays of light. During our summer this angle is closer to a perpendicular with the horizon than during our winter; therefore, the light rays are concentrated in a smaller area in the summer which also concentrates the heat energy they carry.

Wednesday morning at ten minutes past midnight, the moon will be passing in line with the earth and the sun. It will be in the same direction as the sun. This is the New Moon Phase. Moonrise was at 1:29 a.m. this morning. Moonrise will be at 6:34 a.m. Wednesday.

Visible planets are Venus, Jupiter, and Mars. Mercury and Saturn are in nearly the same direction from earth as the sun, so they are hidden by its brilliance. Venus sets about two hours after the sun. It is getting brighter. Jupiter rises at midnight with the stars of Pisces. Mars rises at 1:00 a.m. with the stars of Aries.

There are five minutes less daylight Wednesday than there are today. Sunrise was at 5:54 a.m. this morning. Sunset follows fourteen hours fifty-four minutes later at 8:48 p.m. Wednesday the sun rises four minutes later and sets one minute earlier.

Brenda Lewis Wed To William Harvey June 14

Pleasant View Baptist Church, Route 2, Oakland, was the setting June 14 for the wedding of Miss Brenda Kay Lewis and William Lee Harvey. Rev. Ivan H. Martin officiated at the double ring ceremony. Organist Noel Obenshain played the traditional wedding music.

Miss Lewis is the daughter of Mrs. Mary K. Lewis, Oakland, and the late Harry W. Lewis, Sr. Mr. Harvey is the son of Mrs. Bertha E. Harvey, Mt. Lake Park, and the late Harry G. Harvey.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Harry W. Lewis, Jr., of Twinsburg, Ohio, the bride wore a floor length gown of chiffon and imported Venetian lace. The bodice and tapered sleeves were of lace while the high neckline held a ruffle. The skirt fell from a raised waistline into soft folds. A bandeau headpiece held the chapel-length mantilla of bridal illusion edged with matching lace. The bride carried a nosegay of white daisies and baby's breath.

Miss Deborah K. Simmons, Oakland, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a full-length A-line gown of peach and white with matching hat. Donald H. Harvey, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Rishell and Charles Rishell, brothers-in-law of the groom. Michelle Harvey and Scott Weeks, niece and nephew of the bride and groom, served as flower girl and ringbearer.

A reception followed the wedding in the church social room. Persons assisting in the serving of cake, punch and coffee were Mrs. Oscar Petenbrick and Mrs. Carroll Forman, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Charles Walters, aunt of the groom, Mrs. Jack Rishell, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Ralph Weeks. Mrs. Charles Rishell, sister of the groom, registered guests.

For their wedding trip to Tennessee and several other southern states, the bride wore a green print dress with white accessories and a corsage of white daisies which was lifted from her bouquet.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Southern High School and both are employed at Southern States Oakland Cooperative, Inc.

Buckel—Griffith Nuptials Held

Cherry Glade Mennonite Church was the setting for the wedding vows between Sharon Kaye Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Griffith, Friendsville, and Gary Ray Buckel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Buckel, Bittinger, on Saturday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Joseph Lewis, Bunker Hill, West Virginia, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Sheila Buckel, cousin of the groom was organist. Along with a selection of conventional and modern wedding music, Miss Buckel also accompanied Mrs. Linda Buckel, cousin of the groom, as she sang two opening solos and the Wedding Prayer, near the middle of the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk Mera Mist and long tapered sleeves with ruffled cuff. A semi-full skirt was enhanced with circles of lace trim and swept into a cathedral train bordered with Venice lace. The matching mantilla was a Camelot trimmed and bordered with re-embroidered lace attached to a nylon illusion veil of triple silk. The bride carried a crescent bouquet of white daisies and yellow roses.

Mrs. Sue Brubaker, Manheim, Pa., friend of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Laura Ross, Cumberland; Mrs. Donna (Haenftling) Cox, Newark, Del.; and Miss Linda Friend, Friendsville, all former classmates of the bride, were bridesmaids. Flower girl was Rebecca Tacket of Friendsville. All of the bride's attendants wore floor length organza polka dot of nile and white over a taffeta sleeveless gown featuring a keyhole back and matching long sleeve jacket. A deep ruffle trimmed the sleeves and hem. White ruffled picture hats completed the outfits.

Philip Buckel, Accident, brother of the groom, was best man. David Buckel, Circleville, Ohio, brother of the groom, James Griffith, Fort Monmouth, N.J., brother of the bride, and William Emory, Bittinger, served as ushers. Jeffrey Humberson, Friendsville, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Registering guests was Mrs. Darlene VanSickle, Friendsville, cousin of the bride. Distributing programs was Kaye Bittner, Friendsville.

The bride's mother was attired in a floor length pink gown with lace trim and matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a floor length mint green gown with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations and yellow roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Friendsville Fire Hall. Mrs. Bernice Rodeheaver, Friendsville, aunt of the bride, supervised the decorations, which included a large green and white canopy over the bride's table.

Mrs. Bernice Rodeheaver, Mrs. Ruby Ryan, Youngstown, O., Mrs. Delores Miller, Youngstown, O., and Mrs. Helen Griffith, Wickliffe, O., aunts of the bride, assisted with serving the guests and cutting the cake.

For a trip through the southern states of Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Kentucky the bride wore a pink-striped pantsuit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Northern High School and the University of Maryland School of Nursing. She is a registered nurse at Sacred Heart Hospital.

Also a graduate of Northern High School, Mr. Buckel served four years in the Coast Guard. He is self-employed.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Delaware, New Jersey and Georgia.

The couple resides at 102 Hillcrest Apartments, Grantsville.

THERE'S MORE TO LIFE THAN A PRETTY BALLOON!

A bouncy red or yellow balloon is the symbol the world over of good fun and happy feelings.

There's rarely a festival, a fiesta, or a fair held anywhere without the familiar balloon vendor strolling through the crowd, selling happiness for a few pennies. Parents buy them for their kids and young men present them with a flourish to their girl friends.

Just why a balloon is so much fun isn't clear, but one thing is certain — the pleasure never lasts. The air leaks out, balloons unexpectedly pop, careless fingers send them soaring away forever.

But there is a far greater pleasure to be found that will last for an eternity. It is the happy pursuit of a Christian life and you can find out all about it this Sunday — in church.

READY FOR SOLID FOOD

Lesson for July 6, 1975

Background Scripture: I Corinthians 3:1-9; 2 Peter 1:3-11.
Devotional Reading: I John 3:19-24.

There's an old story about a brilliant corporation lawyer who was traveling across the country in a Pullman train.

That night as he was preparing to settle down in his berth for the night, he was overheard to pray: "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep..."

Rev. Althouse

For all his accomplishments, the man had never grown-up spiritually. In his religious life, he is still a child, existing, as Paul puts it, "on milk."

"You need milk..."

This was one of the problems to which Paul addressed himself when he wrote his second letter to the church at Corinth. There was a great deal of immaturity in the church there. Paul observed. Pulling no punches, Paul says pointedly:

I must speak to you as babes. I fed you with milk, not solid food; for you were not ready for it, and are not even now (I Corinthians 3:2). In the Epistle to the Hebrews the same theme is sounded. You need milk, not solid food; for everyone who lives on milk is...a child. But solid food is for the mature...

Later, in the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, Paul reminds the people there that when you are a child, it is all right to act like a child. But when we grow-up, he says, we are to give up our childish ways and act with maturity.

Dr. Harry Overstreet wrote a book some years ago entitled, The Mature Mind. The thesis of the book is that most of our troubles are the result of our failure to grow-up. A psychiatrist, Hugh Missildine, has written a provocative book about Your Inner Child of the Past. Immaturity, he says is the result of letting our "inner child of the past" continue to dominate our lives in the present.

Behaving like ordinary men

Paul indicated that the Corinthians were still not ready for spiritual "solid food." The evidence for this assessment was to be found in the jealousy and strife that continued in the Corinthian churches. You cannot be mature when you continue to be dominated by these emotions.

Actually, said Paul, when they behaved this way, they were really "behaving like ordinary men" (I Corinthians 3:3). Apparently the Christian, as Paul sees it, is not supposed to be like "ordinary men." There is to be something special about him, something extraordinary. There is to be growth to a more solid type of spiritual food.

There are many Christians who are constantly fed a diet of spiritual milk. These are people who are spiritually "babes in arms," people who are not yet ready for the solid food of Jesus Christ.

Are you?

Back To Bible Doctrine

Doctrine is the life of the church. Without it there can be nothing stable. We cannot come to God without teaching, or doctrine (John 6:44, 45). We cannot have faith without it (Rom. 10:17). The doctrines one accepts is the foundation of his faith. He must have true doctrine in order to have true faith (Titus 2:1).

The early Christians were warned that false teachers would arise and that they were not to be led astray by them. I Tim. 4:1; Eph. 4:14). But there was no instantaneous, clear break from Bible doctrine. Rather it was a gradual departure over several hundred years.

By the brginning of the 19th century there was a demand for a return to Bible doctrine in everything. There was a common desire among many to teach the Bible doctrine alone. "To speak where the Bible speaks and be silent where the Bible is silent," became a watchword (I Peter 4:11).

Men may change the doctrine of the Bible, but they cannot improve on its essentials or clarity. To be honest, we must teach only what is taught in the Bible (I Cor. 4:6). This means we must respect the silence of the Scriptures as well as the statement of the Bible.

It takes no more time to learn the truth than to learn error. It is just a matter of going to the right source. Study the Bible with the same regularity and common sense you would any other great subject, and you will gain a remarkable knowledge of it. You can personally get back to Bible doctrine in all you believe and practice in religion. Thousands of people do every year.

Students Work on Forest Jobs

State forests in Western Maryland are benefiting from a number of projects being undertaken this summer by twenty-four high school young people enrolled in the Youth Conservation Corps program sponsored by the Western Region of the Maryland Forest Service, Department of Natural Resources.

Among work projects in this county are development of a scenic vista in Savage River State Forest, rebuilding fords on a trail in the same state forest; establishing game food plots in Swallow Falls State Forest; development of a hiking trail along Laurel Run in Potomac State Forest; cleaning up a campsite and roadside in Savage River State Forest; pruning young white pine plantations to lessen ravages of blister rust in Potomac State Forest; and stream clearing to provide more desirable habitat for trout along Laurel Run.

Garrett County participants in the program include Eric Wotring, David Shotwell, Dwayne Boyce, Michelle Baker, Diana Custer, and Karen Murphy, all from Southern High School; Tony Artice and Alan Skidmore, from Northern High School.

Action clinic workshops attended by local delegates included Membership Involvement, Put PR in PTA, Parents and Principals, Pulling Together or Apart, Setting New Goals for Education, and Human Relations People to People, among others.

Pinto MPG 2-Door Sedan with optional WSW tires ($30)

Mustang II MPG Hardtop

New Pinto MPG. The country's best-selling sub-compact economy car line now has a new model with higher mileage ratings at a lower price than the leading foreign car.

When you see our newest version of America's best-selling sub-compact, you're looking at a car that beats the VW Beetle in price and EPA test mileage.

You can buy the new Pinto MPG at no increase in price. Choose from a 2-Door Sedan, 3-Door Runabout or Wagon and get the same kind of standard equipment that makes the regular Pinto so popular: rack and pinion steering, 4-speed shift, overhead cam 2.3-liter 4-cylinder engine with solid state ignition, front disc brakes, and more. Best of all, Pinto MPG comes with the same type of Lifeguard Design Safety Features found in our full-size Fords including side door beams, protective bumpers, and many others.

New Mustang II MPG. Better EPA mileage ratings than any small luxury car (34mpg highway). Lower priced than any foreign competitor.

America's best-selling small luxury car now gives you the luxury of increased mileage. EPA highway tests got 34 miles to a gallon (23 mpg city) with a 4-speed manual transmission. With automatic transmission, the new Mustang II MPG got better mileage than many imports. You get: tachometer, rack and pinion steering, steel-belted radials, floor-mounted 4-speed stick—and the same low Mustang II price. Choose from three MPG models: 2-Door Hardtop, 3-Door 2+2 or the luxurious Ghia.

Mustang II MPG $3,677*
$2,575 less than Datsun 280Z
$1,124 less than Audi Fox
$896 less than Mazda RX4
$784 less than VW Dasher
$1,223 less than VW Scirocco
And $303 less than Monza Towne Coupe with its 5-speed option, which is required to achieve its best mileage results.

*Base sticker price of Mustang II MPG Hardtop excluding title, taxes, and dealer prep. Destination charge included. Price comparisons based on sticker prices. Because destination charges are extra on all cars, and dealer prep is extra on all cars except GM cars, the price difference may vary in some areas.

Pinto MPG Wagon with Squire Option and WSW tires

America's best-selling wagon now has a new high mileage model (34mpg highway). Priced lower than any foreign wagon.

Pinto MPG Wagon is EPA rated at 34 miles per gallon highway, 23 city. And you can buy it at no increase in price. Pinto Wagon already outsells every other wagon in this country, big or small. If you want good mileage in a wagon, see your Ford Dealer now.

MPG equipment:
Ford MPG's come with a 2.3-liter 2V 4-cylinder engine, 4-speed manual (or optional automatic transmission), a 3.18 axle ratio and catalytic converter. This is the equipment that produced these high results in the EPA tests.

Automatic transmission
30mpg highway...21 mpg city.
Official U.S. Government Environmental Protection Agency tests.

Unlike some competitors, Ford doesn't make you buy extra cost options for increased mileage. See your Ford Dealer.

Call To Ring Out the Bells on 4th Issued

Ring out the Bells on the Fourth of July!

Ring all the Bells for Thirteen Minutes at High Noon on Independence Day — One Minute for each of the original thirteen colonies.

Let all the Churches sound forth the good news. Let all the Bells in public buildings re-echo the Joyful Sound. Let the trains and factories blow their whistles to the Heavens High. Let the police and ambulances turn on their breath-taking sirens. Let the Shofar (Ram's Horn) blow the proclamation of Liberty as it did 3500 years ago. Let all honor the heroic patriots of July 4, 1776. Let us be Worthy to follow their train.

"Proclaim Liberty through out all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof" is inscribed on the Liberty Bell — From the Book of Leviticus Chapter 25, Verse 10.

This Fourth of July Ceremony was initiated in 1961, by the North Carolina Society of The Sons of The American Revolution. It is now a major project of the National Society, SAR for all 50 states. Nation-wide, State officials and local officials are cooperating by issuing proclamations for special observances of this Historical Day. Thousands of Americans will be placing flags on the graves of Revolutionary Soldiers. Ceremonies will honor the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Maryland signers were Samuel Chase, a jurist; William Paca, a jurist; Thomas Stone, a lawyer; and Charles Carroll of Carrollton, a lawyer. There will be patriotic programs, parades and picnics. It's the Great Day to be remembered.

Dr. Earl Core Is Gathering Historical Material In County

In search of historical material relating to Monongalia county, W. Va., Dr. Earl L. Core, Morgantown, W. Va., was a luncheon guest of Dr. and Mrs. Walter W. Price and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Ruckert on Saturday, June 28, at the Oak-Mar restaurant in Oakland.

Dr. Core appeared particularly interested in local sites having a relation to the bicentennial history he is writing under the title of "The Monongalia Story." Dr. Price said the first volume of this work was recently published by the McClain Printing company at Parsons.

Dr. Core is professor emeritus of the Department of Biology, West Virginia university, and former department head.

He was taken on a short tour following the luncheon over part of the old Interstate Road which was cut through the wilderness over Backbone Mountain in 1789 from the mouth of Savage river to the Virginia-Maryland line at what is now the Hutton-Corinth community. The party went directly from Oakland to the site of a pioneer house owned by a Mr. McCarten which stood near the present intersection of the Swanton road with Maryland Route 135 on Backbone Mountain. From there they returned through Swanton and followed the route of the old road still passable through the forest leading to Altamont over the Turkey Neck road. They then followed the ridge route of the old road past the Anchorage with its sailing vessel anchors still in the front yard, and came to Oakland over the old Deer Park-Oakland road section.

Dr. Core explained that he was including material in the second volume of his bicentennial history, "The Monongalia Story", on a German physician, Dr. Eric Bollman, who had made a journey from Cumberland and over the Interstate Road to Morgantown in 1796. He related that Dr. Bollman had mentioned the McCarten place on Backbone Mountain, Boyle's house in what is now Oakland, and after the second night of travel had breakfasted with the large and attractive family of Tim Friend, the hunter, and had dined at Dunkard Bottom on Cheat river in Preston, then Monongalia. Dr. Bollman had spent the third night of his journey with a Mr. Zinn and had arrived in Morgantown on the following day.

Mrs. Ruckert's family once owned land in the Dunkard Bottom area of Cheat river near Kingwood. The house of Mr. Boyle was at the crossing of the old road over the Little Youghiogheny river near the present Sterling Processing plant. It is very likely that Tim Friend was Augustine Friend, Sr., of the family that founded Friendsville, for he owned a cabin and land in the Swallow Falls area of Yough river and at Dunkard Bottom along Cheat river.

Dr. Core is the author and co-author of numerous books on botany including a McClain imprint, "Vegetation In West Virginia," and particularly relating to the Appalachian region. He has contributed to the Encyclopedia Americana, the World Book Encyclopedia, the Reinhold Encyclopedia of the Biological Sciences, and the McGraw-Hill Encyclopedia of Science and Technology. He has edited "Castenea," the journal of the Southern Appalachian Botanical club. Dr. Core aided in the organization of the Terra Alta Biological Station of West Virginia University, and assisted in organizing the West Virginia Chapter of the Nature Conservancy which he served as chairman in 1966.

Dr. Price said Dr. Core was pleased to learn that his personal friend, Dr. William Collins, of Terra Alta, was a former student in Terra Alta High School of Mrs. Price. Dr. Collins is now dean of the College of Arts and Science, West Virginia University.

Excerpts from "The Monongalia Story" are being published weekly by the Morgantown Sunday Dominion-Post in its Panorama magazine section. Dr. Core is also the author of "Morgantown Disciples," a history of the First Christian Church, of Morgantown. The town of Core in West Virginia was named for his family.

The scientist-historian had returned the day previous to the luncheon from a trip to Dolly Sods. He expreseed appreciation for having received the June issue from Dr. Price of "The Glades Star," quarterly of the Garrett County Historical Society, which published the first installment of the original article "The Braddock Military Road" by Robert J. Ruckert, associate editor of the magazine. Mr. Ruckert has been doing field work and research on this historic road for several years and plans to complete his text material for September publication. Dr. Core plans to return for a study of the original map which Mr. Ruckert is completing for presentation to the Garrett County Historical Society's museun in Oakland.

Due to a previous engagement Dr. Core did not have time to examine historical documents and papers owned by Mrs. Ruckert which deal with the early history of her family in Preston County where her mother was born and lived. He is also looking forward upon his return to visiting with Keith Casteel, of Oakland community, who is a specialist in muzzle loading rifle craft. Another subject interesting him as a regional historian is the account written by Iret Ashby, of Loch Lynn Heights, "The Ashby Story," which relates the fact that Mr. Ashby's great great grandparents, William Wilton and Sarah Williams Ashby, came to what is now Garrett County in 1774 and settled on land lying on the Youghiogheny river just upstream from what is now the town of Crellin. Mr. Ashby's ancestors also owned and lived on land in what was then Monongalia County, now Preston, W. Va.

Northern Wins, Southern Loses In Girls' League

Brenda Mongold was the winning pitcher as Barton topped Southern 8-5 in the Sugar and Spice League Monday evening.

Kim Keyes led the winners at the plate with a homer and two doubles. Jackie Ayres and Sherry Kitzmiller added two safeties each. Peggy Watson and Sue Eberly shared six hits for the losers.

Hosting Lonaconing at Accident, Northern ran away with a 10-1 victory.

Connie Wengard was the winning pitcher, while Betty Evans and Lisa Wengard posted two hits each for Northern.

Oakland Nine Loses 4 Games

Everett maintained its hold on first spot in the Pen Mar baseball league by defeating Cumberland 8 to 0 and 11 to 9 Sunday afternoon, but Romney kept pace with the leaders with a sweep of Oakland 9 to 1 and 10 to 5. Mt. Savage kept its hopes alive with a double victory over Keyser 9 to 4 and 9 to 3.

Basil Armstrong fired a five hitter in the opener against Oakland and in the second game came on in relief in the fourth as Romney rallied from a 5-2 deficit to gain the win.

Donnie Wilson rapped a two run double and Wayne Mathias drove in four runs as Romney scored four times in the fourth and four times in the fifth for the victory.

Chuck Ingram tripled and doubled to drive in three runs for Oakland.

In Saturday's games Fort Cumberland had two victories over Oakland 6 to 5 and 19 to 2. Paul Lewis, Charlie Shahan and Craig Bosley homered to account for the Oakland runs in the first game.

In the second game Cumberland took advantage of 11 Oakland errors and rapped 16 hits in rolling over Oakland, behind the two-hit pitching of Clarence Sines.

Insurance Firm Announces Name Change, Additions

Officers of Beall, Garner and Geare at an anniversary dinner on July 1st, announced a change in the name of the insurance firm as well as additions to the agency staff in Cumberland and Oakland and the introduction of a Financial Services Department as a new service for its clients.

The new identity of Beall, Garner, Screen and Geare adds the name of Ronald J. Screen, a Director and Treasurer of the Agency for the past 5 years. Mr. Screen was a panelist at a recent Oakland Seminar on the Pension Reform Act sponsored by the First National Bank. As General Manager of the agency's Financial Service Department, he is a frequent visitor to the Garrett County business and professional community.

In his comments on the anniversary occasion, agency president John E. Geare said that the volume of business being written by the Oakland Office had exceeded all expectations. Congratulating Russell Eddy for his production activities, he said that the staff was being further strengthened in fulfillment of the service commitment made by the firm when the office was opened thirty months ago. Mr. Geare also paid special tribute to Dorothy Francis for her effective work as Office Manager and for the personal contributions she has made as an active participant in Garrett County organizations. He extended the best wishes of the firm on her forthcoming marriage and move to Newport New, Virginia.

Page Shanklin will succeed Mrs. Francis as office Manager and assume the new post of Supervisor of the Property and Casualty Department. He will be assisted by Laurie Scott, a licensed agent, who is being transferred from the Cumberland underwriting section. Mr. Shanklin, a native of White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, began his insurance career with the Aetna Life and Casualty Company in Wheeling. From there he was transferred to the Aetna office in Martinsburg in 1966 he joined the U.S.F & G. as Manager of their Cumberland Claims office, moving on to Baltimore last February as Assistant Claim Supervisor of the Regional Branch. Mr. Shanklin is a candidate for the degree of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter and is an accredited instructor for community college classes in general insurance. He assumed his responsibilities on July 1st as an experienced administrator and insurance technician. Mr. Shanklin has purchased a home in Mitchell Manor where he will be living with his wife Nancy and infant son.

In addition to Page Shanklin and Laurie Scott as new members of the staff, the Oakland personnel includes John E. Geare, General Manager and Agency President, Russell E. Eddy, Manager of the Life, Pension and Group Department, and Maria R. Gonder, Personal Lines Underwriter. Coleman Brown, Manager of the Agency's Engineering & Safety Department and recently made a Director of the firm, will continue to assist area clients on a bi-weekly basis as a non-resident member of the Oakland service contingent.

Listen Americans!

PRESIDENT — NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

Government By Regulation

The federal government of the United States has three divisions, or branches, as outlined in the Constitution. Every Civic student knows that the Legislative branch passes the laws, the Executive branch executes or administers the laws, and the Judicial branch, or the Supreme Court ultimately decides if the laws fall within the restrictions or authorizations of the Constitution. But America now has a powerful, unelected and to a large extent, unregulated fourth branch of government. That fourth branch is made up of a vast army of agencies and bureaus who have been given the power, by Congress to govern this nation by regulation.

Regulations. . .A Planned Concept

In our files we have copies of Staff Studies by federal agencies during the depression of the 1930 from which came the present system government by regulation. Those Studies considered two approaches to government during times of crisis. They made a decision that Congress should pass a law with the goal of solving a particular problem and should authorize the money necessary to reach that goal, but should have left the "rules and regulations" of the law to the decision of "experts" in the field who would be hired by the Agency entrusted to carry out the provisions of the law.

The old method of Congress spelling out all of the provisions of laws passed was discarded as "too slow and inefficient" to meet the demands of times of "crisis." Today, federal agencies write the bills they want passed and then lobby the Congress to have them passed.

Need. . .Checks and Balances

Congress is now striving to retrieve its constitutional authority as a co-equal branch of the federal government from the Executive branch. That is as it should be. But, while Congress is at it, there should be Constitutional checks and balances put on the entire army of Agency regulations by which all Americans are now governed.

Examples. . .Regulatory Agencies

Even with only initials, space does not permit listing all the regulatory agencies with the power of freedom or jail over the taxpaying citizens of America. But, IRS, OSHA, OPSR with their sister Offices at the FTC, ICC, EPA, HUD, FCC, SEC, OMB and other departments of the federal government have the authority to pass regulations which can fine or jail a farmer, businessman, manufacturer, doctor or private taxpayer. This business of Congress permitting bureaucrat government by regulation has been extended even to the United Nations. An American businessman, doing certain business with Rhodesia in violation of the U.N. sanctions against that country could be put in jail and fined ten thousand dollars for each violation.

While Congress is getting back its constitutional authority from the White House in matters of foreign policy and the budget, let us hope it will retrieve the power to regulate the lives and business of Americans from the unelected and Civil Service protected army of bureaucrats which governs by regulation.

Ways to Provide Better Life For Elderly Sought

The Geriatric Evaluation Services of the Garrett County Health Department needs help of people to continue to provide a better life for the senior citizens of the county.

Many of our senior citizens do not require constant nursing care or institutionalization. They are capable of meeting their own personal needs. Some are even capable of doing small chores, but are not capable of living alone. For this reason foster homes are needed for some of the older adults.

Senior citizens would benefit greatly from a family environment rather than from a nursing home setting that they don't need or want, according to Dr. William Pope, county health officer.

The foster family, we feel, can also benefit from the wealth of knowledge that our senior citizens have to offer, Dr. Pope said.

Foster families and their guests will have available to them continuing supportive assistance from health and social agencies.

Many of our senior citizens have homes of their own and do not wish to give them up but would be interested in having someone live in with them, offering room and possibly board in exchange for companionship and help.

Details concerning Foster Home Care for Senior Citizens or live-in arrangements with a senior citizen can be obtained by contacting the Geriatric Evaluation Service of the Garrett County Health Department in Oakland, Maryland.

Fall of Kulumar . . .

Consulting editor of the magazine, Industry Week, issue of June 30, carried an interesting editorial on "The Fall of Kulumar." Written by Walter J. Campbell, the story compares to what is happening today.

"Historians and students long have pondered the decline and collapse of Kulumar, fabled land of prosperity and power. Often they have been perplexed. The causes for the decline and collapse were actually quite simple.

"In the beginning, Kulumar was a Democracy. Government was limited. Many public jobs were performed by volunteers. Paid public workers received modest salaries. Public expenditures were guarded carefully. But time brought sharp changes. The number of public employes grew, rates of pay increased. They caught up with and surpassed salaries of those paid for productive jobs. Young people no longer wanted productive jobs; they wanted to work for the government.

"Kulumar had switched from a Democracy to a

Commissioners Seeking Economy In All Depts.

Commissioners let it be known this week that they are requesting all departments to plan on having a surplus left over from the present year's budget. In other words, be economy minded in expenditures this year so that there will be money left over when the 1975-76 fiscal year ends next June.

Following a series of motions by Commissioner George C. Edwards, the board decided they would instruct the departments to return at least five percent of the present budget to the county coffers.

"We may be looking at a tax increase for next year, so we are trying to hold it down to a bare minimum," Mr. Edwards said.

Besides setting up the austerity program for county departments, the commissioners have also instructed county supervisors to do no hiring unless specific approval is given by the board of commissioners.

Mr. Edwards said if vacancies occur because of resignations, retirements or whatever the commissioner will look at each position to see if it is necessary that it be filled. He said the policy would apply to regular employes as well as Comprehensive Training Employment Act (CETA) workers.

Another innovation is that each county department will be required to submit a monthly financial report on operations. Mr. Edwards said if the commissioners have questions about spending they expect each department to have the necessary documentation showing that the expwnditures are warranted.

"We hope to make departments aware we are really going to scrutinize where the money is going and what they are doing with it," he said. He added that it may be that the commissioners will implement other new programs soom to further the austerity program.

The county has not had a property tax increase in five years, but the commissioners this year had a hard time holding the line on taxes because of rising costs, he concluded.

8 Taken On Drug Charges At Falls

Eight persons were arrested Tuesday night for alleged possession of marijuana in the Swallow Falls State Park.

Seven adults and one juvenile were lodged in the Garrett County Jail until they were released yesterday on their own recognizance under $1000 bond each.

Corby Found Guilty In Court Wednesday

Larry Corby was found guilty on two counts before a jury Wednesday in Circuit Court, and was taken to the Maryland penitentiary early this morning.

Corby was charged with assault and battery on Charles Sliger, Jr., assault and battery on police officer Hobart Shillingburg and interfering with a police officer.

He was found not guilty of assault and battery upon Sliger, but was found guilty on both other counts and was sentenced to two years under the jurisdiction of the Department of Correction on each count. His sentence is to run concurrently, however.

Also in a jury trial Wednesday, Craig Corby was charged with disorderly conduct and assault and battery on Charles Sliger, Jr. The court dismissed the disorderly conduct charge and he was found not guilty of the assault count.

Boat Explodes, Another Sinks During Weekend

Two boat accidents on Deep Creek Lake marred the Fourth of July weekend, when one boat exploded and burned and another sank when struck by a second vessel.

At 4:45 p.m. Saturday, July 5, a boat owned by Charles Stout, Connellsville, Pa. and operated by Gregory Stout, McHenry, was drifting in the Red Run area after it had run out of fuel. The Stout boat was struck on the right stern by one operated by Dianne Leslie, Pittsburgh, and owned by Robert Fratz, McHenry.

The Stout boat sank after the impact, but there were no injuries to occupants in either vessel.

About 8 p.m. that evening, a boat owned and operated by Louis Carazzo, Monroeville, Pa., had just been fueled up at Johnny's Bait House. Mr. Carazzo was returning to his own dock, about one thousand feet away, when the boat exploded and burned. Mrs. Alice Garazzo, a passenger in the boat, suffered burns in the mishap and was transported to Garrett County Memorial hospital where she remained a patient until July 8.

A faulty ignition system is thought to have ignited fumes in the boat from a leaking fuel system, according to Natural Resource Police who investigated.

The Deep Creek Lake Volunteer Fire Company responded to the call and doused the fire, but not before the boat had become a total loss. Damage was estimated at $1,800.

Man Sought For Robbery, Kidnapping

State Police are continuing their investigation of armed robbery and kidnapping of a 15-year old Accident youth Monday.

The incident occurred about 2:15 a.m. when William Ralph VanSickle, Accident, stopped at the Savage Amoco Service station at Accident to call his parents and tell them that his car had become inoperable.

While on the telephone police said, the youth's mother said she heard a strange voice demanding her son hang up the telephone and then she reportedly heard her son asking not to be harmed.

State Police were notified and upon their arrival it was learned a man believed in his early 30s, wearing a ski mask along with dark trousers and dark jacket had approached the victim in the booth and had demanded money at gunpoint. Police said it was believed the weapon was a .45 cal. automatic.

VanSickle reportedly gave the man his wallet which contained identification cards but no money.

The armed man then forced the victim into the trunk of the suspect's car, believed to be metallic green 1974-75 model Plymouth, possibly a Roadrunner, police said, with an unknown registration.

The man then drove north on U.S. Route 219 for some two and one-half miles where the victim was let out of the car, apparently unharmed.

Vacationer Victim of Hit And Run Driver; Youth Apprehended

A young Pittsburgh man, who was vacationing at Deep Creek Lake, was the victim of a hit and run accident early last Friday morning on the Mayhew Inn road, and died in a Uniontown hospital while being taken to Pittsburgh by Southern Rescue squad ambulance.

Yesterday state police placed Martin Patrick Anderson, 18, of Elizabeth, Pa., under arrest on charges of hit and run, or leaving the scene of a personal injury accident, speeding greater than reasonable and prudent; failing to keep to the right of center of the highway, and reckless driving. He was operating a 1970 Chevrolet pickup with Pennsylvania registration.

He was released on $250 bond, pending trial July 22.

The pick-up truck involved is now in a Cumberland garage where it is being examined for possible collision marks and other items.

Jerome Lewis Denk, Jr., 21, was taken to the Garrett County Memorial hospital by the rescue squad initially, and then prepared for transfer to Southside hospital in Pittsburgh, at the request of his parents.

He had suffered multiple fractures of the pelvis, left leg and left arm. He was having difficulty breathing when near Uniontown and the squad stopped at a Uniontown hospital where the man suffered a cardiac arrest as a result of complications, according to Dr. James H. Feaster, Jr., who attended him at the local hospital.

Denk had stopped at 12:24 a.m. Friday on the Mayhew Inn road to talk to his father, also Pittsburgh, who was in another car. They were parked eastbound on the road. As young Denk was returning to his auto, a westbound auto crossed the center of the roadway, struck the victim's car and also the victim. He was knocked over the hood of his father's car, which was parked behind his, and was thrown another 30 feet beyond it into the eastbound lane of the road. The car described by State Police as being green, possibly a pick-up, did not stop.

Trooper Dale Williams of the Garrett County detachment, was the investigating officer.

The investigation was later taken over by Corparal S. M. Russell who made the arrest yesterday.

Housing Fund of $700,000 Is Available To 3 Counties

Maryland's 3 westernmost counties are scheduled to receive $700,000 in housing assistance funds, according to a spokesman for the State Department of Economic and Community Development.

The money is part of $40.19 million which was allocated by the federal government under Section 8 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The state office will administer a $3.3 million slice of the total with the remainder being distributed by the Baltimore office of the same department.

Funds earmarked for Garrett , Allegany and Washington Counties, according to William Hunt, of the state department, will be administered en bloc, with the three-county area being handled as a single unit.

Section 8 was approved last year by Congress as a vehicle to help lower-income families, elderly residents and handicapped persons with rent payments in an effort to upgrade both life styles and neighborhoods.

Another effect of the Act, its proponents say, will be to drastically lower if not entirely eliminate the government's role in building ever costlier

Under Section 8 tenants will pay up to 25 percent of their income for rent, with the local public housing office, as the administrative unit, paying the rest. Rents will be based on figures reflecting regional cost of living rates, with the "Fair market rent" set down by HUD.

In the three county area there will be, thus far, 90 existing family units to be eligible for assistance, 80 new or rehabilitated sub-standard units for families and 100 units for the elderly or handicapped.

The Cather MacCallum production will feature Milburn Mehlhop and Lori Michutka.

For the balance of this week through Saturday night, the play, "Night Must Fall," by Emlyn Williams, will be playing at the Blue Barn.

During the season all productions will play four nights with admission $3.50 Wednesday through Friday, and $3.75 on Saturday. Children will be $1.50. Performances begin at 8:30.

The Blue Barn is located on Beckman's peninsula, Deep Creek Lake, just off Glendale Bridge road.

Choosing and Caring For Wicker Furniture

The nostalgic look of wicker furniture has made it more popular than ever. "Wicker" refers to a variety of vines, grasses and plants that are woven into quite durable and unique furniture pieces. There are four major types of wicker furniture: rattan, reed, willow and bamboo.

Rattan is a vine that grows up to 600 feet long in the jungles of Indonesia and Africa. It is strong and may be bent into intricate, lacy patterns.

Reed refers to a variety of tall, slender, grassy plants; some more sturdy than others.

Willow is a plant that comes from Europe and northern United States. It retains its natural moisture, which makes it long-lasting.

Bamboo, from tropical Asia, is a grass. It is easily identifiable by its joints and hollowness. Strong for its weight, bamboo is, however, subject to splitting.

When choosing wicker, look for quality. The frame should be sturdy and smooth with no hairy fibers visible. Clear, even color and tightly-wrapped joints and corners are marks of high quality materials. Keep in mind that delicate openwork, even of high quality, will not be as durable as closely-woven designs. Inspect the frame carefully, turning the furniture over, if necessary. Anything used for seating needs to be sturdy, with seat framing parts at least one inch thick.

Decoratively, wicker is very versatile. A light, airy look for patio or sunroom or a cozy, earthy feeling for den or family room can be achieved. It depends on the type and design of the furniture and the fabrics chosen for cushions and accessories.

Wicker is easily cleaned in spite of dust-catching open-work. Dusting with a long-bristled soft brush or vacuuming with a soft brush attachment is the general treatment needed. Spills should be taken care of promptly before material hardens or stains by wiping with a sponge wrung from sudsy water.

Wicker like humidity, since it is a product of natural materials. It is not outdoor furniture. Rain, direct sunlight and dew are damaging. It may be used on a sheltered porch or patio that is protected from weather.

Varnish or lacquer can be applied to wicker from time to time. There is also a new process that coats rattan with clear vinyl and provides higher durability. Preserve the sheen or lacquered, varnished and paint finished wicker with an occassional waxing. Be sure surface is dry before applying wax.

22 Are Killed On State Highways

Twenty-two persons lost their lives on Maryland highways last week, according to the weekly news release compiled by 1st Sergeant J. E. Harvey of the Maryland State Police. Of those killed nine were drivers, six were passengers and seven were pedestrians. At least six of the deaths, in the opinion of the investigating officers, could have possibly been prevented had seat belts been in use.

Three hundred fifty-two people have lost their lives on Maryland highways so far this year. Seventy-six, or 22 percent of those killed have been pedestrians. The summer months bring an influx of pedestrians, many in the form of bicyclists and hitchhikers.

Persons killed through July 6 totaled 352 compared to 327 for the same period last year.

Bureaucracy. New agencies and bureaus were created and swarms of Bureaucrats were sent out to harass citizens. Naturally the output of needed goods and services declined. The cost of government kept going up. The Kulumese were now paying about half of what they earned to the Tax Collector.

Then Bureaucrats discovered benefits. Of course they long had had myriad holidays, generous vacations, sick leave, health care, and better than ordinary pensions. But there was more to be had. They proposed, and the lawmakers known as OCOSA (Oversized Committee of Silly Asses) passed inflation escalators for the pensions of public workers. They then added one percent for each adjustment period. OCOSA members were public employes, too.

"Then Bureaucrats said 'We make money on inflation, let's have lots of it.' And they did. Appetite for public largesse grew among Bureaucrats and Lawmakers. The Head Crier spent 350,000 Kuklas for a kitchen in his office and imported a Swiss chef. The Head Crier became so fat that he could hardly wobble out to cry the happenings. Lawmakers enlarged their staffs and paid clerks four times as much as a skilled Kulumese worker could earn. And so it went. The burden of expense for nonproductive functions became so great that Kulumar simply sank."

Does all of this have a familiar look?

DAV Service Unit To Be In Oakland July 21

Fifteen Maryland communities will be visited July 21 to August 8, by the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) fleet of mobile Field Service Units. Eighteen traveling DAV service offices, housed in specially-equipped 26-foot GMC motor vans, are on a year-long nation-wide tour of the United States.

Purpose of the tour is to carry the many free services provided by the DAV to wartime disabled veterans and their dependents who live some distance away from Veterans' Administration Regional Offices. Qualified DAV National Service officers, most of whom are Vietnam era disabled veterans will be on board the Field Service Units to assist wartime disabled veterans and their families in their claims for Federal and State benefits to which they are entitled by law.

DAV officials stress that disabled veterans of all wars, as well as their dependents, are urged to visit the DAV Field Service Units to discuss any problems they may have. But particular emphasis is being placed on disabled veterans of the Vietnam conflict, because such a large number are not taking advantage of all of the benefits which they have coming to them, especially in the areas of education and vocational rehabilitation.

Cooperating with the national organization of the Disabled American Veterans in bringing the Field Service Units to Maryland are the Department of Maryland DAV and DAV Chapters throughout the state.

The Field Service Units will be open for business from 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m., unless otherwise noted and will be in Oakland on Monday, July 21, corner of Second and Liberty streets.

Insurance FACTS

In order to receive licenses, insurance companies must meet specific standards which are often higher than those set for general business organizations. Licensers must be sure that a new company will be solvent, competent, and be operated with integrity. Starting in the latter half of the nineteenth century, special incorporation statutes were passed in most states, and this is the basis of the method of formation for most insurance companies.

GONDER INSURANCE AGENCY, 203-205 South 2nd St., 334-3343, is pledged to further and maintain the highest ethical standards of the insurance industry. We sell protection, not policies. We have served many people in Garrett County, and these people are our best advertisement. We are known for our fast claim service. Be sure and insure, insure with GONDER INSURANCE AGENCY!

Hint for The Week: Wash plastic sponges in your washing machine to clean and freshen them.

PONDER AWHILE

These thoughts are directed to only taxpayers. Shortly, you will receive your tax bill for real estate. Note the actual rate did not go up!! But for some of you the assessment did in fact go up again. The actual budget went up from 5½ million to almost 6½ million. i.e. up about 18% depending upon the way you want to use statistics. You may hear the excitement of No Tax Hike and believe it if you are not really listening. But when the budget is increased 18% that's an increase. My dear taxpayer, Only you will ever slow spending by any government. Did you know that about ⅓ of the people were for the Declaration of Independence!!!! Do not be alarmed by minority opinion. It is usually of better quality. Anyone can jump upon a band wagon.

Now let's look at several facts. The Garrett County Bus System. Make no mistake; I have talked to 25 taxpayers who advised me that it is a mistake. I agree. Let's stop it now before we spend more money trying to force people to ride. It does help some and those who are helped will not enjoy seeing it go, but we would be better if we sent out a private taxi to pick them up. We must regain fiscal sanity before we lose the will to survive.

° ° ° ° ° ° ° °

Look at education: 2.4 million to 2.9 million, an increase of 20%. Now stop. Don't think I'm against education. I'm for education but money doesn't solve all problems. Money only hires more people to tear out walls, hire more supervisors and buy more cars to ride around in. Money won't hire a good caliber teacher who has good morals.

° ° ° ° ° ° ° °

Before the next election — any election — find out who is running — what he stands for — and get other people into action. If you don't care about being taxed fine, but if you do, then after you're finished pondering — Go out and talk to your present Government heads, tell them to slow down, tell them to consider reasonable expenditures (Bus system is not reasonable) tell them you're taxed too much. Note if they get 10 letters from people who ride the bus and there are 500 People who want it canceled but they don't write, then you'll find that 10 people are going to get a bus system. ACT MY FRIEND, before you too are amohg the tax recipients instead of the tax payers.

Fireworks Display

The Moran family, Westernport, presented a fireworks display again on Deep Creek Lake in the Green Glade section last Friday evening.

A large number of persons who have summer homes on the lake, and residents of the area viewed the extensive display. A large group of boats were at anchor in the lake off the point where the display was held and red, blue, green and white lights of the boats presented an unusual sight. Boat operators would sound their horns after each salvo of rockets burst in the sky above the lake.

Nixon broke his long silence on Watergate the end of June.

Wildlife Group Issues All Deer Damage Permits

The Maryland Wildlife Administration now has the responsibility for issuing all Deer Damage Control Kill Permits. Permits for deer damage will be issued by the District Wildlife Manager Ed Golden, or in special instances, by Regional Manager Bill Harman.

All permits must be issued at the time the crop damage is occurring. No permits will be issued to compensate for damage which occurred earlier in the year.

If the permit allows more than one deer to be killed for control of the damage, the landowner may keep one deer and the remaining animals must be picked up by a representative of the Wildlife Administration.

Five Educators Participate In St. Conference

Five Garrett County Educators were selected to participate in the Early Childhood Education Summer Institute, sponsored by the Maryland State Department of Education, Division of Compensatory, Urban and Supplementary Programs which was held at Loyola Retreat House, in Charles County, June 29 to July 3.

Purpose was to promote articulation between pre-kindergarten and first grade in all of the Public Schools in Maryland, acccording to Ernest Spoerlein, one of those selected.

Articulation in this sense means educators and those people who work with children will coordinate their efforts to provide a smooth transition for 4, 5, and 6 year olds as they move through their total learning program, Mr. Spoerlein explained.

Garrett County was one of eight counties asked to make a presentation. Mr. Spoerlein, Title I Director, Mrs. Charleen Evans Thomas, Principal of Route 40 School, Mrs. Carolyn Miller, Mrs. Barbara Flinn and Mrs. Joan Whetsell, Title I Early Childhood Resource Teachers, presented a view of articulation as it currently exists in the Garrett County Schools curriculum.

Mrs. Thomas explained how the Route 40 School achieved articulation through a non-graded approach with 4 to 8 year old children.

Mr. Spoerlein, Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. Whetsell presented an overview of the curriculum with emphasis on body management and how the team approach is used to implement this program.

Mrs. Flinn served as recorder, while Mrs. Thomas and Mr. Spoerlein served as leaders of groups who were preparing a position paper on articulation.

This preliminary position paper on articulation, which includes alternative programs and methods for implementing articulation, is to be distributed throughout Maryland.

Two Counties Cut Income Tax Rate

Two Maryland counties have notified State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein of reductions in their local income tax rates for the tax year 1975. Calvert County's rate is now 20 percent of the State tax liability and Caroline County's rate is now 40 percent. Both counties had 50 percent rates last year.

Employers were authorized to begin withholding at the new rates July 1, 1975. The difference between the old and new rates for the first six months of 1975 will be refunded when taxpayers file their 1975 State income tax returns.

Maryland's 23 counties and Baltimore City must certify a local income tax rate to Comptroller Goldstein each year. The rates must be at least 20 percent and no more than 50 percent of the State income tax.

"We return the local tax money to each of the twenty-three counties and Baltimore City on a quarterly basis, eliminating a great administrative problem for the subdivisions," Mr. Goldstein said.

Twenty-one counties and Baltimore City have certified to the Comptroller rates identical to those in effect during the 1974 tax year. The local income tax rates for 1975 include Garrett County with 50 percent, same as last year.

Many of us grew up with pictures of caravans crossing the sands of the Sahara. Those in the West know that the desert has many faces.

One of our common mistakes in life is to assume that trees make a forest, flowers a garden, clothes a man . . . that appearances promise reality.

One of the invaluable influences of Christianity upon society has been its distinction between the facade and the truth. Christ taught that men must be known by their faith.

Lack of spiritual concern is the surest way to make the world a desert of trees . . . a society of people without a sense of responsibility.

Wastelands cry out for reclamation. The Church Christ founded is reclaiming our society for Him. You need its Message.

READY FOR SOLID FOOD

Lesson for July 6, 1975

Background Scripture: I Corinthians 3:1-9; 2 Peter 1:3-11.
Devotional Reading: I John 3:19-24

There's an old story about a brilliant corporation lawyer who was traveling across the country in a Pullman train.

That night as he was preparing to settle down in his berth for the night, he was overheard to pray:

"Now I lay me down to sleep. I pray the Lord my soul to keep. . . ."

Rev. Althouse

For all his accomplishments, the man had never grown-up spiritually. In his religious life, he is still a child, existing, as Paul puts it, "on milk."

"You need milk. . . ."

This was one of the problems to which Paul addressed himself when he wrote his second letter to the church at Corinth. There was a great deal of immaturity in the church there, Paul observed. Pulling no punches, Paul says pointedly:

I must speak to you as babes. I fed you with milk, not solid food; for you were not ready for it, and are not even now (I Corinthians 3:2). In the Epistle to the Hebrews the same theme is sounded: You need milk, not solid food; for everyone who lives on milk is . . . a child. But solid food is for the mature. . . .

to grow. In Ephesians we are told to "grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ" (4:15). In Philippians, Paul says the same thing in different words: "I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (3:14). And the Apostle John admonishes us to "be like him" (I John 3:2).

Upon receiving that kind of admonition, some people shake their heads in either disbelief or resignation. "But who can be like Christ?" they ask. "He was the Son of God."

The impossible dream?

If we concentrate on the divinity of Christ to the exclusion of his humanity, we exalt him into irrelevance. We will see him as so far above us that he can have little or no influence upon our lives.

Yet, as someone has said, "Jesus became what we are, so that we might become what he is." In him we find, not some "impossible dream," but the example of what human nature can become. Jesus is the Son of God, but he also came to share that sonship with us. The Apostle says, "Beloved, we are God's children now" (I John 3:2). In Galatians, Paul speaks of us as "adopted" son (4:5) and again in Romans 8:23.

So, in Jesus, God showed all men what he created them to be and challenged us to grow in that direction. It is not so much a matter of arriving at the goal, but always being sure we are moving toward it. As Paul puts it: Brethren, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but one thing I do, forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. (3:13,14.)

It is not enough to grow older; we are called to grow-up as well.

BACK TO BIBLE ORGANIZATION

There is a minimum of organization in the New Testament church in order that there may be a maximum of work. Only those things essential to the work and function of the church are given to it. Intricate organizations would stifle the work God has for the church to do.

In the ministry of the word during New Testament times we find: apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors (elders) and teachers (Eph. 4:11). The apostles and prophets received the word from God (Eph. 3:5) and gave it to faithful men (Tim. 2:2). Evangelists, elders and teachers took the revealed word and taught it to others (Titus 2:15).

Church organization and government by the disciples applied only to local congregations. In the organization of the New Testament church there was no difference in the elders, bishops and pastors of the church. These words all applied to the same man, each carrying its own significance about their work: 1. elder: one of age, experience; 2. bishop: an overseer; 3. pastor: shepherd, feeder of the flock. These men had the oversight of a local congregation. Also, there was always a plurality of elders in each congregation when organized (Acts 14:23; Titus 1:5).

The evangelist, deacons, teachers and other members of the congregation, working under the oversight of the elders, carry out the mission of the church which is the proclamation of the Gospel.

The church today can function best with no more organization than the church had in the first century. This will magnify Christ as the head of ALL things to the church (Eph. 1:22, 23). The congregation should have elders to rule, evangelists to preach, deacons to serve and teachers to teach.

Allegiance to Christ demands that we organize the church in the way set forth in the New Testament. It is not only possible — it is practical!

History of the George Washington Gavel Given

PRESIDENT GEORGE WASHINGTON LAYS THE CAPITOL CORNERSTONE SEPTEMBER 18TH, 1793

July 12, of this year the marble headed gavel used by President George Washington on September 18, 1793, to lay the cornerstone of the United States capitol building, will again be used to lay the cornerstone of the Paul B. Naylor Masonic Temple, corner of Wilson and Center Streets in Oakland.

This gavel was prepared for President Washington for the purpose of laying the U.S. Capitol cornerstone. Following the ceremonies it was presented to Potomac Lodge No. 9, Georgetown, afterward known at Potomac Lodge No. 43, and now Potomac Lodge No. 5, District of Columbia, in whose possession it presently remains.

This historic gavel, its head made of the same Maryland marble used in the interior of the original U.S. Capitol building, and its handle of a dark, native American cherry of unique grain, was made by John Duffy, who also made the other Masonic implements used by George Washington, charter master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22, in laying the capitol cornerstone. John Duffy, reputedly a member of Fredericksburg Lodge No. 4 of Virginia (Washington's mother lodge), was a silversmith by trade and was married to a daughter of President Washington's gardener.

The day's program involved elaborate Masonic ceremonies. As president, war hero, and acting grand master of Maryland's grand lodge, Washington had the lead role, supported by a uniformed and decorated cast from the Alexandria Volunteer artillery and Masonic lodges of Maryland, Virginia, and the District.

Upon the Procession's arrival at the Washington, wearing a Masonic apron reported to be handiwork of Mrs. General Lafayette, conduted the ceremony. After laying the cornerstone, he placed on it a silver plate marking the date as the 13th year of American independence, the first year of his second term, and the year of Masonry 5793.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies President Washington gave the silver trowel he used to his own lodge, and presented the gavel to the Master of Potomac Lodge No. 9, of Maryland, Valentine Beitzel, a town councilman and merchant of Georgetown, whose members were present and participating in the ceremony.

The first recorded use of the gavel after the capitol cornerstone was August 22, 1824, when it was used to lay the cornerstone of the city hall of the District. Since then it has been used to lay the cornerstone of many public buildings throughout the eastern part of the United States, and for other public and Masonic ceremonies of an historical nature.

The gavel has been used by the following presidents: James K. Polk, cornerstone of Smithsonian building May 1, 1847; Millard Fillmore, cornerstone of U. S. capitol extension July 4, 1851; James Buchanan, dedication of equestrian statue of George Washington February 22, 1860; William McKinley, George Washington Centennial observance, Mt. Vernon, December 14, 1899; Theodore Roosevelt, at the celebration of the sesqui-centennial date on which General Washington received his Master Mason degree November 2, 1902; cornerstone of house office building April 16, 1906; cornerstone of Masonic Temple, 13th street, N. W., June 8, 1907; William H. Taft, cornerstone of All Souls Unitarian church, February 13, 1913; Warren G. Harding, cornerstone of Washington Victory Memorial, November 14, 1921; Herbert Hoover, cornerstone of Department of Commerce, June 10, 1929; cornerstone of Department of Labor, December 15, 1932; Harry S. Truman, centennial observance of cornerstone laying of Washington monument July 1, 1948; Dwight D. Eisenhower, cornerstone of new U.S. Capitol Extension July 4, 1959.

On October 19, 1957, the gavel was used by Queen Elizabeth II in laying cornerstone of the addition to the British Embassy.

In 1922 the gavel was placed in a specially constructed box in the deposit vault of the present Riggs National Bank, Wisconsin avenue, Georgetown, for safe keeping, where it remains at all times when not in use.

The gavel is removed from the vault only upon presentation of a resolution of the lodge, under seal, and accompanied by three members appointed by the Master for its safe keeping. This gavel has been used on numerous cornerstone layings not mentioned in the preceding list, being used by numerous grand masters to lay cornerstones for churches, Masonic temples and other structures.

J. Thomas Middleton, grand master of Masons of Maryland, will use the gavel to lay the cornerstone of the Paul B. Naylor Masonic temple of Oakland Lodge No. 192, which was originally chartered as Oakland Lodge No. 133, on May 11, 1868, with Patrick B. Hamill, as its first master. It was re-chartered May 10, 1892 as Oakland Lodge No. 192, under which charter it presently operates.

Garrett County Playhouse: The First 20 Years

By Milburn Mehlhop
veteran Playhouse Actor

Part II

When, in September of 1954, Gene learned from Jane Humbertson that sponsorships was definite he set about scheduling a season of productions and picking an acting company. These he took from among his students, three of whom had already graduated. With the aid of friends in Albuquerque the Yells prepared and mailed eighty-five hundred brochures. It was hoped that the mailing would prompt advance sales suffficient to subsidize the company until box-office receipts could begin to carry the operation, and in addition that intangible source there were generous donations from Sidney Hertzmark of Albuquerque and from Edwin Watson of Fairmont, West Virginia. At the end of the first season Gene managed to repay his benefactors and beyond his own personal investment the Garrett County Playhouse cleared eleven dollars. He says this must constitute a record of some kind.

In the summer of 1955 the acting company arrived at their temporary home, Hemlock Hollow — people who had proved their acting skills but who weren't certain what kind of pioneers they'd make. Nobody knew what he'd let himself in for but the excitement and the enormous amount of work ahead kept anybody from thinking about it much. They rehearsed outdoors at the hollow unless the weather was against it, had dinner at Parson's Restaurant in Loch Lynn and spent the evenings turning the Arden Boat Club into a theatre.

By now the county was aware that something was up and a number of residents set opening night aside to have a look at it. At the end of an arduous week the company came face-to-face with the patrons, all anxious for some excitement, in Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit." From the first laugh in the show a sense of possession seemed to steal over the audience and by the final curtain it was clear that Garrett County was very proud of its theatre. "Blithe Spirit" was a huge success, and support was flowing by the end of the week like blood where one thought there'd been only stones.

The Years Between

As is often the case, the history of the Garrett County Playhouse seems all to have happened in the dim past; leaving little chance of excitement or adventure to be found in it. Nothing, of course, could be less true. New actors walk onto the stage each season and develop their skills literally from minute to minute in full view of the audience. One-week stock is among life's more harrowing experiences, in that two plays are always in the works simultaneously (one rehearsing, one performing) and in that the actor is expected to find a suitable, if not superior, performance level in a week's time.

Committees spend hundreds of hours each week gathering properties and costumes and set-dressings and, when something cannot be found, being sometimes wildly ingenious about it.

Charles Briner of Oakland has long been advance man for the playhouse, seeing to the Christmas subscription sales, printing of brochures and programs, even finding local talent to fill out particularly large casts. He has found us reviewers (Polly Hanst, Dr. E. I. Baumgartner, Aza Stanton, W. Shelby Walthall, Kathy Gonder Funderbunk to name a few) and reviewed plays himself on occasion.

C. W. Englander is certainly among the very staunch supporters of the playhouse, as well as of every other worthwhile venture in the county. He's been known to review many a play over a bottle of cough syrup.

And all this time the performers are arriving. They are generally divisitle into two categories: those who learn and move on into the world of theatre and those who are horrified by the whole thing. It is an invaluable experience for an actor, director or playwright — a rarity among non-academic theatres in which a relatively untried actor faces the only critic that matters: a live audience.

With the exception of "A Lovely Light" with Dorothy Stickney, all the productions at the playhouse have been produced with a company of professional and semi-professional actors who work on an equal basis for the length of a season. In the case of "A Lovely Light," Gene managed to book the one-woman show during its pre-Broadway tour as a special treat for theatre-goers on the fifth Anniversary opening. Though the show was an artistic triumph (as of course it proved to be in New York) the theatre lost its shirt and a pair of sox. In fact, the Garrett County Playhouse has only just managed to pay for itself for all these years — Gene himself went off the payroll after only three weeks when he realized the playhouse could not afford his services.

There is a point to all this — after all, nobody bothers to chronicle the history of anything unless there's a reason for it. The Garrett County Playhouse would not be worth talking about unless somebody had believed in it and supported it for the first twenty years. There wouldn't be all those great stories — some printable — for patrons to remember during the off season. It's not just a good thing that young actors get audience and that audiences get theatre — these days, it's a miracle.

Others were taken to Meyersdale, Pa., and Keyser, W. Va., hospitals, and Grantsville Health Center. In all, 14 persons received varying degrees of injury.

Maureen Deborah Overton, RD, Swanton, was treated and released from the Garrett County Hospital following a one-car wreck on Paradise Point road very early last Friday. She was proceeding south and noticed that she started to slide on loose gravel. The car went over a slight embankment and struck a tree. Tfc. Dale K. Williams made no charges.

About 1 a.m. the same day, Harry Bruce Simmons, Severn, was slightly injured in a one-car mishap on the Kitzmiller road near Pee Wee road. He was traveling south when as he stated the left front tire blew out. The car went out of control, struck an embankment with the right fender, spun around and came to rest facing south. Tfc. Williams investigated this one also.

Evelyn W. Easton, Cumberland, operator of the car, was taken to the Potomac Valley Hospital, Keyser, as was her passenger, Irene Fleegle, Corriganville, following a one-car mishap on Md. 135 just east of the Savage River bridge last Friday afternoon. She was traveling west on Rt. 135, ran off the shoulder when the wheel dropped onto the railroad tracks at the crossover. Tfc. Ronald Lewis investigated.

Elgin Layton, Bayard, W. Va., was slightly injured in a two-car mishap just past noon last Thursday on Md. 135 at old 219. He was one of four passengers in a jeep station wagon driven by Mary Louise Layton, also of Bayard. Rebecca Ann Winters, Eglon, W. Va., was pulling from a stop sign and failed to notice the Layton car westbound on Rt. 135 and pulled into the path of it. Tfc. G. D. Broadwater charged Rebecca Winters with failing to stop and yield the right-of-way.

Martin A. Durst, Salisbury, Pa., was taken to the Meyersdale (Pa.) Community Hospital following a one-car accident on the Springs road just south of the Md.-Pa. State line last Wednesday evening. He was traveling south at a high rate of speed, and lost control of the car. It then went off the roadway, came back, slid off again, and struck a utility pole, the mail box and fence of Milton Bender. Tfc. C. D. Skidmore charged him with reckless driving.

The previous afternoon Marie D. Kolb, a passenger in the car driven by Elmer L. Kolb, both of RD 2, Accident, was also taken to the Meyersdale hospital following a two-car mishap on U.S. 219 just north of the Accident town limits. Kolb was traveling south on 219 and started to make a right turn into a private drive. F. Gardner Gillen, Gladshaw, Pa., following, failed to reduce speed and struck the rear of the Kolb car. Tfc. Skidmore charged Gillen with failing to reduce speed.

In an accident late last Wednesday on U.S. 50 at the Potomac River bridge, Lorraine Wolf, Warfield, W.Va, was injured and later treated and released from Garrett County Hospital. She was riding in the car driven by David E. Stephens, Star Route 1, Oakland. Memorial hospital following a one-car wreck on Harvey's Peninsula road just south of North Glade road the evening of June 28. James F. Dean, Oakland, another passenger, and Phillip A. Tharp charged him with exceeding the posted speed limit.

A few non-injury accidents were noted.

Park Rangers Get Enforcement Training

Maryland State Park rangers have added law enforcement training to their nature related outlook in serving the public.

Superintendent Perry Edmiston, of New Germany State Park, and Tom Gowans, of Deep Creek Lake State Park were among the 83 rangers who received achievement certificates from Robert Van Wagoner, executive director of the Maryland Police Training commission; Lt. Edward Clark, Maryland State Police academy; and William Parr, director of the Maryland Park Service.

Rangers completed an eleven week course format that covered classes in race relations, drug abuse, first aid, patrol, and various investigational techniques as taught by state police instructors.

The training emphasizes the unique responsibilities of park rangers and the importance of such training in their overall philosophy while striving to serve the public in every way, Van Wagoner explained.

Baltimore Sun Points Up Housing Project Defects

An article in Monday's edition of Baltimore's newspaper, "The Sun," listed problems of the Western Maryland federally subsidized apartments, including the Bradley Manor project at Oakland.

According to the article, all projects, including Halfway Manor in Hagerstown and Old Towne Manor in Cumberland, suffer from construction and design defects, as cited on federal inspection reports.

The writer, Nancy J. Schwerzler, said all three developments are the stepchildren of ownership syndicates of wealthy businessmen, doctors and lawyers headed by Morton T. Sarubin, and each year these investor-owners reap tax-shelter profits from the western Maryland project.

Because the Housing and Urban Development agency conceived a project designed for moderate-income families and placed it in an area of widespread poverty here, one quarter of the apartments at Bradley Manor are empty. Area families cannot afford the $129 and $147 rents, with a pending $30-a-month increase.

Problems with the houses themselves are rampant. Boise Cascade Corporation supplied prefabricated modules which sport cracks and water damage inside and out; gutters and downspouts have been removed on the exterior in preparation for "corrective measures" so that now pools of water stand outside the buildings; exterior wooden panels have peeled and been replaced with color-mismatched panels; erosion, due to persistent drainage problems, has brought threats from county officials of a $1,000 a day fine unless the conditions are corrected.

Poor design and construction of the housing units is the largest cause of the water leakage problems. Flat roof designs allow snow and ice to collect and pour off both outside and inside apartments.

Potholes, too, were mentioned as a persistent problem throughout the driveway and parking areas.

The article also noted that had HUD insured and subsidized the project under section 221 (d), 3, tenants of all 100 apartments could have received rent-supplement assistance. However, under this program, the owners would have received only a 3 percent interest rate mortgage, while the current program under Section 236 provides a government subsidy of all but one percent of the mortgage interest rate.

Each year, the article concluded, the three western Maryland Developments show a net loss on their fiscal balance sheets, providing a tax-shelter profit to the upper income owners.

Galaxy Distribution

Latest observations of the skies indicate that all galaxies are not grouped together in clusters, but that there are many galaxies randomly distributed throughout the universe. No current models of the universe predict this phenomenon. The distribution was discovered by E. Turner and J. R. Gott who were cataloging galaxy clusters. This discovery may have an impact on the understanding of the shape, structure and evolution of the universe.

Cochran Family To Perform at Fair

Little John and the Cochran family, ranging in ages from seven through eighteen, excluding Dad, a band of musicians, have been engaged to present a program at the Garrett County Fair this year.

They will give two performances on Wednesday evening, August 6, at 7 and 9 o'clock.

The group plays "bluegrass" style music, using no electrified instruments. The group includes Little John, fiddle, age 10; Linda Jo, fiddle, age 7; Richard Lee, banjo, age 14; Bert Steven, mandolin, age 15; and James Franklin, bass, age 18. Daddy Frank plays the guitar.

They are listed as the most promising young bluegrass band in the state of West Virginia. They are members of the WWVA jamboree in Wheeling and have performed with a number of artists in various fields of music. The group also has done recordings, and has completed the first long play album.

The group has performed at dinner and luncheon engagements for offices of the state department at Charleston, and represented West Virginia in New York City for the Travel Department of the Department of Commerce. The group also performed in Washington for the National Alliance of Businessmen's Organization.

Senior Citizens Prepare For Picnic

Some 300 County Senior Citizens are expected to participate in a county-wide picnic Wednesday, July 16, at Herrington Manor State Park.

The picnic and numerous activities were arranged by Garrett County Community Action Agency's Senior Citizens Program, the local Commission on Aging, and Herrington Manor State Park officials.

Park Superintendent Charles Thomas indicated Senior Citizens would be admitted free to the park and would have use of all facilities.

Programs have been organized by park officials and entertainment will be provided by a band organized by Ray "Simon" Cogley.

Must Register For Fair Day

Senior Citizens were being reminder that the deadline for registering for the County Fair Day was Monday, July 14.

Fair Day will be observed Friday, August 8, with reduced admission to the grounds, free entertainment, horseshoe pitching contest, a spelling bee, a free luncheon at the Crellin United Community Services booth and other activities.

Registration may be made at one of the three hot meals centers, Crellin, Jennings or Kitzmiller or at the Garrett County Community Action Committee office at 360 West Liberty Street, Oakland.

The reason for reservations is because of the need to know how many meals to prepare.

To Conduct Family Crusade

"Journeying with Christ" is the theme for the Family Crusade to be conducted at the Full Gospel Assembly of God Church in Deer Park July 13 through 18, at 7 o'clock p.m.

It is being held in lieu of a Vacation Bible school. Evangelists are Rev. Gerald and Rebecca Wagner.

Mrs. Wagner is the former Rebecca Blubaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blubaugh, Potomac Park, and a graduate of Allegany High in 1963. Rev. and Mrs. Wagner have taught in a private Christian school in Mobile, Ala., the past year and plan to travel full time in the evangelistic ministry.

A special feature is the full color filmstrips centered around adventures of animal characters to portray the teachings of Christ.

The crusade is climaxed Friday evening with the crowning of a king and queen, the two who bring the most visitors, and honoring all who complete the memory program. Rev. and Mrs. Wagner are shown with their son in the photo.

Please explain the Educational Opportunity Grant program — someone told me my son may be eligible for financial help under this program?

You are probably referring to the Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant Program which is for students of exceptional financial need, who without the grant, would be unable to continue their education. Your son may be eligible to apply if he is enrolled at least half-time as an undergraduate or vocational student in an educational institution participating in the program. Detailed information may be obtained by writing the Maryland Higher Education Loan Corporation, 2100 Guilford Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland 21218.

Does President Ford have any congressional authority to ensure that Turkey will implement strong controls to prevent the flow of heroin to the U.S.?

Under the Foreign Assistance Act Amendments of 1971 the President may suspend all assistance to Turkey.

Does the government publish any literature on bicycle safety?

The Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) has published a free fact sheet on selection uses and maintenance of bicycles. For a copy, write to: Bicycle Safety, CPSC, Washington, D.C. 20207, or phone the agency's toll free number 800 638-2666.

I recently read that the government has approved money for the construction of bicycle paths in Maryland. Is this true?

Last year the U.S. Department of Transportation approved $24 million in Federal-aid highway funds for the construction of bicycle and pedestrian facilities in the U.S. Approximately $2 million was earmarked for the State of Maryland.

Whatever happened to the funds set aside for the Rural Development Act — funds that were authorized by Congress last October?

Early last year, Congress authorized $260 million for the development of rural America. According to the Agriculture Department these funds were allocated to achieve the three major goals established by the legislation: (1) $200 million in guaranteed loans to encourage jobs by promoting the establishment of business and industry in small towns and rural areas (2) $10 million in grants to assist municipalities in attracting industry, and (3) $50 million in loans for community facilities that would improve rural growth.

Open House Scheduled

There will be an open house at the Pleasant View Baptist church on route 219, on Sunday, July 13, from 2 to 4 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Anna Miller's 90th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Miller was a resident of Deer Park for a number of years but at present is residing with Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Harvey, Sr., route 2, Oakland. Friends and relatives are invited. They are requesting that no gifts be brought.

The divorce rate showed a rapid rise in the U.S. last year.

WHEREAS, the organization for civil defense in Garrett County has been known as the Garrett County Civil Defense and Emergency Planning Agency,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Garrett County Civil Defense and Disaster Preparedness Agency shall be established and continued as the Garrett County Civil Defense and Emergency Planning Agency hitherto existing, and

SAVE THIS PAPER! IT'S YOUR PREMIUM LIST FOR 1975 GARRETT COUNTY FAIR

Welcome To The 1975 Garrett County Agricultural Fair

The Officers and Directors of the Garrett County Fair take great pleasure in extending to you a most cordial invitation to exhibit, participate in, and attend the 1975 Fair.

We would like to have you and your friends be with us this year; whether or not you have been with us in the past. It is through your interest and loyal support that the Garrett County Fair has grown, and again we thank you for your continued patronage at the Fair, and your cooperation in making it a grand success.

The Fair is a never ending educational project for young people as well as adults. It is a learning process that goes on and on.

The Fair is an excellent method of realizing social benefits and good times during our five days of activity.

We are very happy with the progress the Garrett County Fair has made during the past seventeen years. It has progressed far beyond our expectations, when we were planning to organize a Fair. This has been due to the cooperation and work of the people in Garrett County as a whole.

We would like at this time to thank the advertisers whose advertising appears in the Premium List, and the Commercial exhibitors. Without their cooperation this fine book and the Fair would not be possible, and we acknowledge their assistance by taking the opportunity to urge you to patronize them whenever possible.

We express our sincere appreciation to the 4-H Clubs, FFA Clubs, Farm Groups, Retail Merchants, and the County Commissioners for their support.

Certainly last but not least we owe so very much to the Maryland State Fair Board for its continued financial support to our Fair.

Robert L. Glotfelty, President

I. Jams, Butters, Marmalades, Conserve $2.50 $2.00 $1.50

Jams are usually made of one fruit, crushed or jammed together into a mass of an even, soft consistency thick enough to spread easily or be divided into portions. Juices are not separated from fruits and are of a jelly like consistency.

Conserves are a jam-like product made of two or more fruits. They often contain nuts or raisins. They are made of very small whole or pieces of fruit cooked or jammed into a mixture of an even, soft consistency, the liquid jelly-like in character. Name and flavor of the conserve is that of the dominant fruit.

Fruit butters are smooth, even, fine grained mixtures of medium soft consistency, without seeds or small pieces of fruit and with no evidence of juice as a separate liquid. Butters are less sweet than jams, preserves, marmalades, or conserve—usually about ½ to ⅔ lb. sugar to 1 lb. of fruit.

1. Apple Butter
2. Pear Butter
3. Peach Jam
4. Grape Conserve and/or marmalade
5. Blackberry Conserve

Preserves are made usually of one fruit, but more than one may be used. The fruit, whole or in large pieces, is cooked in a syrup until clear and transparent, tender, firm, crisp, and well plumped. The shape of fruit is retained. Juice is of a thick syrupy consistency completely surrounding the fruit. In general, ¾ lb. sugar to 1 lb. of fruit is used.

FFA FFA

The FFA Creed

I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds — achievements won by the present and past generations of agriculturists; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come to us from the struggles of former years.

I believe that to live and work on a good farm, or to be engaged in other agricultural pursuit, is pleasant as well as challenging; for I know the joys and discomforts of agricultural life and hold an inborn fondness for those associations which, even in hours of discouragement, I cannot deny.

I believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and think clearly, with such knowledge and skill as I can secure, and in the ability of progressive agriculturists to serve our own and the public interest in producing and marketing the product of our toil.

I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining; in the life abundant and enough honest wealth to help make it so — for others as well as myself; in less need for charity and more of it when needed; in being happy myself and playing square with those whose happiness depends upon me.

I believe that rural America can and will hold true to the best traditions of our national life and I can exert an influence in my home and community which will stand solid for my part in that inspiring task.

Solzhenitsyn Warns...

Alexander Solzhenitsyn, exiled Russian author has issued a stern warning to the west. He believes that "detente" is the new Soviet code word for Krushchev's old boast, "We will bury you." He warns that there is no hope of successfully coming to terms with the regime that rules his homeland.

He is convinced that if we continue to give in to the communists in the way that we have done for the past 40 years, then "the very concept of the West will vanish from the earth."

Solzhenitsyn was in Washington where he delivered an address before an American labor banquet. His summation of the world situation was grim. He said, "The situation in the world isn't just dire, not just threatening, it is catastrophic."

His remarks were treated lightly by government officials, the Washington Post, and other newspapers. The Post admitted he had a "consuming obsession with the destiny of his own people."

The U. S. Press Association, in an editorial, asks, "Is no one listening?" The man is talking about no less than that of our own fate as well as the fate of his people. He sounds like he knows whereof he speaks and it would be well for this country to heed what he has to say.

This country apparently cannot rely on the promises of the Soviet Union, who never carry out any agreement it has reached with the United States. His remarks, which appeared in the U. S. News and World Report, may later appear in the Readers' Digest, making it available to millions of readers. Don't miss the opportunity to read it.

County Teachers Seeking Full Salary Raise

A delegation of 52 teachers showed up at last Thursday afternoon's meeting of the Board of Education to ask that the teachers' proposed pay increase be fully funded.

Mrs. Judy France, chief negotiator for the County Teacher association, said the group went before the board in a show of support but not in a hostile fashion.

The board and teachers had previously agreed to a salary increase of 9.4 percent. However, because of a budget cut by the County Commissioners and reduced state aid the board had said it would not be able to grant that amount.

Herbert Harman, president of the Board of Education, said it appeared the board would be able to finance only 80 percent of the increase. He added that the board intended to grant all fringe benefits on which the board and teachers had agreed.

Mrs. France said teachers were not threatening any strike action and that negotiation teams for both sides were working closely.

Mr. Harman said the board was sympathetic with the teacher plight but has only so much money for its new

Divers Recover Drowning Victim From Savage Dam

The body of Dennis Edward Franklin, 21, Landover Hills, was recovered by divers Sunday afternoon about 3:10 p.m. from the Savage River dam after the young man drowned about 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Dr. James H. Feaster, Garrett County medical examiner, listed the cause of death of accidental asphyxiation.

Recovering the body were members of the South Cumberland Water Rescue and Recovery Squad. Scuba divers were F. C. (Spotty) Keyser, Dick Myers and Bob Young.

State Police said young Franklin had been in a group which had been camping in the Savage River area. He apparently attempted to swim from the west side to the east side of the dam to a rock ledge. He began waving his arms, indicating he was in trouble, about halfway across the 200-yard area. Gary Tinsley, Westernport, who was swimming with the victim, attempted to save him but was tired from the long swim and had to stop his attempt and return to shore for his own safety.

Junior Saville, president of the water rescue squad, said Franklin was in about 55 feet of water approximately 50 yards from the shore.

Rescue squad divers joined in the search about 10:30 Sunday, diving in depths over 100 feet at times. The squad had responded late Saturday night with lighting and boats after receiving a request from State police.

Mr. Franklin was a construction worker for the National Construction Company, Alexandria, Va., a firm which manufactures swimming pools.

He was a son of Robert S. and Nancy (Patterson) Franklin. The body was returned Monday to the Francis Gasch and Sons Funeral Home, Hyattsville.

Divers Recover Drowning Victim From Savage Dam

The body of Dennis Edward Franklin, 21, Landover Hills, was recovered by divers Sunday afternoon about 3:10 p.m. from the Savage River dam after the young man drowned about 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Dr. James H. Feaster, Garrett County medical examiner, listed the cause of death of accidental asphyxiation.

Recovering the body were members of the South Cumberland Water Rescue and Recovery Squad. Scuba divers were F. C. (Spotty) Keyser, Dick Myers and Bob Young.

State Police said young Franklin had been in a group which had been camping in the Savage River area. He apparently attempted to swim from the west side to the east side of the dam to a rock ledge. He began waving his arms, indicating he was in trouble, about halfway across the 200-yard area. Gary Tinsley, Westernport, who was swimming with the victim, attempted to save him but was tired from the long swim and had to stop his attempt and return to shore for his own safety.

Junior Saville, president of the water rescue squad, said Franklin was in about 55 feet of water approximately 50 yards from the shore.

Rescue squad divers joined in the search about 10:30 Sunday, diving in depths over 100 feet at times. The squad had responded late Saturday night with lighting and boats after receiving a request from State police.

Mr. Franklin was a construction worker for the National Construction Company, Alexandria, Va., a firm which manufactures swimming pools.

He was a son of Robert S. and Nancy (Patterson) Franklin. The body was returned Monday to the Francis Gasch and Sons Funeral Home, Hyattsville.

Others assisting in the recovery effort were the Bowling Green and Cresaptown volunteer fire companies, Maryland Department of Natural Resources, state police and Tri-Towns Rescue Squad.

A DEDICATION
To
CHESTON H. BROWNING

Never to be forgotten because he was loved by so many.

From the Employees
Browning's Foodland

Cheston Browning was quite a man.
He was always ready to lend a hand.
He was always one to care,
And what he had he would share.
He was always there to talk to,
And if he could he'd help you.
In hard times he stood strong.
If only his life could have been long.
But there's no doubt where he went,
Or in our hearts what he meant.
We'll always remember him as a friend;
And maybe we'll all see him in the end.

history of Oakland lodge as compiled by Harold H. Harned.

Serving on the Temple building committee are Robert T. Hoffman, Reaford Purbaugh, Fred A. Thayer and Ward L. Ashby, Oakland past masters, and A. Wayne Reed, Westernport, a past grand master.

Grand lodge officers applied the square, level and plumb to the stone and they reported the stone was well-formed, true and trusty. Officials also deposited corn, wine and oil, emblematical of plenty, health and peace. The stone was lowered into place at the appropriate moment by the contractor, and the ceremonies were concluded with prayer, following which the craft retired in procession to the lodge room where the Grand Lodge of Maryland was officially closed.

There was a reception for masons, their wives and friends in the fellowship hall of St. Paul's United Methodist church. A dinner followed in Terra Alta for members of the grand lodge and a number of members of Oakland lodge.

Old Coin Display To Be At First National

People who haven't had a face-to-face meeting with a "Fugio" cent, the first authorized U.S. coin, or a Jackson "Hard Times" coin will have a chance to see some next week, beginning Monday, July 21, at the main office of The First National Bank of Oakland. The coin exhibit is the last in a series of three money displays to be shown as a part of the Bank's 75th anniversary year. This display, along with the two previous ones, were obtained from the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

The first panel of the coin display includes types of coins which circulated during the American Colonial period and early days of independence. There are 76 in all, ranging from the 1722 wood's coinage farthing and halfpenny through the Civil War tokens of 1864. The first U.S. pattern coin, the "Nova Constellatio", is shown in this panel, along with the "Fugio", first authorized U.S. coin.

Probably the most unusual coin in the display is the "Trade Dollar". Originally issued for circulation in the Orient to compete with the Mexican Peso, the trade dollar was demonetized by Congress in 1887. Many of them still circulate in the Orient, however.

Other coins on the display include various types of American coins, gold issues, double eagles, commemorative issues and U.S. silver commemorative issues. The display also illustrates the step by step procedure used in minting coins.

According to I. Lynn Beckman, public relations officer, the public is invited to stop during regular banking hours to view this display. It will be shown from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday evening. It will be in the bank for one week only.

League Discusses Open Space Education Report

Discussion of a concensus report on the League of Women Voters' preliminary planning and evaluation of open space education in this county was held at a meeting of the board of Education on July 10, and according to Dr. William H. Buser, county superintendent, considerable time was spent on that item.

He said nine major recommendations were viewed with the board by Mrs. Dorothy Leighton, president; Mrs. Sara Ramsey and Mrs. Dayle Dabney.

A major emphasis in respect to the recommendations dealt with adequate in-service and preparation of teachers and other personnel who would be working in schools following an open education program. The League stated they recognized that much planning had taken place, but they urged additional efforts, some of which were not cost items and some of which meant requesting additional expenditures of funds.

Board President, thanked the League for its presentation, assured them their ideas would be considered, and reviewed some points in the recommendations in which the staff was currently involved in implementing.

Dr. Buser made available to all persons present a timetable of activities and decisions relative to the opening of the Broad Ford and Southern Middle schools. Both the superintendent and Board President expressed concern that adequate funding would be available to open these two schools and pledged their support for insuring the programs in the schools were based on sound educational principles.

Board Hears Reports

In other action, the Board of Education received reports from several committees that have been functioning in recent months. The reports covered the topics of media selection, elementary and high school reporting procedures, and program cooperation between the Garrett Community College and the high schools. They were also brought up to date on the progress of the health advisory committee and the health curriculum committee that functioned this summer.

Vehicle insurance for the next year was awarded to the Yoder-Hershberger Agency, representing the Erie Insurance Exchange, and the oil bid for the next year was awarded to the Oakland Oil Company.

Reporting Practices Improvement

At last week's meeting of the Board of Education, Albert R. Ringer, Assistant Superintendent in Curriculum and Instruction, reviewed with the Board activities that involved the staff and teachers in workshop and in-service experience.

After considerable discussion the Board approved the implementation of the new reporting system piloted during the 1975-76 school year in the elementary schools of the county. It also agreed that following staff meetings with high school teachers for their understanding and support a new high school reporting system be piloted during the 1975-76 school year. Both systems as implemented will be subjected to an evaluation at the end of the year based on their effectiveness as seen by students, teachers and parents. Dr. Buser indicated that both reporting systems are designed to strengthen the communications between the school and the parents relative to progress being made in educational programs.

Tables Report

In other action the Board decided to table a report presented on the selection of media materials for the libraries in the schools of the county, but they do expect to take action on this at the August meeting.

Relating to transportation, the Board received a letter from Dr. James A. Sensenbaugh, State Superintendent of Schools, which indicated that as of June 27, there would be less funds available to Garrett County for providing student transportation during the 1975-76 school year. The Board requested the superintendent, William Watson, Supervisor of Transportation, and Robert Diehl, member of the State Task Force on Transportation, to do all possible to see that Garrett County is not adversely affected in its efforts to provide transportation for our school students.

Insurance FACTS
The loss of any member of the family is almost always followed by inescapable debts — doctor bills, hospital bills, funeral expenses, unpaid taxes and any other outstanding obligations. These must be met immediately. Unless they can be met from savings or from current income of a life insurance policy covering these items on every member of the family is actually indispensable. Insurance is always advisable for the breadwinner of the family, since the loss of the head of the family cuts off the flow of family income.
Discuss your life insurance needs with our experienced personnel at GONDER INSURANCE AGENCY, 203-205 South 2nd St., 334-3343. We offer protection plus service at all times, never any high pressure tactics whatsoever. We are a full service agency, handling all types of insurance. Call us any time for information — we're here to serve you!
Hint For The Week: To keep plants fresh while you are away, stand them on bricks covered with water in your bathtub. The bricks will absorb enough water to keep most plants moist.

Commissioners Seek Review Of Departments

In an effort to reduce duplication of county services, the County Commissioners took action Monday directing several department heads to come before the Board on Monday, July 28, to review their programs.

The commissioners, in formal notification, requested representatives of nine county agencies or local corporations to outline programs within their departments which may affect another county agency or department.

Agencies involved are the Health Department, Board of Education, Social Services, Extension Service, Child Development, Garrett Bus System, and Housing. The two corporations requested to attend are the Commission on Aging and Community Action Committee.

The commissioners cited certain programs with health components which may duplicate services already provided by the Health Department, they said and indicated all programs would be reviewed to eliminate duplication.

Commissioners noted that many agencies seek grants for programs which eventually need a local share and the county is asked to pay for it. They further pointed out that once programs get public acceptance, it is difficult to stop them.

The effort was brought about as a result of tight fiscal constraints put on the county during the budgeting for fiscal 1976. "The aim of spending tax dollars," the commissioners said, "is to provide the maximum service for the least possible cost. When two agencies try to provide the same service, we have the responsibility to avoid asking the public to pay for it twice."

In other action the representatives of the League of Women Voters met to explain their study on open education. The league had previously made a presentation to the Board of Education on their recommendations. Primary concern of the league is to assure smooth opening of the schools currently under construction, by providing for proper training for the educators entering the new schools.

Representatives of the Community Action committee, in its third attempt to acquire more local money, met with the commissioners to request an additional $18,000 over and above the $10,000 budgeted for CAC in the budget program.

The commissioners cited a memo that was distributed among recipients of county funds stating that no supplemental requests would be honored as their reason for denying the additional request.

Garrett County Fair

The Garrett County Fair is just around the corner and we need to make plans.

The first week in Garrett County is a very exciting time. This is the time when Agriculture and Business men and women work together to make a fine Agricultural Fair.

If you haven't entered an exhibit in the fair, plan to do so this year. Even if you don't receive a ribbon, you will be proud to compare your article to others entered. This is what makes our fair important, the quality of the exhibits.

With canning lids hard to get, we must remember that we can enter canned goods that were canned in "74".

There will be a change in the number of cookies and pieces of candy to enter. Since sugar is high in cost, we will accept 6 pieces of candy and 6 cookies per exhibit - instead of 9.

One correction in the baked foods department will be - all baked foods will be cut in judging.

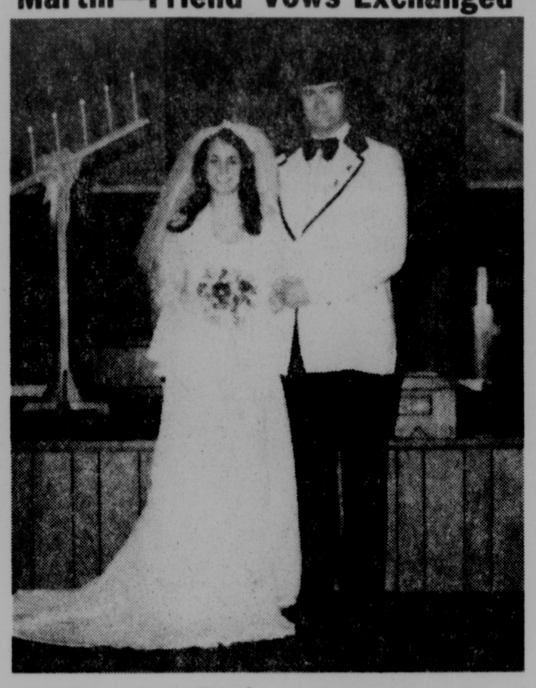
Martin—Friend Vows Exchanged



Miss Francis Louise Friend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Friend of Friendsville, became the bride of David Kent Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delano Martin, Oakland, Md. on Saturday, June 14.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverends Robert Miller and Paul Poland in the Crellin Assembly of God church. Organist, Clifford DeWitt accompanied vocalists Mrs. Linda DeWitt, who sang "Each For the Other", and Robert DeWitt, who sang "The Lord's Prayer". Ms. Jeanne Frantz, pianist, played a selection of wedding music prior to the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of silk organza with a fitted bodice and a horseshoe neckline. Cardinal sleeves were enhanced with Venice trim. The soft A-line skirt was trimmed with lace motifs and flowed into an attached Cathedral train bordered with Venice lace. The matching Camelot headdress trimmed with lace was attached to a fingertip veil of double silk nylon illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies accented by painted daisies, stephanotis and baby's breath. Her only jewelry was a single pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

Miss Linda Friend, sister of the bride served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rita Savage, Miss Carol Gibson, Mrs. Rebecca Glotfelty, Miss Linda Martin. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Tawney Cowan, niece of the bride. Adrienne Cowan, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. All the brides attendants wore floor length gowns of lavendar floral print with ruffled V necklines. They carried arm bouquets of lavender painted daisies and baby's breath. Lavender picture hats completed the outfits.

Philip Martin, Oakland, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Michael Wolf, Dennis Gibson, Tom Bosley and Michael Colaw. Dale Evans, Jr., nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Mother of the bride wore a floor length mint green dress accented by a white daisy corsage. The groom's mother wore a floor length beige and green dress also accented by a white daisy corsage.

Registering guests was Miss Donna Dunithan.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. Emily Nieman, Mrs. Donna Britton, Mrs. Ocie Rush, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Loretta Sines, Mrs. Marie Skipper, and Mrs. Wanda Steiding, aunts of the groom, assisted with serving the guests and cutting the cake.

For a trip to Canada the bride wore a long blue floral dress with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Northern High School, Accident, and is employed by the Garrett National Bank in Oakland. Mr. Martin is a graduate of Southern High School, Oakland, and Garrett Community College, McHenry. He is employed by Cumberland Paint & Glass, Oakland.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and South Carolina.

Three miscellaneous showers were given the bride. They were also entertained with a rehearsal party given by the bridegroom's parents at their home.

The couple resides at North Fourth Street, Oakland.

O'Reilly pitched a one-hit shutout in the second game. He yielded a triple to Bob Ingram who ruined a perfect game of four and one-third innings. Oakland's only other base runner was Brady who struck out and reached base on an error.

He is a mighty small man—almost too small to leave his footprints in the sand. But he is starting out on his own. He is exploring, seeking, learning. Where will his footsteps ultimately lead him?

There are so many courses a child may take—so many that a person of any age can follow. But it is never too late to change direction, even if it seems as if a dead end has been reached. The beauty of life is that the word itself is synonomous with hope.

If the direction your footsteps have been taking you is disappointing, then turn toward the Church. Remember, the Church has survived for centuries against odds that would have annihilated a lesser force. That in itself is reason enough to give it a chance—to see what it has to offer.

We Welcome Prescriptions Requiring Compounding

Most prescriptions are now pre-compounded and our problems are chiefly to have them in stock, check their dosage and make certain we dispense exactly what is prescribed.

But, many physicians still prescribe their own specific formulaes and pharmaceutical skill is required to prepare such lotions, ointments, capsules, pills, suppositories, etc.

We will appreciate the opportunity of compounding these more difficult prescriptions that require more time and technical ability.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

WHEN THE GOING IS HARD

Lesson for July 20, 1975

Background Scripture: John 16:12-15; Romans 8:26,27; Galatians 5:16-26
Devotional Reading: I Corinthians 2:6-16

A woman went to a psychiatrist because she felt she was suffering from an inferiority complex. After examining her, the psychiatrist said, "Madam, I find that you do not have an inferiority complex; you are simply inferior!"

Rev. Althouse

To some degree, this is true of all of us. We feel inadequate in the face of some trial and, in fact, we are inadequate! We find that we are not strong enough or patient enough. The challenge is too great for us.

He is able!

Yet, although we can acknowledge our own personal inadequacy, we still have not called upon all our resources. There is still the power of God by which we become more than adequate for the challenge before us. As Paul says it, "I can do all things in him who strengthens me" (Philippians 4:13).

Note that Paul does not say that he can "do all things" by himself, but only "in him who strengthens me." Abraham Lincoln said much the same thing when, as President-Elect, he said goodbye to his neighbors in Springfield, Illinois, and left for Washington: "Without the assistance of that Divine Being, I cannot succeed. With that assistance, I cannot fail."

Yes, let sickness come, let trouble surround me, let sorrow enter my life, let tragedy strike me, let friends and loved ones fail me, let enemies threaten me—and I am not able! But God is! By his power, I can see through whatever life may send me.

This was Paul's experience. In writing the church at Corinth (where he probably had more trouble than any other single place), he sets forth the record of God's adequacy:

We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.....(2 Corinthians 4:8,9)

Enlarging the end result

John Ellis Large, who used to be the Pastor of the Church of the Heavenly Rest in New York City, was once asked to read the Christmas story from the Bible on a major network television show. During the rehersal, Dr. Large was asked to do his reading. Accustomed to speaking in a very large cathedral-like church, Dr. Large read the story in his normal preaching voice, which was quite loud. Also, accustomed to having his pulpit almost a full city block from those seated in the last pew, his gestures were somewhat exaggerated.

Thus, while he was in the midst of his reading, he heard the director's voice break in: "Pardon my breaking in on you, Dr. Large, but you don't have to strain your vocal chords. Your unaided voice doesn't have to reach from Manhattan to Los Angeles, nor is it necessary for you to gesture in so exaggerated a fashion." He paused, then added: "You see, the Director is completely equipped to magnify both your words and your actions as needed. If you will just quietly communicate, I'll take care of enlarging the end result."

Dr. Large said that these words not only helped him with the television program, but also in life as well. Too often he had tried to meet challenges by himself. He needed to be reminded that when the going gets hard, God can magnify our resources and by his power enlarge the end result.

BACK TO BIBLE NAMES

Names mean something. They indicate an object, place or person. We attach great importance to names. Everyone who wants to be correct strives to use the right names for the right things. In the Bible the Lord called the church and the individual follower of His by the right term. The right use of those terms was lost during the dark ages, but we can regain their right use today.

Christ used His name generously in the New Testament. It was used for local congregations (Rom. 16:16), and it was worn by individuals (Acts 11:26).

The church as a whole was spoken of in terms that show its relationship to God and Christ. Most often it is simply "the church", which means an assembly.

The church was referred to as "the church of God" (I Tim. 3:15), or the "church of the first-born" (Heb. 12:23), who was Christ. All of these terms denote ownership. It is called either the church of God or the church of Christ because what belonged to one belonged to both. (John 17:10).

Individual followers of the Lord were referred to by a number of names. The one proper noun used was Christian (Acts 11:26). Other terms applied to the followers are brethren (Gal. 6:1), priests (I Pet. 2:5, 9), saints (I Cor. 6:11), believers (Acts 5:14). No name used by early Christians ever set some of the followers apart from others as though they were members of a different body.

Some churches identify themselves by the name of a reformer, type of church government, manner of work or ordinance of the Lord such as baptism. Some have even tried to get close to the names used in the Bible. But to call an unscriptural organization by a Bible name does not make the unscriptural organization scriptural anymore than calling a man a Christian makes him such when he has never obeyed the Gospel.

Christ put His own name, the highest earth will ever hear, on the church as a whole, and the individual. Let us use His name for His church and His people. It is necessary to do this, because it is the only name with salvation (Acts 4:12), and only in this name can we assemble with His presence, (Matt. 18:20).

Firemen Answer Two False Alarms

Oakland firemen were plagued during the week with two false alarms.

A call was received last Friday afternoon stating there was a fire on F street in Mt. Lake Park. Another call came Monday evening stating there was a fire at the Garlick apartment at Bradley Manor.

Both were false.

Country Belle Dairy Cooperative Closes

Country Belle Dairy Cooperative, which served six western Pennsylvania counties as well as Garrett and Allegany county supermarket chains, has succumbed to financial troubles and gone out of business.

The co-op delivered its last batch of milk Thursday after the Baltimore Bank of Cooperatives attached the dairy's bank accounts and assets in an effort to collect a $1.4 million debt.

Aside from the amount owed the bank, Country Belle president Clyde Robison said the dairy has other outstanding debts although he did not know how much they were. "Our board realized the situation was not good, but we did not realize it was coming this fast," said Robison.

The shutdown idles about 230 persons who worked at the co-op's processing plant in Pittsburgh and distribution and ice cream facilities in Uniontown. The co-op also owns a cheese factory in Grantsville but that has not been in operation recently.

The farmers who supplied Country Belle are in Allegheny, Washington, Fayette, Butler, Mercer and Crawford counties. The dairy's major customers were the A&P, Giant Eagle and Acme supermarket chains as well as a number of independent grocers. The close down will not have any adverse affect on the large supermarkets as they also handle other dairy firms products.

C. J. Milroth, executive director of the Greater Pittsburgh Dairy Industry Association, predicted that the dairy's closing would cause only minor supply problems for the stores, saying that very soon those outlets served by Country Belle would have found other suppliers.

The farm milk that Country Belle had on hand will be transferred to Milk, Inc., another cooperative. But what some of the farmers who were Country Belle members will do now is uncertain.

The co-op ran into financial problems last spring when it found it was unable to pay its members $1 million for milk supplied in April.

Country Belle blamed the cash shortage on the Allentown-based Lehigh Valley Dairy Cooperative, which was handling Country Belle's books under a management contract.

President Robison said "They drained every dollar out of us. It added up to about $3 million in the period from 1971 to 1974," adding that a suit against Lehigh Valley is in the making, but not processed yet.

The relationship was broken after the shortage was found and Country Belle unsuccessfully tried to get a loan to pay off its 215 members. Since then, about half the farmers quit the co-op and the organization struggled on for another year.

Reunions Set

Dates of two reunions were scheduled this week.

The Seventh annual Bolyard reunion will be held on Sunday, July 20, at the Pleasant Valley church on the Kanetown Road, in Tunnelton, W. Va. Friends and relatives are invited.

The Sliger reunion will be held this year at the Old Evans farm in the grove near Hawkinson Tire and Recap station, route 219, north of Oakland, on Sunday, July 27, it was announced by Delmar Sliger, secretary and treasurer.

A reception followed at the home of the groom's parents, Mrs. James Vitez and Mrs. Lee Tacket helped prepare and serve refreshments. Mrs. Janet McCoy, sister of the groom, served the punch. Mrs. Patsy Wakefield and Mrs. Shirley Frantz cut and served the wedding cake.

The bride is a graduate of Northern High School and is employed by the American Railroad Association in Washington, D.C. The groom is a graduate of Northern High School and is employed in Virginia. The couple will reside in Alexandria, Va.

He worked for the Oakland City Police for approximately two and one-half years full and part-time and also established his own carpet cleaning business in 1971.

While a police officer for Oakland, Deputy Finch was presented the Oakland Optimist Club law enforcement award for distinguished and dedicated service, in 1971.

In December 1974 he returned to the sheriff's department under Sheriff Evans as chief deputy.

Deputy Finch was married August 8, 1970 to Rosalee Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pratt, Kitzmiller. They live in Mt. Lake with their three-year-old daughter Rebecca. Mrs. Finch is an x-ray technician at Garrett County Memorial Hospital.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Walter L. Kamp, who passed away July 22, 1968.

We do not need this special day
To bring you to our minds,
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find;
They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget,
But time so far has only proved
How much we miss you yet.
The Golden Gates stood open,
God saw you needed rest,
His garden must be beautiful
For He always picks the best.

Woman Files Suit

Nellie Catherine Hetz, Route 1, Lonaconing, has filed a suit for damages in Allegany County Circuit Court against James W. Kidwell, Route 1, Fort Ashby.

The suit stems from an automobile accident last October 25 about 4:15 p.m. The plaintiff stated that she was traveling east on Route 40 in the vicinity of Route 40 School in Garrett County and slackened her speed because of traffic ahead.

She contends that her car was struck from the rear by the defendant's car and she sustained injuries to her neck and cervical spine.

What is the biggest annual water racing event in the country in terms of mass competition? An inner tube race. Air is pumped into hundreds of automobile inner tubes, and they are mounted in the Colorado River at Yuma, Arizona, where they are put afloat by some fifteen hundred racers, in an eight mile river run for the inner tube racing championship of the world. The race started in 1967 with seventy six competitors. But it soon attracted news photographers, television cameras, and entries by the thousands.

Cheerleaders At National Camp

Varsity and junior high cheerleaders of Southern High school, Oakland, attended a national cheerleaders association camp in Duquesne, Pa., July 7 through July 10.

Attending were Dawn Tichnell, Karen Eddy, Ronni Domenick, Brenda Scott, Kim Skipper and Susie Shaffer, from the Varsity squad; Carol Corliss, Marlene Griffith, Becky Morris, Cathy Graham, Colleen Eddy and Sherri Gatian, from the Junior high squad.

The Varsity squad and their advisor, Mrs. Donna Durst, returned home with the "Spirit Stick", which was awarded to them every day, a red, white and blue stick given to the squad whom the NCA staff felt showed "outstanding spirit and pep." During evaluations held each day these six girls captured three superior ribbons and one outstanding ribbon.

The Junior High squad also received the "Spirit Stick" twice and brought it home for the showcase. This is the first time the junior high squad from Southern has won this award. They had two superior and two excellent ribbons.

Girls learned some four cheers each day along with pom pom routines, double stunts, tumbling, crowd psychology, chants and various cheering styles and techniques. They also learned spirit and money raising and pep assembly ideas.

Both squads participated in a talent and skit show, performing chants. A fashion show gave ideas for uniforms for next football and basketball seasons.

First off, solid cedar is beautiful, right? If you agree, that shows you've got good taste. And, that's what we make—pre-cut homes out of Western red cedar. Beautiful. Now, picture this: neighbors out painting and fixing up while you're sitting in your Justus solid cedar home relaxing. That's another beauty of building with Justus. The Justus Company. Better buildings. By design. Look into it at our nearby display village.

Prayer Is "In" Today

His hands were lifted high towards the sky, His eyes were closed but his face, peaceful and almost angelic, was slightly raised as if he were gazing upon heavenly secrets. Occasionally, he would mutter a soft "Praise the Lord." About the encircled chairs others were enveloped in the same mood. Though different in their personalities and temperaments, though expressing different thoughts, though even of different religious persuasions, they were united in the spirit of prayer and in the Spirit.

It was about seventy-five years ago that a religious revival spread across our nation among scattered groups. They were seeking a new Pentecost. But these men and women were looked down on, avoided and even condemned. This new type of behaviour was unacceptable. And so they were isolated from their traditional religious heritages.

It was just about ten years ago that another era of the Spirit grew among the People of God in their hunger and thirst for more spiritual food and drink. "Come, whoever is thirsty; accept the water of life as a gift, whoever wants it." (Rev. 22:17) Now, however, the division present in the past was absent. In fact these new prayer groups often have an inter-faith flavor. Several years ago a Lutheran pastor and I were invited by a Methodist minister to go with him to a Presbyterian church for just such a prayer meeting. Others there were also of many religious faiths. We shared our Christian lives in Christian prayer in the Christian spirit. "The Spirit's presence is shown in some way in each one, for the good of all." (I Cor. 12:7).

It is about time that we awake to the fact that people want prayer. They desire to get together, witness to their gift from God and share it for the common good of the Christian community. For this we indeed praise and thank the Lord.

Rev. Martin E. Feild
Pastor, St. Peter's
Catholic Church,
Oakland
